ISSUE: DROUGHT

KINK (FM) PUBLIC AFFAIRS

July 25th, 2021

5am to 5:30am

2:00 minutes of a: 30 minute show

Guest: Jacob Welsh, Bootleg Wildfire Strike Team Cruise Leader. He explains how the drought in Oregon is contributing to wildfire, by pointing out tree limbs crumbling and easily sparking with embers, spreading the Bootleg Fire which is the nation's largest wildfire and Oregon's third largest in history.

ISSUE: WILDFIRE

KINK (FM) PUBLIC AFFAIRS

July 25th, 2021

5am to 5:30am

4:35 minutes of a: 30 minute show

Guest: Scott Babinowich, Bootleg Wildfire Information Officer. He explains how a lightning strike sparked the fire in the exceptionally dry woods in Southern Oregon, and why the wildfire's smoke is creating hazardous air in areas like New York City and Baltimore, while the air in Oregon is staying healthy.

ISSUE: WILDFIRE / WILDLIFE

KINK (FM) PUBLIC AFFAIRS

July 25th, 2021

5am to 5:30am

21:28 minutes of a: 30 minute show

Guest: Meta Loftsgaarden, Oregon Watershed Enhancement Board Executive Director. We know how tough the wildfires and drought have been for Oregon's people, but they're also making survival difficult for animals, particularly the salmon. Many of the iconic specimens of Oregon salmon are already in trouble, listed as endangered or threatened, at the state or federal levels, including Snake River Sockeye, Upper Columbia River Spring Salmon, and the Oregon Coast Coho Salmon. We discussed how the Oregon Watershed Enhancement Board often tries to tackle problems that pit wildlife versus human interests, including what to do with dams that block salmon's paths. And right now, they're in the middle of an effort to raise money through salmon license plates in Oregon, to help protect salmon's habitat.

ISSUE: WILDFIRE

KINK (FM) PUBLIC AFFAIRS

August 1st, 2021

5am to 5:30am

1:15 minutes of a: 30 minute show

Guest: Erica Wisner, Bootleg Firefighting Engine Boss. We're taking an up close look at the fire burning in our own backyard: the Bootleg fire, still the nation's largest wildfire. It's destroyed dozens of homes. Firefighting Engine Boss Erica Wisner tells us what it's like working the night shift, and why it's firefighters' best chance at getting the massive fire under control.

ISSUE: WILDFIRE

KINK (FM) PUBLIC AFFAIRS

August 1st, 2021

5am to 5:30am

3:05 minutes of a: 30 minute show

Guest: Melanie Lasley, Lake County Emergency Services . In both Lake and Klamath Counties, Bootleg Wildfire evacuation orders have fluctuated, from get ready, set, to go, and back again. I talked to Lake County's Melanie Lasley, about what it's like having the nation's biggest, and most powerful wildfire in your neighborhood.

ISSUE: WILDFIRE

KINK (FM) PUBLIC AFFAIRS

August 1st, 2021

5am to 5:30am

4:30 minutes of a: 30 minute show

Guest: Nick Saca and Nicholas Coronado, firefighters from Washington and New Mexico. Thousands of firefighters are helping in the effort against the Bootleg Wildfire, some coming from thousands of miles away to Oregon. They include Nick Saca from Northwestern Washington and Nicholas Coronado from New Mexico. They explain why they've come far from home, to help.

ISSUE: SCIENCE / EDUCATION

KINK (FM) PUBLIC AFFAIRS

August 1st, 2021

5am to 5:30am

18:45 minutes of a: 30 minute show

Guest: Dr. Nicholeen Violle, NASA Astrophysicist. She grew up in Washington state, where she was a little girl who dreamed of learning about the sun and other stars. Now Dr. Nicholeen Violle is a research astrophysicist at NASA's Goddard Space Flight Center. This week, we talked to her about her views on science education. Plus, her research into explosions of radiation from the sun, and how they impact our satellites, our spacecraft, and our planet, and solar power, for answers about whether it can solve our energy and pollution challenges; and how the sun impacts our health.

