

Scripps Broadcasting Holdings, LLC

WLEX

LEX18

Lexington, Kentucky

FCC Issues & Programs Report

Q4 2020

Programs that provide issue-responsive segments:

LEX 18 News at Sunrise (M-F 4:30a-7a)

LEX 18 News at Noon (M-F 12p-12:30p)

LEX 18 News at 12:30 (M-F 12:30p-1p)

LEX 18 News at 4 (M-F 4p-4:30p)

LEX 18 News at 5 (M-F 5p-5:30p)

LEX 18 News at 5:30 (M-F 5:30p-6:00p)

LEX 18 News at 6 (M-F 6p-6:30p)

LEX 18 News Evening Edition at 7 (M-F 7p-7:30p)

LEX 18 News at 11 (M-F 11p-11:35p)

LEX 18 News Weekend Sunrise (Sat 6a-7a & 8:30a-9a, Sun 7a-8a & 9a-10a)

The following summarizes a representative sample of programming that provided the most significant treatment of community issues during the past quarter. Programming frequently deals with more than one issue.

Issues of Local Community Importance featured in Newscasts and listed in this report:

1. The Rebound
2. Health & Wellness
3. Political News
4. Unemployment
5. Education News

WLEX-TV

Q4 Issues/Programming Report

October-December 2020

1. Issue: The Rebound

Program: LEX 18 News Evening Edition at 7 pm

Air Date: 10/12/20

Segment Duration: 2:01

Description: A Corbin couple opens a small café and bakery during the pandemic and is now helping other small businesses in the process. They bought an old bank building and now they are renting out the extra space to other small businesses.

2. Issue: The Rebound

Program: LEX 18 News at 5 pm

Air Date: 10/14/20

Segment Duration: 1:34

Description: As the economy begins to rebound from COVID-19 more and more people are heading back to work. And a business in Winchester offered an opportunity for about 200 people to do just that. LEX18'S Claire Crouch took a look at who's hiring in this edition of the Rebound Kentucky.

3. Issue: The Rebound

Program: LEX 18 News at Sunrise at 6 am

Air Date: 10/28/20

Segment Duration: 1:34

Description: Delays in medical care are nothing new right now because of the pandemic -- but have you thought about the toll the pandemic has taken on your teeth? Mark Charter explores the growing issue of dental delay in this edition of the Rebound.

4. Issue: The Rebound

Program: LEX 18 News at 6 pm

Air Date: 11/5/20

Segment Duration: 2:17

Description: The Lexington Rescue Mission is finding a way to provide for Thanksgiving, even during a pandemic. The organization is turning to grab-and-go services instead of the traditional big sit-down meal. The need is high this year and they are still looking for volunteers, drivers, and donations to pull off Thanksgiving.

5. Issue: The Rebound

Program: LEX 18 News at 5:30 pm

Air Date: 11/10/20

Segment Duration: 2:08

Description: Non-profits have really taken a hit during the pandemic with fewer donations. The Lexington Leadership Foundation, a faith-based non-profit, is now vying for a national award that could bring thousands of dollars in to benefit children, families, and fathers in the community.

6. Issue: The Rebound

Program: LEX 18 News at 11 pm

Air Date: 11/23/20

Segment Duration: 1:50

Description: Owners of a meal prep service in Lexington are mobilizing to make sure restaurants employees out of work don't go hungry. The co-owners of Balance Bleu have been able to deliver more than 1,000 meals during the pandemic but they're hoping for more stimulus money to help the restaurant industry. Furloughed workers can apply for meals.

7. Issue: The Rebound

Program: LEX 18 News at 6 pm

Air Date: November 24th

Segment Duration: 1:45

Description: Two Lexington boutiques are finding alternative ways to reach customers during Black Friday sales with curbside pickups, more online sales, strict mask-wearing policies, and extra cleanings inside the store.

8. Issue: The Rebound

Program: LEX 18 News Evening Edition at 7 pm

Air Date: 11/24/20

Segment Duration: 1:54

Description: Artists are finding hope after struggling through the pandemic with the opening of a new marketplace in Lexington where multiple vendors can sell their goods year-round.

9. Issue: The Rebound

Program: LEX 18 News at 6 pm

Air Date: 12/01/20

Segment Duration: 2:37

Description: Months after profiling Joe Bologna's, an Italian restaurant that's been an institution in Lexington for years, we revisited the owner to see how he's managed to keep his business afloat during the pandemic. The owner says he's down 50% in revenue, the SBA loan money he received only lasted eight weeks, and he's nervous about the lean winter months.

