

WVXG

3rd Quarter 2020

Issues and Programs List

WVXG Quarterly Report
 3rd Quarter 2020
 Program: Focus On Mid Ohio

A 30 minute program that airs Sunday at 8 am and covers various issues all around Marion Morrow and Delaware Counties. Hosted by Mike Wilson.

Issue	DATE	TIME	Guest	Topic
Importance of celebrating July 4th, meaning and traditions	5-Jul	8:00-8:30 am	Devon Hardwick, a local history major,	Host Mike Wilson, spoke with Devon Hardwick, a local history major, about the origins of Independence Day, it's meaning to us as Americans, and some of the traditions associated with the celebration.
How Covid 19 has affected activities at the Nature Center, birds and plants you can see now.	12-Jul	8:00-8:30 am	Tyler Butler, naturalist at Terradise Nature Center	Host Mike Wilson, spoke with Tyler Butler, naturalist at Terradise Nature Center about the activities going on there and how some activities are affected by Covid19. Tyler also talked about the birds and the flowers that can be seen there, this time of year.
We discussed her part in redesigning the currency and her part in designing the Sacagawea gold dollar. Also discussed her difficult time being accepted in a traditionally mens position.	19-Jul	8:00-8:30 am	Mary Ellen Withrow, 40th treasurer of the US.	Host Mike Wilson, spoke with Mary Ellen Withrow, 40th treasurer of the US. We discussed her part in redesigning the currency and her part in designing the Sacagawea gold dollar. Also discussed her difficult time being accepted in a traditionally mens position.
similarities between the pandemic of 1918 and our current Covid 19 situation.	26-Jul	8:00-8:30 am	historian, Fred Malone	Host Mike Wilson, spoke with historian, Fred Malone, about the similarities between the pandemic of 1918 and our current Covid 19 situation.
Repeat - We discussed her part in redesigning the currency and her part in designing the Sacagawea gold dollar. Also discussed her difficult time being accepted in a traditionally mens position.	2-Aug	8:00-8:30 am	Mary Ellen Withrow, 40th treasurer of the US.	Listener Request Repeat - 40th Treasurer of the US, Mary Ellen Withrow, discusses her time as US Treasurer. She talks about her part in redesigning some of the paper money and also addresses the current coin shortage.
How businesses are surviving during pandemic, reasons to visit Marion-destination sites.	9-Aug	8:00-8:30 am	Mark Holbrook, director of Marion Area Convention and Visitors Bureau	Host, Mike Wilson, spoke with Mark Holbrook, director of Marion Area Convention and Visitors Bureau, talks about how the pandemic has effected businesses in Marion area. Also some of the reasons to make Marion a destination place.
Dealing with the death of a child.	16-Aug	8:00-8:30 am	Author Tim Maceyco	Host Mike Wilson, spoke with Tim Maceyco whom has written a book "When the Cardinal Calls" about dealing with the death of a child. He discusses how he and his wife dealt with this tragedy when they lost their 5 year old.
Paranormal Activity and Finding it Across the USA	23-Aug	8:00-8:30 am	Ghost Hunting Sisters	Description:Host Mike Wilson spoke with a group of women from the Marion area who seek out paranormal activity. The have done ghost hunting across the USA and have been on some nationally televised shows.

