

KYW-TV 3 – PHILADELPHIA, PA
QUARTERLY ISSUES PROGRAMS LIST
CBS BROADCASTING, INC.

April 1, 2013 – June 30, 2013

Attached are listings of broadcast segments, which in the station’s judgment reflect KYW-TV3’s most significant programming treatment of ascertained community issues.

PROGRAM INDEX

KYW-TV Eyewitness News – weekdays, 4:30am – 7:00am; 12noon – 12:30pm; 5:00pm – 6:00pm; 6:00 - 6:30pm; 11:00pm – 11:30pm; weekends, Saturday, 6:00am – 7:00am; 6:30pm –7:00pm; 11:00pm – 11:30pm; and Sundays, 6:00am – 8:30am; 6:00pm – 6:30pm and 11:00pm – 11:30pm, regularly scheduled news broadcasts focusing on the latest current issues.

Eyewitness Newsmakers – A rotation of KYW-TV News Anchors provide an approximately 10-minute segment, including newsmaker interviews, which air during each Sunday morning newscast. Segments address current events on local and national fronts. The segments air in the 8:00am broadcast.

Talk Philly – weekdays, 12:00pm – 12:30pm; regularly scheduled lifestyle magazine program looking at a variety of topics that make the Philadelphia area so special. Hosted by Pat Ciarrocchi and Ukee Washington.

BUSINESS/ECONOMY/CONSUMER - Topics in this category include reports on a SEPTA fare hike this summer and an unclaimed Powerball jackpot in our area.

Eyewitness News: 4/1—(:15), Chink's Steaks, the Northeast Philly sandwich institution that has faced heat in recent years over the ethnic slur in its name, is rebranding and will now be known as Joe's Steaks & Soda Shop; 4/2—(:18), According to an article by the Journal of Consumer Research, a dollar bill is taken out of circulation after 18 months because of the high bacteria content, whereas a hundred dollar bill lasts about 9 years; 4/4—(:19), A winning Powerball ticket was sold in South Brunswick and is yet to be claimed, it will expire in 6 weeks; 4/4—(:15), Philly's Ultimo Coffee just snagged the #1 spot on TheDailyMeal.com's list of America's Best Coffee Shops; 4/8—(:15), US Airlines scored their second best performance last year in more than two decades; 4/9—(:21), Ridership is on the increase for Amtrak, they expect to end the fiscal year in September either meeting or breaking last year's total of 31.2 million riders; 4/11—(:16), Hearings begin today for Philadelphia's second casino license; 4/12—(:18), Nike sent letters to small business owners in the Philadelphia area telling them they can no longer sell their products; 4/15—(:25), SEPTA plans to raise fares this summer but SEPTA riders can attend a public hearing to voice their concerns today; 4/17—(:20), American Airlines is back to normal following a computer glitch that grounded their entire fleet; 4/18—(:21), Carnival Cruise Line says it's dishing out 300 million dollars to add emergency generators and to improve safety measures on all 24 of its ships; 4/24—(:22), Netflix just unveiled a family plan for 12 dollars a month that lets you stream videos on four different devices at the same time; 5/2—(:20), Starting this summer, Frontier Airlines will charge passengers up to 100 dollars for a carry-on bag; 5/8—(:16), Some Philadelphia water customers are being hit with huge bills, new charges that date back years; 5/14—(:16), Atlantic City's newest and most troubled casino Revel could be out of bankruptcy court in just a few days; 5/15—(:18), Tonight's Powerball jackpot is up to 360 million dollars; 5/16—(:06), SEPTA fare hikes, set to take place in July, won't be as high as originally planned; (:26), The Powerball jackpot has grown to a whopping 550 million dollars, the second largest in history; 5/17—(:18) The Powerball jackpot has now reached a record of 600 million dollars; 5/24—(:27) Crabs are scarce and prices are high at the Jersey shore as a result of Hurricane Sandy; 6/5—(:26) Domino's is testing unmanned drones to deliver pizza; 6/22—(:12), Six million Facebook users may have had their contact information exposed due to a computer bug; 6/23—(:16), Hostess snack cakes are expected to be back on store shelves mid-July; 6/27—(:16), SEPTA's fare hike takes effect Monday.