10. Issue: The Rebound

Program: LEX 18 News at 6 pm

Air Date: 12/02/20

Segment Duration: 2:25

Description: The Nostalgia Station Toy Museum in Versailles, which would normally be busy during the holidays, is struggling this year through the pandemic. It has seen a decline in retail sales and attendance. Fewer people are visiting to see the expansive train displays but the trains will keep on chugging and they hope visitors will come to take a step back in time.

11. Issue: The Rebound

Program: LEX 18 News at 6 pm

Air Date: 12/07/20

Segment Duration: 2:34

Description: Memory trees are lighting up the courthouse lawn in Carlisle in honor of lost loved ones. It's the second year the town is doing this but this year is different. Three people lost to COVID-19 are being honored and despite the pandemic, the light display is lifting spirits in the town as they remember loved ones with a beautiful light display.

12. Issue: The Rebound

Program: LEX 18 News at 5:30 pm

Air Date: 12/11/20

Segment Duration: 2:12

Description: When the pandemic hit, students and families relying on the USDA school lunch program were severely impacted. The "Berea Kids Eat" program, a program through Berea College, is distributing thousands of meals every week to a community in need.

13. Issue: The Rebound

Program: LEX 18 News at 6 pm

Air Date: 12/14/20

Segment Duration: 2:28

Description: The mission to end Alzheimer's continues in Central Kentucky despite the pandemic. Instead of doing the traditional Alzheimer's fundraiser walk as one big group, people are tracking their individual walk totals through a "Walk Everywhere" approach. They've still been able to raise tens of thousands of dollars in their search for a cure.

14. Issue: The Rebound

Program: LEX 18 News Evening Edition at 7 pm

Air Date: 12/28/2020

Segment Duration: 2:08

Description: A Lexington couple launched a very successful side business at the start of the pandemic by creating "yard card" front lawn signs. The couple was forced to look for other revenue sources after they had to close indoor dining at the three restaurants they owned.

Issue 2: Health & Wellness

1. Issue: Health and Wellness

Program: LEX 18 News at 5 pm

Air Date: 10/5/2020

Segment Duration: 2:14

Description: Years ago, Kentucky launched KY-NECT, a one-stop site where people could sign up for health care coverage. In 2014 alone, more than half a million Kentuckians signed up and it was considered a national model for how states could make it easier for people to get health coverage. Despite its success, former Kentucky governor Matt Bevin dismantled the program when he took office. In October of 2020, now Governor Andy Beshear announced it's coming back. LEX 18 political reporter Karolina Buczek took a look at the changes to the program and how Kentuckians can now use it to get health care.

2. Issue: Health and Wellness

Program: LEX 18 News at Sunrise at 6 am

Air Date: 10/12/2020

Segment Duration: 2:18

Description: Since the pandemic began, health departments began using several terms that are now undoubtedly hear around the dinner table several times a week. Two of those terms are isolation and quarantine. LEX18'S Claire Kopsky sat down with the health commissioner for the Lexington-Fayette County Health Department to learn more about these now commonplace words

3. Issue: Health and Wellness

Program: LEX 18 News at Sunrise at 6 am

Air Date: 10/15/2020

Segment Duration: 1:39

Description: Fayette county officials with the health department reported that over the past month, nearly half of the coronavirus cases they've seen are in college students. Claire Kopsky asked officials about what's leading to the trend and what they're doing to stop it or slow it down.

4. Issue: Health and Wellness

Program: LEX 18 News Evening Edition at 7 pm

Air Date: 10/29/20

Segment Duration: 2:57

Description: October 29th is World Stroke Day. One in four people worldwide will have a stroke during their lifetime. In Kentucky, stroke is the fifth leading cause of death, and the leading cause of disability. Evening Edition's Claire Kopsky sat down with a 40-year-old basketball coach who never thought he would be a candidate for a stroke but saw that all change during one lunch break.

5. Issue: Health and Wellness

Program: LEX 18 News Evening Edition at 7 pm

Air Date: 10/30/20

Segment Duration: 1:56

Description: Election season had many people feeling stressed out. A recent study shows more than two-thirds of American adults are experiencing "election anxiety." Psychologists say it's even more apparent than usual in 2020. Eric Hilt spoke with one mental health expert for advice on how to cope.

