Section I: Issues

The stations have identified the following as significant issues facing the community in this quarter.

A. COVID-19: According to the state of Iowa, Dubuque County has had 700 confirmed cases of COVID-19 and over 20 deaths related to the disease. Townsquare/Dubuque stations aired programming discussing the importance of being healthy and social distancing, as well as ideas on how to pass the newly found extra time at home.

B. Childhood Hunger: Over 3,000 students in the Dubuque Community School District are eligible for free lunch programs, but school closures due to COVID-19 means students may be going hungry. Townsquare/Dubuque stations aired programming discussing what citizens can do to help these children as well as ways food service workers are keeping themselves safe during the pandemic.

C. Affordable Housing: According to a study conducted by the University of Iowa, 20.8% of Dubuque homeowners and 44.2% of renters in the city are considered cost-burdened (housing costs more than 30% of household income). Townsquare/Dubuque stations aired programming about the struggle to find affordable housing and possible solutions to the issue.

In response to increasing racial tensions across the country, Townsquare/Dubuque stations aired programming discussing racial inequality, police brutality towards ethnic groups and how society is responding to these issues.

E. Child Wellness: According to the US Census, 22.7% of Dubuque County residents are under the age of 18, and the parents of these children are dealing with the unique challenge of explaining difficult topics like COVID-19 and racial inequality to their kids. On May 25, Floyd was suspected of using a counterfeit $20 bill at a local store and officers were called to the scene. For weeks, protests and outrage have spread across the U.S. and internationally as the killing of Floyd brings racial inequality and police brutality into focus once again. Even in the midst of a pandemic, people are showing up to say they're fed up with the lack of equal justice, rights and opportunities for all.	1:47	10:12