CRIME - Topics in this category include reports on a serial bank robber in Philadelphia and multiple bomb threats at Princeton University force a campus evacuation.

Eyewitness News: 4/2—(:05), A center-city Philadelphia man is arrested after trying to pay his cab fare with marijuana; (:32), The Atlantic City Public Safety building was evacuated after a suspect reportedly sprayed police officers with a fire extinguisher; 4/3—(:15), An off-duty police officer accidentally fires his gun giving two deliverymen a scare in Philadelphia's Old City neighborhood; (:12), Authorities are investigating the rape of a female LaSalle University student on Easter Sunday about a mile off campus; 4/5—(:17), Officers caught two separate passengers at the Philadelphia International Airport trying to take guns through security in their carry-on bags; 4/8—(:17), Police have ruled out foul play in the deaths of a man and a woman whose bodies were found in a hotel room in the Revel Casino in Atlantic City, NJ; 4/9—(:17), Philadelphia Police are investigating a deadly stabbing near 13th and Poplar streets around one this morning; (:22), Police are looking for a serial bank robber, believed to have robbed at least 3 Philadelphia banks over the last three months; 4/10—(:26), Warmer weather brings out another flash mob of teenagers into the streets of Philadelphia; 4/12—(:14), Two Philadelphia police officers are pulled off the street, part of a bribery and corruption probe; 4/14—(:07), Police and SWAT team members descend on a local neighborhood, after a case of road rage leads to gunfire and a standoff; 4/17—(:19), A teenager in Northeast Philadelphia is under arrest accused of bringing a loaded gun to his high school; 4/18—(:17) A local mom is accused of living with her kids in a storage unit; 4/19—(:10) Tense moments for students and parents at Hunting Park Middle School as they learned the school was on lockdown; 4/22—(:29) A Philadelphia man was sentenced today to 15 months in prison for calling in an airline bomb hoax last year; (:26) Brooklyn Nets basketball player Andray Blatche will not be charged in connect with an alleged sexual assault in Philadelphia; 4/23—(:22) A Chester County man is under arrest on several counts of indecent exposure on the campus of University of Delaware; 4/24—(:21) A teenager is arrested for assaulting Olivia Nutter, the Philadelphia Mayor's daughter; 4/25— (:19) Suspicious graffiti found in a bathroom forces the evacuation of a Burlington County High School; (:12) Philadelphia Police release disturbing video showing a group of kids terrorizing people on the street with a gun; 4/28—(:09) Jury set to hear closing arguments tomorrow in trial of Philadelphia abortion doctor; 5/02—(:26), A Washington Township Police Officer is accused of wrongly arresting a New Jersey assemblyman on DWI charges; 5/03—(:10) Grave robbers are stealing memorials in Mt. Holly, New Jersey; 5/05—(:10) A crowd spilling out of a party near West Chester University gets out of control; 5/07—(:21) A little girl fights off an alleged kidnapper trying to abduct her and her little brother from South Philadelphia; 5/09—(:28) A cell phone camera captures a violent fight as five students pounce on one student inside the library at Chester High School; 5/10—(:19) Neighbors stop a man trying to steal donations from a Wilmington Church; (:22) Cab drivers plan to protest in front of the Philadelphia Parking Authority after the murder of a fellow driver; 5/12—(:09) Explosions and gunfire signal the end of a standoff that lasted three days in Trenton; 5/13—(:13) Philadelphia abortion doctor Kermit Gosnell is found guilty of numerous charges; 5/15—(:12) A 79-year-old Delaware county physician is facing charges after being accused of running a prescription pill mill out of his home; 5/16—(:21) Officials say Caleb Lawrence McGillvary, a drifter, a.k.a "Kai" is wanted for killing a New Jersey lawyer in Union County; 5/17—(:28) Authorities now say the suspect in a deadly 37-hour standoff in Trenton, New Jersey used a fake gun; 5/18—(:10) Richard Decoatsworth a former hero cop within the Philadelphia Police force is charged with rape, sexual assault, and other crimes; 5/19 —(:07) Residents are outraged in Montgomery County after vandals target more than a dozen cars overnight; 5/24—(:19) A York County, Pennsylvania couple is behind bars after an argument over a popular reality show that led to a stabbing; 5/25—(:13) A woman is found dead in the bathroom of a powerful Philadelphia attorney in Rittenhouse Square; 5/27—(:26) In Montgomery County, authorities are investigating an arson in a church parking lot in Glenside; 5/28—(:22) Two suspects burglarized the Valley Green Inn in Fairmount Park; 5/31—(:07) Cars this morning are found with slashed tires and scratched paint in South Philadelphia; 06/03—(:10) The search is on for a serial rapist who has attacked four women on the streets of Germantown, including a 12 year old girl; 06/04—(:14) A 15-year-old girl is allegedly raped by a classmate inside a Montgomery County high school; (:18) Prosecutors charge two former Philadelphia Police officers with robbing alleged drug dealers; 6/05—(:35) Philadelphia police have a person of interest in custody in connection with the Germantown rape investigation; 06/11— (:07), Multiple bomb threats forced students and faculty from campus at Princeton University; 06/19—(:24), A fight between neighbors led to a triple shooting in North Philadelphia; 06/20—(:25), A man is caught on surveillance video using bolt cutters to break into a toll collection machine on the Atlantic City Expressway; 06/22—(:06), The SPCA has removed over two dozen animals from a breeder in Northeast Philadelphia due to unsanitary conditions; 06/25—(:07), A former Temple football player and current member of the Baltimore Ravens was robbed and carjacked in Philadelphia; 06/26—(:29), A man was assaulted by three other men in the back of a SEPTA bus traveling on Broad Street.

