- B. Societal, Arts, and Health Issues: Transitional program for nonviolent men on parole; Financial Literacy initiatives; the David Mathews Center for Civic Life and Alabama's Civic Health; Neurological trauma and conditions; Heir Property and land loss among African Americans; Art Therapy; Hearing-impaired Students; Social Security; Music Education for children; Downtown Development in Montgomery; Animal Rescue in Macon County.
- B. Citizenship Issues: Remembrance Ceremonies for Our Nation's Fallen in All Wars; Flag Day and the U.S. Flag Code; Tenth Anniversary of Occupancy of the Frank M. Johnson, Jr., Federal Courthouse Complex.
- D. Historical Issues: The Civil Rights Struggle and the Montgomery Bus Boycott; Road to Equality: The 1961 Freedom Rides exhibit at the new Alabama Historical Commission's Freedom Rides Museum; Camp Opelika, the World War II Camp for German POWs from 1942 to 1945; Robert R. Taylor, the first academically trained African American architect; Rosenwald Schools for African American children in the 20th century.

Section II: Responsive Programs.

The station has broadcast programming dealing with each of the above-referenced issues. Programming on Community Focus, with host Carolyn Hutcheson, dealt with each issue in a 14-minute time frame, beginning at 12:10 PM Central time, each day.

A. Environmental Issues:

-Broadcast on April 6:

A discussion with guest Mike Bunn, Executive Director of the Historic Chattahoochee Commission, a State agency of both Alabama and Georgia, covering eighteen counties of the lower Chattahoochee River, with an update on the progress of the Congressionally mandated National Park Service's Chattahoochee Trace National Heritage Corridor Study. Several projects are underway as adjuncts – Battlefield Park and the Chattahoochee Heritage Project.

-Broadcast on April 13:

A discussion with guest Larry Brady of Pintlala, Alabama, about the Clean Water Project in Panama, sponsored by the nonprofit, Panama Missions, with help from medical teams and Rotary Clubs. The effort is to bring filtered drinking water to Panama villages, since water-borne diseases are the second biggest killer of young children in the world, second only to respiratory diseases.

-Broadcast on May 3:

A discussion with guest Mark Hains, Research Coordinator with The Longleaf Alliance, about the restoration of the Longleaf Pine Ecosystem in the Southeast and the proliferation of feral pigs, which threaten the ecosystem and farm land. He wrote the book, Year of the Pig.

-Broadcast on May 17:

A discussion with guests Billy Turner, Interim President of the nonprofit ACF Stakeholders Organization (Apalachicola, Chattahoochee, Flint River Basin), and Carole Rutland, Governing Board member, about the grassroots efforts of the ACF Stakeholders to explore alternative approaches to solving the Tri-State Water Wars.

-Broadcast on May 25:

A discussion with guest Onai Chitiyo of Zimbabwe, a geographer, environmental planner, and educator, who has been given political asylum by the U.S. He recounted his journey to the U.S. via England, where the Queen awarded him a scholarship to London University. After earning a masters degree, he designed a project to clean up the Thames River. Onai talked about land use planning, in the context of ecology.

-Broadcast on May 29:

A discussion with guest Mike Bunn, Executive Director of the Historic Chattahoochee Commission, a State agency of Alabama and Georgia, with an update on the progress of the National Park Service's Chattahoochee Trace National Heritage Area Study.

-Broadcast on May 31:

A discussion with guests Michael Bloxom, Hunter Education Coordinator for Central Alabama, and Kim Nix, Editor of Outdoor Alabama magazine, about the Alabama Department of Conservation and Natural Resources' Hunter Safety Regulations and Education program for youth and adults.

-Broadcast on June 18:

A discussion with guest Lt. Ryan Bennett of the Alabama Marine Police, Alabama Department of Conservation and Natural Resources, about boat registration requirements, boater education and laws, life jackets (PFDs), safe boating practices, boat ramp etiquette, and DUI issues on the water.

