KVRR/KBRR/KJRR/KNRR

1st QUARTER 1998

ISSUES AND PROGRAMMING

GENERAL

January, 1998

DATE	TIME	LENGTH	TITLE	TOPIC
1/1-1/2	5:30AM	30 Min.	First Business	See Attached
1/3	7:00PM	60 Min.	Cops I & II	See Attached
1/3	8:00PM	60 Min.	America's Most Wanted	See Attached
1/4	8:00AM	60 Min.	FOX News Sunday	See Attached
1/5-1/9	5:30AM	30 Min.	First Business	See Attached
1/10	9:00PM	60 Min.	Cops I & II	See Attached
1/11	8:00AM	60 Min.	FOX News Sunday	See Attached
1/11	9:00PM	60 Min.	America's Most Wanted	See Attached
1/12-1/16	5:30AM	30 Min.	First Business	See Attached
1/17	7:00PM	30 Min.	Cops I	See Attached
1/18	8:00AM	60 Min.	FOX News Sunday	See Attached
1/18	9:00PM	30 Min.	Cops II	See Attached
1/18	9:30PM	60 Min.	America's Most Wanted	See Attached
1/19-1/23	5:30AM	30 Min.	First Business	See Attached
1/24	7:00PM	60 Min.	Cops I & II	See Attached
1/24	8:00PM	60 Min.	America's Most Wanted	See Attached
1/25	8:00AM	60 Min.	FOX News Sunday	See Attached
1/26-1/30	5:30AM	30 Min.	First Business	See Attached
1/31	7:00PM	60 Min.	Cops I & II	See Attached
1/31	8:00PM	60 Min.	America's Most Wanted	See Attached

FIRST BUSINESS
NATIONAL NEWS ADVISORY
DECEMBER 26- JANUARY 2, 1997

Made possible by MassMutual - The Blue Chip Company

FIRST BUSINESS is the daily, live half-hour of breaking international news, business news, stock market reports and small business profiles

Coming Up This Week:

FRIDAY 12/26/97

MAP MAKERS:
The venerable National Geographic Society is cashing in on its famous brand name and adding road maps to its list of retail products. First Business correspondent Tom Hendrick reports on a new business that's on cruise control.

MONDAY 12/29/97

YEAR IN REVIEW:
How will 1997 be remembered? For the addition of seven babies to a small town in Iowa or the loss of a fairytale princess. First Business correspondent Trish McShane takes a look back at the year that was in the first of a five-part series.

TUESDAY 12/30/97

COMPUTERIZED TEST TAKING:
Add standardized tests to the ever growing list of items that no longer require paper. But, can computers really replace sweaty palms, multiple choice questions and the number 2 pencil? First Business correspondent John Hasenberg reports.

WEDNESDAY 12/31/97

AULD LANG SYNE:
New Year's Eve and Big Band Music - For many revelers, it's a winning combination, especially on a night fabled for romance and memory. First Business correspondent Jerry Clark has a nostalgic view of the love affair with the big band sound.

THURSDAY 1/1/97

NEW YEAR'S DAY:
Bowl games will always be there . . . But don't forget about the often-made and often-broken New Year's resolution. First Business correspondent Tom Hendrick has a look at this time honored custom.

FRIDAY 1/2/97

YEAR AHEAD OUTLOOK:
What does the future hold for small business? First Business correspondent Tom Hendrick has a forecast.

For more information:

Director of Broadcast Promotion
Suzanne Cobb (202)463-5858

News Assignment Desk
Barbara Rosenkrans (202)463-5555

SATURDAY, JANUARY 3, 1998

8:00-8:30pm COPS "LAS VEGAS" (CP-1002) (R-09/13/97) (TV-PG) "Bike Sting" Officers set up a bike sting and catch a man stealing it. He lies and says his friend sent him to pick it up. She however, admits to shoplifting when questioned, and is taken to jail. "No Tolerance" An officer pulls over a truck carrying stolen plates. The driver has a pistol, marijuana, and an under-age female companion. He is taken to jail. "Son Of A Gun" An officer responds to a call involving an accidental family shooting at a trailer park. After questioning, the officer discovers that the father intentionally shot his son in the leg after an argument; he is taken into custody.

8:30-9:00pm COPS "LAS VEGAS" (CP-1004) (R-09/27/97) (TV-PG) "Beaten & Wet" An officer receives a call reporting a battery at a local convenient store. The store clerk explained that the suspect who had stolen some beer before had come back to throw hot water on her after she had told him not to return. The suspect admitted to attacking the pregnant clerk but denied shoplifting. "High On The Rooftop" Officers respond to a report of a strung-out suspect who won't come down from the roof until he is given heroin. The officers climb the building and tackle him before he can jump. He is then taken to the hospital. "Run Like The Wind" An officer provides back-up assistance to another in the pursuit of a stolen vehicle. When the vehicle is finally stopped one of the two suspects flees on foot. After he is caught, the officer learns that he just got out of jail and that the car was indeed stolen.

9:00-10:00pm AMERICA'S MOST WANTED: AMERICA FIGHTS BACK (MW-1115)

11:00p-12:00am MAD TV (MD-222) (R-05/17/97)
HOST: LL COOL J
SKETCHES: Gangsta Shop Quartet, Cast Open, LL Cool J, En Vogue, Manic Depressive Stripper, CLOPS, Don't Talk To Me, The Break-Up, Bossy Boss, Miss Barone, Spy Vs. Spy: Teatime, Town Meeting, Cast Close: LL Cool J.

TO: Fox Affiliates

FROM: Darlene Lieblich

DATE: January 5, 1998

SUBJECT: AMERICA'S MOST WANTED: -- Show #478 (MW-1115) OAD 1/3/98

The following are the featured fugitives and others being sought by federal, state or local authorities. The Update (if any) gives current status, previous references, or related information.

Amy Rica DeChant (Murder with a Deadly Weapon, Conspiracy to Commit Murder) -- Police are on the lookout for 49-year-old Amy Rica DeChant, who they say is a vicious black widow with an insatiable appetite for wealthy men. Police say DeChant once got a boyfriend wound so tightly around her finger that he flew in 450 pounds of cocaine for her, only to have her turn him in so she could clean out his apartment. "Once she has what they have to offer, she moves on to the next man," reports Detective Paul Bigham of Las Vegas, the seedy site of what investigators say was DeChant's last big score. Her alleged victim: Las Vegas bookie Bruce Weinstein. Even among the tacky neon glitz of sin city, authorities say Weinstein's wealth was a beacon to the conniving DeChant, who charmed her way into his life, not to mention his mansion, in July 1996. It seems everyone around them, even Bruce's mother Sylvia, thought it was true love. That is, until DeChant started asking about Bruce's riches. Sylvia told AMW that Bruce was considering putting up $50,000 toward a bar for DeChant. When Sylvia said this was maybe a bit premature, he declined. Next, DeChant was asking about a house Bruce was building, and how maybe it could conveniently go under her name. Again, it was Sylvia who disapproved, this time to DeChant herself. Three days later, Bruce vanished. Police say that his stash of $100,000 vanished with him. Bruce always called his mother at 8:30, every morning, except the morning of July 6, 1996. Concerned, Sylvia rushed to his home, only to find DeChant cleaning house and claiming that Bruce had rushed off on important business. Why would DeChant, who owned a professional cleaning service, be so concerned with tidying her carpets that morning? Sylvia suspects it had something to do with a spot of still-wet blood on the carpet. Sylvia hired a private investigator, filed a missing persons report, and posted a US$50,000 reward. Still, there was no sign of 260 pound Bruce Weinstein. Soon, DeChant was gone as well. Police stopped her two weeks later in Maryland, driving too fast with over $100,000 in her car and a note to an unidentified man signed "Amy on the run." But there was no way to hold the desperate DeChant because there was no evidence of a crime...yet. Then on August 11, 1996 Bruce's body was discovered in the Nevada desert. It had been partially decomposed with industrial-strength cleaning fluids. Police started taking tests at the Weinstein mansion with luminol, a blood-detection chemical, revealing a trail of blood invisible to the naked eye and suggesting that Bruce had been dragged from his home. DeChant now spun what police say is just another tall tale: Bruce was killed by mob hitmen who spared her life so she could clean up the blood. She said she was helped by her employee Bobby Jones. Jones was on the run, but an America's Most Wanted viewer helped bring him in and now he's charged with murder. However, DeChant remains at large, and police and Weinstein's family believe her taste for the high life means she won't be lying low. Dechant is a professional commercial carpet cleaner. She is also an avid poker player with a taste for expensive houses, jewelry, and cars. She has a history of dating wealthy men. DeChant is 49, 5'3" and 115 pounds. (See Show #1019, OAD 4/12/97)

Racine Jane Doe -- Wisconsin authorities are attempting to discover the identity of a young murder victim. The woman's frozen body was found near Burlington, Wisconsin on February 9, 1997. Her right arm was up in the air and the word "Hi" was scrawled across the back of it. On her right arm the killer had placed a price sticker from an Illinois children's book store. There was a black plastic bag over her head, which police believe was used to asphyxiate her. The body was clad only in a green bra with a K-Mart label. Green underwear with a K-Mart label and JC Penney brand jeans were found nearby. The young woman had two piercings in her left ear and one in her right. She had a muscular body and excellent teeth. Her fingernails were painted blue, except for her right thumbnail, which was painted maroon. Experts believe she was in her mid-teens to early twenties, 5'7" and 143 pounds; her hair was brown with red highlights. Police are seeking the public's assistance in identifying the woman and her killer. (See Show #455, OAD 6/21/97)

Jamie "Six Fingers" Edwards (murder) -- Police in Stamford, Connecticut used to have a powerful ally - a one-man crime-fighting machine named Bennie Perez. At 21, Bennie had a finely honed sense of justice. He took on ridding Stamford's streets of drug dealers and other hoods as his personal mission. He was a tenacious man who trained for a career as a boxer. He looked fear in the face every day, and he never blinked. When the drug dealers of Stamford began to realize that Bennie was a threat to their livelihood, some simply moved on. Others tried to intimidate Bennie, but the fighter didn't back down. On February 4, 1995 - just one month before his first professional fight, Bennie stopped to confront a local dealer on the street. As the men stood talking , police say a dealer named Jamie "Six Fingers" Edwards walked out of the shadows firing a 9 mm semi-automatic pistol. Bennie took nine bullets at close range; the gutsy fighter never stood a chance. As for Edwards? Police say the drug dealer murdered in vain; he immediately fled the territory he'd killed to protect. Jamie "Six Fingers" Edwards has an extra thumb on his left hand. He may have clean-shaven head. He is a member of "NATION" street gang, and a career drug dealer with many arrests. Edwards is 27, 5'11" and 220 pounds. (See

Show #1012, OAD 2/8/97)

CAPTURED:

Alan Booten (Suspected unidentified killer of Jason Crawford) -- BRIGGS, TEXAS, November 5, 1997 -- Police, following a tip from an America's Most Wanted viewer, take steps to clear a year-old murder investigation. On October 31, 1996, eighteen-year-old Jason Crawford of Midvale, Texas, was killed when his pickup truck was deliberately run off the road from behind. His passenger survived, but all he could tell police was that the suspect's car was a dark-colored American-made sedan. After the incident was reported on America's Most Wanted, on October 25, 1997, almost a year after the fact, a viewer called in. The tipster had heard that two men from the Brigg/Florence area were involved in the incident and named Alan Booten as a driver and a friend of Booten as passenger. The investigation proceeded with authorities interviewing Alan Booten and his passenger on October 30, 1997. Both refused to admit involvement, but it was discovered that Booten had owned a 1981 Buick Riviera, which matched the description of the suspect car that ran Jason off the road. The investigation moved to a local wrecking yard, where the car was found. Investigators were preparing to execute an impact analysis on the car's front bumper when they learned, on November 5, that Booten had killed himself with a gunshot. When police again interviewed Booten's friend, he told them the following story. Booten had been drinking at a bar in Ding Dong, Texas, and was persuaded to leave by his friend after he nearly started a fist fight over a pool game. As they were traveling, someone in Jason Crawford's truck threw a beer can at Booten's car and shouted obscenities at them. Crawford's passenger later denied that they provoked Booten. Booten then turned his car around and, after trying to pull alongside Crawford's truck, rammed it from behind. Crawford's vehicle was soon sent skidding off the road, through a fence and into a tree, where Crawford was killed. At the time this report was received, it had not yet been determined whether Booten's passenger would be charged. (See Show #471, OAD 10/25/97)

FEATURES:

Fighting Back -- Greenwich Village in New York City has decided to get tough on crime and clean up its own streets. Village Associations United Against Crime, a citizen's group, is patrolling the streets and reporting all suspicious activities to the police, and printing and distributing its own wanted posters and "stay safe" pamphlets.

Street Smart -- Sanford Strong gives viewers tips on how not to get ripped off at the airport.

EASYLINK 8104381L001.006 6FEB98 18:57/18:57 EST
FROM: 62942572
FOX BROADCASTING
TO: 62958312
ATTN: KVRR TV

Easylink # 2.23

To: General Mangers, News Directors, Program Directors, Promotion Managers

Fr: Network Distribution

Da: February 6, 1998

Re: FOX NEWS SUNDAY LISTING FOR SUNDAY, JANUARY 5, 1997

TOPICS & GUESTS

-- Can the U.S. and Britain hope for allies in military action against Iraq? Bill Richardson, U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations, answers.

-- Sen. Joseph Biden (D-DE),ranking member of the Foreign Relations Committee, and Sen. Richard Shelby (R-AL), Chairman of the Select Committee on Intelligence, discuss America's readiness for War.

-- Is Kenneth Starr abusing his power? Charles Rangel (D-NY) and Dan Burton (R-IN) debate.

-- Stuart Taylor, Legal Times, takes a look at what's next from the Independent counsel's investigation.

*PANELISTS-- Brit Hume, Fox News, Juan Williams, The Washington Post & Fox News, Mara Liasson, National Public Radio & Fox News

Plus -- The "Fox News Sunday" / Opinion Dynamics Poll.

FIRST BUSINESS
NATIONAL NEWS ADVISORY
JANUARY 2-9 1998

Made possible by MassMutual - The Blue Chip Company

FIRST BUSINESS is the daily, live half-hour of breaking international news, business news, stock market reports and small business profiles

Coming Up This Week:

FRIDAY 1/2/97

YEAR AHEAD OUTLOOK:
What does the future hold for small business? First Business correspondent Tom Hendrick has a forecast.