CULTURE - Topics in this category include reports on the Dad Vail Regatta along the Schuylkill River and the Atlantic City Air Show in New Jersey.

Eyewitness News: 4/1—(:14), The Kimmel Center for the Performing Arts is center stage for the Philadelphia International Festival of the Arts; 4/2—(:17), SEPTA turned Suburban Station into a virtual library today as part of National Library Week; 4/3—(:15), The Rolling Stones are embarking on their biggest tour in six years, including a stop in Philadelphia; 4/4—(:20), Phillies fans are gearing up for tomorrow's home opener; 4/9—(:21), A cross country bicycle tour to raise money for young deaf children makes a stop at Citizens Bank Park; 4/15—(:22), West Philly native Kevin Hart is calling his arrest on DUI charges a wakeup call after a near disaster; 4/17—(:18), Members of our areas Irish Communities joined together for the St. Patrick's Day Parade Award Ceremony; 4/24—(:26), The Philadelphia Ad Club honored three outstanding achievers in the communications industry during a special luncheon today; 4/25—(:25), Tonight was The 2013 Franklin Institute Awards honoring outstanding achievement in business, science, and technology; 4/26—(:24), In Willow Grove today, Walter Czerviski, a World War II Vet finally received his medals for his service; 5/1—(:19), The Barnes Foundation clears a gallery to welcome the giant sculptures of the soon to be 90 year old, Ellsworth Kelly; 5/3—(:22), South Street culinary fixture Lorenzo and Sons pizza in Philadelphia re-opened today after it was destroyed by a fire last year; (:28), James Gardner was the first person in line on opening day of the Franklin Institute January 1st, 1934 and today he donated his ticket back to the science museum; 5/5—(:23), It's the Burger Brawl in Queen Village where each year the city's top chefs compete to see who has the best patty in town; (:12), Thousands of runners hit the Philadelphia pavement in today's 34th Annual Broad Street Run; 5/6—(:21), Britain's Prince Harry is headed to the U.S. and he'll visit some shore towns hard hit by Hurricane Sandy; 5/9— (:28), Former First Lady Laura Bush received Padua Academy's 2013 Women of Achievement Award; 5/10— (:17), It's a big weekend for college rowing fans as the Dad Vail Regatta takes place along the Schuylkill River; (:21), The Art Institute of Philadelphia held their annual Student Designers Fashion Show; 5/13—(:15), Thousands showed up at the Philadelphia Art Museum to support the 23rd Annual Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure; 5/14—(:28), The Jersey Shore is still buzzing about the visit from Prince Harry today; 5/15—(:27), Phillies players stepped out for the 6th Annual Utley All-Star Animals Casino Night to support the Philadelphia SPCA; 5/17— (:19), One of Philadelphia's most well-known restaurants Le Bec Fin is closing next month; (:20), It was Irish Heritage Celebration Night at Citizens Bank Park as young Celtic dancers took over the ball park and entertained the crowd before the Phillies game; 5/18—(:23), The Annual Walk Now for Autism Speaks fundraiser stepped off in Mount Laurel, NJ this morning; 5/23— (:15), The Devon Horse Show and Country Fair begins this morning; 5/26—(:16), A parade, led by the Woodbury American Legion Post Marching Band, kicked off the festivities at the Deptford Township Veterans Memorial Park; 5/30—(:16) Jersey Shore Point Wildwood wants to issue a new dress code for the boardwalk which would ask visitors to pull up their pants, put on a shirt, and wear a pair of shoes; 6/03—(:20) This year's Marian Anderson Award will go to Motown music legend Berry Gordy; 6/07—(:26) Members of the Philadelphia Orchestra played their instruments on a plane after facing a 7-hour delay to China; 6/10—(:10) The Main Line is in the spotlight as the top golfers in the world are at Merion Golf Club for the U.S. open; (:21) The 1968 Exhibit opens at the National Constitution Center in Philadelphia; 6/11—(:08), The Navy Yard hosted the Eighth Annual Great Chefs Event; 6/20—(:16), Comedian Tina Fey posed for a photo at the Cape May County Zoo yesterday; (:26), The Red Hot Chili Pepper's lead singer Anthony Kiedis got into a scuffle with a security guard who tried to block him from entering the Four Seasons Hotel where he was a guest; 6/26—(:20), The Atlantic City Air show draws a big crowd to the beach and boardwalk; 6/27—(:26), West Chester based QVC has now dropped Paula Deen for her racist comments; 6/28—(:19), Former Secretary of State Hillary Clinton will receive the 2013 Liberty Medal in Philadelphia; (:22), This weekend is the 150th Anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg; 6/29—(:16), The Annual Super Scooper All-You-Can-Eat Ice Cream festival was held on Philadelphia's Penn's Landing today.