-Broadcast on June 22:

A discussion by telephone with guest William Holman, Executive Director of Landmark Park in Dothan, about the new Ranger Rick Geocaching Trail, affiliated with the National Wildlife Federation. Geocaching is the new version of Orienteering - learning the skill of navigating direction in the out-of-doors. Landmark Park has one of the few Ranger Rick Geocaching Trails in our Tri-State coverage area.

-Broadcast on June 28:

A discussion with guest Russell Stringer, Urban Forester for the City of Montgomery, about the addition of numerous new trees to the Capital City's downtown landscape, as part of the Downtown Master Plan. The local nonprofit tree group, "Montgomery Trees," has furnished volunteer help. He also shared advice about trees with the listeners.

B. Societal, Arts, and Health Issues:

-Broadcast on April 3:

A discussion with guests Dana Dunklin, Executive Director of Renascence Re-entry Community, a nonprofit structured transitional program for nonviolent men on probation or parole, and Ami Simpson, Public Relations Director, about "Art out of Bounds," a benefit art show, and about how artwork helps change the emotional outlook for the residents.

-Broadcast on April 4:

A discussion with guests Amanda Freeman, CPA and Chief Financial Officer of the Alabama Society of Certified Public Accountants, and Diane Christy, Communications Director, about taxes and the IRS, ASCPA initiatives for Financial Literacy Month – Peer to Peer Financial Counseling on several college campuses, including Troy University, and the Central Alabama Financial Education Coalition.

-Broadcast on April 9:

A discussion with guest Chris McCauley, Executive Director of the nonprofit David Mathews Center for Civic Life, previewing the special event, “A Conversation on the State of Alabama’s Civic Health” April 19 at the Alabama Department of Archives and History (free and open to the public). He reported on the success of the 2011 community forums addressing Alabama’s high school dropout rate.

-Broadcast on April 30:

A discussion with guests Dr. Nicholas Voss, Board-certified neurosurgeon (by phone from Dothan), and Fred Azbell, Program Manager of Troy University Public Radio, about head injuries and neurological conditions. Fred is a former patient of Dr. Voss at Southeast Alabama Medical Center, and he recounted his experience. Dr. Voss shared precautionary advice about head injuries from falls, four-wheelers, motorcycles and diving accidents. The American Academy of Neurological Surgeons has resource information for listeners.

-Broadcast on May 4:

A discussion with guest Craig Baab, Senior Fellow Alabama Appleseed Center for Law and Justice, and National Project Director for Appleseed’s Heir Property Initiative, about Heir Property and land loss among African Americans. The Alabama Cooperative Extension System publishes the Heir Property in Alabama Handbook.

-Broadcast on May 14:

A discussion with guest Karla Foss Reilly, Art Therapist, whose participation in humanitarian projects in Vietnam and Cambodia led her to earn a masters degree in Art Therapy from Pratt Institute. She talked about Art Therapy as a healing tool to reach victims of human trafficking, physical and emotional abuse, and psychiatric patients (Part I of a two-part interview).

-Broadcast on May 23:

A discussion with guest Kathy Hutchinson, Specialist for Hearing-Impaired Students for the Montgomery Public Schools, about programs to meet the needs of hearing-impaired and deaf students with technology and ASL Interpreters. She gave advice to parents about the early identification of hearing loss in children.

-Broadcast on May 30:

A discussion with guest Kulle' McKinney, Public Affairs Specialist with the Social Security Administration, about the new date for Social Security insolvency, Retirement benefits, the Centenarian project, and Disability.

-Broadcast on June 4:

A discussion with guest Karla Foss Reilly, Art Therapist, about her experiences helping children and adults as a trained Art Therapist. She explained how she uses both art and psychotherapy techniques to help people with emotional and mental health problems. Karla is pioneering an Art Therapy program for the UAB Hospital in Birmingham. (Part II of a two-part interview).

-Broadcast on June 6:

A discussion with guest Dr. Katerina Juraskova, cellist and educator with the Montgomery Music Project, about the benefits to children of mastering a musical instrument. The cultivation of musical talent has a carryover effect in students' school work, discipline, sense of achievement, and artistic creativity. The Montgomery Music Project holds summer music camp in late July.

