Summary of Program Content:

Interview with Brian Laurenzi who shared his personal journey. Exposure to drugs at a very young age by his mother who actually died of a drug overdose. How that impacted him and drove him deeper into drugs and alcohol abuse. Having done jail time, released and being determined to straighten out, do the right thing, parent his children, they found themselves homeless and living in a tent during the winter months. Brian shared his road to recovery, how his faith played a significant role in determining to stay clean and do something positive with his life.