ELDERLY - Topics in this category include reports on elderly woman recovering after she was carjacked and an Alzheimer's patient missing from a care facility is found alive.

Eyewitness News: 4/1—(:06), An elderly woman is recovering after she was carjacked following Easter breakfast at a South Jersey diner; 6/16—(:14) An Alzheimer's patient reported missing from a care facility in Burlington Township, New Jersey has been found alive.

ENVIRONMENT - Topics in this category include reports on a number of black bear sightings in our region and a fuel spill that prompted evacuations and road closures in Chester County.

Eyewitness News: 4/9—(:17), South Philadelphia High School began an online fundraising campaign to turn their campus green; 4/13—(:04), Philly's 6th Annual Spring Cleanup took place today city-wide; 4/14—(:23), For the second year in a row, the Philadelphia Phillies partnered with the Pennsylvania Horticultural Society and Tree Philly in their effort to plant one million trees – fans were given the opportunity to pick up free trees from Citizens Bank Park; 4/22—(:16) Philadelphia Eagles team owner Christina Laurie was joined by Lincoln Financial Group volunteers to plant trees and flowers for Earth Day surrounding the sports complex; 4/24—(:24) According to the American Lung Association's State of the Air report, the Philadelphia, Camden and Vineland region cut year round particle pollution; 5/02—(:18) A house in Ocean City, New Jersey was swept into Barnegat Bay; 5/17—(:17), Today is bike to work day in the city of Philadelphia and thousands of riders are expected to participate; 5/20—(:06) A black bear is on the loose in Bucks County; 5/22—(:14) New Jersey Governor Chris Christie cut the ribbon on Belmar's newly rebuilt boardwalk; 5/27—(:20) A black bear has been spotted this time in Burlington County; 5/29—(:23) Another black bear sighting reported in Maple Shade, New Jersey; 6/07—(:09) Flooding from the remnants of tropical storm Andrea leads to evacuations in Chester, Delaware County; 6/17—(:26), Victims of Hurricane Sandy have been in a holding pattern waiting for FEMA to release updated flood maps; 6/22—(:17), A fuel spill prompts evacuations and road closures in Malvern, Chester County; 6/24—(:15), A lightning strike sends one person to the hospital as severe weather moves through our area.

GOVERNMENT - Topics in this category include reports on the Philadelphia School District budget crisis and the possible expansion of Medicaid to thousands of low-income Pennsylvanians.

