

KYW-TV 3 – PHILADELPHIA, PA
QUARTERLY ISSUES PROGRAMS LIST
CBS BROADCASTING, INC.

July 1, 2013 – September 30, 2013

Attached are listings of broadcast segments, which in the station's judgment reflect KYW-TV3's most significant programming treatment of ascertained community issues.

PROGRAM INDEX

KYW-TV Eyewitness News – weekdays, 4:30am – 7:00am; 12noon – 12:30pm; 5:00pm – 6:00pm; 6:00 - 6:30pm; 11:00pm – 11:30pm; weekends, Saturday, 6:00am – 7:00am; 6:30pm – 7:00pm; 11:00pm – 11:30pm; and Sundays, 6:00am – 8:30am; 6:00pm – 6:30pm and 11:00pm – 11:30pm, regularly scheduled news broadcasts focusing on the latest current issues.

Eyewitness Newsmakers – A rotation of KYW-TV News Anchors provide an approximately 10-minute segment, including newsmaker interviews, which air during each Sunday morning newscast. Segments address current events on local and national fronts. The segments air in the 8:00am broadcast.

Talk Philly – weekdays, 12:00pm – 12:30pm; regularly scheduled lifestyle magazine program looking at a variety of topics that make the Philadelphia area so special. Hosted by Pat Ciarrocchi and Ukee Washington.

BUSINESS/ECONOMY/CONSUMER - Topics in this category include reports on an event held in our area for job seekers by National Career Fairs and an increase in the price of postage stamps that will go into effect early next year.

Eyewitness News: 07/01—(:14) SEPTA fare increase takes effect today; (:22) Frontier Airlines will begin service out of the New Castle Airport today; 07/02—(:12) Car sales in the U.S. appear to be picking up speed; (:19) Home prices jumped more than twelve percent in May from a year ago; (:16) The electronic cigarette is now being offered by some major tobacco companies; 07/08—(:16) Hostess is making a return and will begin freezing Twinkies before shipping, in an effort to give them a longer shelf life; 07/10—(:21) A deadly pig virus has migrated to the U.S. from Europe and China causing prices to rise in pork products in the next few months; 07/15—(:14) Job seekers converge at the Crowne Plaza for an event held by National Career Fairs; (:27) A new U.S.A Today ranking puts Franklin Fountain in Old City at the top of the list of the best milkshakes in the country; 07/25—(:27) Borrowing money for tuition, books and housing will be lower, thanks to a student loan bill passed in the Senate; 07/30—(:16) Starting next year, it is going to cost more to drive the Pennsylvania Turnpike; 08/09—(:19) Sixteen workers at the Ocean County Vehicle Maintenance Department in Toms River, NJ share a winning ticket to the $448 million dollar Powerball jackpot; 08/12—(:12) A new survey finds more Americans than ever before are embracing online and mobile banking; 08/13—(:28) A lawsuit could put a stop to the proposed merger of American Airlines and U.S. Airlines; 08/15—(:24) Money Magazine just named Philadelphia's Mount Airy section one of the best big city neighborhoods in the county; 08/27—(:22) The Miss America pageant has made its way back to Atlantic City, this time with top security for contestants and nearby sites; 08/30—(:18) As Labor Day weekend approaches, gas prices are inching upward; 09/05—(:14) Three Pathmark grocery stores in South New Jersey are closing; (:17) Brand.com cuts ribbon on new headquarters, creating 100 new jobs for the Philadelphia area; 09/06—(:18) The unemployment rate dropped to a low of 7.3% because many unemployed Americans stopped looking for jobs; 09/10—(:16) Apple reveals its faster, higher quality iPhone 5S and its plastic, inexpensive iPhone 5C; (:17) Geno's steaks celebrates 47 years of business with $0.50 steaks; 09/13—(:16) A glitch on United Airlines website allowed travelers to purchase tickets for free, no word on whether or not they will be honored; 09/16—(:25) Southwest Airlines says that no-show customers will now forfeit their tickets value; 9/19 – (:21) Bloomingdales is striking back against customers who wear dresses and then return them by attaching plastic tags in visible places like the hemline so it can't be hidden while you wear it; 9/24 – (:20) If you're planning to fly during the holidays it's better to book now, an analysis of fares shows prices will likely increase sometime in mid-October; 9/25 – (:21) Beginning in January, the prices of postage stamps will jump from 46 to 49 cents; 9/28 – (:24) In Chester, Delaware County the city welcomed America's first non-profit supermarket today – the Fare and Square grocery store is owned by local hunger relief organization Philabundance and offers fresh fruits, vegetables and meats at low prices.