MONDAY 1/5/98

PIZZA MAN:
What does it take to be the most successful Dominos Pizza franchiser in the county? First Business correspondent Trish McShane delivers up the story of Frank Meeks, whose Washington, D.C. – area Dominos Pizza business is slicing up the competition.

TUESDAY 1/6/98

HEALTH RESOLUTIONS:
The first official week of 1998 means that many Americans will ring in a host of New Year's health resolutions. Whether it's a new diet, exercise regimen or stress reduction technique, First Business correspondent Tom Hendrick has the resolution story – from those who make them to those who break them.

WEDNESDAY 1/7/98

1998 FRANCHISE OPPORTUNITIES:
What does the New Year hold for the franchising industry? We'll have a live interview with Don Debolt, President of the International Franchise Association.

THURSDAY 1/8/98

1997 BLUE CHIP ENTERPRISE AWARD WINNER: Sticky Fingers:
Whether pork, beef, slow-roasted or hickory-smoked, the common denominator for barbeque ribs is sticky fingers. From Charleston, South Carolina, First Business correspondent Everett Banning has the story of three young college grads whose love for barbeque led them to find an aptly-named restaurant where business is....smokin'.

FRIDAY 1/9/98

HOUSE OF BLUES:
Long before John Belushi and Dan Akroyd immortalized the Blues Brothers, talented blues musicians anonymously perfected their craft in nightclubs around the country. Now with a new national tour underway, House of Blues performers are taking center stage. First Business correspondent Trish McShane reports.

For more information:

Director of Broadcast Promotion
Suzanne Cobb (202)463-5858

News Assignment Desk
Barbara Rosenkrans (202)463-5555

SATURDAY, JANUARY 10, 1998

8:00-8:30pm COPS "KANSAS CITY" (CP-1017) (TV-14: L,D)
"No Li-Sense" When an officer pulls over a car with no license plate the suspects flee the car in different directions. A search of the car turns up drug paraphernalia as well as the suspect's drivers license. After the officer has the car impounded, he visits the address on the license to catch the suspect. The suspect's mother cooperates with the police and tells them that her son no longer lives there and has fallen in with the wrong crowd. "Love Hurts" Officers respond to a domestic dispute where the suspect banged on his former girlfriend's door with chains in his hand. The victim and her neighbor insist they defended themselves by beating up the suspect. When the suspect does not dispute this version of events, the officers arrest him on several charges. "Hi, Sweetheart" An officer spots a van parked in a remote area where two suspects are engaged in sexual activity. When the officer questions them he discovers that the woman is a known prostitute. He lectures the man on the dangers of prostitution and the man asks to call his wife regarding the arrest. After she hangs up on him, the suspects are both booked on prostitution charges.

8:30-9:00pm COPS "LAS VEGAS" (CP-1003) (R-10/04/97) (TV-PG: V,L)
Caught By The Old Guy" Officers respond to call involving several young suspects seen burglarizing a home. En route, the officers spot a young male on his bike who refuses to stop for the officers. They chase him down and find him carrying marijuana and an array of drug paraphernalia. "Impound Clown" A sergeant responds to a burglary report at the police's own impound facility. "Life's Obstacles" An officer receives a call involving a stolen vehicle and spots a suspect on his bike. After he catches and cuffs him, the officer finds burglary tools, other persons' credit cards and some methamphetamine.

9:00-10:00pm AMERICA'S MOST WANTED: AMERICA FIGHTS BACK (MW-1116)
AMERICA'S MOST WANTED is known for putting the bad guys away -- but how some of these fugitives were caught will truly amaze you. In one case, eight seconds on the air was all it took to put a criminal behind bars. A viewer recognized his image from just a blurry videotape and made the call that led to his capture. AMERICA'S MOST WANTED shows the amazing coincidence that ended this bizarre case.

11:00p-12:00am MAD TV (MD-313)
SKETCHES: Epidemic '98, Farrah vs. Farrakhan, Corn on the Cop, Lando Calrisian: Erotic Massage, Latoya on Leno.
GUEST STAR: LATOYA JACKSON

SUNDAY, JANUARY 11, 1998

7:00-8:00pm THE WORLD'S FUNNIEST (FUN-109) (TV-PG: D,S,V)
James Brown hosts a special look into the humorous world of kids (Baby pulls out chair from behind other toddler), Sports (Gymnastic crash at vault), and animals (cat and dog separated by window); a man tries to buy a used car while handcuffed, and Erik Estrada punches Bill Maher on the "Pictionary" game show.

JAMES BROWN (NFL on FOX, NHL on FOX)

8:00-8:30pm THE SIMPSONS "BART CARNY" (SI-908) (TV-PG: L)
Homer and Bart befriend father and son "carnies" (carnival people) who take advantage of their generosity. When the carnies take over the Simpson's house, the family must work together to outsmart them.

GUEST VOICE: JIM VARNEY

8:30-9:00pm KING OF THE HILL "MEETING THE MANGER BABIES" (KH-212) (TV-PG: L)
It's Super Bowl time and Hank and the guys can hardly wait for the big game. Problems arise for Hank, however, when he is forced to choose between helping Luanne with her televised children's puppet show or watch the game with his friends as both events are scheduled for the same time.

GUEST VOICE: TROY AIKMAN (DALLAS COWBOYS)

9:00-10:00pm THE X-FILES "SCHIZOGENY" (XF-509) (TV-14: V,L)
Mulder and Scully investigate bizarre deaths in an apple farming community, and uncover a story of child abuse and displaced rage in which nature itself becomes an accomplice.

TO: Fox Affiliates

FROM: Darlene Lieblich

DATE: January 12, 1998

SUBJECT: AMERICA'S MOST WANTED: -- Show #479 (MW-1116) OAD 1/10/98

The following are the featured fugitives and others being sought by federal, state or local authorities. The Update (if any) gives current status, previous references, or related information.

Francisco Rodriguez (attempted murder) -- Border patrol agent Juanita Santana is featured in a recreation where she is shot by Francisco Rodriguez. Her bullet-proof vest saved her life. Santana climbed back into her patrol car to chase after Rodriguez and his accomplices. A car crash stopped Rodriguez' car. One accomplice was arrested, but Rodriguez and another man escaped. The second accomplice was arrested in November, 1995, but Rodriguez remains at large. Rodriguez, an illegal alien, was last seen in the Tucson area. His nickname is "Flaco" ("Skinny"). He is 22 years old, 5'6", speaks Spanish and English. (See Shows #406, 413 and 1018, OADs 4/21/96, 6/15/96 and 3/29/97)

Bertha Marie Keene aka Theresa Grosso - (Murder, Escape) -- Back in 1969, Bertha Keene was a 21-year-old stripper with a wild side. On Friday, September 26, she and two friends went out for a good time in her home town of Baltimore, Maryland. The women made the rounds, tossing back liquor all night long. Keene later claimed she'd also taken LSD. When the party girls reached the last club, the bouncer demanded ID. Incensed, Keene pulled a handgun from her purse and shot him dead. Keene was tried, convicted, and sentenced to the Maryland Correctional Institute for women, but prison bars didn't tame the wild cat. She escaped three times . Each time she tripped up on the outside and was caught and returned. On the third try, she ran to Florida, where she befriended a man named William Palm. He was so smitten that he moved to Maryland, and a home just outside the prison walls. Finally, on August 30, 1979, Bertha Keene made her fourth and final escape. No one was surprised when Palm disappeared with her. Out on the run, the couple married and had a child. But running took its toll and they separated in 1995. Palm eventually surrendered, but charges against him were dismissed and today he's raising the couple's teenage son. As for Bertha Keene, she took off and never looked back. FBI agents believe she's probably in a warm climate working with organic foods or dealing drugs. They want to reunite her with her family and the Maryland Correctional System. Keene has scars on both wrists from razor and glass cuts and a 2 1/2" long scar on the right side of her neck. She is a vegetarian and is fond of cats and other animals. She is known to be a mean drunk and a pathological liar. Keene has used many aliases including Theresa Marie Grosso, Rose Sacco, Anita Lynch, Anita Palm, Antoinette West, Theresa Bertha Keen, and Patricia Ann Leno. She is 49, 5'5" and 145 pounds. (See Shows #163, 205 and 1018, OAD's 5/10/91, 3/13/92 and 3/29/97)

Unknown (murder) -- On July 3, 1986, firefighters discovered the body of 24-year-old Teresa Dickinson inside her burned-out apartment. She had been raped and strangled, then placed in a closet and set on fire. The killer struck again in the same apartment complex just three months later, holding a woman captive and raping her for eight hours. Before releasing her, the man forced her to withdraw cash from her bank. His distinctive profile was captured on the bank's surveillance cameras. The suspect has dark brown, graying hair and intense light blue eyes. He has prominent cheekbones and a long straight nose. During the ordeal, he told his victim he was from Connecticut and that his parents had been murdered. Police are seeking the public's assistance in identifying the suspect. (See Show #1018, OAD 3/29/97)

Chen Shi (Wanted for Questioning) -- Twenty-seven-year-old Linda Liu was a student at Alabama's Jacksonville State University. On October 18, 1996, she went out on a first date with a young man named Chen Shi. She never returned home. When investigators questioned Chen Shi he came up with an alibi. It didn't take long for investigators to figure out it was full of holes. But it was just long enough for Chen Shi to get out of town. On December 16, Linda's body was found in a highway ditch about 16 miles from Jacksonville. Police want to find Chen Shi and question him. Chi has cigarette burns on his upper left arm. He is quiet, may be bisexual, and only dates Asian women. He likes to play pool and ping pong. Chi is originally from Tian Jin, China, but immigrated to US in 1993. He may be driving a red 1988 Chevy Nova four-door, PA license place AMW4463. Chi is 22, 5'10" and 230 pounds. (See Show #476, OAD 12/6/97)

AMW ALL-POINTS BULLETINS:

Unknown (Attempted 1st Degree Murder, Armed Robbery, Aggravated Assault) -- Police in West Palm Beach, Florida are looking for a ruthless jewelry store robber whose cowardly act was caught on surveillance tape. On August 2, 1994, a man walked into the Diamond Financial Corporation Jewelry Store and asked owner, Jack Schram to show him a watch. When he learned the price, the man put the watch down and seemed to prepare to leave the store. Suddenly, he pulled out a gun. Jack pulled out his own gun but was incredibly unlucky--it jammed. The robber shot him four times. When the robber tried to leave he discovered that the store's door had locked behind him - he was trapped inside. He walked to where Jack Schram lay bleeding on the floor and pressed his gun to the owner's temple. He grabbed the Rolex off Jack's wrist, then pulled the gun's trigger: a dull click was the only sound. The gun was out of bullets. Jack strained and reached the door's secret release button and the robber fled after taking Jack's gun and watch. With three bullets in his stomach, Jack Schram was a lucky man: he survived . The entire robbery was caught on the store's video surveillance camera, but police have so far been unable to identify the suspect from the images. The suspect has a dark complexion, is very bowlegged but very limber, and may walk with a limp. He may be Jamaican. The suspect is 25-30 years old. (See Shows #337 and 1018,, OADs 10/22/94 and 3/29/97)

Edward John Husar (Theft by Deception; Impersonating a Public Servant) -- On June 20, 1996, an 86-year-old man in Louisville, Kentucky answered his telephone to find the Chief of Police on the other end. The Chief needed his help to solve a crime and catch a criminal - but it wasn't really Louisville Police Chief Doug Hamilton; it was a con man. Police say the caller was Edward Husar - a veteran of confidence games. The story he told the elderly man was simple: Husar said there was a dishonest employee at the bank and he needed the man's help to catch the employee. He sent the man to the bank and instructed him to withdraw a stack of US one hundred dollar bills to set the trap for the shady employee. Then the man was to meet Husar - posing as Chief Hamilton - and turn over the money as evidence. The man did as he was told, withdrawing at least $8,000, but after he turned over the money something didn't seem quite right. He flagged down a nearby police officer and shared his story. This time police say it was Husar who was caught red handed. Bond was set at$50,000. Husar easily paid it in cash and disappeared - no doubt police say in search of another unwitting senior citizen. Husar seems to travel all over the USA. Police departments around the country say they have cases against him. Most involve senior citizens. Husar has a US Marine Corps emblem tatoo on his left arm. He generally works his scams with two or three partners, both men and women. Husar wears prescription eye glasses and may wear a small mustache. He often wears a hat, suit and necktie designed to make him look like a plainclothes police officer. He has police scanners, 2-way radios, and police badges, and can be very convincing. He often pays cash to purchase cars. Husar has used the alias Edwin John Mills. He is 58, 6'0" and 165 pounds. (See Show #1022, OAD 5/3/97)

CAPTURED:

Lorris Terriel Robinson (murder) -- The gun used a drive-by shooting ended up in the hands of Robinson. Robinson, a member of the Bloods street gang, has a history of violent crime. Police suspect Robinson as the murderer of Jeffrey Burris, a father of four, in an apparent robbery/carjacking. He is also suspected in another murder, a 22-year-old nursing student; police believe the victim may have been mistaken by Robinson for a rival gang member. Following the last broadcast of Robinson's profile, a viewer located Robinson in South Central Los Angeles. He was captured following a police pursuit. (See Shows #1002, 1003 and 468, OADs 11/16/96, 11/23/96 and 10/4/97)

Paul Wesley Taylor (murder) -- On Christmas night, 1990, elderly Ozona, Texas laundromat owner Dean Phillips apparently interrupted a burglary and was beaten to death. The culprit got away with less than $30 in coins. An AMW viewer recognized Taylor from a fuzzy surveillance video. Taylor was serving a two-year term in Utah for forgery. Taylor's fingerprints matched those found at the Ozona crime scene. Taylor has been flown back to Taylor for trial. (See Shows #424 and #454, OADs 8/31/96 and 6/16/97)

FEATURE:

The Sultan of Swat -- Ryan Klesko, left-handed power hitter for the Atlanta Braves, wants to go into law enforcement. Several times a month, he rides along with the Palm Beach Sheriff's Office on drug raids.

Note: If you have any information relating to fugitives or others featured on AMERICA'S MOST WANTED, you may call 1-800-CRIME-TV.

