

KYW-TV 3 – PHILADELPHIA, PA
QUARTERLY ISSUES PROGRAMS LIST
CBS BROADCASTING, INC.

April 1, 2015 – June 30, 2015

Attached are listings of broadcast segments, which in the station’s judgment reflect KYW-TV3’s most significant programming treatment of ascertained community issues.

PROGRAM INDEX

KYW-TV Eyewitness News – weekdays, 4:30am – 7:00am; 5:00pm – 6:00pm; 6:00 - 6:30pm; 11:00pm – 11:30pm; weekends, Saturday, 6:00am – 7:00am; 6:00pm –6:30pm; 11:00pm – 11:30pm; and Sundays, 6:00am – 8:30am; 6:30pm – 7:00pm and 11:00pm – 11:30pm, regularly scheduled news broadcasts focusing on the latest current issues.

Talk Philly – weekdays, 12:00pm – 12:30pm; regularly scheduled lifestyle magazine program looking at a variety of topics that make the Philadelphia area so special. Hosted by Pat Ciarrocchi and Ukee Washington.

BUSINESS/ECONOMY/CONSUMER - Topics in this category include reports on protests by non-union workers at the Philadelphia International Airport and a possible investigation into whether Philadelphia restaurants discriminate against disabled customers.

Eyewitness News – 4/1 - After a rule change, the Pottsville brewery Yuengling is now the top U.S. craft brewing company; 4/2 – Non-union members of the Philadelphia International Airport protested today at City Hall for higher wages and better working conditions; 4/2 – Mayor Michael Nutter cuts ribbon at the grand re-opening of an affordable housing complex, Tasker Village Apartment, in South Philadelphia; 4/7 –This morning, Florida developer Glenn Staub is expected to buy the bankrupted Revel Casino in Atlantic City for 82 million dollars; 4/15 – Fast-food workers, along with “underpaid workers,” plan to rally for high wages and the right to unionize; 4/15 – Bass Pros Shops, an outdoors shop, opened its first store in N.J.; 4/15 – 2015 Gas prices are continually increasing, a barrel of crude-oil jumped to 56 dollars and 69 cents; 4/16 Bass Pros Shop officially opened its store tonight in Atlantic City; 4/16 –Pennsylvania Real Estate Investment Trust and the Macerich Company looking for approval to redevelop “The Gallery” mall in Philadelphia; 4/17 – The Apple Watch will not be available for purchase in stores as originally planned, Apple announced; 4/23 – McDonald’s announced its plan of closing of at least 900 restaurants this year, due to profit loses of over 400 million dollars in the first three months; 4/29 – Anheuser-Busch removes unsuccessful slogan after complaints on promoting rape; 5/6 – Federal prosecutors take a look at the issue of disabled people being discriminated against in Philadelphia restaurants; 5/6 – Medical patients complain about being billed twice and having bills they do not owe; 5/12 – This morning, only three of seven midsize 2015 SUV models performed well in front-end crash tests; 6/9 -- Dunkin Donuts CEO says the company is working on a service to deliver coffee and donuts; 6/17 -- Casino workers plan to protest at the Trump Taj Mahal in Atlantic City; 6/22 – Duquesne Brewing Company will introduce a lager honoring the late Penn State coach Joe Paterno; 6/23 -- After being called out by pop star Taylor Swift, Apple announced it will pay royalties to artists whenever their music is streamed on the new Apple music service; 6/25 -- The clothing company Lululemon is recalling more than 300,000 women's tops due to injuries from its drawstrings.

CULTURE - Topics in this category include reports on the Tall Ships Festival's arrival in Philadelphia and the latest entertainment plans for the struggling Atlantic City resort.

Eyewitness News – 4/6 – Rolling Stone magazine apologizes and retracts article about alleged violent gang rape at the University of Virginia; 4/7 – Rutgers University bans fraternity and sorority parties for the remainder of the school year due to alcohol-related problems; 4/14 – The upcoming Rocky spin-off “Creed” film is being shot in Philadelphia now; 4/17 –The Fillmore Philadelphia, live music and entertainment venue, is scheduled to open in the fall at the former Ajax Metal Company building; 4/17 – U.S. Supreme Court Justice Sonia Sotomayor received a special honor at Bryn Mawr College tonight; 4/21 – Eagles sign quarterback Tim Tebow; 4/22 – The Phillies commemorated the 68th anniversary of Jackie Robinson becoming a Major League Baseball player tonight; 5/2 – South Philadelphia's Italian Market celebrated its 100th year; 5/4 – KYW Anchor Ukee Washington was inducted into the Pennsylvania Association of Broadcasters Hall Of Fame last night; 5/4 –Philadelphia hosted its 36th annual run yesterday, an estimated 40 thousand people participated in the country's largest ten-mile run; 5/6 – The Constitution Center held its annual Philadelphia Award Ceremony and presented the award to music producer and philanthropist, Kenny Gamble; 6/22 -- Maroon 5 will perform on the beach in Atlantic City in August. 6/24 -- A magazine named a Philadelphia pizzeria the best in the country; 6/24 -- The Tall Ships festival begins today on the Delaware River; 6/25 -- For the second time in three years, Beyoncé will headline the Made in America Festival; 6/29 -- More than 30 Philadelphia businesses offered items for just one dollar in University City tonight for the Baltimore Avenue dollar stroll.

