Community Focus

5:46-5:50 p.m.

March 02-06, 2015

Post flood precautions-The Martin County Health Department warns of health hazards which may exist in flood waters left from the weekend. (Environment, public safety, health care issues)

Medical kiosks-New kiosks allow doctors to see patients by video. (Health Care, technology issues)

Kyle Kryak-A Port St. Lucie resident with Tourette Syndrome pedals to California to raise awareness. (Youth, health care issues)

PSL and VGTI-Port St. Lucie officials address concerns about the financial stability of VGTI. (Economic, good government issues)

Troubles with state tests-Schools administering the new state mandated tests have not had good luck. (Education, youth, technology issues.