Mailing address: America's Most Wanted
P.O. Box CRIME TV
Washington, D.C. 20016

Or visit AMW on the World Wide Web at http://www.amw.com

EASYLINK 0673944L001.006 9JAN98 15:30/15:30 EST
FROM: 62942572
FOX BROADCASTING
TO: 62958312
ATTN: KVRR TV

EASYLINK # 1.22

TO: PROGRAM DIRECTORS, PROGRAM DIRECTORS, GENERAL MANAGERS

FR: NETWORK DISTRIBUTION

DT: JANUARY 9,1998

RE: FOX NEWS SUNDAY TOPICS FOR SUNDAY, JANUARY 11, 1998

****

TOPICS AND GUESTS:

Is human cloning about method or madness? Dr. Richard Seed, physicist, and Dr. Ezekiel Emanuel, National Bioethics Advisory Commission debate.

Rep. Dick Armey (R-TX), Majority Leader, answers questions about the GOP's education reform standards and plans for the budget surplus.

Are President Clinton's proposed Medicare initiatives a good idea or malpractice? Sen. Judd Gregg (R-NH) and Gene Sperling, Director of the National Economic Council, discuss.

PANELISTS:

Brit Hume (Fox News), Juan Williams(The Washington Post & Fox News), Mara Liasson(National Public Radio & Fox News).

FIRST BUSINESS
NATIONAL NEWS ADVISORY
JANUARY 9 – 16, 1998

Made possible by MassMutual - The Blue Chip Company

FIRST BUSINESS is the daily, live half-hour of breaking international news, business news, stock market reports and small business profiles

Coming Up This Week:

FRIDAY 1/9/98

HOUSE OF BLUES:
Long before John Belushi and Dan Akroyd immortalized the Blues Brothers, talented blues musicians anonymously perfected their craft in nightclubs around the country. Now with a new national tour underway, House of Blues performers are taking center stage. First Business correspondent Trish McShane reports.

MONDAY 1/12/98

CONSUMER ELECTRONIC SHOW:
The digital age is here...From televisions to cameras and everything in between. From Las Vegas, First Business correspondent Bruce Page previews the red hot consumer electronics market and the gadgets making news.

TUESDAY 1/13/98

TALKING DOLLARS AND MAKING SENSE:
Why are African Americans earning more but investing less? First Business correspondent Trish McShane spoke with financial advisor Brooke Stephens about her new book on African Americans' investment patterns.

WEDNESDAY 1/14/98

GOTTA GO TO MO'S:
The nation's largest privately-held sporting goods chain is slam dunking its competitors. First Business correspondent Trish McShane has the story of Modell's.

THURSDAY 1/15/98

1997 BLUE CHIP ENTERPRISE AWARD WINNER: Communication Networks Corp.:
What do you do when you unknowingly buy a business that's on its last legs? From Birmingham, Alabama, First Business correspondent Everett Banning has the story of a couple who turned their lives and the business around.

FRIDAY 1/16/98

SUPERBOWL MARKETING:
The SuperBowl hype machine is in overdrive. But, will it be a Superbowl or a super bust? First Business correspondent Tom Hendrick has the gridiron report.

For more information:

Director of Broadcast Promotion
Suzanne Cobb (202)463-5858

News Assignment Desk
Barbara Rosenkrans (202)463-5555

FRIDAY, JANUARY 16, 1998

8:00-9:00pm SERIES FINALE: THE VISITOR "THE TRIAL" (VIS-113)
The Visitor is finally cornered by Vise and the FBI, but just as he is about to be arrested, The Visitor is again abducted by an alien spacecraft. The FBI agents are stunned, while Vise, determined to hang on to The Visitor, is struck by the beams lifting The Visitor to the craft. Vise's life and The Visitor's fate hang in the balance, as The Visitor is put on trial by the colony of other abductees on the spacecraft. The Visitor is reunited with friends from "CAGED" (#110), who help defend his efforts to save the world, and persuade the other abductees to save Vise. Meanwhile, the FBI agents, having reported their sighting to the bureau, are fired. Ultimately, The Visitor convinces Vise to stop pursuing him, and he is left on earth to search for his son.

9:00-10:00pm MILLENNIUM "BEWARE OF THE DOG" (MLM-202) (R-09/26/97) (TV-14)
Watts sends Frank to investigate a series of wild animal attacks. Frank initially believes these attacks to be the work of cult activity.

GUEST CAST: TERRY O'QUINN, RANDY STONE

SATURDAY, JANUARY 17, 1998

8:00-8:30pm COPS "KANSAS CITY" (CP-1018) (TV-PG: L)
"Chasing Amy" Officers receive a call involving an armed robbery suspect pursuit. Joining the pursuit, the vehicle, after a high speed chase, is eventually forced off the side of the road. The suspect is apprehended but claims she fled because she was scared. The officers search the vehicle and find several suspicious items and then arrest the suspect on several charges. "The Adam's Family" Officers respond to a domestic dispute between parents and their adult daughter. The parents insist that the daughter threatened to have her mother "beaten up" if she did not pay her money she allegedly owed. The daughter denies making the threat. No arrests are made but the officers urge the parties to stay away from each other to avoid future conflict. "Running 'Til Tired" Officers join in the pursuit of a fleeing suspect possibly involved in a recent homicide. When they find the suspect, they find that he has small amounts of cash and narcotics on him. He is arrested but insists that he fled because he has several outstanding warrants.

8:30-9:00pm COPS "LAS VEGAS" (CP-1001) (R-10/25/97) (TV-14: L,D)
"Pursuit x 7" Officers stop a stolen van to find seven suspects who flee. After they are apprehended the officers find the drugs and "gold paint" they are using to get high. "Tweek Tweek Lab" A narcotics specialist stops a stolen vehicle and finds a two-time convicted felon. At his home they discover a make-shift methamphetamine lab. "Little Red Corvette" An officer approaches a suspicious red corvette to find a transvestite selling "her services" to two young boys. She is arrested for possessing marijuana.

9:00-10:00pm AMERICA'S MOST WANTED: AMERICA FIGHTS BACK (MW-1117)

11:00p-12:00am MAD TV (MD-314)
SKETCHES: 20/20: Too Hot for TV, Guess Who's Coming to Dinner w/ Chris Rock.

Brit Hume (Fox News), Juan Williams (The Washington Post & Fox News), Mara Liasson (National Public Radio & Fox News).

FOX NEWS SUNDAY TOPICS FOR SUNDAY, JANUARY 18, 1998

TOPICS AND GUESTS:
Is our war of words with Iraq headed for a war with weapons? Ambassador Nizar Hamdoon, Iraqi Ambassador to the United Nations and Ambassador Bill Richardson, U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations, answer.

How do we pay for President Clinton's healthcare initiatives? Sec. Donna Shalala, Department of Health & Human Services, answers.

Legislators Sen. Rick Santorum (R-PA) and Rep. Elizabeth Furse (D-OR) discuss the American debate on abortion and their personal experiences.

An update on the President's deposition in the Paula Jones lawsuit and a discussion with the panel.

PANELISTS:
Brit Hume (Fox News), Juan Williams (The Washington Post & Fox News), Mara Liasson (National Public Radio & Fox News).

FOX NEWS SUNDAY TOPICS FOR SUNDAY, JANUARY 25, 1998

TOPICS & GUESTS:
Sen. John Ashcroft (R-MO) discusses the role of the Judiciary Committee in the allegations of wrongdoing against the President.

Rep. Bill Archer (R-TX) discusses taxes and the GOP agenda.

Don Baer, former Communications Director for President Clinton, analyzes the President's ability to weather the storm.

PANELISTS:
Brit Hume (Fox News), Juan Williams (The Washington Post & Fox News), Mara Liasson (National Public Radio & Fox News).

FOX NEWS SUNDAY TOPICS FOR SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 1998

TOPICS AND GUESTS:
What does Monica Lewinsky have to say and when will she say it? William Ginsburg, Monica Lewinsky's attorney, answers.

Is Washington paralyzed by scandal or can President Clinton get his agenda past Congress? Franklin Raines, Director of the office of Management and Budget, and Sen. Pete Domenici (R-NM), Chairman of the Budget Committee, debate.

Is war with Iraq imminent? James Baker, former Secretary of State, weighs in.

PANELISTS:

Brit Hume (Fox News), Juan Williams (The Washington Post & Fox

FIRST BUSINESS
NATIONAL NEWS ADVISORY
JANUARY 16 - 23, 1998

Made possible by MassMutual - The Blue Chip Company

FIRST BUSINESS is the daily, five half-hour of breaking international news, business news, stock market reports and small business profiles

Coming Up This Week:

FRIDAY 1/16/98

SUPERBOWL MARKETING:
The SuperBowl hype machine is in overdrive. But, will it be a SuperBowl or a super bust? First Business correspondent Tom Hendrick has the gridiron report.

MONDAY 1/19/98

WALL STREET REPORT:
What's ahead for the week on Wall Street? Business correspondent Larry Kofsky has a preview.

TUESDAY 1/20/98

GOLD PRICES:
How will the Asian markets affect the price of gold? Will investors rush for gold or have they lost faith in the metal? From London, First Business correspondent Derek Grant reports.

WEDNESDAY 1/21/98

WHAT'S ON TV?:
Like all other commodities...television programs are bought and sold. First Business correspondent Mike Samford takes us where the deals are made...from the world's largest meeting of television programming executives.

THURSDAY 1/22/98

1997 BLUE CHIP ENTERPRISE AWARD WINNER: PLANT AND PATIO CENTER:
How a garden supply center nearly died on the vine due to Mother Nature. From Jackson, Mississippi, First Business correspondent Everett Banning reports on one entrepreneur who has reaped profits through sweat equity.

FRIDAY 1/23/98

ICE CASTLES:
With the Winter Olympic Games less than a month away, will eyes are on Nagano, Japan. But thousands of miles away in California's San Bernadino Mountains, aspiring ice champions are getting in their last triple lutz. From Lake Arrowhead, California, First Business correspondent Bruce Page takes us inside the country's most elite Olympic training center.

For more information:

Director of Broadcast Promotion
Suzanne Cobb (202)463-5858

News Assignment Desk
Barbara Rosenkrans (202)463-5555

SATURDAY, JANUARY 24, 1998

8:00-8:30pm COPS "LAS VEGAS" (CP-1012) (TV-PG: L,V)
"I Didn't Do Nothing/Basket Britches" Officers pull along side a man drinking in public and waving down passing cars. The suspect initially resists arrest; but when the officers cuff him, they find cocaine in his pockets. Soon after the officers respond to a report of a residential gun firing. They spot a bloodied suspect on the sidewalk but later conclude that instead he is the victim-- thrown out of the car whose occupants fired the shots. "Video Blues" Officers receive a call from a local business that reportedly received an offer to buy stolen video equipment. The officers verify that the equipment was stolen from a trade show and proceed to the suspect's home. The suspect denies that he stole the equipment but rather says he was given it as payment. He is arrested for grand theft. "One In The Bush" Officers respond to report of a suspect who fled after a traffic stop. The suspect is found hiding in some bushes. When he is captured and cuffed he admits that he was in a street gang but has done nothing wrong. The officer however insists that he saw a weapon on the fleeing suspect and a search of the area turns up a revolver.

8:30-9:00pm COPS "KANSAS CITY" (CP-1015) (R-11/08/97) (TV-PG: L)
"Running Gun" When an officer pulls over a car with three suspects for a traffic violation, one of them runs to escape. The officer apprehends the suspect who claims he ran because his accomplice "had a gun." The other passengers are also arrested and a search of the car turns up several rifles and shotguns that were reported stolen. "Porky's Home Alone" When officers go to a residence to serve a felony warrant they find a huge pot-bellied pig inside the abandoned house. The pig which had been terrorizing the neighbors is then taken away by animal control officers. "Wake Up, Skinheads" While an officer patrols a park he spots three suspects (two with shaven heads) asleep in the car. A search of the suspects turns up concealed knives, a pistol, and marijuana.

9:00-10:00pm AMERICA'S MOST WANTED: AMERICA FIGHTS BACK (MW-1118)

11:00p-12:00am MAD TV (MD-211) (RR-01/25/97, 08/23/97) (TV-14)
SKETCHES: SUPERBOWL EDITION: Whitney Houston, National Anthem, Cast Open, Gratorade, Sleeping With Brian, Coco & LeBlanc, Lumberjack Alien Grandma #1, Vancome Locker, VUD BOWL V, Mr. Woogie, Spy vs. Spy: Pool Table, Lumberjack Alien Mom #2, Children's Letters To Rodman, UBS SuperBowl, Dom Irrera Monologue, Lumberjack Alien Grandma #3, Lumberjack Alien Mom #4, Cast Close.

SUNDAY, JANUARY 25, 1998

7:00-8:00pm THE WORLD'S FUNNIEST (FUN-101) THEME: NEWS (R-09/21/97) (TV-PG)
Clips includes News Anchors/Weather persons (Gorilla scares reporters), Kids (Boy studies goat's behind), Goofy Antics (Juggling lawn chairs), Game Shows (Nick the wheezer), Sports (Mudslide water skiier), Party Disasters (Bee & bridesmaids), Older Not Wiser (Bike ride), Animals (Dog slides down stairs), and Commercials (Sauna fax).

HOST: JAMES BROWN (NFL on FOX, NHL on FOX)

8:00-8:30pm THE SIMPSONS "LISA THE SKEPTIC" (SI-905) (R-11/23/97) (TV-PG)
When construction begins on a new Springfield mall, Lisa discovers a fossil that appears to be that of an angel.

8:30-9:00pm KING OF THE HILL "ARROWHEAD" (KH-204) (R-10/19/97) (TV-PG)
Hank is annoyed after his new rototiller digs up a bunch of arrowhead artifacts out of the yard. At Peggy's urging, Hank takes the artifacts to the university to have them checked by a professional. Hank wakes up the next morning and is furious to find that his yard has been roped off for an archaeological dig. Peggy becomes mesmerized by the archaeologists and Hank seeks advice from Luanne and Bill on how to win back Peggy's affections.

9:00-10:00pm THE X-FILES "SYNCRONY" (XF-419) (R-04/13/97)
A story dealing with parallel dimensions proposed in Einstein's Theory of Relativity, wherein Mulder is killed--or so it seems.

TO: Fox Affiliates

FROM: Darlene Lieblich

DATE: January 26, 1998

SUBJECT: AMERICA'S MOST WANTED: -- Show #481 (MW-1118) OAD 1/24/98

AMW IN NEW ORLEANS

The following are the featured fugitives and others being sought by federal, state or local authorities. The Update (if any) gives current status, previous references, or related information.