ENVIRONMENT - Topics in this category include reports on red fox sightings at the Jersey shore and tornado warnings in the Delaware Valley.

Eyewitness News – 4/14 – After three hours in a tree, New Jersey Fish and Wildlife tranquilized a bear in the backyard of Ridgewood, Bergen County; 4/14 – Authorizes tried to coax a mountain lion from under a Los Angeles home back to his home in Griffith Park; 4/15 – NASA’s New Horizons spacecraft took the closest color photo ever of Pluto with its largest moon, Charon, on the bottom left from 71 million miles away on April 9th; 4/17 – There is an increased fire risk for the weekend due to rising temperatures; 4/20 – The area has been put on an extended tornado watch as threatening storms move toward the area and there could be possible hail later; 4/21 – A scientist in Costa Rica discovered an unique new species of “Glass Frogs” that resemble Kermit the Frog; 4/22 – Today, more than 22 thousand organizations in 192 countries are celebrating Earth Day; 4/27 – More than four thousand are confirmed dead in this weekend’s magnitude 7.8 earthquake in Nepal; 5/4 – In South Jersey Pinelands, small fires were intentionally set and scorched around 80 acres; 5/5 – Mary Lee, the Great White shark, who was tagged in 2012, has been tracked about 10 miles off the Wildwood coast; 5/12 – An excessive amount of rain is being blamed for the massive sinkhole in the parking lot of a grocery store near Fort Worth; 6/16 -- The swan found badly burned in a New Jersey state park was released back into the wild today; 6/18 -- Red foxes are becoming a common sight under Ocean City boardwalks; 6/22--The Harvey Cedars beach patrol posted a photo on their Facebook page of a Portuguese man of war jellyfish that washed up on the beach; 6/23 -- Heavy rain, lightning, and even tornado warnings affected the Delaware Valley, taking trees down and leaving half a million people without power; 6/25 – A video shows a fearless cat coming face to face with a big black bear and wins.

GOVERNMENT - Topics in this category include reports on an assemblyman’s call for stricter fines for people who call 911 in non-emergency situations and news around State Senator Robert Menendez’s indictment.

Eyewitness News – 4/1 - Senator Robert Menendez was charged with conspiracy to commit bribery and wire fraud and will speak today about his indictment on Federal corruption charges; 4/1 – Pennsylvania Attorney General Kathleen Kane is accused of leaking classified Grand Jury information and the Montgomery County DA says it will be some time before charges are brought against Kane; 4/1 – Today, Pennsylvania Governor Tom Wolf was promoting his “Jobs That Pay” program at Community College of Philadelphia; 4/2 – Senator Robert Menendez pleads not guilty; 4/2 – President Obama is optimistic about a tentative deal reached to limit Iran’s Nuclear Program; 4/8 – Pennsylvania Governor Tom Wolf picks a Montgomery County venture capitalist to become the state’s new treasurer; 4/14 – Democrat Assemblyman Paul Moriarty has been pushing for stiffer penalties for people who call 911 for no reason; 4/15 -

Today New Jersey Governor Chris Christie proposed an overhaul of social security, as he prepares for a possible GOP Presidential Run; 4/15 – The White House says President Obama will remove Cuba from the State Department list of state sponsors of terror; 5/4 – The US Supreme Court upheld New Jersey’s ban on so-called “Gay Conversation Therapy,” by refusing to hear an appeal on the issue; 5/6 – There have been major layoffs, including cuts to the fire department which have left people in Atlantic City worried about emergency response; 5/6 – Former Arkansas Governor Mike Huckabee is officially in the race for President; 5/9 – Philadelphia Police Commissioner, Charles Ramsey, is being recognized by the “National Organization of Black Law Enforcement Executives” on Penn’s Landing; 5/12 – A medical marijuana bill backed by Pennsylvania Governor Tom Wolf is expected to clear the state senate tomorrow; 5/12 – A new report claims New Jersey Governor Chris Christie spent tens of thousands of taxpayer dollars at MetLife Stadium in East Rutherford New Jersey, the money was reportedly reimbursed by the New Jersey Republican state committee. 6/16 – Donald Trump announced he is running for President in 2016; 6/17 -- Senator Robert Menendez loses his bid to move his corruption trial out of New Jersey; 6/18 -- A Senate committee in Delaware has approved a bill to remove criminal penalties for marijuana possession; 6/25 --The Supreme Court ruled that subsidies can be extended to those who purchase insurance from the federal exchange; 6/27--Today, the highest court in the land ruled same-sex couples nationwide have the right to marry in all 50 U.S. states.

