

WVXG
2020 2nd Quarter
Issues-Programs List

WVXG Quarterly Report
 2nd Quarter 2020
 Program: Focus On Mid Ohio

A 30 minute program that airs Sunday at 8 am and covers various issues all around Marion Morrow and Delaware Counties. Hosted by Mike Wilson.

| Issue | DATE | TIME | Guest | Topic |
|--|-----------|--------------|--|---|
| Services provided by Morrow County Board of DD that help community members, and what the tax renewal money would be used to further services. | 5-Apr-20 | 8:00-8:30 am | Nancy Fogelsong, director of Morrow County Board of DD | Mike Wilson, spoke with Nancy Fogelsong, director of Morrow County Board of DD about what they do for the community, as well as the need for passage of the tax renewal on this years's ballot. |
| How Morrow County could lose their Historical Society, if they do not get more funding. | 4/12/2020 | 8:00-8:30 am | Director, Morrow County Historical Society | Mike Wilson, talked about the Morrow County Historical Society, it's goals and the need for funding and volunteers. |
| Learn about nature this time of year what you will see what is invasive. | 4/19/2020 | 8:00-8:30am | Tyler Butler, naturalist at Terradise Nature Center | Description:Host, Mike Wilson, spoke to Tyler Butler, naturalist at Terradise Nature Center. We discussed the different types of animals found in nature this time of year, as well as the history of Terradise. |
| The effect that the Covid19 stay at home order and closing of non essential businesses is having on the Marion area economy. | 4/26/2020 | 8:00-8:30 am | Mark Holbrook, director of Marion Area Convention and Visitors Bureau | Description:Host Mike Wilson spoke with Mark Holbrook, director of Marion Area Convention and Visitors Bureau, about the effect that the Covid19 stay at home order and closing of non essential businesses is having on the Marion area economy. |
| What we can learn from the 1918 Pandemic to apply today. | 5/3/2020 | 8:00-8:30 am | Fred Malone, local historian | Description:Host Mike Wilson, spoke with Fred Malone, local historian, about the similarities between the 1918 Pandemic and the current Covid19 Pandemic. |
| How Terradise Nature Center near Caledonia is ready for families to explore outdoors and learn what things happen in nature this time of year. | 5/10/2020 | 8:00-8:30 am | Tyler Butler, naturalist at Terradise Nature Center | Host Mike Wilson spoke with Tyler Butler, naturalist at Terradise Nature Center near Caledonia about what Terradise is and some of the things going on in nature this time of year. |
| Helping single moms find resources during these trying times. | 5/17/2020 | 8:00-8:30 am | Bo Griffith, with Millstone Ministries | Description:Host Mike Wilson spoke with Bo Griffith, with Millstone Ministries. This is an organization that works with unwed mothers through the local churches to help them find resources to live. . |
| People need to know the roots of Memorial Day, as well as origins of traditions related to this holiday. | 5/24/2020 | 8:00-8:30 am | Retired teacher, Jeff Hubschman | Host Mike Wilson and retired teacher, Jeff Hubschman, discussed the roots of Memorial Day, as well as origins of traditions related to this holiday. |
| Widows finding a safe to find support and share their experiences. | 5/31/2020 | 8:00-8:30 am | Virgil Staley, founder of Griefshare of Morrow County | Description:Host Mike Wilson, spoke with Virgil Staley, founder of Griefshare of Morrow County, about how Griefshare is a safe place for people who are widowed, to find support and share their experiences. |
| History of railways in Marion County | 6/7/2020 | 8:00-8:30 am | Fred Malone about the history of railways in Marion County. | Host Mike Wilson, spoke with Fred Malone about the history of railways in Marion County. |
| Will the car show happen on August 6 as planned and if so what can visitors expect to be different. | 6/14/2020 | 8:00-8:30 am | Janetta Martin, organizer if the Safety City Car Show | Description:Host, Mike Wilson, spoke with Janetta Martin, organizer if the Safety City Car Show in Marion on August 8. |
| Marion Public Library has made changes you will notice in your next visit to keep visitors safe since the Covid 19 situation. | 6/21/2020 | 8:00-8:30 am | Diane Watson, communications coordinator for the Marion Public Library | Host Mike Wilson, spoke with Diane Watson, communications coordinator for the Marion Public Library about what is happening at the library since the Covid 19 situation. |
| Will the car show happen on August 6 as planned and if | 6/28/2020 | 8:00-8:30 am | Janetta Martin, Event Coordinator for the Safety City Car Show | Description:Host Mike Wilson, spoke with Janetta Martin, Event Coordinator for the Safety City Car Show on August 8th in Marion. |

