

KYW-TV 3 – PHILADELPHIA, PA
QUARTERLY ISSUES PROGRAMS LIST
CBS BROADCASTING, INC.

October 1, 2019– December 31, 2019

Attached are listings of broadcast segments, which in the station’s judgment reflect KYW-TV3’s most significant programming treatment of ascertained community issues.

PROGRAM INDEX

KYW-TV Eyewitness News – weekdays, 4:30am – 7:00am; 12 noon-12:30 p.m.; 4:00pm 5:00pm; 5:00pm – 6:00pm; 6:00pm - 6:30pm; 11:00pm – 11:35pm; weekends, Saturday, 5:00am – 7:00am; 6:00pm –6:30pm; 11:00pm – 11:35pm; and Sundays, 6:00am – 9am; 6:30pm – 7:00pm and 11:00pm – 11:35pm, regularly scheduled news broadcasts focusing on current issues.

BUSINESS/ECONOMY/CONSUMER –

10/1- Yuengling announced it’s partnering with Hershey to create a limited edition chocolate porter; 10/7- Airbnb is now offering trips that feature hundreds of species from around the globe; 10/15- Taco Bell recalled more than two million pounds of seasoned beef after a customer found a metal shaving in their food; 10/26- Starbucks says it won't sell any Halloween-themed drinks in the United States this year; 10/30- Beginning on November 22nd, Twitter is banning all political advertising from its service; 11/1- UPS says it plans to hire 100,000 seasonal workers to meet demand for the upcoming holiday shopping season; 11/5- Pringles is releasing a “Friendsgiving Feast,” filled with new, seasonal chips flavors including turkey, duck, and chicken; 11/11- Instagram is going to start hiding the number of likes on some users’ posts this week; 11/14- Post and Hostess are teaming up to create Twinkies cereal; 11/21- Twitter is testing a new feature that will allow some people to schedule their tweets to post at a specific time in the future; 12/3- Cyber Monday 2019 is now the single biggest shopping day in Amazon's history; 12/6- The Labor Department says U.S. unemployment has matched a 50-year low after employers added 266,000 jobs in November; 12/10- Walmart is apologizing for selling sweaters that appear to show Santa with lines of cocaine; 12/16- The Hallmark Channel is facing backlash following the decision to stop airing a commercial featuring a same-sex couple; 12/21- Wawa customers are getting an apology from the company’s CEO after a massive data breach.

CULTURE –

10/2- CBS 3, The CW Philly and Komen Philadelphia are teaming up once again in the fight against breast cancer by turning the region pink for the month of October; 10/6- California has a new law on the books allowing students athletes to hire agents and make money on endorsement deals; 10/10- The Phillies fired manager Gabe Kapler after only two seasons with the team; 10/20- More than 30 ancient wooden coffins and their mummies were unearthed in Luxor, Egypt; 10/31- In late November, Taylor Swift will become the first woman to receive the Artist of the Decade

Award at the 2019 American Music Awards; 11/1- The long-awaited Morning Show is officially available on Apple TV; 11/7- Former Eagle Donovan McNabb is back in being inducted into the Philadelphia Sports Hall of Fame; 11/10- The Salvation Army's Red Kettle Campaign kicked off this weekend; 11/15- The Eagles just announced Darren Sproles will miss the rest of the season with a torn right hip flexor muscle; 11/20- The Philadelphia Zoo unveiled Luminature, its new light experience for visitors featuring more than 600,000 lights; 12/2- The White House is officially ready for the holidays with 58 Christmas trees, more than 15,000 bows, and 2,500 strands of lights; 12/6- A small town in Estonia got creative this Christmas by crafting a Christmas tree out of recycled plastic; 12/10- Disney says Star Wars: The Rise of Skywalker could trigger seizures in people with photosensitivity; 12/16- Just days after Billboard named her their Woman of the Decade, Taylor Swift announced she'll be headlining a Glastonbury Festival in 2020; 12/22- The Eagles and Royal Caribbean are teaming up for a seven-night fan cruise in March 2021.

ENVIRONMENT –

10/10- California's biggest utilities are shutting off power to more than a million customers because of high winds; 10/12- Several Jersey Shore towns are recovering after a coastal storm brought flooding to the area; 10/14- The death toll is rising after a devastating typhoon in Japan; 10/24- 40,000 people have been ordered to evacuate their homes as wildfires threaten neighborhoods around Los Angeles; 10/21- Cleanup is underway in Dallas after a tornado tore through the area; 11/1- A large tree crashed into the roof of a house in Montgomery County, trapping two people; 11/5- Some residents in Delaware County are still cleaning up the mess and assessing the damage from the Halloween night tornado; 11/11- An arctic air mass has brought below-freezing temperatures to much of the Upper Plains and Midwest; 11/15- Floodwaters continue to rise in Venice, just three days after the Italian City experienced its worst flooding in more than 50 years; 11/20- Hundreds of koalas are in danger, as bushfires spread across Australia's east coast, ravaging their main habitat; 12/3- Residents in Delaware County remain on the lookout for a roaming black bear; 12/6- The state of New Jersey is moving closer to a ban on plastic and paper bags and Styrofoam containers; 12/10- Crews are searching for eight people, who are still missing on New Zealand's White Island after a deadly volcano eruption; 12/16- Brushfires continue to burn in Australia, threatening dozens of homes and buildings; 12/26- A Christmas Eve forest fire has destroyed more than 100 homes in Chile near the port city of Valparaiso.