CRIME - Topics in this category include reports on a bunch of daring thieves trying to steal ATM machines throughout the Philadelphia area and officials in Chester County are looking for a possible police impersonator that pulled over a female.

Eyewitness News: 07/01—(:20) The search is on for three smash and grab robbers behind a big heist at the Borgata Casino in Atlantic City; 07/02—(:22) An 18-year-old woman, who police say stole a hearse from a Camden County funeral home, turned herself in today; 07/03—(:20) Police are investigating the stabbing of an older Veteran in Doylestown, Bucks County; 07/05—(:29) An Ocean County mother is under arrest after her disabled adult daughter is found dead inside their home; 07/08—(:19) Philadelphia police are called to a city sanitation yard after workers discover a dead body; (:26) A woman has been charged with driving under the influence and aggravated assault after a crash in Oxford Circle; (:15) New trend for SEPTA robberies called apple picking which translates to thieves stealing iPhones; 07/09—(:14) Police officers pursue an armed man and find him in the Fairmount section of Philadelphia; (:31) Pennsylvania lawmakers come to Philadelphia to hold a public hearing on building codes in the wake of the deadly Center City building collapse; (:26) Police in Montgomery County are asking for help finding the brazen thief who stole wedding cards during a weekend reception in Gwynedd; (:07) A father was arrested after leaving his 18-month-old son inside a car outside of Parx casino in Bucks County; 07/11—(:15) A former teacher is accused of sexually assaulting a teenage girl in Montgomery County; (:23) A gunman steals vehicle inspection stickers from a garage in Philadelphia; 07/16—(:23) Police in Delaware County are trying to track down the source of a bullet that struck a woman inside an area hospital; (:12) Authorities are investigating the death of a 4-year-old girl who arrived at Children's Hospital of Philadelphia bruised and suffering from internal bleeding; 07/17—(:20) A mother and three children were struck and killed on the Roosevelt Boulevard; 07/19—(:20) A robbery suspect attacks the manager of an adult book store in Haddon Township; 07/20—(:09) A Northeast Philadelphia club is closed after a car plowed through a crowd; 07/22—(:24) A Bucks County mom is facing charges for allegedly putting her stillborn baby in a trash bag, and leaving it in a closet for days; 07/24—(:24) Officials in Chester County are looking for a possible police impersonator that pulled over a female; 07/25—(:11) SWAT team members swarm a Bucks County home after shots are fired; (:22) Police are investigating nearly $90,000 missing from a Penn State University fraternity; 07/29—(:17) The FBI casts a wide net to rescue children forced into prostitution, two of which were found in Philadelphia; 07/30—(:16) Police in NE Philadelphia are investigating after more than a dozen cars are found on fire in Somerton; (:20) Philadelphia authorities are investigating the theft of 75 laptop computers and other equipment from a West Philadelphia high school; 07/31—(:24) Workers at the University of Delaware stole data on more than 72,000 current and former employees during a cyber attack; 08/05—(:08) A deadly shooting at a township meeting in the Poconos leaves five people wounded, including the shooter; 08/08—(:27) Three children are now in the care of DHS after being removed from deplorable conditions inside a Logan home; 08/09—(:25) The search is on for a bicycling bandit who snatched a 71-year-old woman's purse in Rittenhouse Square; 08/12—(:17) A long-time Philadelphia police officer fired for hitting a woman after the Puerto Rican parade, will wear his uniform again; (:24) Philadelphia police are searching for a bunch of daring thieves trying to steal ATM machines, (:24) A Northeast Philadelphia man is facing assault charges after officials say he shined a green laser light at a police chopper; 08/15—(:24) The FBI raided the Philadelphia Sheriff's office and seized real estate documents; 08/18—(:26) A 19-year old boy was found shot execution-style in the Somerton section of Northeast Philadelphia; 08/21—(:12) Philadelphia is number one when it comes to cell phone thefts; 08/22—(:20) Suspects who posed as PGW workers beat and robbed an elderly man and woman in North Philadelphia; 08/23—(:11) A car full of medical waste was stolen at gun point in Delaware County; (:16) Students at Drexel University are told to be on alert due to a string of gunpoint robberies on campus; 08/30—(:06) A search is underway for a group of teens wanted for the rape of two women in Wilmington, DE; 08/31—(:05) Residents on a South Philadelphia street wake up to find their tires slashed; 09/05—(:20) A string of carjacking incidents are taking place along Philadelphia's wealthy Main Line; 09/10—(:19) A body was found inside a dumpster in the Bridesburg section of Philadelphia; (:21) A teenage girl tells police she was raped at the Vare Recreation Center in the Grays Ferry section of Philadelphia; 9/11 - (:32) A former high ranking official in the Department of Public Welfare and two others are accused of stealing grant money intended to help needy fathers gain employment; 9/13 - (:25) Police in Camden hope a $20,000 dollar reward will lead them to whoever fired the gun that hit a school bus yesterday carrying nearly two dozen preschoolers; 9/19 - (:21) Authorities in Montgomery County are investigating the theft of $8,000 dollars worth of undergarments from Victoria's Secret in the Willow Grove Mall; 9/22 - (:10) Newlyweds were found murdered in their home in Wilmington, DE and police say the killer is still at large; 9/26 - (:21) New Jersey's Attorney General is continuing the deployment of State Police in Trenton to help stem a recent wave of violence; 9/30 - (:25) Philadelphia Police are asking for help finding a man accused of raping a teenager at gunpoint in her own car in the Ogontz section of the city.

