

WTKY AM PUBLIC ISSUES FOR 1st QUARTER 2016

We at WTKY AM take our public service programming seriously. We interview a variety of guests that are involved, and make up our community. We air our program each Monday morning from 9:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m. We rebroadcast that same program each Monday evening from 6:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. for the listeners that may have missed the morning broadcast.

In addition to the highlighted guests listed below, we have additional guests on the program that might have information not as critical as our main guests, but community information, just the same. Such additional guests include quilting clubs, art clubs, athletic hall of fame, and much, much, more.

We also have our Community Calendar that airs Monday through Saturday, sometime between 8:00 a.m. and 8:30 a.m. and 4:00 p.m. and 4:30 p.m. The length of the program varies because the items listed are brief, and added and deleted daily.

01.04.16 Guest Coach Hamilton, also vice principal at the high school, discusses girls' and boys' basketball, and how well the team is doing. (20 minutes) Guest from the hospital discusses flu season and the importance of flu shots. Also discussed is good hygiene practices, and healthy eating. (25 minutes) Also Guest from the library discusses upcoming children's reading program (10 minutes)

01.18.16 Mayor Scotty Turner is the guest, discussing the most recent meeting of the Commissioners, which included Supervisor updates related to the recycling program, and when pick up is at local residents, and contact information for businesses that are not yet recycling, and equipment upgrades related to the recycling program. Also discussed is the treasurer's report, update on outstanding grant applications and the new street light proposals (50 minutes).

02.01.16 Mr. Lines from the agricultural office discusses crop updates and the new farm bill, and the state of farming in the area, including the increase of farming hemp. Also discussed are projections for yields in the coming year, and what sort of rainfall is anticipated (30 minutes) Guest Sheriff Dale Ford discusses traffic, planned bypasses and general crime, school closures for illness and weather. Also discussed are amount of beds available for prisoner's at local jails, including Glasgow, and what the plans are for overflow. (30 minutes)

02.15.16 Members of Monroe County Youth Theater discuss the upcoming theater season, and how to get tickets. Also discussed are the opportunities for youth to get involved in the theater - not just in acting, but also on the behind-the-scenes production side. Also discussed are the leadership opportunities for youth, and how important they are for the community. (25 minutes) Guest Kevin Lines from the agricultural extension office returns to discuss the impact of the rain on the crops, and what the agricultural commission is currently dealing with, including difficulties that the farmers are having with crops. Also discussed are the uptick in foreign insects and their effect on the crops (25 minutes).

03.07.16 Guest Mayor Scotty Turner discusses last Commissioners' meeting, and reminds listeners that the meeting is on the fourth Thursday of the month. The Mayor also discusses new capital purchases the city is making, including additional trash trucks. Gas and oil bids were approved at the meeting. Also discussed is the maintenance of the parks, and things the commissioners are doing to make sure that the lighting is adequate. There was some discussion of applying for a lighting grant. Reminder to put trash in bags before placing it in the cans, and to close the can lids. Kentucky Rural Water is the overseeing body for all of the city's meters and they need to make sure that water is being used in the most efficient way. Also discussed is the upcoming fireworks show. (50 minutes).

03.21.16 Guests from the 4H club including Charlotte Arne, teen club leader, discuss the overnight event for teens, Project Prom, which is an overnight event for high schoolers from Monroe County High School. This event brings out local organizations that do activities with the youth, and there are certain requirements for participation in the event, both for the teen and the organization. 4H also hosts events for the middle school and elementary school, but those are not overnight, but meet weekly on Wednesdays. The purpose of all the events is to keep the youth engaged in other activities, and give them positive buddy events. (40 minutes).
