

JANUARY FCC 1ST. QT 2020 REPORT

The following issues were discussed over KFUN/AM 1230 & KLVF/FM 100.7 radio.

1. City interim city manager Mary Ann Gallegos, & Danielle Sena City Deputy Clerk.
2. Mr. rock Ulibarrie, Luna Community College instructor.
3. City radio show.
4. Fort Union National Monument.
5. Alzheimer's Association.

=====

1/3/2020

Duration: 8:50 a. m. to 8:40 a. m.

Program: March municipal elections.

Narrative: City clerk and Deputy Clerk informed the community and potential candidates as to the city charter rules and state statute for filing for office.

1/7/2020

Duration: 8:15 a. m. to 8:45 a. m.

Program: Luna Community College classes.

Narrative: Instructor rock Ullibarrie spoke about the □ Career Readiness Institute. □ Students are paid to train under this class which prepared them for working in the real world.

1/10/202

Duration: 8:10 a. m. to 8:45 a.m.

Program: City fire department staff.

Narrative: Captial Daniel Atencio and Fire fighting staff reminded the community about fire safety as the cold winter months approach. First, always call fire department. They gave advise on having their house for business furnace serviced and checked by a professional in the business. Talked about safe and proper thermostat settings, replace it if needed. The importance of having and practicing a fire escape plan. Call 911 and after exciting a burning building, do not re-enter the building for any reason. Get on your knees and stay close to the floor, placing a wet towel over the mouth and nose to keep from breathing in smoke with toxins.

1/15/2020

Duration: 8:05 a. m. to 8:50 a. m.

Program: Fort union national Monument.

Narrative: Ranger Joe Winestine spoke about the rich history of the fort, the important part is played in in connection with the Santa Fe Trail and how it enriched the economy of our town since the rail was an important avenue for traders form all parts of the country bringing their wares to sell in parts of New Mexico back when it was still a territory. The fort also provided protection from roaming Indian tribes attacking wagons on the Santa Fe trail.

1/23/2020

Duration: 8:05 a. m. to 8:40 a. m.

Program: Announcing and promoting an Alzheimer□s meeting in our community.

Narrative: Our radio station staff worked to establish an Alzheimer's group in our city to offer people assistance and information and a reprieve for care givers.