CULTURE - Topics in this category include reports on the annual Pennsylvania Dutch Festival at Reading Terminal Market and a Delaware firefighter turned filmmaker releases never before seen video of the 9/11 attack and the fight to save those trapped in the rubble.

Eyewitness News: 07/01—(:21) Festivities are underway in Central Pennsylvania to commemorate the 150th Anniversary of the start of the Battle of Gettysburg; 07/02—(:18) Popular seaside destination Wildwood, NJ enforces a new ban on saggy pants on the boardwalk; (:19) Travel and Leisure magazine ranks Philly the 14th snobbiest city in the country; (:13) The Broadway blockbuster Wicked is back at the Academy of Music with a summer series of performances; (:17) The Philadelphia Orchestra performed a free concert for waterfront residents and visitors along Penn's Landing; 07/05—(:17) The Taste of Philadelphia Festival is underway at the Great Plaza; 07/10—(:15) The Philadelphia Zoo welcomes 13-year-old Kira the Gorilla from New England; 07/11—(:20) Eakins Oval has been transformed into a fun summer park complete with an urban beach and boardwalk; (:19) Collegiate rowers converge on our area for a five day competition along the Cooper River in Camden County; 07/12—(:23) Philadelphia's Reading Terminal Market is holding the Saturday Sizzle & Ice Cream Freeze Festival tomorrow; 07/18—(:21) The fifth annual Pizza Olympics were held today in South Philadelphia; 07/19—(:17) The Mann is opening its newly renovated outdoor theater and lawns to a symphonic Sports-tacular; 07/20—(:15) Lucy the Elephant in Margate, NJ turns 132 years old; 07/21—(:20) It was Star Wars Day at the Please Touch museum; 07/25—(:14) The 5th Annual Atlantic City Food and Wine festival arrives this weekend; 08/06—(:35) A south Philadelphia man tweets Oprah Winfrey asking for help to raise money for a children's charity and she responds with a generous gift; 08/08—(:16) It was the 104th Annual Ocean City baby parade; 08/10—(:13) The Reading Terminal Market hosted the 24th Annual Pennsylvania Dutch Festival this weekend; 08/14—(:14) Brett Brown becomes the new head coach of the Philadelphia Sixers; 08/15—(:21) Philadelphia Phillies pitcher Cole Hamels and his wife Heidi host their 4th Annual Diamonds and Denim charity fundraiser to benefit Philadelphia schools; 08/16—(:06) The Philadelphia Phillies fire skipper Charlie Manuel; 08/22—(:22) Diner En Blanc Philadelphia took place at 30th Street Station; 08/24—(:18) Esperanza's Fiesta on Fifth celebrated Latin music, food, and fashion all while promoting educational programs and services; 08/25—(:18) Today marked the 5th Annual Naked Bike Ride in Philadelphia; 08/26—(:27) Memphis Belle, one of the few remaining B-12 bombers flies into Philadelphia and is open to the public for flights and ground tours; 08/30—(:26) Oprah Winfrey is spotted in Wildwood, NJ with Gayle King before the Whitesboro Reunion Festival; 08/31—(:07) The Made In America festival hits the Ben Franklin Parkway this weekend; 09/04—(:20) Franklin Institute President and CEO Dennis Whit is stepping down at the end of 2014 after 20 years of service; (:22) The Eastern State Penitentiary installed two six-foot tall Gargoyles in preparation for the Terror Behind the Walls attraction; 09/07—(:04) The inaugural Thompson Bucks County Classic professional bicycle race took place in Doylestown this weekend; 09/10—(:11) A Delaware firefighter turned filmmaker releases never before seen video of the 9/11 attack and the fight to save those trapped in the rubble; 9/19 – (:09) The 20th Annual Boardwalk Classic Car Show is now underway down the shore; 9/20 – (:21) The 9th Annual Saint Padre Pio Festival kicked off tonight at the Italian Market in South Philadelphia; 9/30 – (:20) The World Affairs Council of Philadelphia honored first responders across the nation tonight with the 2013 Atlas Awards.

