Military	Closer Look	1/9/22	7:00pm	29min	U.S. Soldiers Join Cru Military Ministry Worldwide U.S. soldiers must endure grueling physical training. They suffer sleepless nights, heavy rucksacks, muddy marches and lonely months --or years-- separated from loved ones. As battle drills build strength and endurance for mind and body, Cru Military Ministry seeks to strengthen a soldier’s heart and soul. The mission “for us, specifically...it’s spiritual fitness,” says Dave Eatman, retired Marine and Cru National Director. The ministry offers “discipleship, education and mentoring and encouragement to serve Christ well and walk with Christ well while in uniform.”
Education	Closer Look	1/16/22	7:00pm	15min	‘Dare To Dream’ School Assemblies Ignite Hope in Tweens, Teens Air1’s Dare To Dream school assemblies rely heavily on the power of personal experience, starting with the unlikely success Randy Rich enjoyed as a professional football player for the Detroit Lions, Denver Broncos, Oakland Raiders and Cleveland Browns. Various artists, musicians and pro-athletes take the mic to share their own struggles to believe and achieve.
Technology	Closer Look	1/16/22	7:15pm	15min	Young Children Give Out Phone Numbers, Chat with Strangers Online An Interview with the Center for Cyber Safety and Education and Eliza McCoy with the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children about their age-appropriate training program called Netsmartz.
Safety	Closer Look	1/23/22	7:00pm	30min	Be Safer at Work or Church, Thoughts on Security You see trouble, you hear it – now believe it. “Trust your intuition...you know when a situation is different,” says Hector Alvarez, an expert in workplace security with more than 25 years of experience in threat assessment. “One of your best bets for surviving these incidents is thinking about it before it happens.” Preparation is key says Mindi Russell, exec. dir. of the Law Enforcement Chaplaincy of Sacramento. “Instead of, ‘it will never happen here,’ have the mindset that if something happens, this is what we’ll do.”

Healthcare	Closer Look	1/30/22	7:00pm	28min	'Rest' Is More Than Sleep – What Kind of Tired Are You? Rest is the root of the word 'restoration' – and restoration is a principle that medical internist Dr. Sandra Dalton-Smith sees as crucial to seven distinct areas of your life. "Rest isn't just the cessation of activity," she says, suggesting that for optimal health "you have to get to the point of knowing what restores you. What fills you back up?" 7 types of Rest: Physical, Mental, Emotional, Spiritual, Social, Sensory and Creative. Related Links: Dr. Sandra Dalton-Smith - REST QUIZ - What Kind of Rest Do You Need?
Literacy	KLOVE's Positive People News Podcast with on-air 60sec promo for podcast	January 2022	4 per week, 16 total	60sec Podcast 3.28min	Rescued Horse &amp; Owner Encourage Kids to Read During Library Visit A massive 1,400-pound horse is encouraging kids to read. Hank was rescued by Tammi Regan, who didn't have experience with horses before discovering Hank living in a severely neglectful situation. Tammi quickly learned that Hank was gentle. He even sports a heart on his forehead. She started taking Hank to story time at local libraries, much to the delight of children. "I see the exchanges between horse and human. I see the smiles on kids' faces. I see their joy." Children react with awe when he enters the library. Hank gets all the attention and love he can handle.
Adoption – Mental Health	Closer Look	2/6/22	7:00pm	29min	Real Talk on Adoption - Thoughts on Trauma, Dignity and Birth Parents Adopting a child is beautiful -- but messy. "We're not always looking at it from the adoptee's side," cautions Jenn Hook, co-founder Replanted Ministry. Vanessa Joy Walker was adopted as a baby. "Grief is woven into an adoptee's journey," she says, adding desperate questions about birthparents are sometimes suppressed by pressure to be grateful. Walker advises parents to coach even young, adopted children on how, when and with whom to share their own stories. "The grief and the gratitude can co-exist."
Family Issues	Closer Look	2/13/22	7:00pm	30min	Solo' Parent Society Hosts Free Online Support Groups After 13 years of marriage, Robert Beeson suddenly found himself single. "My wife left me -- and left me with our three daughters who were 9, 7 and 4 at the time. It was the darkest season." Grappling with this new solo responsibility, the divorced dad turned to his church for comfort and support. He was saddened to find very few Christian resources address the deep loneliness and doubt that many single parents endure. Out of his own need to be part of a welcoming faith community, Beeson founded the Solo Parent Society.

Human Trafficking	Closer Look	2/20/22	7:00pm	16min	Help for Runaway Teens, Free Bus Tickets to Safety Teenagers are especially vulnerable to the evils of modern slavery. "Human trafficking is a legitimate concern for folks out the street," says Jeff Stern, CEO of the National Runaway Safeline. More than 4-million teenagers are homeless every year, though not always by choice. "Whether it's that they don't feel safe in their own home, or whether they've been kicked out, this is not something young people generally want." Whatever drove them to the streets, hunger inevitably awaits. Traffickers spot runaways as easy prey and sometimes offer food to bait the trap.
Human Trafficking	Closer Look	2/20/22	7:16pm	16min	A 'Call to Action': Challenging Human Trafficking Among Native American Tribes Matthew Holgate is on a mission. He's student body president at Christ-centered Vanguard University in California. And he's becoming an expert in human trafficking, especially among his people in the Navajo Nation. "As a Christian, I feel like it's my responsibility to combat the issue of human trafficking, whether that's educating people or doing studies and research...but as a Christian and being a Native American, the Christian aspect of this, I look at human trafficking biblically." "First, I see a call to action in Matthew chapter 5 when Jesus talks about being salt and light," Holgate explains, "And secondly, from Proverbs...the New Living Translation, it reads, "Speak up for those who cannot speak for themselves; ensure justice for those being crushed (Proverbs 31:8)." Holgate sees that scripture as a second call to action for him to stand up for Native American people, who "have had their voices taken from them – and in some cases, they're not even invited to the table."
Incarceration – Ministry	Closer Look	2/27/22	7:00pm	15min	Jail to Jobs, Prison Fellowship 'Remembers Those in Prison' Christ-centered ministries like Prison Fellowship and Jail To Jobs Austin break into that hopelessness with practical and spiritual reform. Hip-hop artist Lecrae partners with Prison Fellowship, performing concerts in select prisons, speaking and encouraging inmates to embrace a second chance at life. He has several relatives who have been in prison, "even my own father was incarcerated, some of my closest uncles as well." Citing imperfect biblical leaders like Moses and King David, the artist commits himself to raising awareness of all people serving sentences, well-deserved or not. Jesus "wouldn't see them as what they've done, He'd see them as what He can do through them. I think that's how we should see them as well. They're still human beings with dignity who've made mistakes."