ISSUE: SPORTS

KINK (FM) PUBLIC AFFAIRS

August 1st, 2021

5am to 5:30am

3:10 minutes of a: 30 minute show

Guest: Michael Chaplin, Assistant Head Coach for Gymnastics at Oregon State University. This feature piece includes Chaplin on how he recruited 21 year old Jade Carey, the O.S.U. student athlete who is the school's first female gymnast in the Olympics, and who replaced Simone Biles at the last minute for all around competition. We also profiled Jordan Chiles, the Tualatin, Oregon born gymnast who replaced Biles in another event, the team competition.

KINK (FM) PUBLIC AFFAIRS

August 8th, 2021

5am to 5:30am

5:07 minutes of a: 30 minute show

Guest: Vinny Lobdell, President of HealthWay. Clean air is an issue, because of more than 80 western wildfires burning now. And because of the memories of last year's wildfire season lingering, when the Portland area briefly held the top spot with the world's worst air. So I talked to an expert about technology that can clean our air, both at home and at work. Lobdell is the President of HealthWay, which produces air purification systems for companies around the world.

ISSUE: HEALTH

KINK (FM) PUBLIC AFFAIRS

August 8th, 2021

5am to 5:30am

10:01 minutes of a: 30 minute show

Guest: Shane Liermann, with the Disabled American Veterans. We have hundreds of thousands of veterans in Oregon and Washington. And there's a significant health challenge for them, related to the air they breathed, while serving our country. They may not even know how toxins from burn pits affect them. I talked to Shane Liermann, with the Disabled American Veterans, about his campaign to help these veterans get health care for burn pit related injuries, including cancer.

ISSUE: HOME UPDATES / REPAIRS

KINK (FM) PUBLIC AFFAIRS

ISSUE: HEALTH / SAFETY

KINK (FM) PUBLIC AFFAIRS

August 15th, 2021

5am to 5:30am

7:05 minutes of a: 30 minute show

Guest: Deborah Kafoury, Multnomah County Chair. Multnomah County Chair Deborah Kafoury started it, Governor Kate Brown continued it. Mask mandates are back in Oregon. This week, Kafoury joined with doctors who are leaders in the major health systems in our area. They echoed her message: the Delta variant's lightning fast spread makes it necessary to bring back masks, or risk ending all of the progress to date in fighting the COVID-19 pandemic. Kafoury also responded to questions about what could happen if the mask mandate does NOT have its desired effect to stem the rising infection rate. Would that mean, bringing back restrictions on businesses and crowds, as we saw in the beginning of the pandemic?

ISSUE: HEALTH / SAFETY

KINK (FM) PUBLIC AFFAIRS

August 15th, 2021

5am to 5:30am

2:50 minutes of a: 30 minute show

Guest: Dr. Jennifer Vines, Lead Health Officer for Multnomah and Tri County Area. Multnomah and Tri County Lead Health Officer Dr. Jennifer Vines, explains exactly what the Delta variant is, and how it's affecting the community. Dr. Vines also explained the length of time this mask mandate is going to be in place, and that it could continue up until January. But what will she and other health experts be looking for at that point, and even before, to decide when to end the mandate or extend it, what are the key benchmarks?

ISSUE: HEALTH

KINK (FM) PUBLIC AFFAIRS

August 15th, 2021

5am to 5:30am

5:00 minutes of a: 30 minute show

Guest: Dr. Renee Edwards, surgeon and Senior Vice President/Chief Medical Officer for Oregon Health and Science University. Dr. Edwards says she's been asking for the county's help throughout the pandemic, and that now more than ever, the health care community needs help, with the Delta variant sending more people to local hospitals.

KINK (FM) PUBLIC AFFAIRS

August 15th, 2021

5am to 5:30am

6:00 minutes of a: 30 minute show

Guest: Guadalupe Guerrero, Portland Public Schools Superintendent . Superintendent Guerrero says requiring all people to wear masks indoors is a measure he supports. He also answered questions about whether there are conversations on requiring Portland Public Schools employees to get COVID 19 vaccines, and whether the school district has a metric for a specific case positivity rate, at which he and other school leaders would consider taking a step back, and a return to at-home or hybrid learning.