ENVIRONMENT - Topics in this category include reports on dead dolphins washing up all over the New Jersey shore and an excessive heat warning in effect for parts of the region.

Eyewitness News: 07/05—(:09) An excessive heat warning goes into effect tomorrow for parts of the region; 07/17—(:12) A rare fish has turned up in Ridley Park lake; 07/31—(:14) A rare shark sighting at the Jersey Shore is captured on tape; 08/01—(:18) Dead dolphins are washing up all over the New Jersey shore; 08/13—(:23) Officials are trying to figure out if it was a tornado or straight line winds that left behind destruction in Manahawkin, Ocean County; 08/14—(:09) A rainy summer has some New Jersey farmers worried about their crops; 08/19—(:22) Six more dolphins have mysteriously turned up dead along the New Jersey Shore; 08/27—(:22) An outbreak of a measles-type virus is likely the cause of 74 dead dolphins in New Jersey; 08/29— (:19) Rutgers Camden students make a difference by cleaning up various parts of the city as a part of the new student day of service.

GOVERNMENT - Topics in this category include reports on an investigation by the NTSB into the train derailment in Paulsboro and Pennsylvanians will not be required to show ID when voting in the November 5th general election.

Eyewitness News: 07/01—(:25) Pennsylvania's $28.4 billion dollar budget plan now has Governor Corbett's signature and it includes help for Philadelphia schools; 07/02—(:30) The Philadelphia School District is reevaluating its budget shortfall after lawmakers in Harrisburg budget $140 million to help avoid layoffs and program cuts; (:12) New Jersey democrats will put pressure on republicans to bring same sex marriage to New Jersey; (:16) In Wilmington, Delaware Attorney General Beau Biden announced the creation of a statewide child victims unit today; 7/8—(:16), Senator Bob Casey wants to stop Congress from gutting the Amtrak budget by one third; 7/9—(:25), Lawmakers look for answers after the deadly Center City building collapse; (:16), The NTSB will look into the train derailment in Paulsboro today; (:15), Former Secretary of State Hillary Clinton is visiting the Main Line today; 7/15 —(:26), All eyes are on Harrisburg this week, as a trial begins over Pennsylvania's voter ID law; 7/16 —(:15), The Philadelphia Housing Authority took a two million dollar step forward in adding cash to its struggling budget; 7/17 —(:14), Philadelphia Fire Commissioner Lloyd Ayers is pleased to announce that the Fire Department will conduct a promotional ceremony for its members; 7/24