Unknown (murder) -- Residents in a sleepy corner of Lake Charles, Louisiana, are reeling from a horrific triple homicide at a gas station in the early hours of July 6, 1997. Clerks Stacie Reeves, a 26-year-old single mother of two-year-old twin daughters, and 21-year-old Marty LeBouef, son of a former Calcasieu Parish Sheriff's Department detective; as well as 14-year-old Nicole Guidry, who had stopped in to help Stacie with her twins, were found in the walk-in cooler of KK's Corner, a convenience store and gas station. They had been shot multiple times, execution-style. Police believe they have reconstructed what happened from the crime scene and reports of "Janice," a woman who stopped by KK's for gas around midnight on the 5th of July. As Janice left the store to pump the gas she had just bought, she noticed two men in a black Chevrolet entering the store. As she filled her tank, she saw the two men arguing near the beer cooler. She told police that was when she got a "bad feeling" and left the station before she had finished pumping her gas. As she drove past the store with her boyfriend around 12:30, she noticed that the black car was still there, only now its trunk was open. Next to the car was a red, medium-sized pickup truck with a chrome grill. The truck's driver side door was wide open. Police say that the store's assistant manager called Stacie at 11:50 PM, and reported nothing unusual. When he called back shortly after midnight, he received no answer. Then the store's burglar alarm company called him at 1:15 AM to report that the store's alarm had not been turned on. But nothing seemed too far out of the ordinary until Deborah Tubbs came in at 4:50 AM to work the morning shift. She first noticed that Janice and Marty's cars were still in the parking lot, then that the alarm wasn't on. She soon discovered that the safe was open, and the office door had been pulled off its hinges. Suspecting a burglary, she called the police immediately. Police discovered much more than a burglary. First they found the bodies in the cooler, and then they discovered that the surveillance tape was missing from the office and the telephone lines had been cut. The killers made off with between four and six thousand dollars in cash, a number of checks, and credit card slips. The police believe their best leads lie with the two men "Janice"

saw in the store. She was recently hypnotized and was able to give the police a description for a composite sketch of one of these men, whose description appears below. She was not able to provide enough information for a composite of the second man. The first suspect is in his late 20's to early 30's, 6'0"-6'2" with a muscular build and tan skin. He was last seen wearing muddy or dirty blue jeans with a hole on the side, white soiled tennis shoes, and a white t-shirt. The second suspect is in his late 20's to early 30's, and approximately 6'5". He was last seen wearing dirty blue jeans with one leg rolled up, a white t-shirt, and old-style white tennis shoes with a blue Nike logo. He had a key chain hanging from right-side pants pocket, described as a cigarette with the Marlboro logo. Also attached was a rabbit's foot or tail. The suspects were last seen driving a small black two-door Chevrolet, possibly a 1986-1988 model, with a trunk rather than a hatchback. The car has square or rectangular headlights, and a turn signal on the side of the car adjacent to the headlights. It also has gray molding strips down each side, wheel rims but no hubcaps, and a Chevrolet logo in the center of the grill. The car has no front license plate and squeaky brakes.

Martin Texada (Escape, Attempted Murder)
Jason Edwards (Escape, 2nd Degree Murder) -- On Christmas night, 1997, jail officials say Texada, Edwards and another inmate of the St. Landry Parish Jail, Louisiana executed a carefully-planned prison break. They fashioned weapons from the nightstands in their cells and carried them into the showers, where the jailers made their last rounds. When the guards walked in to do their headcounts, they were viciously attacked. Texada grabbed the master keys from the control room, and the three escapees exited through the front door. Police say that Texada is a high-ranking member of the 59 Bloods street gang, and believe he is linked to a number of murders of rival gang members. Police have charged him with attempted murder in connection with the shooting of two innocent bystanders in June 1997. Police say the hail of bullets that fell on two girls that day was intended for an enemy of Texada, and that he ordered the assassination. One of the inmates who escaped from the St. Landry Parish Jail was caught a few days after the breakout, following a wild high-speed chase. The other partner in the escape, Jason Edwards, is still wanted by police. Texada has a "Shirley Son" tattoo on his right arm, and 'Sweet Daddy" on his chest. He may wear a goatee. Police believe he is involved in narcotics trafficking and has been involved in several drive-by shootings. Despite all this, Texada does not drink, smoke, or use drugs. Texada is 23, 5'8" and 218 pounds. Edwards was awaiting trial on charges of 2nd degree murder for the death of his brother. Police say the two brothers were arguing, and after the argument reached a fever pitch, Edwards used his car to run his brother down. His brother died three weeks after the attack. Edwards has "Jason" tattooed on his left arm, "JC" on his right arm, and "Sonya" on his chest. He may have a thin moustache and may wear his hair in an afro. Police say he has a violent temper. Edwards is 20, 5'3" and 145 pounds.

James Joseph "Whitey" Bulger (Racketeering and Extortion)

Catherine Greig (Harboring a Fugitive) -- In the tough working-class neighborhood of "Southie," just south of Boston, locals say that a young man growing up there has only two career choices: the priesthood or the law. One of the Bulger brothers went on to make laws, becoming the President of the Massachusetts State Senate and holding the post for eighteen years. The other, who became known as Whitey Bulger, went on to break laws, becoming the boss of the ruthless Irish Winter Hill Gang. Police say that Whitey had his fingers in every drug deal and illegal bet in Southie, swiftly becoming respected, even legendary, in the Boston underworld. Authorities claim that he was able to consolidate power through an historic truce with the Italian Mafia in Boston, whereby they respected each other's boundaries, and even collaborated on their nefarious schemes. The Massachusetts State Police were determined to get Whitey behind bars. But every time they got an authorized wire tap, every time they set up surveillance, Whitey dodged their net. It was almost as if he knew.... On January 10, 1995, the federal grand jury handed up a RICO indictment with Whitey's name on it. True to form, Whitey was ahead of the law, and disappeared from sight. However, the indictment netted five other members of the Irish Winter Hill Gang, including Whitey's top lieutenant, Steve "The Rifleman" Flemmi. What Flemmi had to say shocked everyone, gangsters and law enforcement alike. Flemmi claimed that both he and Whitey were actually government informants, leaking information to the FBI on their supposed partners in the Italian Mafia for nearly 30 years. He even claimed that they had been tipped by the Feds before the indictments came down, allowing Whitey to make a clean getaway. Legal hearings will determine whether Flemmi's allegations are true, and whether Flemmi and Whitey's alleged informant status makes them immune from prosecution. When the FBI indicted Bulger, Catherine Greig, his mistress, joined him on the road as they traveled as any retired couple through the historic sites and Indian reservations of the United States. So strong was her dedication to the suspected underworld mastermind that she abandoned her pet poodles and extensive collection of Hummell figures. Authorities now know that one of Whitey's stops was the quiet Louisiana enclave of Grand Isle. No one in this tight-knit community suspected that Whitey was a northeastern mob boss as he came and went Greig, paying for his rental cottage in crisp $100 bills. Posing as "Uncle Tom and Aunt Helen," they seemed to blend right in. But now Uncle Tom and Aunt Helen have disappeared and the hunt is still on for Whitey Bulger and Catherine Greig. Police have traced the couple to Sheridan, Wyoming; San Francisco; Gulfport, Mississippi; and Selden and Holtsville, New York. The trail has been cold since July 1996. Bulger has a medium athletic build and often wears a baseball cap and sunglasses. He takes daily walks of 5-6 miles, and is take the heart medication Atenolol. Bulger drives large luxury sedans and likes making purchases with $100 bills. He has served time for several bank robberies. Bulger has used the aliases and nicknames Jimmy, Jimmy-Boy, Jimmy Blue-Eyes, Thomas F. Baxter, and Tom Harris. Bulger is 68, 5'7"-5'9" and 150-160 pounds. Greig likes to wear high-quality jewelry. She has worked as a dental hygienist and a dog groomer. Greig has used the alias Helen Baxter. She is 46, 5'6" and 120 pounds. (See Shows #349 and #378, OADs 1/21/95 and 9/9/95)

Wilfred Cotaya (Aggravated Rape, Aggravated Kidnapping) -- Nearly seventeen years ago, a twenty-year-old woman made her way into a New Orleans Police precinct, just after having been savagely beaten and raped. Although her statement lead police right to an arrest, the suspect made bail with the help of his wealthy father, and has never been heard of again. The story began on the evening of April 15, 1981, when the victim was enjoying an evening drinking with friends in the trendy Lakeside district of New Orleans. She was approached by a well-dressed young man who introduced himself as "Will," and said he was the vice-president of a large corporation. He then bought a round of champagne for the table, and by the time the victim and her friends were ready to move on to the next bar, he had gained her confidence. She agreed to join him for the short drive. Almost as soon as they were alone, the seemingly all-American young man turned vicious. He beat the woman as she sat in her car, beat her on the street, and finally locked her in the trunk of his car. He drove to a more isolated area, stopped, beat her again, and then gagged and blindfolded her. Before long, they were at a residence, where he removed her from the trunk, dragged her across the lawn, and tied her to a bed. He then proceeded to rape and beat her for six hours, resting for short periods of time and tightening her bonds every time she struggled. Finally, he let her go, but not before threatening her with more torture to come should she ever go to the police. The brave victim went to the police directly, and gave a statement that helped detectives crack the case right away. They started at the bar where the victim had met "Will." The bartender knew that he had only served champagne to one table, and that the man had paid with a credit card. The name on the receipt: Wilfred Cotaya. Police found the shocked twenty-four year old Cotaya at his quarter-million dollar estate. They then found the victim's gold chains in the bedroom, and sheets, ropes, and duct tape with the victim's blood and hair. Investigators were soon reminded of an unsolved rape that had occurred four months earlier. Another young woman had been abducted in a bar, locked in a trunk, tied with duct tape, and fastened to a bed. Police say that Cotaya confessed to the rape of the most recent victim, and the case seemed to be neatly wrapped up. But then Cotaya's father put up three-quarters of a million dollars to bail his son out of jail, and Wilfred hasn't been seen since. Even after all this time, the victim still desperately wants to see her attacker in front of a jury, and the detective, who remains in contact with the victim, still has him on top of his most wanted list. Cotaya is described as meticulous and neat, and as a braggart. He is an avid skier and a film buff who collects movies. Cotaya is 40, 5'9" and 145 pounds. (See Show #398, OAD 2/17/96)

Romel Valentino White (child molestation)

Willie White (Dissuading a Witness From Giving Testimony, Inducing False Testimony, Conspiracy) -- A man who picked on a child is so childish himself, that deputies say he went on the run with his parents. Romel Valentino White is wanted by the Sacramento California Sheriff's Department Child Sexual Abuse detail for 30 counts of child molestation. Deputies say the victim was White's own nephew. The boy told deputies that White had sodomized him many times over a seven year period. The alleged abuse started when the boy was six and continued until he was 13. Three years later, at the age of 16, White's nephew found the courage to turn him in. On September 23, 1996, Romel White was arrested, but a judge let him out on bond. The case took a strange twist. Deputies say White's parents tried to bribe his victim - their own grandson; they offered him cash to change his testimony at the trial. He refused and the DA's office charged Willie White and Joan Mouton with dissuading a witness from giving testimony, inducing false testimony, and conspiracy. On May 5, 1997, Romel White and his parents fled Sacramento together. In early September, the trio was spotted in Laurel, Mississippi where Willie White has relatives. Shortly afterwards, Joan Mouton was arrested in San Bernardino, California, where she had tried to pass a bogus traveler's check. Her husband and son remain at large. Romel White has a slender build. He usually drinks beer daily and smokes Marlboro cigarettes; relatives say he also smokes marijuana. He has worked as a clerical aid in law firms. The younger White is a member of the North American Man/Boy Love Association. He is 28, 5'10" and 165 pounds. Willie White suffers from kidney stones and may smoke cigarettes. He plays blues guitar and enjoys gambling and bingo. Willie White has used the stage name Wonder Boy. He is 62, 6'3" and 165 pounds. (See Show #466, OAD 9/20/97)

Raymond David Young (Fraud, False Statements to the IRS, Failure to Appear for Sentencing)

Anne Theresa Young (Conspiracy, Fraud, False Statements Written Under Declaration of Perjury) -- Ray Young's family says he's dead. The US Marshals Service says Young is alive and well and living the high life as a fugitive. In the early 1990's Young was the mastermind behind a multi-million dollar motor fuel excise tax scam. Young purchased several oil trucks and sold gasoline to truck stops for "road use." But he reported to the IRS that he was selling the fuel for "offshore purposes." Agents say Young pocketed huge sums of money he should have paid in motor fuel excise tax. In January 1993, Young was convicted of fraud and submitting false statements to the IRS. Then, on April 6, 1993 - just days before he was to be sentenced - Young went scuba diving with his son, Eddie, near the Mississippi River Gulf Outlet in Louisiana. Eddie says that his father never surfaced. Agents believe Young met another boat and fled justice. Just a month after Young's disappearing act, his wife, Anne, and their now 13-year-old son, Mark disappeared too. Agents say the Youngs had several million dollars at their disposal, and they believe the family is on the run. Young, a smooth talker with a winning smile, likes to wear expensive clothes. He is a scuba diver and likes deep sea diving. Young is 50, 6'0" and 198 pounds. Anne Young is usually well tanned, and has had cosmetic surgery on her breasts and feet. She too likes to wear expensive clothing. She enjoys casino gambling. Anne Young has used the aliases Anne Theresa Gaudet, Anne Gaudet Young, and Anne Loohernandez. Anne Young is 30, 5'5" and 120 pounds. (See Show #468, OAD 10/4/97)

MISSING CHILD ALERT:

Amber Barker

Age: 10 Height: 4'11"
Weight: 70 pounds

Amber Barker left her friend's house on December 18, 1997, on her bicycle at around 6:00 PM. Her bike, sweater, and shoes were found five blocks from her last known location, but Amber has not been seen since. Police have few leads, but were interested in questioning Daniel John Smith, the common-law husband of Amber's sister. Smith, who had served a five-year deferred sentence for a 1995 kidnapping conviction, committed suicide after Amber's disappearance. Amber has a small mole below her right ear. She enjoys biking and when last seen was wearing a beige sweater, light blue jeans, white tennis shoes.