Food pantry that feeds app. 260 families twice a month. And automobile repairs for those that cannot afford to pay.	30-Sep	8:00-8:30 am	Pastor Ed Colgrove of the Edison Enterprise Baptist Church	Host Mike Wilson spoke with Pastor Ed Colgrove of the Edison Enterprise Baptist Church about the various ministries their church provides to help folks in the community. They have a food pantry that feeds app. 260 families twice a month. They also provide service on automobiles for those that can't afford to go to a garage. They are also involved in giving help to some homeless shelters.
Food pantry that feeds app. 260 families twice a month. And automobile repairs for those that cannot afford to pay.	6-Sep	8:00-8:30 am	Pastor Ed Colgrove of the Edison Enterprise Baptist Church	Mike Wilson spoke with Pastor Ed Colgrove shared the many ministries that this church provides. They have a food ministry(distributing food to those in need twice a month), a furniture ministry (if someone loses their home and needs to refurnish a home), a car repair ministry, and work with the homeless.
How they are turning their programs into online programs.	13-Sep	8:00-8:30 am	Donna Meyer, Executive Director of Delaware County Historical Society	Host, Mike Wilson, spoke with Donna Meyer, Executive Director of Delaware County Historical Society, told how their organization is coping with the Covid19 crises. She also discussed some online programs and shared some stories of Delaware County history.
Support for those that have lost a loved one. Fall Sessions starts Sept. 28.	20-Sep	8:00-8:30 am	Penny Reeve and Virgil Staley spoke about Greifshare	Host Mike Wilson, spoke with Penny Reeve and Virgil Staley spoke about Greifshare, a support group for those that have recently lost a loved one. Their fall sessions start on September 28.
Child Loss 101, to help parents in through the tragic loss.	27-Sep	8:00-8:30 am	Tim Maceyco whom lost his 5 year old tragically in a home accident a few years ago	Host Mike Wilson, spoke with Tim Maceyco whom lost his 5 year old tragically in a home accident a few years ago. He has written Child loss 101 to help other parents in the same situation through the tragic loss. The book is available on Amazon.

WVXG Radio
3rd quarter 2020 reports
Our Ohio Radio

A 60 minute program that airs Saturday at 6:00-7:00 am and covers various issues surrounding Ohio agriculture and other topics affecting Ohio farmers. Hosted by Ty Higgins from the Ohio Farm Bureau.

Issues	DATE	Time	Guest	Topic
Helping veterans find a new life after the battlefield on the farm.	4-Jul	6:00-7:00 am	Farmer Veteran Coalition CEO Michael O'Gorman	The Farmer Veteran Coalition was founded in 2008 with a handful of veterans looking to begin their farming careers. Today, there are 20,000 members and the organization is paving the way for more and more returning veterans to make the transition from the battlefield to a field of a completely different nature.
County fairs and race tracks trying to navigate during COVID 19 shut downs and make enough money to stay afloat till next year.	11-Jul	6:00-7:00 am	Rod Arter, President of the Ohio Fair Managers Association  Dave Basler, Executive Director of the Ohio Horsemen Benevolent and Protective Association.  Renee Mancin, Executive Director of the Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association	we'll learn how county fairs are going about making their decisions for a 2020 event and we will check in on an industry hit extremely hard by the pandemic, the horse racing industry.
industry experts weigh in on what changes may have to happen so a derailment of our food supply never happens again	18-Jul	6:00-7:00 am	Kurt Loudenback, CEO and owner of Grand Prairie Foods.  Dr. Sally Rockey, Executive Director of the Foundation for Food and Agriculture Research  Mike Townsley, Chairman, Bob Evans Farms / Post Refrigerated Retail	The COVID-19 pandemic put a major strain on our food system. Logistics from the farm, to the processing plants to the grocery stores went awry and the food supply chain became a tangled mess that took weeks to unwind. On the next Our Ohio Weekly, industry experts weigh in on what changes may have to happen so a derailment of our food supply never happens again.
How to strike a balance between growing the food we eat and protecting natural resources.	25-Jul	6:00-7:00 am	Matt Lohr, Chief, Natural Resources Conservation Service  Andrew Wheeler, Administrator, US Environmental Protection Agency  Bethany Starlin, President, Ohio FFA	The air we breath, the water we drink and the ground we walk on are some things that many of us take for granted. Clear air, clean water and food are vital for life. For farmers, clean air, adequate water and healthy soils are vital to make a living. This week learn how government agencies, private industries and farmers are helping to strike a balance between growing the food we eat while protecting the natural resources we need.