—(:26), An experimental program targeting toll cheats on the New Jersey Turnpike and Garden State Parkway is becoming permanent; 7/30—(:05), A multi-million dollar project to directly connect I-95 to the Pennsylvania Turnpike is underway; 08/10—(:04) 100 National Guardsmen from New Jersey are heading to Afghanistan; 08/12—(:21) Primary voters in NJ will head to the polls tomorrow to decide who will face each other in the special elections for the U.S. Senate; 08/13—(:26) Governor Tom Corbett is responding to pleas to release the $50 million dollars needed to allow Philadelphia public schools to open on time; 08/15—(:20) Mayor Nutter and lawmakers say they will get the Philadelphia School District the money it needs by tomorrow's deadline; 08/16—(:26) New Jersey Governor Chris Christie agreed to make it easier for severely ill children to participate in the medical marijuana program, but said he would not go along with one provision of the measure and sent it back to the state Legislature; (:21) Pennsylvanians will not be required to show ID when voting in the November 5th general election; 08/20—(:20) Gloucester Township is waiting for approval on off-track betting to help boost the economy; (:17) New Jersey Governor Chris Christie names a new superintendent for the Camden School District; 08/22—(:20) Vice President Biden joins President Obama in Scranton tomorrow for his two day education tour; 08/29—(:20) Former Philadelphia City Councilwoman Joan Krajewski has died at 79 years old of chronic obstructive pulmonary disease; 09/02—(:17) Members of the Philadelphia Teachers Union will get an update on the status of contract talks; 09/06—(:27) The City of Philadelphia will pay a lump sum of $47 million dollars in retroactive wage increase to the firefighters union, as well as, make $28 million in contributions to union healthcare and benefit funds; 09/09—(:04) The Mayor of Allentown is jumping into the 2014 race for Pennsylvania Governor; 09/10—(:15) Former Secretary of State Hillary Clinton will receive the Liberty Medal tonight in Philadelphia; 09/11—(:02) Local and national 9/11 ceremonies held today; 09/16—(:22) Pennsylvania Governor Tom Corbett announced a plan that he says would allow more than half a million currently uninsured Pennsylvanians to obtain coverage; 09/17—(:23) Philadelphia School Superintendent Dr. William Hite volunteered to walk home from class with students to ensure their safety in regards to Mayor Nutter's walk safe program; 9/19 – (:19) After 40 years of service to the Philadelphia Fire Department, Commissioner Lloyd Ayers is retiring; 9/24 – (:18) Tensions were running high tonight at the Pennsylvania Convention Center during a public hearing to discuss six submitted plans for a new Philadelphia casino; 6/25 – (:25) Philadelphia City Controller Alan Butkovitz is demanding more answers about demolition inspections in the wake of the Center City building collapse; 9/29 (:14) Time is running out for legislators to pass a bill that would avert a partial government shutdown, set to begin on Tuesday; 9/30 (:22) Philadelphia residents now have a little more leeway when it comes to trash day, starting this week trash cans will now be allowed on the curb at 5pm the night before trash collection for the fall and winter months.

HEALTH - Topics in this category include reports on a mysterious stomach bug stumping health officials in our area and new research shows that eating more fruit could prevent diabetes.

Eyewitness News: 7/02—(:06), There's been a dramatic increase in the number of women dying from prescription drug overdoses; 7/03—(:21), New research suggests that reading, writing and other activities that keep the brain stimulated may help preserve memory; 7/08—(:16), A campaign to ensure infants are put to sleep on their backs has dramatically reduced the number of SIDS cases; 7/09—(:26), The American Red Cross has issued an emergency request for donations of all blood types; 7/10—(:20), Researchers found both real and substitute sugar products increase the risk of health problems; 7/11—(:23), New research finds keeping the umbilical cord of a newborn intact a little longer may improve the baby's health; (:21), A new study in the International Journal of Obesity found that when overweight men worked out more strenuously they ate less; 7/15—(:25), A new study reveals women who take aspirin every other day, may be at a lower risk for colorectal cancer; 7/19—(:21), A new study finds the widespread rejection of estrogen therapy has most likely led to almost 50,000 more unnecessary deaths over the past 10 years among women who have had a hysterectomy; 7/23—(19) A new study finds the risk of death from injuries is lowest in urban communities, compared to the suburbs or the country; 7/25—(:22), A mysterious stomach bug that has stumped health officials has now spread to New Jersey; 7/26—(:15), The Food and Drug Administration is taking new action to make sure imported foods are safe; 7/31—(:24), Now more than three in four mothers try to breast-feed their newborns; 08/02—(:18) The FDA says acetaminophen may cause serious skin reactions in some people; 08/06—(:20) Researchers now say that the average pregnancy may not last 40 weeks; 08/13—(:23) A new report indicates eating fatty fish may lower a woman's risk of rheumatoid arthritis; 08/16—(:13) A new study suggests that drinking soda may affect the behavior of very young children; 8/19—(:18) Lyme disease is more common than previously reported, as many as 300,000 Americans are diagnosed each year; 08/29—(:23) A new study estimates that nearly 9 million adults in the U.S. resort to prescription sleeping pills to get sufficient rest; 08/30—(:08) New research shows that eating more fruit could prevent diabetes; 09/05—(:22) New research shows bacteria may cause obesity but it may also protect us against obesity by turning bacteria into fat-fighting therapies; 09/11— (:13) A promising experimental test may soon help some cancer patients know if their disease will advance and if aggressive treatment is necessary; 09/16—(:07) A new study finds that an increasing number of young breast cancer patients are taking radical steps to try to keep cancer away; 9/25 (:15) With the flu season quickly approaching, experts are urging everyone to get vaccinated now; 9/30 (:14) More than a dozen states are seeing another surge in whooping cough cases this year.

