ISSUES/PROGRAMS STATION/DATE/TIME	QTR 2013	PROGRAM/SEGMENT	NARRATION OF TYPE & DESCRIPTION OF PROG	DURATION
WFKY - Froggy 104 9/5-11-13/7am	Q2	Focus on Frankfort	Interviewed Samulea Daum from the Franklin County Council on Family Abuse regarding the cut back in government funding to organizations such as the Franklin County Council on Family Abuse, and lots of other organizations like hers. We also discussed the need for their facility due to the increase in domestic violence abuse, child abuse, and elder abuse. We also discussed some upcoming fundrasers they are having to help support their mission	05:00
WFKY - Froggy 104 9/6-07-13/7am	Q2	Focus on Frankfort	Gator reported on the future expansion of the Boone National Guard Center Army Aviation Support Facility, and some neighbors aren't happy. Gator also reported on the new outlet mall in Simpsonville. Gator also reported on the issue of crwell in East Frankfort, and what the city is going to do about it. Gator also reported on the Finchville Boy Scout Troop 137 shutting down due to the BSA's new policy to accept openly gay scouts. Gator also reported on the expansion of Frankfort Regional Medical Center. Gator reported on the new plans of the Kentucky Riverfront Development in Frankfort	06:20
WFKY - Froggy 104 9/9-19-13/8am	Q2	Morning Jump Start	Gator interviewed Ashley Adams from the Woodford County/Versailles Rotary regarding a program called the "Repair Fair" in which they repair homes/properties for low income residents in Woodford County who are either disbled or elderly. They are taking applications for the program.	04:02
WFKY - Froggy 104 9/9-23-13/7am	Q2	Focus On Frankfort	Jayme Nosey discussed the Frankfort Plant Board raising rates and about the local Frankfort Water Quality study. She also discussed a new program that Lindsey Wilson College is offering called the Master of Education Program Teachers as Leaders. Jayme talked about the recent Kentucky Correctional Industries accreditation audit score and the state funding to curb online gambling. Jayme talked about Governor Beshear calling a special session for later on this summer for lawmakers. Jayme talked about a story about the Frankfort Assistant Fire Chief and possible safety violations. She spoke about the Kentucky jobless rate rose last month and she talked about the 221st anniversary of the Kentucky National Guard	02:30
WFKY - Froggy 104 9/9-30-13/7am	Q2	Focus On Frankfort	Jayme Nosey discussed the following issues: the new principal at Peaks Mill Elementary, the Kentucky State University review, Kentucky re-districting case, Bob King's new contract, the Kentucky Historical Society Pl. Baker, Franklin County Humane Society meeting, Logan Patterson's Red Cross scholarship, Kentucky Children's well being ranked, Frankfort City Commission waste water facility, no Kentucky prison inmates are currently housed in private facilities, the Franklin County Judicial Center construction delays, Franklin County Public Schools raised drop out age from 16 to 18, Eastern Company Power Cooperative sub station in Simpsonville, Buffalo Trace as a national historic landmark, John Mark Hack's election complaint, Kentucky Cancer Foundation colon cancer grant, Taylorsville Lake algae warning, Kentucky State Treasury lottery sales, Kentucky law enforcement distracted driver program, and the Frankfort Senior Activity Center needs volunteers	05:48