MISSING PERSON ALERT:

Jessica Lee Cain

Age: 18 Height: 5'4"
Weight: 145 pounds

At about 1:30 a.m. on Sunday August 17, 1997, Jessica Cain left a Bennigan's restaurant in Houston, Texas. She got into her tan 1992 Ford extended cab pickup truck and headed toward her home in Tiki Island, Texas. At about 2:00 a.m. Jessica was spotted pulled over on the shoulder of I-45 South. She was walking toward a red Isuzu Amigo which was parked behind her. She hasn't been seen since. Police found Jessica's truck still parked on the Interstate's shoulder. Her wallet was on the seat and there was no sign of a struggle. A massive search has yielded no clues to Jessica's whereabouts. Police are searching for Jessica, but they also want to find the driver of the red Isuzu Amigo seen parked behind her that fateful night. They hope the driver can provide some clues. Jessica has a small mole below her right ear, a pink birthmark on the back of her neck and a small round scar on her right knee. She has straight shoulder length hair, pierced ears, and wears little or no makeup. She was last seen wearing brown knit pants, a black sleeveless shirt with a lace yoke, and black patent dress sandals.

EASYLINK 9487573L001.006 23JAN98 16:50/16:50 EST
FROM: 62942572
FOX BROADCASTING
TO: 62958312
ATTN: KVRR TV

EASYLINK # 1.64

TO: PROGRAM DIRECTORS, PROGRAM MANAGERS, GENERAL MANAGERS

FR: NETWORK DISTRIBUTION

DT: JANUARY 23, 1998

RE: FOX NEWS SUNDAY TOPICS FOR SUNDAY, JANUARY 25, 1998

****

TOPICS & GUESTS:

Sen. John Ashcroft (R-MO) discusses the role of the Judiciary Committee in the allegations of wrongdoing against the President.

Rep. Bill Archer (R-TX) discusses taxes and the GOP agenda.

Don Baer, former Communications Director for President Clinton, analyses the President's ability to weather the storm.

PANELISTS:

Brit Hume(Fox News), Juan Williams(The Washington Post & Fox News), Mara Liasson(National Public Radio & Fox News).

~~FIRST BUSINESS~~
NATIONAL NEWS ADVISORY
JANUARY 23 - 30, 1998

Made possible by MassMutual - The Blue Chip Company

FIRST BUSINESS is the daily, five half-hour of breaking international news, business news, stock market reports and small business profiles

Coming Up This Week:

FRIDAY 1/23/98

ICE CASTLES:
With the Winter Olympic Games less than a month away, will eyes are on Nagano, Japan. But thousands of miles away in California's San Bernadino Mountains, aspiring ice champions are getting in their last triple lutz. From Lake Arrowhead, California, First Business correspondent Bruce Page takes us inside the country's most elite Olympic training center.

MONDAY 1/26/98

COINSTAR:
How a young entrepreneur is cashing in on loose change. From Bellevue, Washington, First Business correspondent Don Madsen has the story of the automated coin sorting machine that is hitting the jackpot.

TUESDAY 1/27/98

WALMART ON THE MOVE:
The world's biggest retailer is invading Europe. But will Walmart be able to succeed where other large U.S. discount retailers have failed. First Business correspondent Derek Grant reports.

WEDNESDAY 1/28/98

HOT FRIDGES:
If you think all refrigerators are alike, think again. First Business correspondent Tom Hendrick takes a look at the booming luxury appliance market.

THURSDAY 1/29/98

1997 BLUE CHIP ENTERPRISE AWARD WINNER: FRIEDERICA PHARMACY:
How a small independent pharmacy fought back against big name discounters and outdated inventory. First Business correspondent Everett Banning has the story of the remedy that cured the oldest drug store in Little Rock.

FRIDAY 1/30/98

UFO BOOKSTORE:
Sci-Fi groupies take note. A Pasadena, California, bookstore is cornering the UFO market. First Business correspondent Bruce Page beams up.

For more information:

Director of Broadcast Promotion
Suzanne Cobb (202)463-5858

News Assignment Desk
Barbara Rosenkrans (202)463-5555

SATURDAY, JANUARY 31, 1998

8:00-8:30pm COPS "KANSAS CITY" (CP-1019) (TV-14: L,D) "Can't Catch Me" An officer responds to a local disturbance call and finds a woman who claims that the suspect lifted her daughter's dress in an attempt to have sex with her. When the suspect flees before questioning, the officers apprehend him and conclude that he is on drugs. He is arrested on several charges. "Stranger in Paradise" An officer receives a domestic disturbance call. The woman claims that her intoxicated live-in boyfriend damaged some of her property, including her car. The suspect, however, insists that he is innocent and that the apartment is in his name and therefore won't leave. The victim agrees to leave while the drunk suspect sleeps it off. "Kissing Cousins" Officers arrive at the scene of a domestic disturbance where the victim has a bloodied nose. She insists however that the man did not hit her, but the officers suspect she is protecting him. Upon interviewing witnesses, the suspect is arrested on battery charges. The officers then learn that the couple are first cousins that are sexually involved with one another.

8:30-9:00pm COPS "LAS VEGAS" (CP-1009) (R-11/15/97) (TV-14: V) "Blood On The Boulevard" Officers respond to a disturbance outside of a Las Vegas strip club and find the drunk victim in the street covered with blood. After questioning, the officers discover that the victim had pulled a knife on another man outside the club forcing the other man to beat up the victim in self-defense. "Poop Dispute" An officer responds to a dispute between two men at a trailer park. The man with visible injuries claims he was eye-poked and head-butted when arguing over whose dog "pooped" in his yard. "Unhappy Jose" An officer investigates the death of a man found alone in his truck. An investigation determines that the victim had kidnapped and assaulted his wife earlier until she fled with the children and called the police. Distraught, the victim shot himself and left a note that his death was no one else's fault. The case is declared a suicide.

9:00-10:00pm AMERICA'S MOST WANTED: AMERICA FIGHTS BACK (MW-1119)

11:00p-12:00a MAD TV (MD-315) (TV-14: L,D)
SKETCHES: Spice Girls, Eracists: Standoff, Claylien (Claymation), Coffee Guy: Exam, Corky & The Juice Pigs.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 30, 1998

8:00-9:00pm BEYOND BELIEF (BEY-202)

9:00-10:00pm MILLENNIUM "THE MIKADO" (MLM-213) (TV-14: V,S,D)
A race against the clock to stop a murder occuring online in an internet chat room. Frank comes to believe the Zodiac killer has returned and is leaving his mark in Cyberspace.

GUEST CAST: GREG MICHAELS

TO: Fox Affiliates

FROM: Darlene Lieblich

DATE: February 2, 1998

SUBJECT: AMERICA'S MOST WANTED: -- Show #482 (MW-1119) OAD 1/31/98

The following are the featured fugitives and others being sought by federal, state or local authorities. The Update (if any) gives current status, previous references, or related information.

Martin Texada (Escape, Attempted Murder) -- On Christmas night, 1997, jail officials say Martin Texada, along with two other inmates of the St. Landry Parish Jail, Louisiana executed a carefully-planned prison break. They fashioned weapons from the nightstands in their cells and carried them into the showers, where the jailers made their last rounds. When the guards walked in to do their headcounts, they were viciously attacked; one guard dove under a table for protection. Texada grabbed the master keys from the control room, and the three escapees exited through the front door. Police say that Texada is a high-ranking member of the 59 Bloods street gang, and believe he is linked to a number of murders of rival gang members. Police have charged him with attempted murder in connection with the shooting of two innocent bystanders in June 1997. Police say the hail of bullets that fell on two girls that day was intended for an enemy of Texada, and that he ordered the assassination. One of the inmates who escaped from the St. Landry Parish Jail was caught a few days after the breakout, following a wild high-speed chase. The other partner in the escape, Jason Edwards, was caught immediately after he was profiled on AMW, thanks to a number of viewer tips. (See below) (See Show #481, OAD 1/24/98)

Dennis Orbe (Murder, Robbery, Carjacking, Abduction, Breaking and Entering) -- The FBI is moving quickly to capture a man they say is a dangerous and unstable killer armed with a .357 Magnum. According to agents, his crime spree began in mid-January 1998, and may continue until he is securely behind bars. Officials first took an interest in Orbe when, on January 19, the body of 29-year-old Michael Wayne Smith was discovered dumped in a coal pit in the Richmond, Virginia area. According to the FBI, Orbe was the last man to be seen with Michael, and they were engaged in a fierce argument in a local bar. The day after Michael's body was discovered, Richmond City Police attempted to stop Orbe for driving a car with no license plate. They report that he ran from the cops, only to resurface the next day in the Chesterfield home of Lois Jones. Lois confronted the strange man who had broken into her house, and fired two shots at her, missing her head, but hitting her in the leg. Later that day, according to officials, his crime spree continued when he carjacked a woman, making his escape in her Dodge Intrepid. These two women were lucky compared to Richard Sterling Burnett, a clerk at an Exxon station in York County, Virginia. The surveillance tape from January 24 shows a man the FBI has identified as Orbe hold Richard at gunpoint. Although Richard appeared to have cooperated fully with the gunman's demands, he still was shot in the chest at point-blank range with a .357 Magnum. The station lost $30; Michael lost his life. Dennis Orbe's mother has made a televised plea to her son: "Dennis, turn yourself in to the authorities so nobody else gets hurt...including yourself." Dennis Orbe may have a thin mustache. He may be driving a 1996 teal Dodge Intrepid, VA license # ZTW2044 and may be armed with a .357 Magnum revolver. Police suspect a history of drug use. Orbe is 33, 5'10", and 150 pounds.

James Leo Russell (Kidnapping, Taking Indecent Liberties with a Minor) --
Police have identified a man they say is a serial child molester, wanted in three states. And they never could have done it without the determination of one of his victims. On September 13, 1997, "Bob" and his 10-year-old daughter, "Caroline," went into a Home Depot in Durham, North Carolina. He was looking for building supplies, while she wanted to buy a small plant from the nursery. They didn't notice the large man who followed them into the store--he was looking for young girls. Bob and Caroline went to different departments, and the predator moved quickly to follow his young prey. In the nursery, he asked her if she was looking for her father, and described the clothes he was wearing. That's him, she confirmed, and the heartless, calculating thug directed her to the greenhouse, where he knew his plot would be unobserved by security cameras. But the young Caroline fought back. She managed to escape from his grip, and alerted store officials. They combed the store for the dirtbag, but he had already given them the slip. Caroline was not deterred. She began to draw his face, and made an accurate rendition of the tattoo on his left arm. Caroline's picture was dead-on, and lead police directly to James Leo Russell. And once it ran on TV, another victim came forward: she had been molested in a similar manner at a local K-Mart just a few months earlier. But before Russell could be charged with this second crime, he made bail and skipped town. Since then, police have learned that Russell is also a fugitive from charges of child molestation in Montana and Minnesota. Police are anxious to see this man brought to justice, before another child becomes another victim. Russell's distinctive tattoo is a dagger piercing a red heart on his upper left arm. He is a motorcycle enthusiast who owns a red Kawasaki Vulcan, collects old and rare bikes, and regularly wears motorcycle t-shirts. He runs a delivery business and may be driving a white GMC 7000 delivery truck with North Carolina plates ZC3-796. He is also a former car salesman. Russell walks in a slow, ambling fashion, and may have a mustache and/or beard. Russell is 41, 6'0" and 180 pounds.

David Bieber (Felony Murder, Conspiracy to Commit Felony Murder) -- Danielle Labelle was in love with 350-pound body builder, Marcus Mueller. Trouble was, Marcus was married. When he refused to leave his wife for her, Danielle sought retaliation. She took up with Marcus' friend, a 250 pound brute named David Bieber. After just weeks of dating, Danielle and Bieber married. Now Marcus was jealous. Bieber taunted his friend, and flaunted his new wife. A furious rivalry developed. Then, on February 9, 1995 - just six days into his new marriage - police say Bieber hired a hit man to take out Mueller. One thousand dollars passed through a friend to a 17-year-old wise guy wanna-be was all it took, say police. Four bullets and the once-mighty Marcus Mueller was dead. Empowered by the ease of the kill, police say Bieber decided to have a pesky ex-girlfriend knocked off. But this time the hit man missed his target. Then someone talked and word got back to police. The whole plot unraveled and both the hit man and Bieber's go-between were arrested, but Bieber himself got word and disappeared. Bieber is a serious body builder, known to use steroids. He is known to drive a Toyota 4-Runner, but may be driving a Corvette. He frequents nightclubs and may use painkillers - especially Nubane. Bieber is 31, 5'10" and 250 pounds. (See Shows #397, #1008 and #1009, OADs 2/10/96, 1/4/97 and 1/11/97)

Unknown (Murder) -- Shortly after leaving a pizza parlor at about 1:00 PM on December 21, 1997 in Boulder, Colorado, college student Susannah Chase was bludgeoned to death with a baseball bat a mere 50 feet from her own door. There is no obvious motive for the murder. About two weeks ago a woman called a local Crime Stoppers number with a tip, but left no name or phone number. Authorities are looking for the woman who called, or anybody with information about Chase's murder.

Unknown (Bank Robbery) -- Police are seeking a bank robber who disguises himself to look like rock 'n roll legend Little Richard. The suspect, also known as "The Wig Bandit", has hit several banks in the New Orleans area. The suspect is 30-35, 5'9"-6'0" and 160-175 pounds.

UPDATE:

Unknown (Murder) -- Derek Morales, a young pilot and businessman, was shot down on Alondra Boulevard in Compton, California at approximately 11:00pm on August 6, 1995. The unknown gunman shot him five times in the back of the head and neck; no motive is known. Shortly after the original broadcast, police identified Andre Murphy, Jr. as a prime suspect. Andre was shot to death while trying to rob an illegal casino before he could be questioned in Morales' murder. (See Show #1013, OAD 2/15/97)

MISSING PERSON ALERT:

Lawrence R. "Larry" Andrews, Jr. -- On New Year's Eve, 1997, Larry Andrews hopped on the commuter train in Brewster, New York, and rode into Manhattan with his friends to join thousands of others in Times Square, the busiest place on New Year's in the country's busiest city. When Larry got separated from his group, they didn't worry right away: with so many people on the street, not to mention Larry's 6'4", 190 pound frame, they were sure he wouldn't get into any trouble. But he hasn't been seen since. Hard work by Larry's parents and the NYPD have uncovered two sightings in the early hours of 1998: they now know that he was in Friday's restaurant near Times Square around 1:00 AM, and around 2:30 AM. he was seen running down 42nd Street, without his jacket on a very cold night. Larry's family is sure he hasn't run away, and are offering $15,000 for his safe return. Larry Andrews has a 3" surgical scar on his lower back, and four earring holes in his years. He is asthmatic, but smokes Parliament cigarettes. His hobbies and interests include computer graphics, skiing, video games, and playing cards. He is a fan of Howard Stern, Pittsburgh Steelers, and "South Park" TV series. Larry is 22, 6'4" and 190 pounds.