Eyewitness News: 4/1—(:10), A new assessment program is raising taxes for many Philadelphia property owners, today residents fired back and filed appeals; 4/2—(:22), Pennsylvania Governor Tom Corbett is expected to meet with Health and Human Secretary Kathleen Sebelius in Washington to discuss possible expansion of Medicaid to provide health care to hundreds of thousands of low-income Pennsylvanians; (:25), Delaware Senator Tom Carper is the latest Democrat to come out in support of gay marriage; (:15), Homeland Security Secretary Janet Napolitano visits Drexel University; 4/4—(:22), Philadelphia Mayor Michael Nutter has vetoed a bill that would have required Philadelphia businesses to offer paid sick leave to workers; 4/8—(:14), Delaware Attorney General Beau Biden and a bi-partisan group of lawmakers are unveiling measures today to strengthen penalties for people who commit crimes with guns; (:34), Democratic Congresswoman Allyson Schwartz filed paperwork to run for Pennsylvania Governor in 2014; 4/17—(:20), Delaware's lawmakers are ready to debate whether to legalize same-sex marriage; 4/18—(:21), New Jersey officials say they'll put forth a plan in a few weeks to buy flood prone homes from owners who want to sell; 4/22—(:20), Federal officials delay a policy that would have allowed passengers to carry small knives, bats, and other sports equipment onto airliners; 4/24—(:15), The battle between the City of Philadelphia and the Firefighters Union continued today at a City Council budget hearing; 4/29—(:25), The Superintendent of Philadelphia Schools goes to City Council for more money, warning about the severity of pending budget cuts; 5/1—(:18), The Camden County Police Department's Metro Division became fully operational today; 5/2—(:21), Governor Chris Christie has signed the Overdose Protection Act into law in New Jersey; 5/7—(:09), It's an historic night in Delaware as the first state legalizes same-sex marriage; 5/8—(:15), Delaware Governor Jack Markell has signed into law, new legislation expanding gun background checks; (:25), Philadelphia's recent property re-assessments are less accurate than the figures currently being used, according to a new study; 5/9—(:15), Mayor Michael Nutter is backing the plan to give more money to Philadelphia public schools; 5/14—(:22), The NTSB voted today to lower the legal blood alcohol limit to point-zero-five down from the current point-zero-eight across all 50 states; 5/16—(:21), Funeral services were held today for former Pennsylvania Governor George Leader; 5/17—(:18), New Jersey Governor Chris Christie is offering buyouts to homeowners with frequent flooding problems; 5/21—(:22), The IRS targeting of conservative groups leads to a protest in New Jersey; (:17), It is Primary Day in Pennsylvania and there's still time for residents to get out and cast their vote; 5/22—(:18), Unionized city workers fighting for new contracts protest Philadelphia Mayor Michael Nutter at the US Conference of Mayors meeting in Center City; 5/24—(:26), The White House says the President will join New Jersey Governor Chris Christie Tuesday for a firsthand look at the Sandy recovery effort; 5/24—(:09), Gun owners rally in center city to protest Philadelphia Mayor Michael Nutter's signing of an ordinance, that prohibits carrying firearms in city parks and recreation facilities; 5/27—(:17), Back in Philadelphia, families and friends gathered on Penn's Landing to remember those lost in the Korean War; 5/31—(:10), Pennsylvania Governor Tom Corbett spoke exclusively with Eyewitness News about the Philadelphia schools budget crisis; 6/3—(:13), Democratic Senator Frank Lautenberg passed away at age 89 after serving nearly 3 decades in the Senate in 2 stints; 6/4—(:06), New Jersey Governor Chris Christie picks the date for a special election to replace Senator Frank Lautenberg; (:11), It's Primary Day in New Jersey; 6/6—(:18), A judge throws out Governor Tom Corbett's lawsuit against the NCAA; (:20), Governor Chris Christie appointed Republican Jeff Chiesa as interim Senator from New Jersey; 6/7—(:16), Thousands of layoff notices are going out to employees in the Philadelphia School District; 6/8—(:08), Newark Mayor Cory Booker announced his candidacy for United States Senate today; 6/12—(:14), Philadelphia City Council considers an increase to the drink tax; 6/18—(:22), Vice President Joe Biden is once again pressing for gun control as he hosts an event today at the White House; (:22), The Philadelphia Housing Authority plans to increase the tax rolls and put more of its unused properties on the auction block; 6/20—(:22), Philadelphia's Traffic Court is no more; 6/25—(:20), Former President Bill Clinton visits Philadelphia today; (:22), Lawmakers will take a fresh look at the Philadelphia school budget crisis in Harrisburg tomorrow; 6/27—(:26), Senate just passed a new immigration bill; 6/30—(:12), The main Pennsylvania State Budget Bill was just signed by Governor Tom Corbett.

