

WRLL

CHICAGO. ILLINOIS

News / Community

April 2022

During their programs hosts Carlos Rojas, Vicky Corces and Fernando Jaramillo were joined at various times during their shows by representatives of organizations such as Cook County, Access Community Health, and other organizations to talk about topics such as mortgage programs for low-income families, vaccination programs, voter registration and health care access.

WRLL

CHICAGO. ILLINOIS

News / Community

May 2022

Fernando Jaramillo interviewed representatives of Cook County to discuss vaccination and booster shots for COVID-19, including partnerships with clinics in the Latino community offering these shots. Carlos Rojas was joined by representatives of Access Community Health Network to discuss access to health providers for children and families.

WRLL

CHICAGO. ILLINOIS

News / Community

June 2022

Fernando Jaramillo was joined by representatives of Cook County to share on their monthly call all the updates that are of interest to the Latino community – upcoming events in different events in Pilsen, Back of the Yards and Little Village.