

2019 Q1

January 6th 2019 John Perdue (State Treasurer of West Virginia) discussing Smart529's Gift of College program for college savings, Kathy Jo Pollack (Life Coach) discussing how to get the most out of your New Years resolutions, and Paul Morgan (former Weekend Focus host) who was in the area for the holidays, so he came on to tell us how life has been in Louisiana

January 13, 2019: Phyllis Riccadonna (Account Manager for the Red Cross's Greater Alleghenies Region) discussing the upcoming Media Day Blood Drive

January 20, 2019: Bob Wolfe (member of the Ron Retzer Trio) discussing the band's visit to the White House around Christmas time.

January 27, 2019: Alishah Hardway (Marketing Dir. of Country Club Rehabilitation Campus) discussing health and wellness issues facing senior citizens

February 3rd 2019: Jeannie Pierce Waychoff (Heaven Bound Mimistries) and Bob Wolfe discussing He's Alive 2019, an Easter theatre show held at the Capitol Theatre. Bob stuck around to discuss some events coming up for the Ron Retzer Trio

February 10, 2019: Rob Ayer (President of the West Virginia Organization of Homeowners Association) talking about the organization and how they serve the state, and Chris Villamagna w/ Ron Scott (Ron is the YWCA's Cultural Diversity & Community Director, and Chris is the Program Director for Wheeling Heritage). They discussed an art exhibit that was going on at the time

February 17, 2019: Kathy Jo Pollack (Life Coach) with advice for those unlucky with finding love, and Ty Schambach (Bridgeport High School student highly invested in theatre and the arts)

February 24, 2019: Jeffrey Crook (Interim Superintendent of Brooke County Schools) discussing his time on the job so far, and an important levy vote for the schools that was upcoming at the time, and Sue Peschin (President and CEO of the the Alliance of Aging Research) discussing heart valve disease, which needs more attention in WV

March 3, 2019: Gregg Fornario (West Virginia Roughriders Owner and General Manager) discussing the arena football team's integration into Wheeling, and their preparations for the upcoming season.

March 10, 2019: Travis Braden (stock car racer from Wheeling discussing his life and career thus far, and his hopes for the future career wise). This interview was re-played for the March 17th show

March 17, 2019: Travis Braden (stock car racer from Wheeling discussing his life and career thus far, and his hopes for the future career wise).

March 24, 2019: Jeannie Pierce Waychoff (Heaven Bound Mimistries) and Bob Wolfe discussing He's Alive 2019, an Easter theatre show held at the Capitol Theatre. Bob stuck around to discuss some events coming up for the Ron Retzer Trio

March 31st 2019 Gregg Fornario (3/3/2019) Repeat I had Samantha Alkire (Development Specialist for March of Dimes) on the March 31st show talking about a march coming up at the time,