---------- Locally-produced programs ----------
---------- which discuss issues ----------

2018 - Quarter 4

Broken Record Radio Show (BRRS) (English), Monday 9 pm – 11 pm
The Broken Record Radio Show is a weekly 2-hour radio talk show about politics and current events.

Caminos Indígenas (Spanish), Sunday 2 pm – 4 pm
This program focuses on informing immigrant farmers and farm workers about labor rights, housing, education, immigration, health , etc., combined with the culture, music and poetry of Oaxaca, Guerrero, Maya, and Yucatan.

Caminos Músicales (Spanish), Thursday, 9-11 pm
Share music of the coast of Oaxaca and Guerrero. At the same time, present local information of the Latino community of the county.

Compartiendo y Aprendiendo (Spanish), Friday 4 pm – 6 pm
Compartiendo y Aprendiendo is a live, two-hour Spanish language original public affairs program that airs weekly and discusses local, national and international news items. The purpose of the program is to inform and inspire Latina housewives to help them get involved in their community.

Un Dia Mas (Spanish), Sunday 6-8 am
The focus of this program is trios songs. I also like to talk about other issues for example: natural medicine, natural juices for health and other issues.

Duke and Banner (English), Friday 10 pm – 1 am
News headlines and commentary.

Un Hombre Nuevo (Spanish), Monday 7-9 pm
The idea of this program is a review of men's personal development in spiritual and ecological terms. The goal, a life of peace and interpersonal understanding and with respect for others.

Informe KBBF (Spanish), Friday 6–8 pm
Informe KBBF is a live, two-hour Spanish language original public affairs program that airs weekly and discusses local, national and international news items. Informe also features interviews with experts as well as audience participation via call-ins.

Lideres del Futuro (Bilingual), Thursday 5 - 7 pm
This program focuses on education, immigration, politics, mental health and how these issues affect our community. The guests for the show include local and national organizations and authors.

Mañanitas Campiranas (Spanish), Thursday and Friday, 6 - 8 am
Music and discussion of social issues such as alcoholism, domestic violence, etc.
and other information especially for the field workers.

Nuestra Tierra (Spanish), Monday 9 am - 10 am
Nuestra Tierra/Our Earth is a one-hour radio show that serves as a resource hub that provides a voice for different environmental topics to educate and inform the Spanish-language audience in Sonoma County and surrounding areas where KBBF's signal is broadcast. This show provides the opportunity to highlight the services and availability of resources from multiple agencies in the same region; which include water agencies, waste management agencies, sanitation districts, storm water programs. Overall, these agencies play a big part in keeping our local environment, clean, sustainable, and safe.
The program also provides answers to questions that listeners might have, but that for some reason are afraid to ask. In the process, the program also clarifies and dissipates any misunderstandings that the listeners might have. It also provides the listeners with a topic of conversation that they could use at home, work and basically anywhere.

Planeando Hoy su Mañana (Spanish), Wednesday 6-7 pm
Information about personal finance, including such topics as saving, retirement, banking, investing, credit, insurance, financial security, and how to maintain financial independence.

Punto de Vista (Spanish), Tuesday 8 – 10 pm
This show began in 2005 under the name “Entre Amigos”, later changed to “Amigos en Linea”, and from 2012 it changed to the concept as it is today. The focus is a Saturday magazine with news summaries, ecology topics, history, technology, motivation. At the same time it includes interviews and selected music.

Roseland Report (Bilingual), Wednesday 4 -6 pm
News and interviews from the local Latino community.

Speaking of Palestine (English), 1st Monday of each month, 4-5 pm
Gives updates of what is going on in Palestine.

Sé la Mejor Versión de Ti (Spanish), Tuesday 6-7 pm
A program designed to cover problems and situations of daily life, in which Psychologist Juan Jose Sanchez Sandoval contributes his professional experience.

Vida Saludable (Spanish), Friday 9-9:30 am
Talk

Voces de Mujeres (Bilingual), Saturday 1 -2 pm
The program focuses on social, cultural, and political issues that confront women today. Through a variety of interviews, the hosts Maria Mendoza and Amalia Contardi present a cutting edge program with information and education from a female perspective. The public is encouraged to phone in with their comments.

La Voz Chicana (Bilingual), Saturday 11 am - 1 pm
Talk/Music
Information about education, culture, immigration, and community affairs.

Women's Spaces (English), Monday 11 am - 12 pm Repeated Monday 11 pm - 12 am
This show is dedicated to and conducts interviews with ordinary women doing extraordinary things. Elaine first produced the show in 1978 on KBBF FM in Santa Rosa, the nation's first bilingual radio station, and it lasted until 1981. In 2007 Elaine and her partner Kenneth Norton resurrected the show for TV with her first TV broadcast on Santa Rosa Community station through Comcast Cable Access. In December 2011 she produced her 200th TV show. In September 2012 Elaine again began producing the Women's Spaces Radio Show on Radio KBBF-89.1 FM out of their Santa Rosa, CA studio.