6. Issue: Health and Wellness

Program: LEX 18 News at 6 pm

Air Date: 11/05/20

Segment Duration: 2:13

Description: With the outcome of the election still hanging in the balance, LEX 18's Claire Kopsky spoke with a mental health expert for advice on quelling election anxiety. Her advice to viewers included avoiding oversaturation of election news, taking a break from social media, and focusing on things that are within your control.

7. Issue: Health and Wellness

Program: LEX 18 News Evening Edition at 7 pm

Air Date: 11/10/20

Segment Duration: 2:00

Description: We spoke with a doctor who explained how COVID-19 disproportionately impacts minority groups. She said heart health is a major factor and shared recommendations people can take to stay safe.

8. Issue: Health and Wellness

Program: LEX 18 News at 5 pm

Air Date: 11/25/20

Segment Duration: 2:07

Description: Feelings of isolation, depression, and anxiety might be heightened during the holiday season, especially among children and young adults. LEX 18's Claire Crouch spoke with a psychologist about ways to have difficult conversations about mental health and suicide.

9. Issue: Health and Wellness

Program: LEX 18 News at 5 pm

Air Date: 12/14/20

Segment Duration: 2:21

Description: How can parents tell the difference between general COVID fatigue and depression in their kids? LEX 18's Kristen Edwards spoke with a psychologist about ways to spot signs of depression in kids and had tips to improve kids and mental health.

10. Issue: Health and Wellness

Program: LEX 18 News at Sunrise at 6 am

Air Date: 12/17/20

Segment Duration: 1:30

Description: As the COVID-19 vaccine rolls out across the country, people are encouraged to continue following CDC guidelines and wear personal protective equipment. But there are still parts of rural Kentucky where there's little access to these materials. LEX 18's Alex Valverde reported how the University of Kentucky is exploring the use of drones to deliver PPE to those small communities.

11. Issue: Health and Wellness

Program: LEX 18 News at 4 pm

Air Date: 12/21/20

Segment Duration: 2:00

Description: Screen time was a concern for parents before the COVID-19 pandemic began. Now, with many schools conducting classes solely over the internet and most in-person socialization sharply limited...it's even more of an issue. How much is too much? Josh Bazan spoke with doctors at the University of Cincinnati Children's Hospital about ways to limit screen time.

12. Issue: Health and Wellness

Program: LEX 18 News at 12:30 pm

Air Date: 12/22/20

Segment Duration: 1:33

Description: For most Americans, COVID-19 added more than time at home - the average person gaining what has been dubbed as the quarantine 15. Gyms and fitness centers are slowly re-opening with strict guidelines in place and business owners hoping people will come back and hit the weights. Dan Scheneman looked at how technology is changing the fitness world.

13. Issue: Health and Wellness

Program: LEX 18 News at Sunrise at 6 am

Air Date: 12/23/20

Segment Duration: 1:35

Description: This holiday season, it's more important than ever to safely reach out to the seniors in your life. Loneliness and isolation- especially right now- can take a dangerous toll on their health ... both mental and physical. Sarah Dallof had tips to help seniors avoid isolation.

Issue 3: Political

1. Issue: Political

Program: LEX 18 News Evening Edition at 7 pm

Air Date: 10/01/2020

Segment Duration: 3:11

Description: During a debate with presidential candidate Joe Biden, President Donald Trump urged his supporters to watch the polls to make sure the election is done by the book. But Kentucky's governor says it's illegal to just walk in and watch others vote. LEX 18 political reporter Karolina Buczek spoke with a constitutional law professor to find out what's legal and what's not in Kentucky.

2. Issue: Political

Program: LEX 18 News at 6 pm

Air Date: 10/7/20

Segment Duration: 3:19

Description: In addition to the candidates on the ballot, Kentuckians had the opportunity to vote on two constitutional amendments in this election. Kentuckians approved Marsy's Law before, but the supreme court struck it down because of the way it was presented to voters. LEX18 political reporter Karolina Buczek explained why it's back on the ballot and what was different about it this time.

3. Issue: Political

Program: LEX 18 News at 11 pm

Air Date: 10/12/20

Segment Duration: 3:20

Description: Incumbent senator Mitch McConnell and his challenger Amy McGrath met on the stage for their first and only debate. . LEX18 political reporter Karolina Buczek was there and broke down the big campaign issues and where each candidate stands on the issues.