MINORITY/ETHNIC - Topics in this category include reports on the National Urban League Conference in Philadelphia and a racist text scandal between two former administrators that is shocking the Coatesville School district in Chester County.

Eyewitness News: 7/1 – (:11) Same-sex couples wishing to marry in the first state of Delaware have been piling into county buildings to register for licenses; 7/9 – (:24) The American Civil Liberties Union filed suit today to overturn the Pennsylvania law banning same-sex marriage in the state; 7/11—(:16), Pennsylvania Attorney General Kathleen Kane announced that she will not defend the state's ban on gay and lesbian marriages; 7/20—(:12), Hundreds attend rallies in Philadelphia and cities across the nation in honor of Trayvon Martin; 7/21—(:05), A Philadelphia recording studio is the site of a benefit concert for the Trayvon Martin Foundation; 7/25—(:16) The National Urban League Conference kicks off in Philadelphia; 7/26—(:30), The mother of Trayvon Martin, Sabrina Fulton, was in Philadelphia today to speak at the National Urban League Conference; 7/31—(:09), Philadelphia Eagles wide receiver Riley Cooper is caught on tape making a racial slur that rocked Philadelphia and the NFL, and tonight he's apologizing; 8/2 – (:25) Montgomery County fires back against the state in the same-sex marriage debate, Register of Wills Bruce Hanes has been issuing marriage licenses to same-sex couples since last week; 08/07—(:15) This month marks the 50th Anniversary of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s March on Washington; 08/15—(:16) The fight over same sex marriage heats up today in NJ; 08/24—(:26) A large crowd is expected gather to celebrate the 50th Anniversary of the March on Washington; 08/27—(:17) Today is the 50th Anniversary of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s "I Have a Dream" speech; 8/29 - (:16) The IRS clears the way for same-sex couples to file joint federal taxes; 09/17—(:22) A commonwealth judge ruled that Montgomery County must comply with Pennsylvania's ban on same-sex marriage; 9/24 - (:16) The Coatesville School Board met tonight in the wake of a racist text scandal between two former administrators that is shocking the district; 9/28 - (:19) A rally draws supporters of same-sex marriage to the Ben Franklin Parkway in Philadelphia where dozens learned how they could join the campaign to legalize same-sex marriage in Pennsylvania.

PUBLIC HEALTH & SAFETY - Topics in this category include reports on an explosion at a naval base in New Jersey that injured a civilian firefighter and seven sailors and a child nearly drowns while trying to cool off at a Philadelphia Recreation Center pool during the heat wave.