WVXG Radio
2nd quarter 2020 reports
Our Ohio Radio

A 60 minute program that airs Saturday at 6:00-7:00 am and covers various issues surrounding Ohio agriculture and other topics affecting Ohio farmers. Hosted by Ty Higgins from the Ohio Farm Bureau.

| Issues | DATE | Time | Guest | Topic |
|--|-------------|--------------|---|---|
| Managing burnout and resources for caregivers will be discussed this week on Our Ohio Weekly. | 4-Apr | 6:00-7:00 am | Laura Cherry Akgerman, Disability Services Coordinator, Ohio State University Extension | Show synopsis: Anyone who cares for another likely has experienced the stress and possibly the feelings of helplessness that can come with taking care of an ailing person. Those feelings may be enhanced due to the concerns of older citizens during the COVID-19 crisis |
| This week we'll hear from the state's commodity groups about how their farmers are being affected directly from the global coronavirus pandemic and the steps they are taking to keep our food supply readily available | 11-Apr | 6:00-7:00 am | Dr. John Newton – Chief Economist - American Farm Bureau Federation, Tadd Nicholson – Executive Director - Ohio Corn and Wheat Growers Association, Kirk Merritt – Executive Director - Ohio Soybean Association, Elizabeth Harsh – Executive Director - Ohio Cattlemen's Association, Scott Higgins – President and CEO - American Dairy Association Mideast, Dave Shoup – President - Ohio Pork | COVID-19 has impacted almost every sector of Ohio's food production system and the range of that impact is far reaching. This week we'll hear from the state's commodity groups about how their farmers are being affected directly from the global coronavirus pandemic and the steps they are taking to keep our food supply readily available |
| How farmers might be able to use contingency plans from the army's playbook for soldiers coming home to help deal with moral, productivity and burnout during the COVID 19 changes in our lives. | 18-Apr | 6:00-7:00 am | Ivory Harlow, Ohio Farm Bureau Organization Director (former Army and National Guard member), Brian Brown - Ag Influencer on YouTube, Yvonne Lesicko - vice president of public policy with Ohio Farm Bureau | In the military, it is common practice to put together contingency plans for those in the service and their families. These plans are developed for three phases...before deployment, during deployment and after deployment and they focus on trouble spots that many service men and women deal with, including moral, productivity and burnout. How could the idea of those types of contingency plans work for us as we have changed many aspects of our lives due to COVID-19? Find out how on the next Our Ohio Weekly. |
| How restaurants are finding unique ways to survive this crisis, some restaurants even morphed into what are now known as grocerants. Find out more about this unique concept that is keeping some restaurants in business on the next Our Ohio Weekly. | 25-Apr | 6:00-7:00 am | Chris Ford – executive vice President of Operations for Frisch's Big Boy, Stephan Harman – co-founder of FUSIAN, Mark Swansen – President of Stauf's Coffee Roasters, Arlan Suderman, Chief Commodities Economist for the FCM Division of INTL FCStone Financial Inc., Chris Henney - President and CEO of the Ohio Agribusiness Association | The Coronavirus pandemic has put a strain on just about every business sector across the country. Few more so than the restaurant industry. Restaurants that will survive this crisis most likely have had to do things much differently than their original business model would allow. Some restaurants even morphed into what are now known as grocerants. Find out more about this unique concept that is keeping some restaurants in business on the next Our Ohio Weekly. |
| Our food, water and energy systems all have challenges, known as "Wicked Problems". Learn about those issues and some ideas on how to solve them. | 2-May | 6:00-7:00 am | Great Plains Institute CEO Rolf Nordstrom | Our food, water and energy systems all have challenges, known as "Wicked Problems". Learn about those issues and some ideas on how to solve them on the next Our Ohio Weekly as Ty Higgins visits with Great Plains Institute CEO Rolf Nordstrom |
| A new study titled Eating 2020: How COVID-19 Will Change Consumer Engagement With Food | 9-May | 6:00-7:00 am | Hinda Mitchell, President of Inspire PR | A new study titled Eating 2020: How COVID-19 Will Change Consumer Engagement With Food , surveyed more than 1,800 participants and looked at purchasing trends before, during and after the COVID-19 stay-at-home restrictions. Learn about the study's findings coming up on the next Our Ohio Weekly. |

