Teddi Domann- Pro Football Camp

Pro Football Camp was founded in 2006 by four people who wanted to give back to the Colorado Springs community. Utilizing the gifts and talents given to them by God, they launched a youth football camp featuring current and former NFL athletes as the coaches and local coaches supporting them in teaching proper football skills. In addition, the NFL athletes share their journeys and the character that it takes to play at the highest level. Finally, foundational to the camp is the scholarship program. <https://profootballcamp.com/>

Dana Schield- Colorado Springs Airport

There are two major airports in Colorado. Fly COS is the small one. This might seem like a funny thing to embrace. But it's true, and it means several big benefits for all the passengers. Flying a small airport means small lines, small waits and small walks. It means a low stress place to start and finish your travels. Go fly with the Colorado Springs Airport and enjoy Colorado's small airport. www.flycos.com

Sandy Halby- PILLAR Institute for Lifelong Learning

PILLAR Institute for Lifelong Learning is the only independent lifelong learning institute in the Pikes Peak region and throughout southern Colorado. It is a volunteer-driven membership organization that is open to all adults. PILLAR produces liberal arts and science opportunities for those young at heart. For 23 years, PILLAR has created opportunities where older adults can come to socialize, volunteer, and keep their brains active through curiosity and learning. <https://www.pillarinstitute.org/>

4/9 & 4/10

Theodore Thompson- Special Kids Special Families

SKSF's Foster Care & Adoption program places children with special needs, including mental, emotional and physical disabilities into loving and caring homes. They serve children of all ethnicities, ages and situations. It is uniquely positioned as the "go-to" agency supporting foster children with disabilities due to its integration and access to the full range of SKSF programs and services. Foster families under the supervision of SKSF, experience an exceptional amount of support and involvement from the staff to ensure the highest level of care possible. <http://sksfcolorado.org/programs/foster-care/>

Linda Weise- Colorado Springs Community Cultural Collective at City Auditorium

At its peak, Colorado Springs City Auditorium was a building full of life both day and night. As our great city grew, we saw as other venues were erected to support the cultural arts. Our once beautiful building has transitioned slowly to a place of disrepair. The aim is to give this cherished landmark a heart transplant that will keep this important icon delivering memories and inspiration for another century into the future. Help them create a place where they can provide a diverse programming that improves and uplifts our local community. <https://communityculturalcollective.org/>

Theresa Strader- National Mill Dog Rescue

National Mill Dog Rescue was established in February 2007, in honor of a forgiving little Italian Greyhound named Lily. Theresa Strader, NMDR's Founder and Executive Director, rescued Lily from a dog auction in Missouri. Prior to that day, Lily had spent the first seven years of her life as a commercial breeding dog, a puppy mill mom. Determined that her years of living in misery would not be in vain, Strader started NMDR, giving a voice to mill dogs across the country. <https://nmdr.org/>