4. Issue: Political

Program: LEX 18 News at 6 pm

Air Date: 10/14/20

Segment Duration: 2:21

Description: After two days of early in-person voting in Kentucky, thousands of ballots had already been cast. Election officials wanted to remind voters to bring a photo ID because of a new law in Kentucky requiring voters to have one. LEX 18 explained to voters the ways you can still cast a ballot even if you don't have a photo ID.

5. Issue: Political

Program: LEX 18 News at 5 pm

Air Date: 10/21/2020

Segment Duration: 2:59

Description: Kentucky presented its county clerks with a challenging task to develop a safe voting plan for the 2020 General Election. In Anderson County, County clerk Jason Denny tested out drive-thru voting and it was a success. LEX18 took a closer look at how it worked.

6. Issue: Political

Program: LEX18 News at 6 pm

Air Date: 10/30/20

Segment Duration: 3:36

Description: After a viewer reached out to us after receiving what he perceived to be a threatening postcard in the mail regarding the election, LEX18 political reporter Karolina Buczek went on a search for answers to find out who was behind the mailer, whether the message was valid and what other Kentucky voters should do if they feel they're being intimidated.

7. Issue: Political

Program: LEX 18 News at Noon

Air Date: 11/06/20

Segment Duration: 1:46

Description: In the days following the November 3 election, President Donald Trump made multiple claims about voter fraud in several states that multiple agencies said were unfounded. LEX18 political reporter Karolina Buczek followed up with Kentucky's elected leaders to find out where they stood on the president's unproven comments about the election.

8. Issue: Political

Program: LEX 18 News at 5:30 pm

Air Date: 11/09/20

Segment Duration: 2:07

Description: As president-elect Joe Biden prepares to take over in January, the country still doesn't know which party will control the senate for the next few years. Regardless of what happens in the runoff elections in Georgia, experts say the Biden agenda may depend on one person alone - Kentucky senator Mitch McConnell. LEX 18 political reporter Karolina Buczek examined the history of their ability to work together in the past and whether that ability to negotiate could carry into the future.

9. Issue: Political

Program: LEX 18 News at 6 pm

Air Date:11/19/20

Segment Duration: 2:26

Description: Currently, Kentucky law does not require the governor to get legislative approval to enact mandates during an emergency. LEX 18 political reporter Karolina Buczek talked with Kentucky's Republican leadership who said when they're back in session, they're going to look at making changes

10. Issue: Political

Program: LEX 18 News at 5:30 pm

Air Date:12/02/20

Segment Duration: 2:17

Description: With little money remaining from the country's coronavirus relief bill, many people and businesses in Kentucky found themselves in need of more financial help to survive the rest of the pandemic. LEX 18 political reporter Karolina Buczek went to find out if Kentucky could step in and pass its own relief bill if lawmakers in Washington failed to act.

11. Issue: Political

Program: LEX 18 News Evening Edition at 7 pm

Air Date: 12/16/20

Segment Duration: 2:38

Description: Daniel Cameron made headlines in 2019 when he was elected Kentucky's first black attorney general. He continued to make waves in office - notably getting involved with lawsuits against Governor Andy Beshear and as the head of the investigation into the police shooting death of Breonna Taylor. LEX18 political reporter Karolina Buczek sat down with Cameron to take a look back at his sometimes controversial first year in office.

12. Issue: Political

Program: LEX18 News at 5:30 pm

Air Date: 12/17/20

Segment Duration: 2:18

Description: The battle over teachers' pensions has been a major issue in Frankfort. As we approach 2021, talks about a new pension bill aimed at helping the ailing retirement system have already caused some tension. LEX18 political reporter Karolina Buczek broke down for viewers what's in the bill and how Kentucky's educators feel about it.

13. Issue: Political

Program: LEX18 News at 5 pm

Air Date: 12/18/20

Segment Duration: 2:01

Description: COVID-19 changed the way Kentuckians voted in the November general election. Kentucky's Secretary of State, Michael Adams, wanted to make some of those changes permanent. LEX18 political reporter Karolina Buczek spoke with Adams about the changes Kentucky made in this past election that he wants to keep for elections moving forward that will make it easier for Kentuckians to cast their votes.

