

WVXG QUARTERLY REPORT

3rd QUARTER 2019

FOCUS ON MID OHIO

This 30 minute program airs Sundays at 8 am and covers various topics all around Mid-Ohio hosted by Mike Wilson

July 7: Host Mike Wilson spoke with Bo Griffith founder of Millstone Ministries, an organization that focuses on advocating in the church for unplanned pregnancies.

July 14: Host Mike Wilson spoke with Mitch Gale, Jamie Zeger and John Wallis, all characters in MLT production of Shrek the Musical about the premise of the show, and the details as to when the production is as well as where to get tickets and cost.

July 21: Host Mike Wilson spoke with cast of Morrow Little Theater's production of Shrek the Musical about the plot, how to get tickets and the location of the production.

July 28: Host Mike Wilson spoke with Mark Holbrook with the Marion Area Convention and Visitors Bureau about upcoming events in and around Marion, Ohio.

Aug 4: Host Mike Wilson spoke with Tom Danner, head of the Popcorn Festival committee about the upcoming Marion Popcorn Festival, the first weekend after Labor Day.

Aug 11: Host Mike Wilson spoke with Bo Griffith, founder of Millstone Ministries, about the organization and their mission to make churches more aware of the needs of women and men in cases of unplanned pregnancies.

Aug 18: Host Mike Wilson spoke with The Ghost Sisters. A group out of Marion Ohio who can be hired to investigate paranormal activity.

Aug 25: Host Mike Wilson spoke with bus drivers from Mt. Gilead Schools about bus safety for the riders as well as for those drivers also on the road.

Sept 1: Host Mike Wilson spoke with school bus drivers from Mt. Gilead School about bus safety for the students as well as for other drivers on the road.

Sept 8: Host Mike Wilson spoke with Donna Myer, director of Delaware County Historical Society, about the goals of the organization and upcoming events.

Sept 15: Host Mike Wilson, spoke with Rita Barton and Nancy Foos, representatives of the Morrow County chapter of Red Cross, about programs and upcoming events.

Sept 22: Host Mike Wilson spoke about the war Saving Stamp contest that led to the winning of the Victory Shaft in downtown Mt. Gilead and the 100th year celebration on September 28, 2019.

Sept 29: Host Mike Wilson spoke with Pat Drouhard, Dawn Ruehrmund, and Dianna McClure about the upcoming Glendale Cemetery Walk in Cardington. We discussed that this is a fund raising event to restore their Civil War Monument.

Giving Hope: A weekly :30 minute program dealing with the Opioid Crises in Marion and Morrow Counties. Aird Sunday Mornings from 8:30-9 am

OUR OHIO RADIO:

This is a 30 minute program that addresses Agriculture and other topics throughout Ohio hosted by Ty Higgins from the Ohio Farm Bureau.

7/6/19 - Cyber Security - cyber security expert Mike Moran Joined Ty and discussed the issues facing all of us today with regards to cyber security and how to protect your personal and business accounts.

7/13/19 - Denial Ohio - Jennifer Martinez, director of clinical services with the Alcohol Drug and Mental Health Board, otherwise known as ADAMH in Franklin County and Chad Jester is the Vice President of Corporate Citizenship and President of the Nationwide Foundation. Talked about the new campaign to combat the opioid crises in Ohio

7/20/19 - Ohio's Amish Community - Susan Trollinger, an English Professor at the University of Dayton, talked about the impact the Amish community has on economics in rural Ohio, farming techniques, and how they stay in community within our modern culture.

7/27/19 - OSU Engineering College - Dr. David Williams, Dean of Ohio State's College of Engineering and Dr. Scott Shearer is Chairman of the Department of Food, Agricultural and Biological Engineering with the College of Food, Agricultural and Environmental Sciences. They joined Ty and talked about the future of farming in Ohio. From small to large scale improvements, equipment autonomy and more.

8/3/19 - Energy - Awesome Hok from Ohio's Public Utilities Commission and Sam Randahzo with the Industrial Energy Users of Ohio. They had answers for questions like, How much energy do we as consumers use on a daily basis? What energy sources are best for the future, and what can we do to use consume less energy today!

8/10/19 - Global Food Issues - Dr. Hughes is emeritus professor of food and marketing at Imperial College London. He talked with Ty about fast food deliveries and Grocery deliveries to your door and how those trends are developing here and around the world.

8/17/19 - OSU Athletics - Gene Smith, Athletic Director at The Ohio State University talked about the importance of sports throughout Ohio and how we can continue to have great student athletes and sports programs in rural areas. He also spoke about all the changes happening at The Ohio State University and excitement about the future!

8/24/19 - Ohio's Food System - Amy Rolling Magee, president of the Health Policy Institute. From farm to table, she told Ty just what it takes, and how we accomplish this in Ohio. Almost everything we consume is thanks to a farmer!

8/31/19 - Career Tech - Kristine Gardner, executive director of the Ohio Association for Career and Technical Education and Tim Harmon, director of customized workforce recruitment and training for economic development organization Columbus 2020. They joined Ty to talk about the need for skilled workers today, and the fact that a college education doesn't have to be the only path to good high paying jobs in today's economy.

09/07/19 - administrator of Ohio's Bureau of Worker's Compensation, Stephanie McCloud. Nearly a quarter of a million Ohioans are covered by Workers Comp. Ohio workers, families, businesses and communities are all effected by how well and how efficiently the Ohio Bureau of Workers Comp does its job. Stephanie educated us on just how the bureau gets it all done.

9/14/19 - Jeff Newman, who owns and operates multiple Columbus area McDonald's franchises. He talk with Ty about how such a large company impacts the ag industry, from farm to restaurant consumer, McDonalds affects us all on a global scale to local farmers as well.

9/21/19 - Chairman of Ohio State's Department of Animal Sciences is Dr. John Foltz. Animal farming in Ohio is big business. From Dairy to beef, hog farmers and horse breeding, the impact on Ohio's economy is staggering. John talked about where the history, where we are today, and how we will get to the future!

9/28/19 - Matt McClairin from Tourism Ohio. Tourism in Ohio is worth billions of dollars. Matt talked with Ty about all that Ohio has to offer it's residents and visitors alike, how we advertise our great state and upcoming events for the fall and winter in Ohio.