CAPTURED:

Michael J. Dongarra (Fraudulent Scheme & Artifice, Attempted Fraudulent Scheme and Artifice, Theft) -- A tip from Pennsylvania leads the law to a silver-tongued con artist in priest's clothing. Michael J. Dongarra was a wayward priest whose passion for collecting religious artifacts led him from one upstart church or organization to the next, gaining trust from his congregation and charming his new friends with his bagpipe-playing in full Scottish costume. What they didn't suspect from the wandering priest is that before his inevitable departure, he would habitually relieve them of their precious religious artifacts, claim them stolen, and collect the insurance money. Someone in Arizona got wise to Dongarra's scheme, and he was arrested in April 1996. In his Oro Valley, California home, they discovered a vast collection of artifacts to rival any church in the land, worth hundreds of thousands of dollars. Dongarra was released on bond, and on November 6, 1996, failed to appear at a change of plea hearing. The call came following the November 15, 1997, broadcast of Dongarra's profile on America's Most Wanted. A Pennsylvania priest reported that Dongarra had applied for a job at his parish in August. From the address the fugitive gave, it was a simple matter to trace Dongarra to a mail drop in Massachusetts, and from there to the Glastonbury Abbey in Hingham, MA. The officers arrived at the abbey at 7:30 AM, just too late. The priests were in the sanctuary engaged in their morning prayers. While one of them questioned a maintenance worker, Dongarra casually walked by -- the fraudulent father was late for his morning prayer! He was taken into custody to await an extradition hearing. (See Show #474, OAD 11/15/97)

James Bryan Gordon (child molestation) -- James Bryan Gordon is wanted for engaging in sexual relations with three brothers - from June 1982 until January 1994. In a particularly depraved example of his attacks on the brothers, police say Gordon took one of the boys flying. When they reached altitude, Gordon performed oral sex on the boy. Chandler, Arizona Police arrested Gordon after the boys found the courage to come forward and tell authorities about the abuse. But Gordon posted cash bond that very same day and disappeared before his trial. Following a brief bumper profile of less than ten seconds, viewer tips led authorities to Bossier City, Louisiana where Gordon was apprehended. (See Show #470, OAD 10/18/97)

Dean Robbins (Burglary, Auto Theft, Theft, Criminal Confinement, Criminal Recklessness, Pointing a Firearm) -- After a call to America's Most Wanted, a fugitive who vowed to never be taken alive is taken out. On November 29, 1997, Dean Robbins went on a bizarre crime spree following a routine traffic stop in Jennings County, Indiana. After smashing a police car, he led officers on a crazed chase which resulted in him finally shaking his pursuers. Robbins then took three citizens hostage, one after the other, at gunpoint using their cars to put distance between himself and the law. Each hostage escaped shaken but unharmed, even though police say he took at least one shot at his second hostage as she ran from her parked van. Robbins' getaway looked like a clean one until America's Most Wanted joined the manhunt by putting his mugshot out over television airwaves on December 13. Two days later, a viewer called the AMW hotline. The tipster served up the fugitive's location -- the Rewind Bar on 51st and McDowell in Phoenix, Arizona. Detectives moved in on the bar quietly, and spotted Robbins with a pitcher of beer at his side and a pistol tucked into his waistband. Backup was soon on the scene, and surveillance set up outside the watering hole. At around 10 PM, police report that Robbins left the bar and stumbled down the street. When approached by an unmarked police car, Robbins pulled his pistol, but before he could get a shot off, police fired, and Robbins was killed. No detectives were injured in the exchange. Phoenix detectives are investigating unsolved crimes in the area to determine whether Robbins continued his crime spree in their state. (See Show #477, OAD 12/13/97)

Jason Edwards (2nd degree murder, escape) -- Just hours after his profile appeared on America's Most Wanted, another fugitive is brought in. On January 24, America's Most Wanted profiled Jason Edwards, telling viewers to be on the lookout for a man with "Joyce" tattooed on his left arm. Well, "Joyce" turned out to be the key to the case -- he was hoping the girlfriend whose name he proudly wore could protect him from capture. He was wrong. Almost immediately after the AMW broadcast, the phone lines at the Washington DC crime center lit up. Edwards was back in the town of his original arrest, hiding at his girlfriend's house. The Longview police, working with the St. Landry Parish Sheriff's Office, quickly rallied a six-man team and found Edwards under a bed at Joyce's home. He was taken into custody without incident. Police discovered a .380 automatic pistol in the home, which had been stolen just weeks previous to the capture. Police now suspect that Edwards may have added burglary to his list of criminal activities. Edwards was awaiting trial on charges of 2nd degree murder for the death of his brother. Police say that the two brothers were arguing, and after the argument had reached a fever pitch, Edwards used his car to run his brother down. His brother died three weeks after the attack. One of the inmates who escaped from the St. Landry Parish Jail was caught a few days after the breakout, following a wild high-speed chase. The other partner in the escape, Jason Texada, is still wanted by police. (See above) (See Show #481, OAD 1/24/98)

MISSING CHILD ALERT:

Kemberly Ramer

Age: 17 Height: 5'4:
Weight: 130 pounds

Kemberly was last seen by her boyfriend on Friday, August 15, 1996, in her home town of Opp, Alabama. He claims that she left his house around 11:30 PM, saying that her father wanted her home by 12:30 AM. Kemberly's father returned home at 7:45 AM on August 16 to find his daughter missing. He believes she slept in her room that night, as her sheets were twisted, and her keys, glasses, contacts and driver's license were on the dresser. Agents with the FBI say that there were no signs of forced entry, but suspect foul play. Kemberly wears clear braces on her upper teeth, and has noticeably thick eyebrows. She enjoys playing softball and volleyball.

Note: If you have any information relating to fugitives or others featured on AMERICA'S MOST WANTED, you may call 1-800-CRIME-TV.

Mailing address: America's Most Wanted
P.O. Box CRIME TV
Washington, D.C. 20016

Or visit AMW on the World Wide Web at http://www.amw.com

KVRR/KBRR/KJRR/KNRR

1st QUARTER 1998

ISSUES AND PROGRAMMING

GENERAL

February, 1998

DATE	TIME	LENGTH	TITLE	TOPIC
2/1	8:00AM	30 Min.	FOX News Sunday	See Attached
2/2-2/6	5:30AM	30 Min.	First Business	See Attached
2/6	10:00AM	30 Min.	F.Y.I.	See Attached
2/7	7:00PM	60 Min.	Cops I & II	See Attached
2/7	8:00PM	60 Min.	Cops	See Attached
2/8	8:00AM	60 Min.	FOX News Sunday	See Attached
2/9-2/13	5:30AM	30 Min.	First Business	See Attached
2/14	7:00PM	60 Min.	Cops I & II	See Attached
2/14	8:00PM	60 Min.	Cops	See Attached
2/15	8:00AM	60 Min.	FOX News Sunday	See Attached
2/16-2/20	5:30AM	30 Min.	First Business	See Attached
2/21	7:00PM	60 Min.	Cops I & II	See Attached
2/21	8:00PM	60 Min.	America's Most Wanted	See Attached
2/22	8:00AM	60 Min.	FOX News Sunday	See Attached
2/23-2/27	5:30AM	30 Min.	First Business	See Attached
2/28	7:00PM	60 Min.	Cops I & II	See Attached
2/28	8:00PM	60 Min.	America's Most Wanted	See Attached

Brit Hume (Fox News), Juan Williams (The Washington Post & Fox News), Mara Liasson (National Public Radio & Fox News).

FOX NEWS SUNDAY TOPICS FOR SUNDAY, JANUARY 18, 1998

TOPICS AND GUESTS:
Is our war of words with Iraq headed for a war with weapons? Ambassador Nizar Hamdoon, Iraqi Ambassador to the United Nations and Ambassador Bill Richardson, U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations, answer.

How do we pay for President Clinton's healthcare initiatives? Sec. Donna Shalala, Department of Health & Human Services, answers.

Legislators Sen. Rick Santorum (R-PA) and Rep. Elizabeth Furse (D-OR) discuss the American debate on abortion and their personal experiences.

An update on the President's deposition in the Paula Jones lawsuit and a discussion with the panel.

PANELISTS:
Brit Hume (Fox News), Juan Williams (The Washington Post & Fox News), Mara Liasson (National Public Radio & Fox News).

FOX NEWS SUNDAY TOPICS FOR SUNDAY, JANUARY 25, 1998

TOPICS & GUESTS:
Sen. John Ashcroft (R-MO) discusses the role of the Judiciary Committee in the allegations of wrongdoing against the President.

Rep. Bill Archer (R-TX) discusses taxes and the GOP agenda.

Don Baer, former Communications Director for President Clinton, analyzes the President's ability to weather the storm.

PANELISTS:
Brit Hume (Fox News), Juan Williams (The Washington Post & Fox News), Mara Liasson (National Public Radio & Fox News).

FOX NEWS SUNDAY TOPICS FOR SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 1998

TOPICS AND GUESTS:
What does Monica Lewinsky have to say and when will she say it? William Ginsburg, Monica Lewinsky's attorney, answers.

Is Washington paralyzed by scandal or can President Clinton get his agenda past Congress? Franklin Raines, Director of the office of Management and Budget, and Sen. Pete Domenici (R-NM), Chairman of the Budget Committee, debate.

Is war with Iraq imminent? James Baker, former Secretary of State, weighs in.

PANELISTS:

Brit Hume (Fox News), Juan Williams (The Washington Post & Fox

FIRST BUSINESS
NATIONAL NEWS ADVISORY
JANUARY 30 – FEBRUARY 6, 1998

Made possible by MassMutual - The Blue Chip Company

FIRST BUSINESS is the daily, live half-hour of breaking international news, business news, stock market reports and small business profiles

Coming Up This Week:

FRIDAY 1/30/98

UFO BOOKSTORE:
Sci-Fi groupies take note. A Pasadena, California, bookstore is cornering the UFO market. First Business correspondent Bruce Page beams up.

MONDAY 2/2/98

BUSINESS TRENDS:
How are Asian markets affecting the U.S. economy? Will El Nino help or hurt investors? Are investors capitalizing on new IRA tax laws? First Business correspondent Tom Hendrick examines these and other business trends in the first of a three-part series.

TUESDAY 2/3/98

MILLENIUM APPROACHES:
You may just be getting used to dating your checks 1998, but the travel industry is closing in on a New Year's celebration two years hence. First Business correspondent Megan Beyer reports on the travel boom of the new millenium.

WEDNESDAY 2/4/98

CYBER DEALS:
Hundreds of small businesses are clamoring to get on the internet by forming partnerships with large online retailers. From New York City, First Business correspondent Trish McShane examines the pros and cons of cyber sales in an interview with Lori Ioannou, senior editor of Your Company magazine.

THURSDAY 2/5/98

1997 BLUE CHIP ENTERPRISE INITIATIVE AWARD WINNER - LEE MEDICAL:
What happens when you leave a great job to join a medical supply company that's in a code red situation? From Harahan, Louisiana, First Business correspondent Everett Banning reports on one small company with improving vital signs.

FRIDAY 2/6/98

SOMETHING'S FISHY:
Just when you thought every fast food concept had been tried, along come fish tacos. From Costa Mesa, California, First Business correspondent Bruce Page has the story of one entrepreneur with national expansion plans for his retail outlet. But, will he sink or swim?

For more information:

Director of Broadcast Promotion
Suzanne Cobb (202)463-5858

News Assignment Desk
Barbara Rosenkrans (202)463-5555

KVRR • KBRR • KJRR • KNRR

F.Y.I. #66

TAPE SESSION: 1/27/98 2PM

AIR DATE: FRIDAY FEB 6 1998 10:00AM-10:30AM

LENGTH: 30 MIN.

SEGMENT #1 TOPIC OF DISCUSSION:

WINTER DAYS
WEST FARGO PARK DISTRICT
CELEBRATION WITH MANY EVENTS-FAMILY
FEB 14-22

GUEST: BARB ERBSTOESSER

SEGMENT #2 TOPIC OF DISCUSSION:

HEARTS & SMILES
CHILDREN'S MUSEUM AT YUNKER FARM
CELEBRATE AMERICAN HEART & NATIONAL HEALTH MONTH
VALENTINES DAY
GIRL SCOUT NATIONAL THINKING DAY
CULTURAL AWARENESS/ROXANA SABERI, MISS ND
FEB 14-22

GUESTS: YVETTE NASSET

J. Warner/F.Y.I.
cc: KATHY/production/engr/traffic

P.O. Box 9115 Fargo, ND 58106
Phone: (701) 277-1515 Fax: (701) 277-1830

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 1998

8:00-8:30pm COPS "STURGES RALLY, SOUTH DAKOTA SPECIAL EDITION" (CP-1036)

8:30-9:00pm COPS "LAS VEGAS" (CP-1007) (R-10/11/97 PT ONLY) - ORIGINAL TO ALL OTHER TIME ZONES
(TV-PG: V,L)
"Family with AIDS" Officers are greeted by a boy who was caring for the younger siblings while his mother slept. When the mother is awakened she is belligerent and attacks the officers. After she is handcuffed and the grandmother is called to care for the kids, they learn the suspect is suffering full-blown AIDS. "Out of Control" Officers spot a parked car in the middle of the road where a mother and her 15 year-old child are arguing and the daughter refuses to go home because her mother had hit her. "Towel Man" Officers respond to a call involving a stoned man wearing only a towel in a neighbor's yard. He is booked for burglary.

9:00-9:30pm COPS "TEXAS" (CP-1028) (TV-PG: L)
"Poverty Sucks/Metro Crash" A routine traffic stop turns into a large drug bust when the suspects' car turns up countless drugs and weapons. Later, the officer stops another vehicle for a traffic violation. While questioning the driver outside his truck, another car comes crashing into the truck. The driver is intoxicated and arrested on DUI charges and drug possession. "Train Trapped" A passing train helps trap suspects who have fled the scene of a domestic disturbance. Once the train passes, the waiting officer cuffs them. "Good Samaritan" When an officer stops a car where both suspects are not wearing seat belts, he spots two bags of marijuana.