HEALTH - Topics in this category include reports on acetaminophen’s reported effects on emotional response and new breast and ovarian cancer screening tests.

Eyewitness News – 4/2 – In observance of Autism Awareness Day today, buildings across Center City are lit up blue in support of the cause; 4/7 – Researchers from John Hopkins looked at 11 programs to compare weight loss, adherence and possible harms; 4/7 – Researchers in Australia followed more than 200 thousand people for more than six years and found those who did vigorous activities had a lower risk of early death; 4/15 – Researchers at Ohio State University found acetaminophen not only dulls your pain, but it also reduces your positive emotional response; 4/15 – New research suggests snoring could affect your memory and thinking ability, it may actually speed up a mental decline that’s already happening; 4/17 – A new study from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention show e-cigarette use is increasing among American high school students; 4/22 – A company called Color Genomics is now offering testing for the BRCA one and two breast and ovarian cancer gene mutations; 4/22 – Today a federal judge in Philadelphia approved a settlement to resolve concussion claims against the NFL by thousands of retired players; 5/5 – Report on how almost 460-thousand people went to the emergency room for injuries related to exercise equipment; 5/6 – David Goldberg, CEO of online start-up Survey Monkey and husband of Facebook executive, Sheryl Sandberg, died

Friday from a treadmill accident; 5/6 – Newly released study finds most concussions at the high school and college level occur during practice, not the actual games; 5/11 – Researchers recommend all pregnant women get the whooping cough vaccine to protect infants, since babies are too young to get vaccinated; 6/2 -- Medical researchers have long warned prolonged sitting in the office chair is dangerous -- associated with higher risk of heart disease, obesity, and cancer; 6/9 – Children’s Hospital of Philadelphia loses its title as the best children's hospital in the country; 6/14 -- Runners took to the streets of Philadelphia today for the 21st annual Strides for Stroke 5K; 6/18 – A Bucks County woman was misdiagnosed for multiple sclerosis; 6/23 -- The study published in JAMA internal medicine journal finds more than two-thirds of Americans are overweight or obese.

PUBLIC SAFETY - Topics in this category include reports on a family’s death from carbon monoxide poisoning from a generator and how winter road salt can damage car brake lines.

Eyewitness News – 4/2 – Authorities were called after discovering an envelope containing white powder, which turned out to be harmless talcum powder; 4/2 – After a brand new car bursts into flames, emergency crews shut down the highway and the route 4-20 ramp while handling the situation; 4/6 – During an Easter service at a Methodist Church in Rahway Union County, a huge chunk of the plaster ceiling collapsed inside; 4/7 – A man and his seven children were found dead in their Maryland home after being poisoned by carbon monoxide from a generator they were using after the power company cut off their electricity; 4/14 – Federal safety regulations say drivers need to wash the winter road salt from the underside of their cars to avoid salt damages to their brake lines; 4/15 – Big security challenges are ahead as Philadelphia readies for a papal visit and the Democratic National Convention; 4/21 A coyote attacks a man in North Jersey; 4/23 - A Montgomery County Community blanketed in a chemical that caused the evacuation of dozens of homes and sent several people to the hospital; 5/1 – Philadelphia police rescue a teenager who was being attacked by a pit bull along the 200 block of Higbee Street in Lawncrest; 5/4 – Nighttime lane closure started tonight on Vine Street Expressway, as part of a four year project to replace seven dilapidated bridges; 5/11 – A fast-moving fire ties through a New Jersey apartment complex, forcing dozens of residents out of their homes; 5/11 – A student on-board a school bus is injured by a flying brick through the window; 5/13 -- Federal investigators say the train was traveling 106 miles an hour, in a 50 mile an hour zone, before it went off the rails last night. 6/8 -- A Philadelphia City Council committee talks about increasing surveillance cameras outside bars after the death of Shane Montgomery; 6/16 -- The City of Philadelphia unveiled its transportation plan for the upcoming Papal visit; 6/16 --Honda is adding more than a million cars to a growing recall for faulty airbags; 6/17 -- A high-tech effort to try to prevent tragedy called “shot-spotter” uses microphones to alert police of shots being fired;

