

KYW-TV 3 – PHILADELPHIA, PA
QUARTERLY ISSUES PROGRAMS LIST
CBS BROADCASTING, INC.

January 1, 2019– March 31, 2019

Attached are listings of broadcast segments, which in the station's judgment reflect KYW-TV3's most significant programming treatment of ascertained community issues.

PROGRAM INDEX

KYW-TV Eyewitness News – weekdays, 4:30am – 7:00am; 12 noon-12:30pm; 4:00pm – 5:00pm; 5:00pm – 6:00pm; 6:00pm - 6:30pm; 11:00pm – 11:35pm; weekends, Saturday, 5:00am – 7:00am; 6:00pm –6:30pm; 11:00pm – 11:35pm; and Sundays, 6:00am – 9am; 6:30pm – 7:00pm and 11:00pm – 11:35pm, regularly scheduled news broadcasts focusing on current issues.

BUSINESS/ECONOMY/CONSUMER –

1/1- Officials in Venice have announced plans to charge day visitors a fee of up to 11 American dollars just to enter the city; 1/8- Reading Terminal Market was just named the best farmers market in the country by The Online Farmers Market; 1/10- Shippensburg University is adding beer brewing classes to its roster; 1/15- Netflix is raising subscription prices across the U.S. amid heavy investment in new programs; 1/24- Center City's first medical marijuana dispensary, Beyond/ Hello, opened on January 24th; 2/4- Mark Zuckerberg and his co-founders launched Facebook from his Harvard dorm room on February 4, 2004; 2/5- Despite all the great Valentine's Day gifts, the National Retail Federation says only 51% of adults plan to celebrate the holiday; 2/10- Federal investigators are reviewing an alleged extortion scandal involving the world's richest man, Jeff Bezos; 2/14- Amazon says it is dropping New York City as one of its second headquarter locations, and it will not seek an alternative city; 2/21- The ride-share company Lyft rolled out the first 250 of its 2,000 electric scooters yesterday in San Antonio, Texas; 3/1- The 2019 Philadelphia Flower Show starts tomorrow at The Pennsylvania Convention Center; 3/2- Hyundai and Kia are issuing recalls for reported engine failures and fires; 3/12- Around 5 a.m. this morning, Verizon customers reported an outage that prevented them from sending or receiving any texts; 3/14- The old Welcome Center at 16th and Arch in Center City will be transformed into a full service restaurant and bar called Loveluck; 3/19- Governor Phil Murphy signed a bill yesterday that bans cashless stores in New Jersey.

CULTURE –

1/1- It's official- Stranger Things is coming back to Netflix on July 4th; 1/9- Mattel and Warner Brothers Pictures are partnering on the first live-action feature film showcasing Barbie; 1/10- A new documentary set to premiere later this year accuses singer Michael Jackson of sexually abusing two boys; 1/17- The marquee lights of every Broadway theater in New York dimmed last night to honor Carol Channing, who died Tuesday; 1/24- Six Flags Great Adventure is adding a new attraction to the Hurricane Harbor area called Calypso Springs; 2/1- The Philadelphia Auto Show kicks off tonight with its annual black tie gala for charity; 2/2- Rapper Cardi B says she turned down the chance to perform at the Super Bowl in support of Colin Kaepernick; 2/8- Delta Airlines and Coca-Cola are apologizing after a marketing campaign using napkins backfired; 2/13- The Phillies announced they've agreed to a contract through the 2022 season with Aaron Nola; 2/28- Bryce Harper is coming to the Phillies, and fans have already spotted picking up tickets and asking about Harper gear; 3/1- Phillies Nation continues to celebrate the superstar signing of slugger Bryce Harper; 3/3- Sales for Phillies merchandise were up more than 5,000 percent versus the same day last year, according to Fanatics.com; 3/7- Country crooner, Jason Aldean has been crowned the 'Dick Clark Artist of the Decade'; 3/13- The first full-length trailer for the live action film Aladdin is out, and fans can't stop talking about it; 3/18- April the Giraffe gave birth to a boy over the weekend, and hundreds of thousands of people watched it happen live on YouTube.

ENVIRONMENT –

1/4- To mark the official close of the Philly Holiday Festival, the 65-foot Christmas tree at City Hall was taken down and grinded into wood chips; 1/6- Residents of southern Thailand's east coast are sorting through the wreckage left behind after a deadly tropical storm; 1/12- At least four people have died and dozens are injured as a snowstorm pounds parts of Missouri; 1/20- A town in Alabama is cleaning up after a tornado ripped through and left behind serious damage; 1/27- At least 34 people are dead and some 250 people are missing at this hour, after a deadly dam collapse in Brazil; 2/2- California residents are on high alert tonight, as severe winds and heavy rains create dangerous conditions, including the threat of mudslides; 2/13- The mayor of Los Angeles announced that the city will phase out three power plants that run on natural gas by 2029; 2/13- NASA's longest-running rover on mars, named Opportunity, has been pronounced dead, 15 years after it landed on the Red Planet; 2/17- Denver police say 17 people were injured when a band of snow moved across the city's metro area yesterday afternoon; 2/26- Massive chunks of ice are being blown off Lake Erie and over a retaining wall near Niagara Falls, and some people are calling it an ice tsunami; 3/5- Dozens are still missing after a twister tore through Lee County, Alabama on Sunday; 3/6- President Trump will head down to Alabama on Friday to take a look at the devastation left behind by a killer tornado; 3/8- After another round of heavy snow in Colorado yesterday, at least three major snow slides buried vehicles and ruptured a natural gas line; 3/10- The U.S. Coast Guard and local agencies rescued dozens of ice fishermen after they got stranded on Lake Erie yesterday; 3/19- Parts of the Midwest are completely under water after days of heavy rain and melting snow.