9:30-10:00 COPS "LAS VEGAS" (CP-1005) (R-09/20/97) (TV-14)
"Bat Battery" Officers respond to a call involving a woman who was battered with a baseball bat by a white male suspect. "Fun In The Tub" Officers respond to a call involving a burglary in progress. When they see that a window screen is broken they surround the house and then knock on the door. An elderly man answers and claims no one else is there besides he and his daughter. The officers soon discover that the daughter snuck in her boyfriend to take a bath with her. "Jail" Shown as a typical night in a Las Vegas jail, we see intoxicated men, inmates fighting, and the removal of a body piercing ring as a suspect is booked.

11:00p-12:00a MAD TV (MD-316)

News), Mara Liasson (National Public Radio & Fox News).

FOX NEWS SUNDAY LISTING FOR SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 1998

TOPIC AND GUESTS:
Can the U.S. and Britain hope for allies in military action against Iraq? Bill Richardson, U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations, answers.

Sen. Joseph Biden (D-DE), ranking member of the Foreign Relations Committee, and Sen. Richard Shelby (R-AL), Chairman of the Select Committee on Intelligence, discuss America's readiness for war.

Is Kenneth Starr abusing his power? Charles Rangel (D-NY) and Dan Burton (R-IN), debate.

Stuart Taylor, Legal Times, takes a look at what's next from the independent counsel's investigation.

PANELISTS:
Brit Hume (Fox News), Juan Williams (The Washington Post & Fox News), Mara Liasson (National Public Radio & Fox News).

FOX NEWS SUNDAY TOPICS FOR SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 1998

TOPICS AND GUESTS:
Has Ken Starr gone too far? Sen. Arlen Specter (R-PA), Judiciary Committee, and Sen. Dick Durbin (D-IL), Judiciary Committee, debate.

Could our war of words with Iraq turn into a world war? Sen. John McCain (R-AR), Armed Services Committee, answers.

Are we taxed too much? Dan Rostenkowski, former Chairman of House Ways and Means Committee, and Rep. Billy Tauzin (R-LA), consider.

PANELISTS:
Brit Hume (Fox News), Juan Williams (The Washington Post & Fox News), Catherine Crier (Fox News Channel).

FOX NEWS SUNDAY TOPICS FOR SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 1998

TOPICS AND GUESTS:
National Security Advisor Sandy Berger talks about last ditch efforts to avoid a U.S. attack on Iraq.

Will a war with Iraq prompt a meltdown of the Middle East peace process? Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu, answers.

Stuart Taylor, National Journal, offers the latest information coming from Kenneth Starr's investigation of the President.

Is the IRS cheating you? A look at problems with the IRS.

PANELISTS:
Brit Hume (Fox News), Juan Williams (The Washington Post & Fox News), Mara Liasson (National Public Radio).

FIRST BUSINESS
NATIONAL NEWS ADVISORY
FEBRUARY 6 – FEBRUARY 13, 1998

Made possible by MassMutual - The Blue Chip Company

FIRST BUSINESS is the daily, live half-hour of breaking international news, business news, stock market reports and small business profiles

Coming Up This Week:

FRIDAY 2/6/98

SOMETHING'S FISHY:
Just when you thought every fast food concept had been tried, along come fish tacos. From Costa Mesa, California, First Business correspondent Bruce Page has the story of one entrepreneur with national expansion plans for his retail outlet. But, will he sink or swim?

MONDAY 2/9/98

SUPERSHOW:
Now that FILA, Adidas and Reebok are gaining ground, will NIKE be able to flex its muscle again? From Atlanta, First Business correspondent Claire Leka has a look at the battle for dominance from inside the world's largest sporting goods show.

TUESDAY 2/10/98

INVISIMAIL:
How one entrepreneur's vision for online privacy has translated into a thriving business. First Business correspondent Tom Hendrick has the story of the software that's making e-mail safe and secure.

WEDNESDAY 2/11/98

FRANCHISE UPDATE:
The new year means a host of new opportunities for small businesspeople looking to franchise. Where can you find out what's available? We'll speak live with International Franchise Association president, Don Debolt.

THURSDAY 2/12/98

HEARTS & FLOWERS:
With Valentines Day quickly approaching, we'll have advice for all the last minute romantics who want to come up smelling like a rose. Jim McCann, chairman of 1-800-FLOWERS, joins us for a live interview.

FRIDAY 2/13/98

CHUCK TAYLORS:
For decades, Chuck Taylor all-star canvas athletic shoes were the only game in town. Now, "Chucks" are making a comeback. First Business correspondent Tracey Primrose has the story.

For more information:

Director of Broadcast Promotion
Suzanne Cobb (202)463-5858

News Assignment Desk
Barbara Rosenkrans (202)463-5555

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 1998

8:00-8:30pm COPS "LAS VEGAS: VICE SQUAD SPECIAL EDITION" (CP-1014) (TV-14: D,L)
"Escort Services" The Vice Squad sets up a sting operation using two undercover cops posing as husband and wife staying at a hotel. When the wife calls for an escort a woman arrives soliciting sexual services. "John Reversals" The Vice Squad set up another sting operation. Outside a motel, a female officer poses as a prostitute and immediately attracts attention. When a man approaches her and strikes a deal he is apprehended upon entering the hotel room. "Cab Sting" The Vice Squad go undercover in a taxi cab with one officer posing as the driver and another officer posing as a "john" looking for a prostitute. Three female suspects are apprehended.

8:30-9:00pm COPS "KANSAS CITY" (CP-1016) (R-11/2/97) (TV-PG: L,D)
"Too Young To Die" Officers respond to a call regarding a drive-by shooting. The victim is a 12 year-old boy who was riding with his sister and her friend when two men fired several shots at the vehicle. "Cut It Off" An officer receives a back-up call regarding a fight on a neighborhood street; however when he arrives there is a naked man sitting in the street. The officers discover that the man has a mental illness and reacted such when he failed to take his medication. "Grandpa's Girlfriend" Officers respond to a domestic disturbance call between a landlord and a tenant. The landlord claims that the tenant was doing drugs and consequently trashed his apartment.

9:00-9:30pm COPS "TEXAS" (CP-1032)

9:30-10:00 COPS "LAS VEGAS" (CP-1010) (R-12/6/97) (TV-14: V,D)
"Ginsu Stabbing" An officer responds to a domestic disturbance call and finds a man and woman fighting on top of the stairs. The man, whose arm is cut and bloody, claims that the woman stabbed him; she however claims that he hit her and is now trying to frame her. "No Idea" An officer pulls up behind a parked truck in a prostitution area and finds an older man with a younger woman. After the officer finds a condom wrapper, he issues citations to both of them. "Sweet But Mean" Officers respond to a domestic abuse call and find the victim bloodied and bruised. She claims that her boyfriend beat her up. The officers apprehend the suspect nearby but he denies the allegations.

11:00p-12:00a MAD TV (MD-303)
SKETCHES: Bill Clinton in Liar Liar 2, Dennis Miller, KLUMPS, Darlene McBride.

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 1998

7:00-8:00pm THE WORLD'S FUNNIEST (FUN-116) THEME: HOT SUMMER

8:00-8:30pm THE SIMPSONS "DAS BUS" (SI-911)
The children of Springfield are shipwrecked on an island a la "Lord of The Flies."

8:30-9:00pm KING OF THE HILL "3 DAYS OF THE KHANDO" (KH-215)
The Hills go on vacation with Kahn and his family to Mexico. Hank, Dale, and Kahn have their identification confiscated when they try to bribe a police officer. The guys have to sneak back across the border to the United States.

GUEST VOICES: PAUL RODRIQUEZ

9:00-10:00pm THE X-FILES "KILL SWITCH" (XF-511)
An episode written by sci-fi novelist WILLIAM GIBSON.

Mulder and Scully investigate the disappearance of two computer geniuses and discover their deaths were orchestrated by the fully conscious supercomputer they created. In an effort to extract the disable code from Mulder, the computer pulls him into a Virtual Reality nightmare from which he may never escape.

EASYLINK 2329084L001.006 13FEB98 15:58/15:58 EST
FROM: 62942572
FOX BROADCASTING
TO: 62958312
ATTN: KVRR TV

EASYLINK # 2.40

TO: PROGRAM DIRECTORS, PROMOTION MANAGERS, NEWS DIRECTORS

FR: NETWORK DISTRIBUTION

DT: FEBRUARY 13, 1998

RE: FOX NEWS SUNDAY TOPICS FOR SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 1998

****

TOPICS AND GUESTS:

Has Ken Starr gone too far? Sen. Arlen Specter (R-PA), Judiciary Committee, and Sen. Dick Durbin (D-IL), Judiciary Committee, debate.

Could our war of words with Iraq turn into a world war? Sen. John McCain (R-AR), Armed Services Committee, answers.

Are we taxed too much? Dan Rostenkowski, former Chairman of House Ways and Means Committee, and Rep. Billy Tauzin (R-LA) consider.

PANELISTS:

Brit Hume(Fox News), Juan Williams(The Washington Post & Fox News), Catherine Crier(Fox News Channel).

FIRST BUSINESS
NATIONAL NEWS ADVISORY
FEB. 13 – FEB. 20, 1998

Made possible by MassMutual - The Blue Chip Company

FIRST BUSINESS is the daily, live half-hour of breaking international news, business news, stock market reports and small business profiles

Coming Up This Week:

FRIDAY 2/13/98

CHUCK TAYLORS:
For decades, Chuck Taylor all-star canvas athletic shoes were the only game in town. Now, "Chucks" are making a comeback. First Business correspondent Tracey Primrose has the story.

MONDAY 2/16/98

TULALIP:
The story of an Native American tribe that rescued itself from economic depression. From Marysville, Washington, First Business correspondent Trish McShane has an in-depth look at the Tulalip tribe.

TUESDAY 2/17/98

FOLLOW THE LEADER:
Great leaders are made, not born. Learn how to apply cutting-edge leadership skills to your small business in a live interview with Robert Danzig, author of The Leader Within You.

WEDNESDAY 2/18/98

HI-TECH FREE AGENTS:
Sports superstars are not the only ones negotiating lucrative multi-year, perk-filled deals. The hi-tech industry is hurting for talent, and those once considered geeks are now being wooed and wowed. First Business correspondent Megan Beyer reports.

THURSDAY 2/19/98

1997 BLUE CHIP ENTERPRISE AWARD WINNER: THERMAX:
How one entrepreneur cleaned up with an innovative carpet vacuuming system. From Reno, Nevada, First Business correspondent Everett Banning has the story.

FRIDAY 2/20/98

HABERDASHERY:
Whether it's a beret, bowler or Stetson, hats are making a comeback. Not since honest Abe's stovepipe have hats had such an impact on men's fashion. First Business correspondent Tom Hendrick reports.

For more information:

Director of Broadcast Promotion
Suzanne Cobb (202)463-5858

News Assignment Desk
Barbara Rosenkrans (202)463-5555

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 1998

8:00-8:30pm COPS "TEXAS" (CP-1031) (TV-14: V)
"Uncle Needs Glasses" Officers respond to a shooting and find the suspect in the nearby yard and cuff him. Inside, they discover that the suspect had shot his nephew whom he had mistaken for an intruder. "Friends or Enemies" Officers respond to a stabbing report and find the victim bloodied but in good spirits. The victim admits to getting in a fight but refuses to cooperate and identify suspects. He is taken to the hospital for additional treatment. "Tower of Power" Officers respond to a suicide standoff where the suspect has climbed a water tower and is distraught over his relationship with his parents. When they are unable to get him to come down, they bring in his sister and uncle for help. When the suspect climbs down he is taken into custody for psychiatric help.

8:30-9:00pm COPS "LAS VEGAS" (CP-1006) (R-9/6/97) (TV-PG: L)
"Gold Coast" Mike Growney,V.P. and General Manager of Las Vegas' Gold Coast Casino gives a behind-the-scenes look at casino security systems. Growney provides examples of how customers attempt to cheat and steal but to no avail. "Child's Play" An officer responds to a reported shooting outside a nearby residence. Neighborhood kids claim that the suspect threatened them with the gun, however the suspect claimed that he was holding the gun to protect himself while trying to quiet the kids down. No arrests were made. "Weekend at Bernie's" Officers respond to a domestic dispute and find an elderly couple who have been suspects in prior dispute reports. The officers suggest they cool down in separate rooms and then leave the couple to resolve their differences.

9:00-10:00pm AMERICA'S MOST WANTED: AMERICA FIGHTS BACK "JON BENET RAMSEY CASE SPECIAL EDITION" (MW-1120) (TV-PG: V)
The entire hour is devoted to an expert team examining the forensic evidence and revelations in the JonBenet Ramsey case.

11:00p-12:00a MAD TV "BEST OF MAD TV: SICK AND TWISTED/IN THE HOOD"(MD-231/232)
SKETCHES: Ice-T/Ice Cube, Menace II High Society, Dentist In A Box, Furious George, Rescue 911

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 20, 1998

8:00-10:30pm MOVIE SPECIAL: "SPEED" (FM-9712) (R-11/19/97) (TV-PG: L,V)
This riveting action-drama follows an LAPD cop, Jack Traven, trapped on a runaway city bus filled with passengers and set to explode if its speed drops below 50 mph. Until now Traven's fearless nature, keen understanding of the criminal mind, and luck have kept him alive. Get ready for rush hour!

STARRING: KEANU REEVES (Devil's Advocate, Point Break), SANDRA BULLOCK (A Time To Kill, Speed 2), and DENNIS HOPPER (Hoosiers)

TO: Fox Affiliates

FROM: Darlene Lieblich

DATE: February 23, 1998

SUBJECT: AMERICA'S MOST WANTED: -- Show #483 (MW-1120) OAD 2/21/98

AMW IN SAN FRANCISCO

The following are the featured fugitives and others being sought by federal, state or local authorities. The Update (if any) gives current status, previous references, or related information.