Natural Disaster	KLOVE's Positive People News Podcast with on-air 60sec promo for podcast	February 2022	4 per week, 16 total	60sec Podcast 12.24min	Sensing God's Nudge, Whitney Shaw Encouraged & Blessed Tornado Survivors The tornado that destroyed 75% of Dawson Springs, Kentucky, on Friday, December 10th at 10:32 p.m., was an "EF-4," the second most powerful tornado category – the kind that make houses literally explode. Winds hit an incredible 190 m.p.h.! At least 13 lives were lost. This was part of a major outbreak of more than 60 tornadoes in eight states. Hearing how extensive the damage was in nearby Dawson Springs, Whitney Shaw and her sister-in-law felt God was leading them to help with food. They strategized their budget and bought 30 breakfast biscuits from McDonalds, something "heavy on bread and protein...still decent, when they're cold" – food that would hold up for a while. They also bought bottled water and granola bars and then carefully weaved their way into the tornado debris zone.
Healthcare	Closer Look	3/6/22	7:00pm	29min	Living With Chronic Illness? Advice For Faith and Family The doctor called. Your disease has a name. It can be treated, but it cannot be cured. Your life becomes a swirl of doctors and pills. Finances suffer. Even your faith takes a hit. You likely feel very alone, as loved ones can be the last to accept the diagnosis. "It can be very isolating when no one really gets it," says Susan Rodriguez at Hospital for Special Surgery in New York. As a licensed clinical social worker, she works with patients who experience emotional pain caused by their debilitating physical condition. To ease that loneliness and distress, Rodriguez recommends involving loved ones in as many doctor visits and conference calls about therapies and treatments as possible.
Youth Programs	Closer Look	3/13/22	7:00pm	28min	Sick Children Hunt and Fish Thanks to Catch-A-Dream Foundation "When a family has a child with a life-threatening or terminal medical condition, everyone in that family suffers," says Dr. Marty Brunson, avid outdoorsman and founding board member of the Catch-A-Dream Foundation. The charity provides all-expense paid trips for kids who crave outdoor adventure. "Our job is to give them that opportunity to have what one child once called, a 'vacation from being sick'-- he said, 'when I'm huntin' and fishin' I don't really feel bad.'" Since 1999, Catch-A-Dream has taken more than 740 children from their hospital beds to lakes and woods for sportsman trips. The entire family is included.
Faith	Closer Look	3/20/22	7:00pm	16min	GenZ Christians Surveyed on God, The Bible and Society GenZ Christians have questions about practical faith. They want Scripture-based solutions for the issues they face alongside their friends. "I can no longer avoid truths about racial injustice, about environmental destruction and I do not know if the Church cares about this." For them it's pastoral – not political.

Education	Closer Look	3/20/22	7:16pm	15min	Tech Careers Encouraged Among Black Youth Through 'Hidden Genius' The Hidden Genius Project launched when five business and tech titans, all black men, partnered to mentor black boys for careers in science and technology. Rooted in inner-city Oakland California, they established a training system which since 2012 has expanded south to Los Angeles and even internationally to London, England and South Africa.
Pregnancy Resources	Closer Look	3/27/22	7:00pm	30min	Young Girls Pregnant and Scared Turn to StandUpGirl.com Dawn-Marie Perez, executive director of StandUpGirl.com says their site stands ready to help. "Our mission is to have these girls be able to find life-affirming information through us -- and then we connect them with pregnancy centers in their neighborhood." Quick response is essential. "If you go google the word 'abortion' right now there are millions of websites that are gonna come up. Our goal is to have StandUpGirl show up on that first page of their google search."
Education	KLOVE's Positive People News Podcast with on-air 60sec promo for podcast	March 2022	4 per week, 16 total	60sec Podcast 2.18min	Florida Teacher Melts Hearts at School After Receiving Snowman from Kentucky Many of Robin Hughes's special ed students at South Shore Charter Academy have never really seen snow. Robin felt compelled to bring some delight to her kids. "It's a great little story that, no pun intended, has snowballed." Robin's sister lives in Kentucky. They had a big snowstorm that led to a phone call asking if she would be willing to send down some of the white stuff. Robin says, "She put him in a box, sealed him up. He left Louisville, Kentucky. He got to Tampa after an 800-mile flight. He arrived at our school. The receptionist had run to my room and said, 'He's here! He's here!'" Robin's students were full of excitement, all laughing and wanting to touch the little snowman. Robin says God gave her the unique gift to spread joy. She's excited that 'Lucky' the snowman has been a joy spreader too.
