“National Nurses Week”...Nurses week begins on May 6th and ends on May 12th, the birthday of Florence Nightingale, the founder of modern nursing. Over 4000 people are employed in the Medical industry in the Wiregrass, making it the largest employer in our community. We at WOOF Radio feel especially proud to highlight these brave men and women as they work tirelessly to improve healthcare for us all.	Newscaat	5/5/14	4:55p	3:00 mins	According to Laurie Green who has been employed as a nurse in labor and delivery for nearly 6 years, says National Nurses Week also celebrates the contributions of nurse Florence Nightingale for her incredible bravery and foresight. The Southeast Alabama Medical Center is proud to recognize their nursing staff during National Nurses Week, May 6th through the 12th. The week is a great opportunity for the communities to recognize the full range of nurses contributions. Green also says she feels her own career as a nurse has been for her a great honor to serve others. She says she tries to make all of her patients visits, something special to remember. The nursing field is projected to grow faster than all occupations and more nurses are needed to fill new jobs and replace RN’s who leave the profession.
