

WOPI-CA
Quarterly Issues/Programs List
January 1, 2010

A quarterly list of community issues the station addressed in its programming during the preceding three months, and the programming which gave "significant treatment" to those issues.

The following issues were presented on
WOPI-CA
public affairs programs:

1) Issue – Domestic Violence

Program – A Closer Look – Oct. 4, 2009, 13 minutes

This segment was with Anne Newton and Barbara Johnson with Frontier Health's Safe House. These ladies shared with us the rising need for places and programs like Safe House that provide a refuge for victims of domestic violence. Also, October is Domestic Violence Awareness month and they will be doing the Flowers on the Lake remembrance program for Safe House at Warriors Path on Oct. 17.

2) Issue – Assistance to older adults

Program – A Closer Look – October 18, 2009, 13 minutes

Katherine Scoggins, with the Shepherd's Center, 1701 Virginia Ave., Kingsport TN 37664. (Contact via phone at (423)392-4514.) The Shepherd's Center, an assistance to older adults program -- provides services such as transportation, medical equipment loan, minor home repairs, etc which enable older adults to remain living independently and safely in their homes. We also discussed the Shepherd Center's Make A Difference Day Project.

3) Issue – Teen Runaway Prevention

Program – A Closer Look – Oct. 18, 2009, 13 minutes

We visited with Ms Aimee White. Aimee is with "A SAFE PLACE" a program of Frontier Health operated through LINK House. (Contact info is as follows: LINK HOUSE, 433 New Beason Well Road Kingsport, TN 37660 phone (423)288—1828) "Safe Place" is a program whereby teens have a safe place to go instead of running away from home. Places that display the 'Safe Place' sign are places where teens can get help. We need more places that are willing to participate in the program.

4) Issue – Protecting the Environment

Program – A Closer Look – November 1, 2009, 15 minutes

Leslie Stevens is Executive Director of Keep Kingsport Beautiful and we reviewed and discussed the successes of the past and the opportunities that the future holds for Keep Kingsport Beautiful. (Litter prevention, clean community and tree planting programs.)

5) Issue – Government Update

Program – A Closer Look – December 13, 2009, 13 minutes

Jeff Fleming is Kingsport's Assistant City Manager for Development and provided us with an update on the city/region and what the coming year may look like.

Supporting Documentation

WOPI-CA

Public Service Programming

A Closer Look, Sundays 5:30 PM – October - December 2009

Each segment is approximately 13 minutes in length

October 2009

October 4, 2009 Air Date

The first segment of this edition was with Bruce Wilder. We will be visiting with Bruce on Behalf of the Dobyns-Bennett High School Alumni Hall of Fame Awards (and Luncheon) program. The program will recognize outstanding D-B Alumni.

Our second segment was with Anne Newton and Barbara Johnson with Frontier Health's Safe House. These ladies shared with us the rising need for places and programs like Safe House that provide a refuge for victims of domestic violence. Also, October is Domestic Violence Awareness month and they will be doing the Flowers on the Lake remembrance program for Safe House at Warriors Path on Oct. 17.

October 11, 2009 Air Date

Robin Crumley, Safe Passage Board member and fundraising chair, and Lynn Armstrong, Safe Passage Director, talked about the Safe Passage Domestic Abuse Shelter and their fund raising raffle. Safe Passage is a program of the First Tennessee Human Resources Agency that provides shelter and assistance to domestic abuse victims.

The second segment guests were Pam Gardner, Director of Adult Day Services and Stephanie Walker, Director of Communications & Public Relations for the First TN Human Resource Agency. We discussed their new facility, "Young at Heart Respite" in Jonesborough. Adult Day Services is also a program of the First Tennessee Human Resources Agency. The Adult Day Services main facility is located at 603 Bert Street, Johnson City, in the old Keystone School. The new additional facility will be located at the 'old county farm site in Washington County.

October 18, 2009 Air Date

Katherine Scoggins, with the Shepherd's Center, 1701 Virginia Ave., Kingsport TN 37664. (Contact via phone at (423)392-4514.) The Shepherd's Center, an assistance to older adults program -- provides services such as transportation, medical equipment loan, minor home repairs, etc which enable older adults to remain living independently and safely in their homes. We also discussed the Shepherd Center's Make A Difference Day Project.

For the second segment we visited with Ms Aimee White. Aimee is with "A SAFE PLACE" a program of Frontier Health operated through LINK House. (Contact info is as follows: LINK HOUSE, 433 New Beason Well Road Kingsport, TN 37660 phone (423)288—1828) "Safe Place" is a program whereby teens have a safe place to go instead of running away from home. Places that display the 'Safe Place' sign are places

November 22, 2009 Air Date

The first segment today was with Dorothy Radcliffe and Katie Burke (Katie is a performer/dancer in this year's production) of the INTERCITY BALLET and their 30th annual production of the NUTCRACKER at the Eastman Employee Center.

The second segment was with Jason C. Booher. Jason is the "new" Sullivan County Elections Administrator and will bring us up to date on the election laws in the state – some are new and some have not been enforced.

November 29, 2009 Air Date

The first segment for this show was with Diana Meredith. Diana is with Times Newmedia and they are launching/hosting a new website just for moms. Everything from lists of doctors to recipes will be/is available.

Email: mom1@tricitymom.com

Web site <http://www.Tricitymom.com>

The second segment for this show was with Patricia Stafford. Patricia is the Director of the E.T.S.U branch at Kingsport. We talked about the upcoming semester registration process, scholarship opportunities and schedule.

<http://www.etsu.edu/scs/etsukingsport.asp>

December 6, 2009 Air Date

First up for today's show was Tim Attebery, Cardiovascular Associates and Chuck Owens, Director of the Boys and Girls Club of Greater Kingsport. We will be talking about their upcoming fundraiser and the program opportunities offered by the Boys and Girls Club.

The second segment was with Ryan Roorda and Dave Sybert with Big Brothers Big Sisters. Ryan is the new Recruitment Coordinator and Dave is a Big Brother in the program. They shared details of the program and how it works for both the "Bigs" and "Littles."

December 13, 2009 Air Date

First up for this program was Jeff Fleming. Jeff is Kingsport's Assistant City Manager for Development and will provide us with an update on the city/region and what the coming year may look like.

Our second segment was Jerry Fleenor. Jerry is the Director of the Sullivan County Emergency Agency provide us with an overview of the County's emergency and disaster preparedness efforts. Website <http://www.sullivancounty.org/ema.htm>

December 27, 2009 Air Date

First up for this edition of A Closer Look was none other than State Representative Tony Shipley. Tony brought us up to date on the happenings in the Tennessee State Legislature.

Email: rep.tony.shipley@capitol.tn.gov
Website: <http://www.capitol.tn.gov/house>

Our second segment was with Jennifer Jenks. Jennifer is with the East Tennessee Donor Services organization and updated us on the efforts of this great organization in Tennessee and Virginia.

Websites: TN Residents: www.tndonorregistry.org
VA Residents: www.save7lives.org