HEALTH - Topics in this category include reports on a drop in HPV infections among female teens and how eating egg whites may help lower high blood pressure.

Eyewitness News: 4/1—(:07), Smokers trying to kick the habit can stay on Nicotine replacement treatments longer than previously recommended; 4/2—(:23), A new study finds that people who suffer from asthma are likely to have allergies too; 4/4—(:26), Penn Medicine is notifying some patients that they may have received heart stents that they did not need; 4/5—(:13), A federal judge lifted age restrictions on the over-the-counter sales of the morning after pill, making it available to anyone; 4/8—(:23), Researchers say that a compound called carnitine in red meat, energy drinks, and weight loss treatments can lead to heart disease, heart attack, stroke or death; 4/10—(:13), A new study indicates that eating egg whites may help lower high blood pressure; (:14), Right now, the pollen count measures in at very high across the region; 4/11—(:23), Rice imported from certain countries could pose health risks, because a report showed high levels of lead; 4/12—(:17), Research suggests that light exercise is just as effective when it comes to alleviating muscle soreness compared to massages; 4/15—(:24), A study of nearly 300 premature infants shows that live music helps them eat, sleep and become more comfortable in their surroundings; 4/17—(:18), New research suggests light drinking during pregnancy may not be harmful to the child later in life; 4/19—(:25) New research shows that younger women are still getting mammograms, even though a federal task force recommends differently; (:15) Citizens Bank Park is the nation's first autism-friendly stadium; 4/23—(:21) A new study says a marijuana pill may work a little better than smoking it for relieving pain; 4/25—(:06) Researchers believe they have found a way to determine a child's risk of autism at birth; 4/26—(:25) A new study shows poor parenting, including overprotection, increases a child's risk of being bullied; 5/02—(:21) According to a new report from the Centers for Disease Control, parents are reporting more skin and food allergies in their children; 5/03—(:27) The FDA plans to complete a long awaited safety study on whether antibacterial soap products really work; 5/07—(:20) The FDA wants all tanning beds to include a warning about the risk of skin cancer; 5/08—(:18) A new study says moms who eat junk food during pregnancy can pass those cravings on to their children; 5/10—(:22) The American Heart Association says that owning a pet seems to be linked to a reduced risk of heart disease; 5/20—(:26) A consumer group recommends sunscreen with an SPF between 30 and 50 that protects against both UVA and UVB rays; 5/24—(:19) Police are cracking down on the problem of buying and selling prescription drugs without a doctor; 5/27— (:26) According to a new study in the International Journal of Obesity, children born by cesarean are more likely to be overweight; 6/03—(:25) A new study done by the University of Pennsylvania shows that drug shortages are affecting seriously ill cancer patients; 6/05—(:28) Prescriptions of the once top-selling diabetes drug, Avandia plummeted after studies suggested it could raise the risk of a heart attack; 6/10—(:23) A new study finds that children's recovery time grows longer with repeat head injuries; 6/11—(:16), The Children's Hospital of Philadelphia is celebrating a number one ranking; (:06), Delaware County is warning the public about the dangers of the powerful prescription painkiller fentanyl; 6/20—(:28), The American Medical Association is now recognizing obesity as a disease; (:22), A new study shows a 56 percent drop in HPV infections among female teens; (:13), A new study from Columbia University Medical Center says one in four people who survive a stroke suffer symptoms of post-traumatic stress disorder within the first year; 6/28—(:07), A new study done in Philadelphia suggests staying up late can lead to weight gain.

MINORITY/ETHNIC - Topics in this category include reports on the settlement of a racial discrimination lawsuit by a popular clothing retailer and a historical marker commemorating the South Philadelphia Hebrew Association.