14. Issue: Political

Program: LEX18 News at 6 pm

Air Date: 12/29/20

Segment Duration: 2:57

Description: Many Americans are waiting to see if they'll get a larger stimulus payment coming their way. The House of Representatives passed the CASH Act to make that payment $2,000 instead of $600, something both President Donald Trump and Democrats wanted. But the plan was dealt a blow when Kentucky's senior Senator Mitch McConnell blocked it from getting a vote in the Senate. LEX 18's political reporter Karolina Buczek took a look at what McConnell signaled could be in for the future of the bill and what could still be done to pass it.

| |
|------------------------------|
| Issue 4: Unemployment |
|------------------------------|

1. Issue: Unemployment

Program: LEX 18 News at 6 pm

Air Date: 10/8/20

Segment Duration: 1:10

Description: As Eleanor Buckley reports, Governor Beshear's team addressed questions surrounding unemployment in Kentucky, including the lost wages assistance program. General Council explains why it's a difficult process.

2. Issue: Unemployment

Program: LEX 18 News at Sunrise at 6 am

Air Date: 10/9/20

Segment Duration: 0:50

Description: Governor Beshear's team addresses some of the questions surrounding unemployment... and the lost wages assistance program. Meanwhile, we spoke to one woman who's confused, because she should qualify for the program, but hasn't received a payment or answers.

3. Issue: Unemployment

Program: LEX 18 News at 5 pm

Air Date: 10/16/20

Segment Duration: 1:20

Description: Since the pandemic began, there have been more than one million claims filed for unemployment insurance, according to the Kentucky Department of Labor. As Jacqueline Nie reports, frustrations continue for many Kentuckians who haven't received benefits. She introduces us to a family who says they're not getting any answers.

4. Issue: Unemployment

Program: LEX 18 News Sunrise Weekend at 7a

Air Date: 11/01/20

Segment Duration: :35

Description: Governor Andy Beshear warns Kentuckians about an unemployment scam. With thousands of people still desperate for their benefits, scammers are searching for easy prey. The governor explains how to spot a fake email, so you don't fall victim.

5. Issue: Unemployment

Program: LEX 18 News at 6 am

Air Date: 11/11/20

Segment Duration: 2:04

Description: Karolina Buczek joined Kentucky Sen. Mitch McConnell on the campaign trail for an in-depth look at his stance on another coronavirus relief bill. She explains why McConnell says the bill will have to wait until after the election, and when he says we can expect another check from the government to help the unemployed.

6. Issue: Unemployment

Program: LEX 18 News at 5:30 pm

Air Date: 11/25/20

Segment Duration: 1:20

Description: Sofia Millar introduces us to a Lexington server who was unable to make ends meet, due to a new round of COVID-19 restrictions in the state. A local woman created a Facebook page in which people could "Adopt a Server," to purchase items needed to help those on unemployment get by.

7. Issue: Unemployment

Program: LEX 18 News at 6 pm

Air Date: 11/26/20

Segment Duration: 1:55

Description: Karolina Buczek explains why the unemployment issues in Kentucky could get worse if Coronavirus aid programs run out on December 26th. She introduces us to an expert, who says thousands of Kentuckians will lose unemployment benefits if Congress doesn't act soon.

8. Issue: Unemployment

Program: LEX 18 News at 6 am

Air Date: 12/8/20

Segment Duration: 1:20

Description: As the holidays approach, many Kentuckians continue their wait for unemployment benefits. Larry Smith speaks one-on-one with Governor Andy Beshear about our viewers' complaints with the system.

9. Issue: Unemployment

Program: LEX 18 News at Sunrise at 6a

Air Date: 12/8/20

Segment Duration: 1:00

Description: Experts weigh in on how much a second coronavirus rescue package will help unemployed Kentuckians now, and why they say it's not enough in the long run.

10. Issue: Unemployment

Program: LEX 18 News at 11 pm

Air Date: 12/8/20

Segment Duration: 1:30

Description: Katherine Collins reports on KY Senator and Majority Leader Mitch McConnell's comments about time running out for a stimulus bill to be passed, which is the one thing that might bring quick relief to unemployed Kentuckians before the end of 2020.

11. Issue: Unemployment

Program: LEX 18 News at 6 pm

Air Date: 12/16/20

Segment Duration: 1:25

Description: As Larry Smith reports, one of things that thousands of Kentuckians have struggled with during the pandemic is getting unemployment benefits. He spoke to a Lexington woman still waiting on unemployment money and passed her information along to the unemployment office to try and get answers for her, and 200 others.