GOVERNMENT –

10/3- Congressional investigators are deposing a witness, who allegedly helped President Trump's personal attorney meet with Ukrainian officials; 10/7- The White House is dismissing the revelation of a second whistleblower, who claims to have firsthand knowledge about President Trump's controversial phone call with Ukraine; 10/12- President Trump announced on Twitter that the Acting Secretary of Homeland Security, Kevin McAleenan, is stepping down; 10/16- Vice President Pence is heading to Turkey to mediate a ceasefire in Northern Syria; 10/28- President Trump is touting a United States raid, which resulted in the killing of ISIS leader Abu Bakr Al-Baghdadi; 11/1- The House has now formalized its impeachment inquiry against President Trump; 11/3- President Trump was met with loud boos and some cheers, as he entered Madison Square Garden for the Ultimate Fighting Championship; 11/10- Four African American women known as the “Hidden Figures,” who worked at NASA during the space race have been awarded Congressional Gold Medals; 11/15- President Trump is asking the Supreme Court to block a subpoena for his tax returns; 11/28- President Trump made an unannounced trip to Afghanistan to spend Thanksgiving with U.S. troops; 12/4- State Representative Movita Johnson-Harrell is facing jail time after stealing money from the people she claimed to be helping; 12/6- A new Trump Administration rule could end benefits for nearly 700,000 Americans who rely on food stamps; 12/10- The long-awaited report from the Justice Department's watchdog says the FBI was justified in opening its investigation into ties between the Trump presidential campaign and Russia; 12/17- A group of top senators have agreed to raise the federal tobacco sales age from 18 to 21; 12/22- Democratic presidential candidate Michael Bloomberg has opened a new campaign office in Philadelphia.

HEALTH –

10/3- Health officials in Delaware have confirmed the state's first vaping-related death; 10/9- About 1,000 Philadelphia students are home from school because of asbestos concerns; 10/12- According to a new study, women are more likely to get Alzheimer's, but men are usually diagnosed with it sooner; 10/18- Leading e-cigarette maker, Juul Labs, says that it will stop selling flavored products in the United States; 10/27- In the wake of vaping illness across the country, for the first time, vape products were accepted during National Prescription Drug Take Back Day; 11/1- The number of lung illnesses associated with the use of e-cigarettes and vaping is on the rise; 11/4- Some universities around the country are starting to offer courses in medical marijuana; 11/8- Juul will stop selling mint e-cigarettes, its best-selling flavor, as the company continues to fight a wide backlash to vaping; 11/14- The American Heart Association recommends children, less than two years of age, don't consume any added sugars, but a new study found 98% of them do; 11/22- A new study suggests vaping could cause different kinds of damage to the lungs, including a condition called Popcorn Lung; 12/4- Researchers say two common beauty products, permanent hair dye and chemical straightener, may be associated with increased risks for breast cancer; 12/5- Researchers at Massachusetts Institute of Technology say they've developed a birth control pill that only has to be taken once a month; 12/9- Aspirin regimens are no longer recommended to prevent heart disease or stroke in healthy, older Americans; 12/17- A new study suggests eating chili peppers cuts the risk of death from heart attack and stroke; 12/19- Mayor Kenney signed an executive order to make parks and other recreation centers in Philadelphia smoke and vape-free zones.

PUBLIC SAFETY –

10/2- After nearly two weeks, a missing Delaware County teenager has been reunited with her family; 10/6- Philadelphia fire investigators are trying to find out what caused four vacant homes to catch fire in the Franklinville section of the city; 10/14- Rescue teams in New Orleans are still searching for a missing construction worker after a deadly building collapse; 10/20- The search is on in Chester for the gunman who shot a 26-year-old man in his neck and back; 10/25- Cherry Hill

Police are looking for a driver after a man was killed in a hit and run; 11/1- A three-year-old girl and her mother are fighting for their lives, after they were hit by a car in Burlington County; 11/4- The FDA has announced the recall of more than 100 vegetable products because of listeria concerns; 11/10- 14 fraternities at San Diego State University have been suspended after the death of a student; 11/15- Police in Southern California are trying to figure out a motive, after a student went on a deadly shooting rampage at Saugus High School in Santa Clarita; 11/29- Investigators will begin their search for the cause of a fire that devastated animal safari park in Ohio; 12/2- The FAA is investigating after an inflatable slide fell off of a Delta Airlines flight and landed in a man's backyard in Massachusetts; 12/5- A voluntary evacuation order has been issued for Port Neches, Texas due to elevated gas levels; 12/8- Police are investigating a rash of suspected over-doses in Berks County; 12/10- A 17-year-old student is in custody after Northeast High School officers found two rounds of live ammunition in the student's possession; 12/17- The search for five-year-old Dulce Alavez has stretched into a third month; 12/31- A new era starts next year for Philadelphia Police with Danielle Outlaw introduced as the city's new police commissioner.