Helping farmers recognize stress symptoms and effective ways to manage them.	1-Aug	6:00-7:00 am	Eric Karbowski, Community Behavioral Health Extension Educator, Michigan State  David White, Account Manager for Government Relations, Ag Credit  Joe Dagher, Government and Legislative Affairs Officer, Farm Credit Mid America  Jason Meadows, Host of the Ag State of Mind Podcast	Farming often is listed as one of the most stressful occupations, yet most farmers say they wouldn't trade it for any other job. However, stress that goes unrecognized and is not managed well can play havoc with the farm family and the farm operation. On the next Our Ohio Weekly, find out how to recognize the common symptoms of stress, and effective ways to manage it.
How farmers need to get consumer trust	8-Aug	6:00-7:00 am	Steve Lerch, founder and president of Story Arc Consulting  Amy McCormick, Corporate Affairs Manager, The Kroger Co., Columbus Division	Consumer trust is something that those of us in the agriculture sector continue to strive for. Sharing how farmers grow the food that you buy is paramount to making sure you feel confident that what you put on the table for your family meals is safe. This week on Our Ohio Weekly, Ty Higgins covers consumer trust and the latest consumer trends.
AFBF President Zippy Duvall about his personal COVID-19 experience and the work being done on farmers' behalf at the national level.	15-Aug	6:00-7:00 am	Zippy Duvall, President, American Farm Bureau	During the onset of COVID-19, the American Farm Bureau Federation quickly moved to ensure continuity and effectiveness of their operations and for all of agriculture in the US. Pivoting and adapting provided a reliable voice for members and elected officials and a reminder that agriculture is essential to feed America. On the next Our Ohio Weekly, hear from AFBF President Zippy Duvall about his personal COVID-19 experience and the work being done on farmers' behalf at the national level.
US Agriculture Committee and hot issues that will affect Ohio Farmers	22-Aug	6:00-7:00 am	U.S. Congressman Troy Balderson (OH-12)	Hear from Congressman Troy Balderson about his newest role and his ambitions for it.
Are towns as we knew them about to change the way they do business.	29-Aug	6:00-7:00 am	author Andrew McCrea	For the first time since small towns were settled, the number of deaths in rural America now outpaces births. Vast regions of the nation are literally dying. Or are they? In the new book Total Town Makeover, author Andrew McCrea takes you on a journey to places that are very much alive on the next Our Ohio Weekly!

Discussion of issues facing young farmers	5-Sep	6:00-7:00 am	Dr. John Newton - Chief Economist, AFBF Cody Lyons - Managing Director of Advocacy and Political Affairs, AFBF RJ Karney - Director of Congressional Relations, AFBF Jenna Beadle - Director of State Policy, OFBF Aaron Harter, Co-Chair, OFBF YAP Committee	Every year at about this time, Ohio's young professionals involved in agriculture take a trip to Washington DC to visit with industry experts and key lawmakers about issues that are important to their generation and their livelihood. But since that trip to the Nation's capital couldn't happen due to COVID-19 concerns, we are bringing D.C. to Ohio Farm Bureau's Young Ag Professionals on the next Our Ohio Weekly.
Making plans for the future of your farm. Land as Your Legacy	12-Sep	6:00-7:00 am	Lauren Glovac, Land As Your Legacy	Farming is often a family run operation. As with any business, proper business planning and estate planning ensures that future generations can carry on the family farm. This week on Our Ohio Weekly learn about a program that was created specifically for farmers to help them make plans for the future of their operations.
How food banks are surviving with fewer volunteers and more people needing assistance, on top of food supply questions.	19-Sep	6:00-7:00 am	Lisa Hamler-Fugitt, executive director of the Ohio Association of Food Banks	find out how the Global Coronavirus pandemic has even wreaked havoc on those trying to help those in need, like food banks – who continue to feed as many people as possible as volunteers and food are in short supply.
Ohio Farm Bureau role in helping local farm bureaus get policy change to help the industry in their areas.	26-Sep	6:00-7:00 am	Dr. Larry Antosch, Sr. Director of Policy Development and Environmental Policy OFBF Board Member Adele Flynn (District 3) N. Central Ohio OFBF member Abram Klopfenstein from Paulding County American Farm Bureau Director of Grassroots Outreach Michael Sistik USDA-NRCS, Ohio's Doug Dearnorff	2020 Ohio Farm Bureau Federation Policy Development Committee. The committee collects and organizes public policy recommendations from county Farm Bureaus and presents the final policy suggestions to be voted on by Ohio Farm Bureau's delegates during the state annual meeting in December.