B. Modifications to the Broadcast Schedule may be made and approved by the vote of a majority of the members of the Committee, subject to the approval of PBOE.

C. At the sole editorial discretion of PHS, the portion of the Broadcast Schedule assigned to Rutgers for a calendar week may be modified to allow coverage of PHS events or special programs. When feasible, PHS shall provide notice of the modification of the Broadcast Schedule at least seven calendar days prior to the date of the event for which the modification is requested; provided, however, that Rutgers shall yield the requested time regardless of whether notice has been given. To the extent that it is possible to do so, PHS shall provide Rutgers with a list of dates within the first month of each semester on which it expects to broadcast special programming.

D. Neither party may request a permanent modification to the Broadcast Schedule for the purpose of broadcasting non-local (syndicated), third-party, or pre-recorded programming. Either party may use such programming within the portion of the Broadcast Schedule assigned to it.

E. Each party shall provide the other with a copy of its annual vacation, testing or other break schedules prior to the beginning of each academic term, in order to ensure that no portion of the Broadcast Schedule is unused.

F. Each party shall make reasonable best efforts to accommodate the scheduling needs of the other, it being understood and acknowledged by the parties that the programming needs of PHS shall be given priority in determining the Broadcast Schedule and in making any modifications thereto. In determining the Broadcast Schedule, the parties shall take into consideration differences between the start and end dates of the parties' respective academic terms, and for vacation and break periods.

G. The Committee shall work to determine issues of concern to the community on a quarterly basis in order to produce long-form Community Affairs Programming responsive to those concerns. Subsequently, each party shall coordinate efforts to share the burden of producing the FCC-mandated quantity of Community Affairs programming per quarter. Each party shall write
