Interview with Ben Sorrells who had just come back from a week in LaUnion Abajo, Dominican Republic. Ben shared the poverty of 312 families living on a trash dump. The poorest of the poor. Children scavenging through medical and human waste for food or anything to sell to buy food. Women and children working the streets at night to try to get a little bit of money for food. Human trafficking is rampant in this area. We, as a community, are going to work together to adopt this village. Educate, teach skills to earn, provide some medical supplies and work with children.