ISSUE: HEALTH / SAFETY

KINK (FM) PUBLIC AFFAIRS

August 15th, 2021

5am to 5:30am

3:45 minutes of a: 30 minute show

Guest: 33rd District Oregon State Representative Dr. Maxine Dexter, Kaiser Permanente Pulmonologist. Dr. Dexter is a Member of the Oregon House of Representatives for the 33rd District, representing the Northwest District and Northwest Heights of Portland, Cedar Mill, Oak Hills, and most of Bethany in the Oregon legislature. And she's also a doctor, who works as a pulmonologist at Kaiser Permanente in Hillsboro. She weighs in to explain her support for the new mask mandate, from both a doctor's and lawmaker's perspective.

ISSUE: VETERANS MENTAL HEALTH

5am to 5:30am

23:00 minutes of a: 30 minute show

Guest: Chunwei Chi, Director, Center for Global Health, and Professor of Global Health at Oregon State University. Oregon was once setting a national example for limiting COVID, but lately the Delta variant has switched that situation, crippling Oregon's hospitals. He explains that's because Delta is so much more contagious, and has two mutations that evade the immune system. He says the vast majority of Oregonians getting infected are unvaccinated. He blames misinformation from the World Health Organization, and China, about the virus. But he explains why he believes we will be able to overcome the virus and get back to normal within months. Chi regularly communicates with scientists working on COVID around the world.

ISSUE: VACCINE CONCERNS

KINK (FM) PUBLIC AFFAIRS

August 29th, 2021

5am to 5:30am

4:30 minutes of a: 30 minute show

Guest: Dr. Aimee Huff, Marketing Professor at Oregon State University School of Business. Dr. Huff has been researching the attitudes of Oregonians since the pandemic started. She explains why people decline the vaccines, and how the full approval of Pfizer's vaccine should shift people's attitudes. Her research shows that Oregonians who are hesitant said it was because they feared it was experimental, now they should see it as legitimate, like any other vaccine or medicine with full approval.

ISSUE: HEALTH (REPEAT)

KINK (FM) PUBLIC AFFAIRS

July 4th , 2021

5:30am to 6am

9:29 minutes of a 30 minute show

Guest: Eric Chambers / Director of Communications Oregon Bottle Drop. KXL's Brett Reckamp talks with Eric about their 50th anniversary of the state's bottle bill and how they plan to celebrate. He says they are having a statewide treasure hunt using golden bottles. These 6 special bottles are being hidden in parks and common areas in 6 different zones across the entire state. Clues start coming out via email and their website on Wednesday and will continue once a day until later this weekend. The bottles are painted and custom - they're carefully wrapped and hidden. The finder will have a $500 donation in their name to the charity of their choice and will get to keep the bottle as a nice reminder.

ISSUE: TRAVEL / SAFETY

KINK (FM) PUBLIC AFFAIRS

July 4th, 2021

5:30am to 6am

6:08 minutes of a 30 minute show

Guest: Erika Richter / American Society of Travel Advisors in Portland. KXL's Brett Reckamp hears about why it's good to book your travel right now - even for Christmas. Erika says prices for flights, hotel and especially rental cars are going through the roof and fast. She says availability is also slim. She talks about ways to save money now and budget ahead of time. Especially with all the pent up demand for travel and maybe the desire for families to get together this year even if it's not at home.

ISSUE: STATE MOVEMENT

KINK (FM) PUBLIC AFFAIRS

July 4th, 2021

5:30am to 6am

4:05 minutes of a 30 minute show

Guest: Nate Shelman / KBOI Talk Host. KXL's Brett Recakmp hears from Nate about the latest from the movement to annex a large chunk of Oregon into Idaho. A new poll from people in counties all over the eastern part of Oregon show they are now in favor of the idea. They want to be governed by Idaho laws and pay their taxes. Nate says real lawmakers - even ones from the U.S. Congress are continuing to meet and keep the idea alive. Even if it's still likely going nowhere because it would have to be passed by the legislatures of both states and Congress.