GOVERNMENT –

1/1- It may be a new year, but the partial government shutdown is still in effect; 1/6- Widener University is suing the city of Chester over its plan to install 1,200 parking meters on campus;

1/12- Julian Castro, a former member of the Obama administration, has announced he is running for president in 2020; 1/18- According to reports, President Trump told his former attorney Michael Cohen to lie to congress about plans for a tower in Russia; 1/19- To help workers furloughed by the shutdown, the Agape International Baptist Church in Southwest Philadelphia is extending its food pantry hours; 2/1- New Jersey Senator Cory Booker has officially launched his 2020 presidential campaign; 2/8- Pennsylvania Governor Tom Wolf was in Philadelphia today fighting to raise the state's minimum wage; 2/13- Los Angeles is becoming the largest city in the U.S. to ban the sale of animal fur; 2/18- President Trump's declaration of a national emergency to build a border wall has led to protests nationwide, including here in Philadelphia; 2/28- Lawmakers in Delaware are working to raise the legal age to buy tobacco products; 3/5- President Trump says he's cooperating with a new congressional investigation; 3/7- Former vice president Joe Biden is said to be in the final stages of preparing for a 2020 presidential bid; 3/12- New Jersey Governor Phil Murphy and legislative leaders say they have agreed on legislation to legalize recreational marijuana for adults; 3/14- A short time ago, the New Jersey Senate voted to ease restrictions on when sex abuse victims can seek damages; 3/19- Pennsylvania and New Jersey are getting closer to legalizing marijuana.

HEALTH –

1/6- When it comes to reducing pounds, experts say diet is far more important than exercise; 1/13- Hundreds of passengers sickened on board a Royal Caribbean cruise are now back on dry land; 1/18- Perdue foods is recalling 68,000 pounds of gluten-free chicken nuggets, because they may contain wood pieces; 1/27- The C.D.C. has confirmed 26 cases of the measles in Washington, prompting a state of emergency declaration from the governor; 1/28- Scientists in Scotland have created genetically modified chickens that lay eggs containing cancer-killing drugs; 2/1- February 1st is National Wear Red Day, a day that kicks off Heart Month; 2/6- The Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania now says a patient tested for Ebola does not have the potentially deadly virus; 2/10- Cancers fueled by obesity are on the rise among young adults in the United States; 2/18- Over the weekend, about 4,000 people took part in the 11th Annual Mike's Seafood Polar Bear Run and Walk in Sea Isle, NJ; 2/25- In a study of five wines and 15 different types of beer, there were trace amounts of a weed killer found in all but one of them; 3/1- The Temple University community is on high alert after several students test positive for mumps; 3/5- Researchers say a London man is the second person to show he's free of HIV after a stem cell transplant; 3/7- Jeopardy host Alex Trebek revealed he has advanced pancreatic cancer; 3/12- The Philadelphia Department of Public Health now says there are 23 confirmed cases of mumps; 3/13- A new study shows Google searches can actually be used to predict when you're about to go to the emergency room; 3/18- Health officials now say there are 42 probable cases and 12 confirmed cases of mumps.

PUBLIC SAFETY –

1/1- Police in Camden are investigating a deadly accident early this New Year's Day; 1/6- Philadelphia fire investigators are looking for clues to how a house fire killed a grandmother and her two young grandchildren; 1/10- U.S. health officials have declared an end to the outbreak of E.coli infections linked to romaine lettuce from California; 1/15- Rescuers in southern Spain are digging a tunnel in hopes of reaching a toddler who fell down a well two days ago; 1/25- A Michigan family is outraged after they say they were kicked off a flight over issues with their body odor; 2/4- Two people are dead after a small plane crashed into a residential area in Yorba Linda, California; 2/7- An American Airlines flight to Philadelphia was grounded after the pilot was arrested for possibly being drunk; 2/12- Student safety concerns are growing at La Salle University, after at least two students were robbed at gunpoint; 2/16- Five people, including three children, are in the hospital after a crash along the Roosevelt Boulevard; 2/26- Delaware police are on the hunt for the driver of an SUV who dragged a state trooper; 3/2- Our Lady of Hope Catholic School in Gloucester Township is closed until Wednesday after a fire broke out yesterday; 3/4- Subaru is recalling more than two million vehicles in the U.S. in its biggest recall ever; 3/7- SEPTA police officers are on strike, after failing to negotiate a new contract with the transit agency; 3/11- Security will be tight tomorrow at Clearview Regional Middle School in Mullica Hill after a bomb threat was discovered in a bathroom; 3/19- One person is hurt after huge flames race through a junkyard in Philadelphia's Kensington section.