Kim Bowman- Posada

Posada's mission is to provide housing and supportive services that empower homeless families in Pueblo County to become self-supporting members of the community. <https://posadapueblo.org/>

Dereck Wilson- Silver Key

Silver Key Extension Services launched more locations! Silver Key received $101,000 from El Paso County (CDBG grant) to EXPAND AND EXTEND the current CDBG-CV Nutrition grant for home-delivered meals to better serve rural El Paso County senior residents living near the communities of Falcon, Peyton, and Calhan. In a new and unique partnership with the Pikes Peak Library District, Silver Key will be establishing two "pop up" service extension sites in both communities, starting with one day a week each, to provide a unique hybrid blend of in-person Silver Key "consultation" services PLUS a five-pack of Silver Key's senior-specific nutritious chef-created frozen meals for take-home enjoyment. Grab N' Go sites require 1 week prior reservations which can be completed below online, or by calling our Silver Line at 719-884-2300. <https://www.silverkey.org/services/calhan/>

Samantha Briggs- Widefield School District 3

Widefield School District 3 (WSD3) is a vibrant community tucked away in the southeast side of Colorado Springs. The climate and culture gives a comforting small-town feel in a big city environment. Widefield is a place you come to learn, live, and play! WSD3 is now enrolling new students! Click here for more info: <https://www.wsd3.org/>

Lisa Hatfield- Author, To Starve an Ember

Lisa is an idealist and a risk-reduction evangelist, sharing emergency preparedness ideas with her community so people will be ready for disasters and be able to help themselves and others in the middle of chaos. Wildfire is unavoidable, and we have 45 million homes in the U.S. nestled in among the trees and grassland. More homes and lives could be saved if residents learned to play by wildfire's rules. Lisa has been teaching about wildfire risk reduction and defensible space since the 2012 Waldo Canyon, and now she wrote a novel, To Starve an Ember, to share the facts about preparing for wildfire in an engaging way. <https://lisahatfieldwriter.com/to-starve-an-ember/>

1/8-1/9

Deborah L. Hendrix- Parents Challenge

Parents Challenge is a 21-year non-profit organization that provides mentoring and financial support to low-income families around their educational choice... be it traditional public, charter public, private, or home school. January 22nd for the National School Choice Event! <https://parentschallenge.org/>

Nathan Newbrough- Colorado Springs Philharmonics

The Colorado Springs Philharmonic is an independent symphony orchestra whose mission is to offer brilliant musical performances and in-person experiences that draw families, friends, and loved ones together. They honor the rich traditions upon which our art was founded and work tirelessly to see it continues to hold a prominent place in the future of the community. We have great reverence for what we do, and great esteem for all who love and support it—most especially the everyday enthusiast who enjoys music for its own sake. <https://csphilharmonic.org/>

Teddi Domann- Pro Football Camp

Pro Football Camp was founded in 2006 by four people who wanted to give back to the Colorado Springs community. Utilizing the gifts and talents given to them by God, they launched a youth football camp featuring current and former NFL athletes as the coaches and local coaches supporting them in teaching proper football skills. In addition, the NFL athletes share their journeys and the character that it takes to play at the highest level. Finally, foundational to the camp is the scholarship program. Pro Football Camp and our partners are committed to admitting every kid who wants to attend the camp. Thus, no kid is left behind. <https://profootballcamp.com/>

Sandy Halby- PILLAR Institute for Lifelong Learning

PILLAR Institute for Lifelong Learning is the only independent lifelong learning institute in the Pikes Peak region and throughout southern Colorado. It is a volunteer-driven membership organization that is open to all adults. PILLAR produces liberal arts and science opportunities for those young at heart. For 23 years, PILLAR has created opportunities where older adults can come to socialize, volunteer, and keep their brains active through curiosity and learning.

Laura Parker- The Exodus Road

The Exodus Road began through the journey and work of co-founders Laura and Matt Parker. Moving to SE Asia with their family in April 2010, Matt and Laura initially directed a children's home for hill-tribe girls in rural Northern Thailand. During that time, Matt and Laura were exposed to marginalized people groups – targets for human trafficking. Eventually, Matt began networking with NGOs and local police to learn about the problem at the ground level. He was deputized by police and started working personally to find those trapped in slavery as an undercover investigator. <https://theexodusroad.com/>

Dana Schield- Colorado Springs Airport

There are two major airports in Colorado. Fly COS is the small one. This might seem like a funny thing to embrace. But it's true, and it means several big benefits for all the passengers. Flying a small airport means small lines, small waits and small walks. It means a low stress place to start and finish your travels. Go fly with the Colorado Springs Airport and enjoy Colorado's small airport. www.flycos.com