| | | | | |
|--|--------|--------------|---|--|
| Before COVID 19, 1.6 million Ohioans relied on Ohio food banks to feed their families. Then COVID-19 hit and folks who already relied on food banks to stretch what their paychecks couldn't cover were suddenly out of a job, as were thousands upon thousands of others. Find out how food banks are adapting to help those in need. | 16-May | 6:00-7:00 am | Lisa Hamler-Fugitt - Executive Director, Ohio Association of Foodbanks | During the most robust economy in history, about 1.6 million Ohioans relied on Ohio food banks to feed their families. Then COVID-19 hit and folks who already relied on food banks to stretch what their paychecks couldn't cover were suddenly out of a job, as were thousands upon thousands of others. Find out how food banks are working through the crisis on the next Our Ohio Weekly. |
| Hear from 2 leaders of Ohio's largest farm organization about the efforts being made at the state and national level to advocate for and educate everyone involved in agriculture to help them navigate through the many challenges COVID 19 pandemic has presented. | 23-May | 6:00-7:00 am | Adam Sharp, executive vice president of Ohio Farm Bureau and Frank Burkett, president of Ohio Farm Bureau | Over the past 2 months, as farmers and those all along Ohio's food supply system have continued their essential work, Farm Bureau has been hard at work as well. Advocating and educating to help their members and everyone involved in agriculture navigate through the many challenges brought on by COVID-19. On the next Our Ohio Weekly, hear from 2 leaders of Ohio's largest farm organization about the efforts being made at the state and national level. |
| Inspiring those in agriculture to keep fighting for what the industry believes in. Ag influencer Jay Hill takes his phone all around his farm to share the good and the bad with his nearly 50,000 instagram followers. Hear his message to new and beginning farmers. | 30-May | 6:00-7:00 am | Ag Influencer Jay Hill | Inspiring those in agriculture to keep fighting for what the industry believes in. That is ag influencer Jay Hill's goal. His story started with 10 acres and one tractor and he is now farming over 17,000 acres with 120 employees. Now, Hill takes his phone all around the farm to share the good and the bad with his nearly 50,000 instagram followers. Hear his message to new and beginning farmers coming up on the next Our Ohio Weekly. |
| | 6-Jun | 6:00-7:00 am | | |
| What will agriculture look like in 10 years? Are farmers ready for more technology to keep them sustainable and profitable? | 13-Jun | 6:00-7:00 am | U.S. Department of Agriculture Secretary Sonny Perdue | What will agriculture look like in 10 years? Are farmers ready for more technology to keep them sustainable and profitable? On the next Our Ohio Weekly, hear about how current innovations are being delivered to farmers of all types and how future inventions will make their way from a startup's idea all the way to the farm. |
| What does it take to keep agriculture sustainable? | 20-Jun | 6:00-7:00 am | Field Work Podcast hosts Zach Johnson and Mitchell Hora | Soil, crops, conservation, and water management are just some of the topics you will hear about when you tune in to the Field Work Podcast, which is now in its 2 nd season. This week on Our Ohio Weekly, meet the co-hosts of the Field Work Podcast as we talk about all of the hot topics that come with keeping agriculture sustainable |
| The methods for farmers getting information that pertains to their industry and lifestyle have changed in many ways over the generations, what are the best ways today and tomorrow. | 27-Jun | 6:00-7:00 am | The Ohio Ag Net's Dale Minyo and Tom Brand with the National Association of Farm Broadcasting | The methods for farmers getting information that pertains to their industry and lifestyle have changed in many ways over the generations. This week on Our Ohio Weekly, Ty covers the evolving world of Farm Broadcasting. |