Eyewitness News: 7/02—(:25), Crews will resume their search this morning for a young boy who went missing after swimming in the rain swollen Pennypack Creek; (:18), A SEPTA train struck and killed a person at the Penfield Station in Haverford, Delaware County; (:12), Soon you'll be able to text 9-1-1 for help in Camden County; 7/03—(:15), A car crashed through the front window of the coffee shop in Havertown, Delaware County; 7/05—(:25), Chrysler is recalling about 490,000 cars and utility vehicles worldwide, because of a problem with head restraints intended to prevent neck injuries; 7/06—(:06), Police are now questioning a person in connection with an explosion at a vacant northeast Philadelphia home; 7/08—(:33), A school bus veers off I-95 in Langhorne, Bucks County; 7/09—(:12), Five people are rushed to the hospital after a truck collides with a SEPTA bus at 62nd and Spruce Streets in the Cobbs Creek section of Philadelphia; 7/09—(:08), A young boy is the latest to be hit by a train in Darby Borough, Delaware County; 7/10—(:06), Three people are hurt after a home in South Jersey collapses on top of them; (:17), A house damaged in Superstorm Sandy collapses injuring the workers who were trying to make it inhabitable; 7/16—(:22), A proposed methadone clinic in Northeast Philadelphia draws a crowd at a community meeting hoping to prevent the opening of the facility on Frankford Avenue; 7/18—(:07), A child nearly drowns while trying to cool off at a Philadelphia Recreation Center pool during the heat wave; 7/19—(:13), Several Philadelphia medic units are temporarily pulled from service, unable to be used; 7/23—(:20), Two people are hospitalized after a strong odor takes over a Norristown office building; 7/24—(:25), A search is underway for two teens who disappeared in the Neshaminy Creek; (:16), Tense moments at Northeast Philadelphia Airport this afternoon when a plane skidded off the runway; 7/25—(:15), Four people were hurt this afternoon when a SEPTA bus slammed into the back of a dump truck; 7/29—(:28), A South Philadelphia row home was leveled by a powerful explosion; 7/30—(:16), An evacuation order has been lifted at three West Chester University residence halls after a gas leak this afternoon; (:13), The Moorestown Mall is open again after being evacuated this morning due to a gas leak; 08/04—(:14) Philadelphia Police at the Philadelphia International Airport have stepped up security; 08/07—(:14) A person falls from a construction site in Center City Philadelphia; 08/10—(:09) A man tubing with friends disappears in the water on the Delaware River; (:05) The Schuylkill Expressway is reopen tonight after two people were killed in a wrong-way crash; 08/15—(:12) A boa constrictor escaped from a house on Park Avenue in Swarthmore; 08/16—(:17) Iams and Eukanuba are recalling varieties of dry food for cats and dogs because they could be contaminated with salmonella; 08/18—(:21) A Jet Blue plane from Boston landed in Philadelphia instead of Baltimore due to smoke in the cockpit; 08/20—(:23) An explosion at a naval base in New Jersey injures a civilian firefighter and seven sailors; 08/22—(:17) A window washer falls five stories while working on a building in Rittenhouse Square; 08/24—(:09) A woman is dead after being hit by a train on SEPTA's Market-Frankford line; 08/27—(:07) A man is under arrest and in custody after being accused of calling New Jersey State Police and making threats; 08/28—(:28) Authorities have recovered the body of a woman in the ruins of a New Jersey home that was leveled by an explosion; (:25) A New Jersey appeals court hands down a landmark ruling when it comes to texting and driving and not just for those behind the wheel but also for those who know the receiver is driving; 08/29—(:19) A pick-up truck crashes into Hymie's Merion Deli; 08/30—(:19) Train service in Burlington, New Jersey was briefly interrupted after a person was found under a train; 08/31—(:25) A water search in the Delaware River for a missing Kayaker has been called off for the night; 09/02—(:18) Firefighters are still on the scene of a massive fire at a local Dietz and Watson plant; 09/03—(:11) An investigation is underway in efforts to figure out why a child wandered away from their daycare facility; (:11) A community comes together following the rape of two women in Wilmington's Kosciuszko park; 09/04—(:22) Toyota recalls almost 370,000 vehicles due to hybrid system and engine bolt issues; (:17) Chobani is pulling some of its Greek yogurt from supermarket shelves due to mold issue; 09/05—(:13) Emergency crews evacuated a high rise at 4th and Chestnut Streets in Center City Philadelphia after a fire breaks out; 09/06—(:25) A four vehicle crash shut down the Atlantic City Expressway; 09/07—(:14) A deck partially collapses injuring seven people in Aston, Delaware County; 09/11—(:15) A New Jersey bus crash happened near the Black Horse Pike, emergency crews rescued at least two from the wreckage; (:20) Police investigating suspicious package at the U.S. Marine Recruiting Office in Willingboro have just cleared the scene, the item in question is not hazardous; (:18) A malfunction with a transformer knocked out power for more than 4,000 customers in Phoenixville, Chester County; 09/12—(:24) An out-of-control fire on the boardwalk in Seaside Park, Ocean County started inside of an ice cream shop destroying dozens of oceanfront businesses; 09/18—(:24) A vote on a new maintenance contract to fix broken PATCO escalators is scheduled for tomorrow; (:27) A new study found pedestrian phone related injuries have nearly doubled since 2005; 9/21 - (:05) Federal investigators begin their probe into the cause of a deadly plane crash in Atlantic County; 9/24 - (:18) It's one of Philadelphia's prettiest neighborhoods, but the park at Rittenhouse Square is being overrun by rats creating a potential public health issue; (:17) A threatening message written on a bathroom wall led to the evacuation and early dismissal of classes at Cherry Hill East High School in New Jersey; 9/27 - (:16) A fire and explosion rocked a Philadelphia Fire House, the oldest fire company in America, in the Old City section; 9/30 - (:13) Changes could soon be coming to Villanova University, school officials are trying to decide whether to arm their campus police officers.