Guest: Barbara Lusch / Portland area jazz singer & Alpha Media A/E. KXL's Brett Reckamp hears from an excited artist who is gigging for the first time in a year and a half. Barb says she has 2 club dates this week to sing and has butterflies. She says the time off has been very tough for a lot of local clubs and musicians and everyone involved. But, she has had time to work on some new recording projects. Still, Barb admits there is nothing like performing in front of a live audience.

ISSUE: WEATHER

KINK (FM) PUBLIC AFFAIRS

July 11th, 2021

5:30am to 6am

28:20 minutes of a 30 minute show

Guest: Debra Corbin / SAIF Industrial Hygienist CIH. KXL's Brett Reckamp goes in-depth with Debra after the State of Oregon has Oregon OSHA adopt new heat exhaustion rules. Debra says the rule is temporary, but within 180 days there will be new, permanent rules in place that will kick in every summer from here on out. She says because of climate change, the excessive heat wave we had in June sparked the temporary rule, but the ongoing rising temperatures have given them enough incentive to create permanent rules.

ISSUE: COMMUTE / TRAFFIC

KINK (FM) PUBLIC AFFAIRS

August 1st, 2021

5:30am to 6am

10:22 minutes of a 30 minute show

Guest: Jim Redden / Reporter Portland Tribune. KXL's Brett Reckamp gets the complicated story of how ODOT wants to widen I-5 in North Portland. If they do, PPS says they need to build them a new middle school. Ever since the 50's, Jim says the mostly black community in North Portland has been dealing with traffic and bad air from I-5 for years now. The Governor and other state elected officials feel like they need to pay for the school and offer solutions for I-5. Commuters want relief. Environmentalists don't want the freeway widened. Jim says it will take years and perhaps billions of dollars to figure this out.

ISSUE: US ECONOMY

KINK (FM) PUBLIC AFFAIRS

August 1st, 2021

5:30am to 6am

5:31 minutes of a 30 minute show

Guest: Michael Bael / Senior Portfolio Manager at US Bank in Portland. KXL's Brett Reckamp and Veronica Carter hear from Mike just minutes after the latest BLS report comes out. It was better than expected and has created a lot of optimism for the U.S. economy coming out of the recession. He says it will affect bond yields and interest rates which are already reacting. Mike says this report is much better than the ADP payroll estimate that came out 2 days earlier.

KINK (FM) PUBLIC AFFAIRS

August 1st, 2021

5:30am to 6am

9:03 minutes of a 30 minute show

Guest: John Brady / Communications Director Portland Bureau of Transportation (PBOT). KXL's Brett Reckamp hears from John about how they plan on making their temporary plan born from the pandemic - permanent. He says they are replacing the temporary signs and planters with permanent signs and some concrete areas. These spots are in about 80 neighborhoods around Portland. John says the idea is to suggest 15 MPH max and to divert some traffic from areas where walkers and bikers might be sharing the road. He says it was so popular throughout the pandemic with fewer cars on the road, they decided to go ahead and make it a permanent thing.

ISSUE: TECHNOLOGY / COMMUNITY

KINK (FM) PUBLIC AFFAIRS

August 1st, 2021

4:13 minutes of a: 30 minute show

Guest: Andrew Phelps / Director of Oregon Office of Emergency Management. KXL's Brett Reckamp & Veronica hear about what the State of Oregon is doing to try and support everyone around the state during this latest heat wave. Andrew says their number one priority is to make sure all utilities are up and running because without power we don't have A/C or fans. He says heat emergencies are sometimes harder to shed light on because victims are often at home, quietly suffering in their homes.

ISSUE: WATER SHORTAGE

KINK (FM) PUBLIC AFFAIRS

August 8th, 2021

5:30am to 6am

5:27 minutes of a: 30 minute show

Guest: Brian Jensen / Yamhill Fire Chief. KXL's Rosemary Reynolds hears from the Chief about the details of this water emergency in both Yamhill City and County. He says they have already made restrictions, but now have to cut them deeper. People's wells are running dry and the main water source - Turner Creek is running low so they're not able to get enough gallons of water to allow for regular water use. Residents are not allowed to wash their cars or water their yards or plants and must only use water for essentials. If things don't improve, they will have to truck water from elsewhere to Yamhill.