Tony Ray Amati (Murder) - Police in Las Vegas believe they have solved, but not yet closed, a case with no easy answers. Why were Michael Matta, John Garcia, and Keith Dyer killed in cold blood on three separate occasions? Why were they shot up to twenty times each with no provocation by multiple weapons? And how did suspect Tony Ray Amati go from the high school honor rolls to AWM's fugitive list? Investigators say that the Las Vegas bloodbath began when Amati, Troy Sampson, and Eddie James broke into a local gun store and made off with 75 firearms. A day later, the homeless Michael matta was found dead. Police were aghast at the number of guns and bullets used to take Michael's life - they now believe he was just a test for the stolen weapons and a sick thrill for the killers. Seventy-five guns meant a lot of testing. Two months later, 49-year-old John Garcia was gunned down in his driveway. The overkill was chillingly similar. Then, less than four weeks after the Garcia killing, another barrage of bullets felled 22-year-old Keith Dyer. Keith was walking his co-worker, Stacey Dooley, back to her apartment when three men dressed in black approached them. One of them had a laser sight fitted to his pistol, which he fixed on Keith. Stacey survived the attack, but watched in horror as the killers pumped round after round into Keith's prone body. She says the gunmen were laughing as they fled the scene. On October 3, 1996, Amati, Sampson and James were all arrested after allegedly attempting to sell stolen weapons to undercover detectives. The arrest prompted the search of Amati's home, where they found a handgun fitted with a laser sigh. Police say ballistics testing would later determine that it had been used in all three of these heinous crimes. But by that time, Amati had posted bail and disappeared. Even more inexplicable than these random slayings Amati's alleged involvement. Incredibly intelligent, organized, and motivated, Amati's friends and family are still reeling from the allegations. Police believe that this obsessively neat and tidy young man has now become obsessed with being a wise-guy gangster, which makes him all that much more ruthless. Amati's most recognizable feature is his thin mustache. Amati is 23, 5'7", and 155 pounds.

Eric Robert Rudolph (Causing the Death of a Person, Use of an Explosive) -- A moonlighting police officer becomes the first fatality of anti-abortion bombings. Friends of slain Officer Robert Sanderson of the Birmingham Police Department, Alabama, can't see his death as part of a political action. Even though he was moonlighting as a security guard for a family planning clinic, they say he was outside of the abortion controversy - that he was just doing his job, that he was enforcing the law. But on January 29, 1998, someone took his life with a cowardly and indiscriminate homemade bomb loaded with nails - a bomb designed to kill and maim, not just to damage property. The same bomb seriously injured nurse Emily Lyons as she opened the clinic, depriving her of sight in her left eye and leaving her with several broken bones and burns. Authorities now say that man is Eric Robert Rudolph, a mysterious and reclusive man from the rugged mountains of North Carolina. Immediately after the bomb went off, witnesses saw a man wearing a wig fleeing the scene. Three witnesses saw his truck pull away, and were able to provide a description and a license plate number. The truck was then traced to Rudolph, but he had already made his escape. Police found Rudolph's truck in a pasture near Murphy, North Carolina on February 7, 1998. They believe the experienced woodsman may be hiding out somewhere in the Great Smokey Mountains, but they also believe that his rage, now unleashed, will cause him to strike again. Rudolph has used the alias Bob Randolph. He is estranged from his family. He spent 18 months in the US Army, but has a reputation for anti-government views. He is an experienced woodsman who completed army survival training. Rudolph is 31, 5'11", and 150 pounds.

Unknown (Felony Hit-and-Run) -- The police are seeking public's help in identifying a car and driver. On November 8, 1997, the body of 37-year-old James Klein was found off Elkhorn Road in Salinas, California. Police say he was traveling south on his bicycle when an unidentified car drove off the roadway at approximately 8:00 p.m. and sent James flying into the guardrail. Police found headlight fragments at the scene, but are appealing to the public for more information on this felony crime.

Gustavo Anguiano Meza (Kidnapping) -- Police in Pasadena, CA are conducting an extensive search for the girl and her suspected kidnapper. Police believe that Olga Mendez was abducted by her mother's former boyfriend, Gustavo Anguiano Meza. On August 12, 1985, Meza picked up Olga from Wilson Middle School in Pasadena, and neither has been seen since. As Meza has no car, police believe they are either traveling by bus or with the help of friends. Meza has dark hair graying at the temples. He wears tight pants, large belt buckles and cowboys hats. He may also wear a mustache. Meza, a heavy drinker, has worked in painting, tiling and gardening. He has family in both San Francisco and Tijuana. Meza is 40, 5'7", and 150 pounds. (See below)

MISSING CHILD ALERT:

Olga Mendez

Age: 12 Height: 5'6"
Weight: 150

Police in Pasadena, CA are conducting an extensive search for the girl and her suspected kidnapper. Police believe that Olga Mendez was abducted by her mother's former boyfriend, Gustavo Anguiano Meza. On August 12, 1985, Meza picked up Olga from Wilson Middle School in Pasadena, and neither has been seen since. As Meza has no car, police believe they are either traveling by bus or with the help of friends. When last seen, Olga was wearing a white and purple shirt, black pants, black jacket, and white tennis shoes. Olga has pierced ears, is quiet and shy, and speaks both English and Spanish. (See above)

FEATURES:

AMW continues its updated coverage on the JonBenet Ramsey case. America's top forensics experts lend their expertise to the investigation.

Football star Charles Haley is asking the public for help: his daughter Brianna needs a bone marrow transplant to survive, and the donor marrow must be a perfect match. The Haleys are asking the public to be tested to see if someone out there has the right type bone marrow and can save their little girl's life.

Note: If you have any information relating to fugitives or others featured on AMERICA'S MOST WANTED, you may call 1-800-CRIME-TV.

Mailing address: America's Most Wanted
P.O. Box CRIME TV
Washington, D.C. 20016

Or visit AMW on the World Wide Web at http://www.amw.com

EASYLINK 6487388L001.006 20FEB98 16:10/16:10 EST
FROM: 62942572
FOX BROADCASTING
TO: 62958312
ATTN: KVRR TV

EASYLINK # 2.71

TO: PROGRAM DIRECTORS, PROMOTION DIRECTORS
NEWS DIRECTORS

FR: NETWORK DISTRIBUTION

DT: FEBRUARY 20, 1998

RE: FOX NEWS SUNDAY TOPICS FOR SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 1998

****
TOPICS AND GUESTS:

National Security Advisor Sandy Berger talks about last ditch efforts to avoid a U.S. attack on Iraq.

Will a war with Iraq prompt a meltdown of the Middle East peace process? Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu, answers.

Stuart Taylor, National Journal, offers the latest information coming from Ken Starr's investigation of the President.

Is the IRS cheating you? A look at problems with the IRS.

PANELISTS:

Brit Hume(Fox News), Juan Williams(The Washington Post & Fox News), Mara Liasson(National Public Radio).

FIRST BUSINESS

NATIONAL NEWS ADVISORY
FEB. 20 – FEB. 27, 1998

Made possible by MassMutual - The Blue Chip Company

FIRST BUSINESS is the daily, five half-hour of breaking international news, business news, stock market reports and small business profiles

Coming Up This Week:

FRIDAY 2/20/98

HABERDASHERY:
Whether it's a beret, bowler, or Stetson, hats are making a comeback. Not since honest Abe's stovepipe, have hats had such an impact on men's fashion. First Business correspondent Tome Hendrick reports.

MONDAY 2/23/98

SILICON ALLEY:
Far from Silicon Valley, a new hi-tech Mecca has sprung up. From New York City, First Business correspondent Trish McShane has the story of the new media companies that are keeping small business in the "big apple" ripe.

TUESDAY 2/24/98

FAT TUESDAY:
It's that time of year again...when the Big Easy pulls out all the stops for its annual Mardi Gras celebration. From New Orleans, First Business correspondent Ann Carroll has a look at the parade, the party and the profits for small business.

WEDNESDAY 2/25/98

WELFARE TO WORK:
The business community has rallied behind an innovative program designed to get Americans off welfare. First Business correspondent Dan Kush reports.

THURSDAY 2/26/98

FUELING BUSINESS:
Where is the petroleum industry headed? We'll have an exclusive interview with Wayne Allen, CEO of Phillips Petroleum.

FRIDAY 2/27/98

ON THE GREEN:
One of the most popular golf clubs sold today might be one you've never heard of. From Inoio, California, First Business correspondent Bruce Page has the story of one small company that is driving profits through its distinctive "Matzie" clubs.

For more information:

Director of Broadcast Promotion
Suzanne Cobb (202)463-5858

News Assignment Desk
Barbara Rosenkrans (202)463-5555

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1998

8:00-8:30pm COPS "HOUSTON" (CP-1030)
"Wrong Place Robber" An officer comes across a liquor store robbery in progress and shots are fired. The suspect flees but is later discovered unconscious nearby. He admits to officers that he is high on cocaine. "That's Stupid" An officer responds to a domestic dispute call and finds a man holding a child claiming that his wife is drunk and abusive. The wife meanwhile insists that it is her husband who is abusive. When she hands the officers her i.d. a joint is caught in the paperwork. She is arrested and they discover that she has violated parole. "Doublemint Twins" Officers respond to a domestic disturbance call where tow identical twin sisters are abusing one another. The instigator, as determined by a witness, is arrested.

8:30-9:00pm COPS "LAS VEGAS" (CP-1008) (R-11/1/97)(350TH EPISODE) (TV-14: D)
"Prostitution-Johns" Las Vegas officers set up a prostitution sting where Officer Payson allures two customers. The first suspect claims it was his first time soliciting prostitution while the second, who was formerly in the army, appreciates not being tortured by the officers as he was in combat. "His Lucky Day" Officers drive by an exit ramp where an accident just took place. A Jeep is overturned after being hit by a truck. The victim manages to escape from the vehicle and the officers soon after discover that the truck driver is intoxicated. "For The Baby" Officers spot a vehicle with a stolen license plate at a convenience store and proceed to follow the car. Upon pulling it over they find the driver with a passenger and infant. The suspect claims the car is his own and that he received the plates from a friend since he was just released from jail on drug charges.

9:00-10:00pm AMERICA'S MOST WANTED: AMERICA FIGHTS BACK
"AMERICA'S MOST WANTED'S 500TH CAPTURE SPECIAL EDITION"(MW-1121)

11:00p-12:00a MAD TV (MD-317)
GUEST STAR: JERRY SPRINGER

SUNDAY, MARCH 1, 1998

7:00-8:00pm THE WORLD'S FUNNIEST (FUN-113) THEME: ANIMALS #3

HOST: JAMES BROWN (NFL on FOX, NHL on FOX)

8:00-8:30pm THE SIMPSONS "DUMBBELL INDEMNITY" (SI-912)
Moe needs fast money to impress his new girlfriend, so he devises an insurance scam, which involves Homer stealing his car. Their friendship is put to the test after Moe fails to rescue Homer when he is thrown in jail for grand theft auto.

GUEST VOICE: HELEN HUNT (Mad About You, As Good As It Gets)

8:30-9:00pm KING OF THE HILL "HANK'S DIRTY LAUNDRY" (KH-216)
Hank tries to buy a new washing machine at a department store and finds out that he has a terrible credit rating. Knowing it must be a mistake, Hank ventures into the bureaucratic world of banking to clear his name. The source of the problem turns out to be an unreturned pornographic video that Hank never rented.

9:00-10:00pm THE X-FILES "PATIENT X" (Part 1 of 2)(XF-513)
Abductees are returning enmass to their abduction sites, only to become victims of a bizarre series of mass murders. As Mulder and Scully begin to uncover a cloaked conspiracy involving alien colonization, Scully's history as an anductee comes full circle, when she is called to the site of her own abduction, only to realize that the price of the truth may be her own life.

TO: Fox Affiliates

FROM: Darlene Lieblich

DATE: March 2, 1998

SUBJECT: AMERICA'S MOST WANTED: -- Show #484 (MW-1121) OAD 2/28/98

AMW'S 500TH CAPTURE CELEBRATION

The following are the featured fugitives and others being sought by federal, state or local authorities. The Update (if any) gives current status, previous references, or related information.

This week's broadcast features profiles of fugitives captured as a result of AMW broadcasts range from first capture David James Roberts to capture #500, Amy DeChant:

Amy Rica DeChant (Murder with a Deadly Weapon, Conspiracy to Commit Murder) -- America's Most Wanted viewers directed police to their 500th fugitive, who was hiding in broad daylight--at the Sunnier Days nudist colony in Ft. Pierce, Florida. On January 3, 1998, Amy Rica DeChant was featured on America's Most Wanted. The uninhibited DeChant was placed by viewers at the minimalist campground, using the alias Sandy Wade. Although detectives acted immediately on the information, when they arrived at the colony, they learned that "Sandy" had returned to the land of the clothed a few days before the program aired, telling her friends that things were about to "get hot" for her. She was right. On the morning of January 28, police received another tip, that DeChant had returned to the Ft. Pierce area. Detectives dispatched to the address provided by the tipster discovered the extravagant Dechant dressed modestly in a nightgown. She admitted her true identity, and was taken into custody. Police say the 49-year-old Amy Rica DeChant is a vicious black widow with an insatiable appetite for wealthy men. They claim that DeChant once got a boyfriend wound so tightly around her finger that he flew in 450 pounds of cocaine for her, only to have her turn him in so she could clean out his apartment. "Once she has what they have to offer, she moves on to the next man," reported Detective Paul Bigham of Las Vegas, the seedy site of what investigators say was DeChant's last big score. Her alleged victim: Las Vegas bookie Bruce Weinstein. Even among the tacky neon glitz of sin city, authorities say Weinstein's wealth was a beacon to the conniving DeChant, who charmed her way into his life, not to mention his mansion, in July 1996. It seems everyone around them, even Bruce's mother Sylvia, thought it was true love. That is, until DeChant started asking about Bruce's riches. Bruce's mother told AMW that Bruce was considering putting up $50,000 toward a bar for DeChant. When mom said this was maybe a bit premature, he declined. Next, DeChant was asking about a house Bruce was building, and how maybe it could conveniently go under her name. Again, it was Sylvia who disapproved, this time to DeChant herself. Three days later, Bruce vanished. Police say that his stash of $100,000 vanished with him. The body of the 260-pound Bruce Weinstein was discovered in the Nevada desert on August 11, 1996. His body had been partially decomposed with industrial-strength cleaning fluids. Police started taking tests at the Weinstein mansion with luminol, a blood-detection chemical, revealing a trail of blood invisible to the naked eye and suggesting that Bruce had been dragged from his home. The new evidence sent DeChant on the run. (See Shows #1019 and 478, OADs 4/12/97 and 1/3/98)

Note: If you have any information relating to fugitives or others featured on AMERICA'S MOST WANTED, you may call 1-800-CRIME-TV.

Mailing address: America's Most Wanted
P.O. Box CRIME TV
Washington, D.C. 20016

Or visit AMW on the World Wide Web at http://www.amw.com