-Broadcast on June 11:

A discussion with guest Chad Emerson, Director of Development for the City of Montgomery, with an overview of downtown redevelopment efforts and plans for future targeted areas.

-Broadcast on June 12:

A discussion with guest Lorna Aho, President of the Macon County Humane Society of Tuskegee, about finding homes for rescued animals. Lorna also gave advice on traveling with pets this summer.

-Broadcast on June 15:

A discussion with guest Chris McCauley, Executive Director of the David Mathews Center for Civic Life, about the center's latest project – Alabama's Civic Health Index. The David Mathews Center initiates solution-oriented town hall meetings and workshops for Alabama communities, as a way to address common concerns.

C. Citizenship Issues:

-Broadcast on May 10:

A discussion with guest Justin Rojek, Remembrance Service Coordinator for the General Richard Montgomery Chapter, Sons of the American Revolution, about the May 27th ceremonies to Honor Our Nation's Fallen in All Wars, with patriotic organizations participating in the procession, music, and the laying of wreaths. Offering taken will benefit the Wounded Warrior Project.

-Broadcast on June 14:

A discussion with guest Lt. Col. Bill Stewart (USAF ret.), author of I Am Your Flag, a composition presented to the Alabama Legislature and written for the National Exchange Club, covering the U.S. Flag Code and Flag Etiquette. He talked about ways to show respect for the flag. Lt. Col. Stewart presents his flag talk to groups in our coverage area upon request.

-Broadcast on June 25:

A discussion with guest Reginald T. Hamner, Project Coordinator for the Frank M. Johnson, Jr., Federal Courthouse Complex, the United States District Court for the Middle District of Alabama, about the tenth anniversary of the new Federal Courthouse. This first of a two-part interview covers the architecture, art, history and special construction features of the award-winning design. Part II to be broadcast in July.

D. Historical Issues:

-Broadcast on April 5:

A discussion with guest Reverend Bob Graetz, about his experiences in the Civil Rights struggle, when he openly supported the Montgomery Bus Boycott. He also talked about Mohandas Gandhi's influence on Martin Luther King, Jr. The keynote speaker for the annual Durr Lecture at Auburn Montgomery, he also wrote A White Preacher's Memoir about events surrounding the Civil Rights era.

-Broadcast on May 18:

A discussion with guest Dr. J. Mills Thornton, historian, about the new exhibit, Road to Equality: The 1961 Freedom Rides, featuring works of art by Alabama Artists, at the Alabama Historical Commission's Freedom Rides Museum in the historic Montgomery Greyhound Bus Station. Professor Thornton is author of the book, Dividing Lines, Municipal Politics and the Struggle for Civil Rights in Montgomery, Birmingham, and Selma.

-Broadcast on May 28:

A discussion recorded by guest host Kyle Gassiott of East Alabama Arts with guest Col. Albert Killian about Camp Opelika, the World War II camp for German POWs from 1942 to 1945. The prisoners formed a 32-piece symphony orchestra, but the camp was closed on Dec. 8, 1945, and prisoners were then transferred to Georgia's Fort Benning.

-Broadcast on June 1:

A discussion by telephone with guest Ellen Weiss, architectural historian and Professor Emerita at the Tulane University School of Architecture, about Robert R. Taylor, the first architecturally trained African American architect (MIT) and his life work – the campus of Booker T. Washington's Tuskegee Normal and Industrial Institute. Her book is Robert R. Taylor and Tuskegee, An African American Architect Designs for Booker T. Washington.

-Broadcast on June 5:

A discussion with guests Barbara Ervin, Board member of the Lee County Historical Society and former student of the first Rosenwald School in the South (in Loachapoka), and Dorothy Walker, Public Outreach Coordinator for the Alabama Historical Commission, about the impact of the Rosenwald Schools on the education of African American children. In 1912, educator Booker T. Washington and philanthropist Julius Rosenwald established 5300 schools, with community support, in the Deep South. The National Rosenwald Schools Conference will be held June 14-16 in Tuskegee.