RELIGION - Topics in this category include reports on a disturbing act of vandalism at a Gloucester County church involving the desecration of statues and archaeologists discovered a piece of the cross they think Jesus Christ was crucified on.

Eyewitness News: 7/01—(:20), Saint Joachim in Frankford and Saint Leo's in Tacony held their final mass; 7/02—(:18), Pope John Paul the Second could be canonized a saint by the end of the year; 7/03—(:18), The Philadelphia Archdiocese revealed an operating deficit of $39 million dollars for fiscal 2012; 7/09—(:15), The Islamic holy month of Ramadan is underway; 7/22—(:15), Pope Francis touched down in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil to huge crowds; 7/25—(:26), A Delaware school district's vote on a bible-related high school class ended in a stalemate tonight; 7/31—(:19), Archaeologists discovered a piece of the cross they think Jesus Christ was crucified on; 08/25—(:07) A fire destroys a centuries old Ukrainian Orthodox church; 08/31—(:22) Archbishop Pietro Parolin becomes the Vatican's new secretary of state; 09/04—(:14) The Jewish community celebrates Rosh Hashanah, the Jewish New Year; 09/13—(:18) Yom Kippur begins at sundown; 9/20 – (:21) The hunt is on for suspects in a disturbing act of vandalism at a Gloucester County church; someone desecrated statues at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Malaga; 9/24 – (:16) The Archdiocese of Philadelphia has formed an independent charitable foundation aimed at helping parish communities bring Catholics back to church.

YOUTH - Topics in this category include reports on an investigation by authorities into the death of a student found in a Villanova University dorm and a new and improved playground in the Francisville section of Philadelphia.

Eyewitness News: 7/03—(:23), A nationally recognized drill team from Camden, New Jersey has a new look thanks to a generous donation; 7/09—(:22), Students attending any of Pennsylvania's state-run universities will be paying a little more come fall; 7/11—(:26), Rutgers University students will likely be shelling out more for college tuition this upcoming year; 7/15—(:21), Archbishop Charles Chaput signs an agreement allowing 14 schools to be run by a nonprofit group based in Wayne; 7/17—(:22), Kids at Children's Hospital in Philadelphia are being inspired by dogs facing similar medical challenges; 7/18—(:19), Kids got an up-close look at the science and technology that goes into crime-fighting at Philadelphia's Strawberry Mansion; 7/23—(:21), White House officials visited Philadelphia today to see how they can help feed children better; 08/05—(:10) A Pennsylvania toddler loses his battle with cancer days after serving as best man at his parent's wedding; 08/20—(:13) A dance studio partnered with physical education professionals and parents to give disabled kids a chance to be like other kids; (:19) Temple University students move into the expensive new dorm, Morgan Hall; 08/28—(:21) Kevin Biju from Montgomery County scores a perfect score of 2400 on SAT's; (:10) Authorities investigating death of student found in Villanova University dorm; 09/09—(:18) 134,000 students return to Philadelphia schools, the teachers are working without a new contract; 09/16—(:14) Students return to Cedarbrook Middle School after a two-week delay due to mold; 9/18 – (:26) Education officials unveil a new grading system for public schools across Pennsylvania based on attendance, participation in standardized testing and graduation rates; 9/25 – (:21) Young professionals celebrated the 10th Anniversary of the Honickman Learning Center in North Philadelphia which uses technology to help educate low-income and homeless families; 9/26 – (:18) A new and improved Francisville Playground welcomed kids back today after replacing outdated equipment, putting in a new ground service, installing a system to conserve water and adding a mural.