Eyewitness News: 4/14—(:23), A historical marker was unveiled in Center City, commemorating the South Philadelphia Hebrew Association, which was a mostly-Jewish team that played in the 1930s and 40s and is considered to have played an important role in helping make basketball a professional sport; 5/04—(:19) The daughter of Cuban President Raul Castro – and niece of Fidel Castro – is in Philadelphia for the Equality Forum to accept an award from the LGBT advocacy community; 5/09—(:27) Clothing retailer Wet Seal settles a racial discrimination lawsuit to the tune of 7.5 million dollars; 05/24—(:12) Openly gay young people will now be allowed to join the Boy Scouts; 6/14—(:17) A South Jersey school board member resigns after being accused of making anti-Semitic comments.

PUBLIC HEALTH & SAFETY - Topics in this category include reports on an increase in security for Philadelphia's Broad Street run and first responders save the life of a man struggling in a Delaware County Creek

Eyewitness News: 4/2—(:17), SEPTA commuters shouldn't have any problems this morning after crew's fixed a train derailment; 4/3—(:21), Subaru is recalling about 200,000 Legacy and Outback models, their brake lines can rust and leak fluid when they're exposed to road salt; 4/4—(:26), The search is on for a missing boater off the coast of South Jersey; 4/9—(:17), SEPTA passengers were stuck on the Manayunk-Norristown route after telephone lines fell onto some power lines; 4/11—(:22), The Takata Corporation has issued a recall for their airbags, which led to Toyota recalling 1.73 million cars, Honda recalling 1.1 million cars, and Nissan recalling 130,000 cars; 4/12—(:26), Wegman's has recalled its store brand containers of organic apple juice and organic cranberry juice because it may contain unacceptable levels of a byproduct of mold; 4/13—(:09), Heavy smoke and flames pour from a Delaware County grocery store, forcing people from their homes; 4/15—(:04), An M-16 has gone missing from a locked vault at the Philadelphia Police Academy; 4/16—(:19), SEPTA and Amtrak are remaining vigilant following the Boston Marathon bombings, stepping up patrols and increasing sweeps of rail stations; 4/16—(:19), Philadelphia is increasing its security for next month's Broad Street Run – America's Largest Ten Mile Race; 4/20—(:06) Several people are recovering after a Bolt bus traveling from Philadelphia to New York runs off the interstate; 4/21—(:07) Police shut down the Visitor's Center this afternoon after reports of a suspicious person on the premises; 4/25—(:13) The Penn Relays are underway and are expected to have tighter security measures; 4/26—(:22) The search is on for a missing rescue boat captain from Egg Harbor Township; 5/2—(:26) A fiery accident on the PA Turnpike snarls traffic for miles and injures two drivers; 5/6—(:08) A scare at the campaign office of Pennsylvania State Representative Dwight Evans after a bottle with a suspicious liquid inside was thrown out a window of a passing vehicle; (:12) Philadelphia's Green Eggs Café is forced to close after a rodent infestation; 5/7—(:07), General Motors is recalling more than 38-thousand vehicles because of a battery problem that could stall the engine or cause a fire; 5/8—(:27) The westbound lanes of the Schuylkill Expressway were closed this morning at 30th Street after a tractor trailer jackknifed and split in half; 5/9—(:24), A Hazmat scare forces the evacuation of hundreds of students from a South Jersey high school; 5/13—(:23), The attorney general of New Jersey announces big plans to ensure the safety of motorists and pedestrians on busy Route 130; (:23), Chrysler is recalling nearly half a million Jeep SUV's worldwide; (:13), First responders save the life of a man struggling in a Delaware County Creek; 5/15—(:14), A baby in a stroller falls onto the tracks of the SEPTA Market-Frankford line but isn't seriously hurt; 5/18—(:04), A 13-year-old boy is killed while riding an ATV in Southwest Philadelphia; 5/21—(:17), A Delaware man is injured after a box of ammunition explodes in his arms; 5/28—(:23), Frightening moments for passengers after their tour bus catches fire on the New Jersey Turnpike; 6/01—(:08), A small plane crashes into power lines along a busy Bucks County roadway; 6/5—(:16), A building collapsed to the ground in the heart of center city Philadelphia killing six people; 6/11—(:04), The campus of Princeton University is back to normal tonight after a bomb scare; 6/12—(:05), An encounter with a great white shark was caught on tape in the waters off Atlantic City; 6/16—(:09), A Shop-Rite in the Port Richmond neighborhood of Philadelphia is recalling some of its beef; 6/20—(:16), Police are still trying to identify a male bicyclist in his mid-forties who ended up impaled on a Fairmount Park fence; (:12), A construction worker survives a 30 foot fall onto concrete in center city Philadelphia; 6/21—(:21), A New Jersey transit train and a truck collide in North Jersey; (:27), Reports of concrete falling from the Northeast Extension of the Pennsylvania Turnpike shut down part of a Montgomery County road; 6/22—(:05), Thousands of gallons of gasoline spill into a storm drain in Malvern, Chester County; 6/26—(:21), Some lakefront beaches in Medford are closed due to contamination.