12. Issue: Unemployment

Program: LEX 18 News at 5:30 pm

Air Date: 12/21/20

Segment Duration: 1:30

Description: The backup of unemployment claims continues to affect families across Kentucky. While the Beshear administration has tried several ways to escalate the responses, there are still thousands of unresolved claims. Larry Smith spoke to two women still struggling to make ends meet as they wait for answers.

Issue 5: Education

1. Issue: Education

Program: LEX 18 News at 5:30 pm

Air Date: 10/13/20

Segment Duration: 2:06

Description: As Jacqueline Nie reports, Fayette County Public Schools sent out a survey to understand plans for a possible return to in-person learning. After some confusion amongst parents, the administration is trying to answer the questions.

2. Issue: Education

Program: LEX 18 News Evening Edition at 7 pm

Air Date: 10/15/20

Segment Duration: 1:35

Description: As Michael Berk reports, Jessamine County Schools are making changes to their in-person learning schedule. The changes take effect on October 26th.

3. Issue: Education

Program: LEX 18 News at 11 pm

Air Date: 10/19/20

Segment Duration: 2:00

Description: As Katherine Collins reports, some Fayette County Public Schools students are allowed back into school buildings as the district offers "targeted services." This is offered to students who need extra attention while learning at home.

4. Issue: Education

Program: LEX 18 News at Sunrise at 6 am

Air Date: 10/22/20

Segment Duration: 1:48

Description: As Alex Valerde reports, Fayette County Public Schools officials make the decision that students will not return to in-person learning until at least January. This is a decision many parents oppose based upon survey results.

5. Issue: Education

Program: LEX 18 News at 6 pm

Air Date: 11/16/20

Segment Duration: 3:11

Description: Cynthiana, Kentucky was the first city in the state to see a case of the coronavirus. It was the first city to experience a "new normal." As Conroy Delouche reports, as the schools reopened, they adjusted to the new normal, students and faculty adjusted.

6. Issue: Education

Program: LEX 18 News at 11 pm

Air Date: 11/6/20

Segment Duration: 2:00

Description: As Mike Valente reports, a Fayette County Public Schools principal is apologizing for a social media post that he made that appeared to dismiss the seriousness of COVID-19. The principal is making this apology just weeks after a teacher at his school died from the virus.

7. Issue: Education

Program: LEX 18 News at Sunrise at 6 am

Air Date: 11/13/20

Segment Duration: 1:53

Description: As Claire Kopsky reports, Fayette County Public Schools make the decision to end "Targeted Services," about a month after they began. Those services were only offered to a small number of students. The decision was made based upon the rising number of COVID-19 cases in Kentucky.

8. Issue: Education

Program: LEX 18 News at Sunrise at 6 am

Air Date: 11/16/20

Segment Duration: 1:20

Description: As Kristen Edwards reports, Fayette County Public Schools athletics and extracurricular activities are put on pause due to a high number of COVID-19 cases. There are a few sports teams excluded from the pause due to the end of their season.

9. Issue: Education

Program: LEX 18 News at 6 pm

Air Date: 11/10/20

Segment Duration: 1:53

Description: As Leigh Searcy reports, some school districts such as Madison and Oldham counties tried in-person classes but made the decision to return to virtual learning due to being in the "Red Zone" for COVID cases. Scott County Schools have been open for more than a month, surprising even the school district's superintendent, who says what they're doing must be working.

10. Issue: Education

Program: LEX 18 News at Sunrise Weekend at 9 am

Air Date: 12/6/20

Segment Duration: 1:50

Description: As Eleanor Buckley reports, we look back at the life and legacy of the late Fayette County Schools Superintendent, Manny Caulk. In five years, community leaders say Caulk made an impact on Lexington and was devoted to the thousands of students he served in Fayette County.

11. Issue: Education

Program: LEX 18 News Evening Edition at 7 pm

Air Date: 12/7/20

Segment Duration: 1:53

Description: Lexington lost a true leader, and its "partner" when it comes to educating children. Fayette County Public Schools Superintendent Manny Caulk died over the weekend. Michael Berk reports that there was a certain car that Caulk loved showing off to students.

12. Issue: Education

Program: LEX 18 News at 11 pm

Air Date: 12/9/20

Segment Duration: 2:03

Description: As Mike Valente reports, students from six Fayette County Public Schools team up to give back to young kids in need this Christmas season. They're doing it in honor of the late Superintendent Manny Caulk, who passed away.