Topic: Talented Teen Club: Build Teen Self Esteem
Guest: Jaunai Walker; Renee Roper, Renee Lall, Landy Cajuste
Summary: Talented Teen Club has a rich history of community involvement spanning over the last six years, within which we have been known to produce members of impeccable character and a firm belief in unselfish service to others. We have strived tirelessly to shape and mold our teenagers and young adults, by nurturing their minds and bodies with a mix of various community service events along with the mind tingling excitement of other programs designed specifically for the core members active in the club. The volunteer services have included the Palm Beach Film Festival, Sunfest, Jazz fest, Kaliedoscope, and recently the Heart Walk. The Club's mission is to build self-esteem while providing a medium for the members to display their talents. The annual Be-you-ti-ful Competition at the Kravitz Center hosted by Ebony Fashion Model Jada Collins gives the members the opportunity to display their talents whether it be in music, modeling, acting, poetry, stepping or dancing and a chance to earn scholarship money. The club has expanded to include members in all of South Florida and as far as Orlando. This year the club wants to extend it's services to youth in foster homes. There are over fifty group foster homes in the West Palm.

Topic: Teen Temps, Inc.

Summary: Teen Temps, Inc. is a community-based, non-profit organization with a mission of providing future generations of youth with preparation and experiences through a “career opportunity system.” Our focus is on delivering customized, motivating, and meaningful job placement or work experiences to underserved youth through the following key components: Provision of comprehensive counseling and guidance in occupation and career preparation; Provision of work-based and community-based learning to impart academic mastery and social skills competencies for a range of employment settings; and Placement in paid and unpaid apprenticeships, internships, externships and jobs leading to formal credentials for “value-added” occupational and career choices.

The innovation of Teen Temps is that it is structured to operate with youth and young adults similarly to the way a temporary employment agency operates with its employee clientele providing placement and matching of employees with employers for long term advancement through permanent placement, apprenticeships, customized training and / or postsecondary education. Teen Temps will begin with efforts to attract and retain teens in grades 9 - 12 through participation in career exploration and identification as a component of its after-school program.
