

ROME RADIO PARTNERS, LLC
QUARTERLY ISSUES: 3rd Qtr 2020
WGJK 1360, W258CH 99.5

Weekend Spotlight is a locally produced program that airs Sunday, 6:00am-6:30am

Issues	Date	Description
Youth, Public Health, Law Enforcement, Arts & Entertainment	7/5/2020	Dr. Tyler Barnes, Floyd Pediatrician, on how to talk to kids about Covid-19 and getting them ready to go back to school. Rome Police Chief Denise Downer-Mckinney addresses police training and community police methods and relationships in the City. Tim Naddy and Brad Moon talk about the production of the RAD playhouse production of The Odd Couple.
Race Relations	7/12/2020	Part one of two part series. Discussing and race and perceptions. Candid talk with Virginia, Zaveon and Alex. A Caucasian woman, and African American man and Latin American man, all in their Twenties discuss race relations and misunderstandings.
Race Relations	7/19/2020	Part two of two part series. Discussing and race and perceptions. Candid talk with Virginia, Zaveon and Alex. A Caucasian woman, and African American man and Latin American man, all in their Twenties discuss race relations and misunderstandings.
Public Safety, Public Health, Arts	7/26/2020	Linda Patty with the Rome Fire Department talks about keeping an eye out for the elderly during the extreme heat. Dr. Hostetter of the Harbin Clinic discusses the increase cases of Covid -19 and why it may be happening. Cast members from the RAD production of Winnie the Pooh, Anna McPherson and Dillon Lestor, talked about their roles.
Environment, Agriculture	08/02/2020	Extention Agent Kieth Mickler talked about the danger of opening the unsolicited seeds from China that were being sent to people all over the country. There were a few people in Floyd county that had recieved them.
Education, Entertainment,	8/9/2020	Lt Blevins of the Salvation Army gives details about the : "Stuff the Bus program this year." "Wings of North Georgia Airshow will look different this year due to Covid 19, Show promotors reviews the changes.
History, Community Service and Arts	8/16/2020	Joyce Smith talks about the fundraisers and restoration updates on the historical Fairview Brown School, Pastor Chris Hayes explains the Food Giveaway from his church and the lives that have been touch by this ministry, Alli Booker gives us an update on the arts community and how its faited in the last several months.
Recreation, Environmental, Census, Politics	8/23/2020	Jim Allred talks about the Parks and Rec markets for the public to sell yard sale items. Kieth Mickler tells what the pollen census numbers mean. and Artagus Newell with the 2020 Census gives a weekly update. Political anylst, Martha Zoller, explains Gov. Kemps lastest Statewide Mask order and what it means for business.
Public Health, Environment, Census, Healthcare	8/30/2020	Leigh Barba of the American Red Cross updates us on the mobilization of volunteers to the Gulf after Hurricane Laura; Extention Agent Kieth Mickler talks about Bee Keeping courses; Artagus Newell With Census 2020 Talks about the home visits and encouraged listeners to respond online; Brook Shell with PruittHealth Hospice discusses long-term care.
Education, Public Health, Recreation	9/6/2020	Student Andrew Doyle discussed Berry Enterprises, which teaches students how to handle cattle and sell the beef. Dr. Gary Voccio with Harbin Clinic talked about the new testing facilities in NW Georgia. Jim Allred with Rome-Floyd Park and Recreation announced their new (flea) markets at various parks for September and October.
Government, Families & Children, Environment	9/13/2020	State Representative Katie Dempsey discusses comprehensive tools to help children and families; Braden Keith with Census2020 talked about the response rate in Floyd County; Artist Jess Milner working with CRBI discussed the environmental impact and recreational activies on our local rivers.

Diversity, Census	9/20/2020	Cheryl Jenkins with One Community United discussed overcoming racial, ethnic, economic, sexual orientation, and religious barriers; American Red Cross announced their local donation sites and how to give; Artagus Newell With Census 2020 talks about the response rates and home visits from census takers.
Technology, Economics, Religion	9/27/2020	Jake Ward, CEO of Connected Commerce Council, discussed their study on the effect of digital marketing on their businesses. Pastor Carey Ingram of Lovejoy Baptist Church, talked about his book "The Great Deceptions" in our society today.