RELIGION - Topics in this category include reports on a vigil to protest the closure of Philadelphia's oldest church serving the Latino community and hundreds gather to commemorate Holocaust Remembrance Day.

Eyewitness News: 4/7—(:14), Hundreds gathered on the Ben Franklin Parkway in Philadelphia to commemorate Yom Hashoah, Holocaust Remembrance Day; 5/2—(:20) Delaware County residents celebrate the National Day of Prayer at Rose Tree Park; 5/18—(:22) The Archdiocese of Philadelphia welcomed three new reverends this weekend; 6/9—(:09) A vigil is held to protest the closing of Philadelphia's oldest church serving the Latino community; 6/25—(:05), The cash strapped Archdiocese of Philadelphia is unloading more properties to help raise money; 6/30—(:10), Parishioners in Archdiocese of Philadelphia churches slated to merge, celebrate mass in their church for the last time.

WOMEN - Topics in this category include reports on a new study that finds working moms are the primary breadwinners in 40% of households and the first woman to retire from the Philadelphia Police department.

Eyewitness News: 5/17—(:20) Philadelphia Police inspector Jeanette Dooley becomes the first woman to retire from the department after working on the force for 40 years; 5/29—(:12) A new study finds working moms are now the primary bread-winners in 40 percent of households.

YOUTH - Topics in this category include reports on the rise in heroin use among young people living in suburban and rural areas and a children's exhibit reopens at the Philadelphia Zoo.

Eyewitness News: 4/2—(:13), Shocking video emerges of Rutgers University Basketball Coach Mike Rice and his treatment of players during team practices leading to his termination; 4/4—(:27), Rutgers University Assistant Coach Jimmy Martelli resigned from his position after video was shown of him also roughing and pushing players; 4/5—(:09), Rutgers University Athletic Director Tom Perneti offered his resignation to the President of the school; 4/9—(:08), The children's exhibit at the Philadelphia Zoo is re-opening after months of construction; 4/20—(:21) Piano students across the region are showing their support for Ronald McDonald House charities in a perform-a-thon competition this weekend; (:15) DuPont Children's Hospital hosted a Hollywood-themed prom for their young patient; 4/23—(:18) Parents protest a ban on strapless dresses for an 8th grade dance at a New Jersey middle school; (:19) Penn Wood High School temporarily relocates after an alleged arson shuts down their building; 4/26—(:21) According to a recent report from the National Drug Control Strategy, heroin use is on the rise among young people living in suburban and rural areas; 4/30—(:22) The administrative board in the Upper Darby School District announced it will not cut music and art programs to help close a more than nine million dollar budget deficit; 5/1—(:20) Roosevelt Elementary School in Allentown is the recipient of the 2013 National Community Schools Award for Excellence; 5/13—(:19) Today is graduation day at the University of Pennsylvania and the graduates will hear from two major speakers, one being Vice President Joe Biden; 5/19—(:05) LaSalle University students celebrated their commencement today; 5/27—(:08) Julie Hermann, the woman chosen to lead the Rutgers's University Athletic Department in the wake of an athlete abuse scandal is now accused of abusing athletes in her past history; 5/30—(:13) May is National Foster Care Awareness month and Philadelphia's Department of Human Services wants to get the word out about an urgent need for placement of children in our area; 6/12—(:20), A Delaware County girl is out of surgery at this hour following a controversial adult double lung transplant; 6/18— (:19), The art of some very talented youth takes center stage at the headquarters of the Philadelphia School District.