

KTHS AM Green Forest, AR

Issues and Programs for the Third Quarter, 2016

Placed in Public File 10-10-16

Issue: Drive Sober or Be Pulled Over

Arkansas Law Enforcement Officers will be out in full force July 4th Holiday cracking down on drunk drivers by aggressively targeting those who put lives in danger.

The program aired July 1, 2016 on 7am and noon news.

Issue: Carroll County Deputies Resign after Failing Lie-Detector Tests

Two Carroll County deputies resigned after failing lie-detector tests regarding $800 that disappeared during the arrest of a man suspected of DWI.

The program aired July 16, 2016 on 7am, and noon news.

Issue: State Representative's House Under Foreclosure for Fifth Time

A Notice of Default and Intention to Sell filed by JP Morgan Chase Bank against Rep. Bob Ballinger's Madison County home. This is the fifth foreclosure Ballinger has been faced with on the property since 2011.

The program aired July 19, 2016 on 7am, and Noon News.

Issue: Second Medical Marijuana Ballot Give 30 days to collect more Signatures

Arkansans United for Medical Marijuana must gather 12,280 more signatures to make the ballot initiative. Another marijuana ballot initiative was approved July 7th.

The program aired July 23, 2017 at 7am, Noon news.

Issue: Judge to Decide How Much Time State Police Need to Release Accident Reports

A Little Rock law firm accuses State Police of violating open-records law by delaying the release of the reports. The issue is going before the Arkansas Supreme Court to settle

The Program aired July 25, 2016 on 7am, Noon news.

Issue: "My Social Security" Online Accounts Need Texting Capabilities

Social Security recipients who hold online "My Social Security" accounts will no longer be able to access those accounts unless they have a cellphone with text messaging capabilities under a new agency directive. The newly mandated policy will tighten security and protect user data.

The program aired August 6, 2016 on 7am, noon news.

Issue: Zika Virus Vaccine Looks Promising

Three experimental Zika vaccines protected monkeys against infection from the virus, an encouraging sign as research moves into studies in people.

The program aired on August 15, 2016, at 7am, Noon News.

Issue: Casino Amendment Gets More Signatures

A group hoping to develop casinos in three Arkansas counties turned in another 50,000 signatures in its effort to place a constitutional amendment on the Nov. 8 ballot. Arkansas Wins would build casinos in Boone, Miller and Washington counties.

The program aired August 21, 2016 at 7am, noon News.

Issue: Broadband in all school districts making progress

Arkansas is in the midst of a project to provide high-speed Internet to each of the state's 276 districts. When complete, every school in the state will have the same broadband speed per student.

The program aired August 24, 2016 on 7am, Noon news.

Issue: Federal Lawsuit Filed Over Planned Electric Transmission Line

Two groups representing landowners are suing to block an electric transmission line planned for delivering wind-generated power across Arkansas from Oklahoma to Tennessee.

The program aired August 27, 2016 at Noon news.

Issue: Arkansans Applying for Expanded Medicaid Program Exceed Expectations.

The number of Arkansans who had completed enrollment in the expanded Medicaid program, exceed by 50,000 state official's initial estimate.

The program aired August 30, 2016 on 7am, noon news.

Issue: Deadline for Paying County Real Estate and Personal Property Taxes Approaches

Deadline is October 17 for paying 2015 Real Estate and Personal Property Taxes is October 17. After that date, a 10% penalty will be charged.

The program aired September 10, 2016 on 7am, Noon news.

Issue: Arkansas Wins Makes General Election Ballot

Arkansas Wins announces that it had received enough signatures to make general election ballot. The casino amendment will be listed on the ballot as Issue 5.

The program aired September 16, 2016 on 7am and noon news.

Issue: Governor Proposes Using Tobacco Settlement Money to help developmentally disabled

Gov. Hutchinson proposes tapping into $8.5 million in unused money from the state's 1999 settlement with tobacco companies to provide more services to the developmentally disabled. Hutchinson will ask the Legislature to redirect the money.

The program aired September 22, 2016 on 7am, noon news.

Issue: President Obama Pushes New Plan to Combat Heroine and Opioid Abuse

The President is pushing a new plan to fight the deadly heroin and opioid addiction affecting so many families. The Justice Department plan will call for law enforcement to identify links between over-prescribing doctors and distribution networks across the country and prosecutors to share information across state lines.

The program aired September 29, 2016 at 7am, noon news.

General Manager

Date 10-7-16

KTHS-AM Green Forest, Ar

Issues & Programs for the Third Quarter, 2016

Jamie Hussey, General Manager