

KYW-TV 3 – PHILADELPHIA, PA
QUARTERLY ISSUES PROGRAMS LIST
CBS BROADCASTING, INC.

April 1 2020 – June 30, 2020

Attached are listings of broadcast segments, which in the station's judgment reflect KYW-TV3's most significant programming treatment of ascertained community issues.

PROGRAM INDEX

KYW-TV Eyewitness News – weekdays, 4:30am – 7:00am; 12 noon-12:30 p.m.; 4:00pm – 5:00pm; 5:00pm – 6:00pm; 6:00pm - 6:30pm; 11:00pm – 11:35pm; weekends, Saturday, 5:00am – 7:00am; 6:00pm –6:30pm; 11:00pm – 11:35pm; and Sundays, 6:00am – 9am; 6:30pm – 7:00pm and 11:00pm – 11:35pm, regularly scheduled news broadcasts focusing on current issues.

BUSINESS/ECONOMY/CONSUMER –

4/6- Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and Delaware are beginning to pay out a record number of COVID-19 unemployment claims; 4/7- Some of the country's largest grocery store chains are testing one-way aisles, as a way to help encourage social distancing during the coronavirus pandemic; 4/14- The influx of online shopping during the pandemic has overwhelmed Reading Terminal Market, so the service is temporarily suspended; 4/20- Curbside pickup is now available at a number of Wine and Spirits stores in Pennsylvania; 4/24- Stimulus checks have already started to go out to many families, but 84% say they need another one; 5/1- Walmart is expanding its delivery service to include nearly 1,000 stores; 5/5- Supermarkets have started planning for panic buyers due to the meat shortage caused by COVID-19; 5/7- Whenever Six Flags Great Adventure is allowed to reopen, visitors will have to make a reservation before showing up; 5/12- Stores in some states are reopening, but weeks of shutdowns saw a big jump in people shopping online; 5/21- Pennsylvania restaurants can now sell cocktails-to-go; 6/1- Many businesses hoping to survive weeks of COVID-19 closures, were set back even more after their properties were ransacked by crowds this weekend; 6/8- The National Bureau of Economic Research now says the United States is officially in a recession; 6/12- Starbucks has changed its policy, after telling employees that they cannot wear Black Lives Matter paraphernalia; 6/16- Longwood Gardens will reopen Thursday on a limited basis and only to members; 6/17- Eastern State Penitentiary announced the coronavirus pandemic has forced it to lay off approximately 40% of its staff.

CULTURE –

4/1- Wimbledon organizers have postponed the tennis tournament because of the corononavirus pandemic; 4/6- Carson Wentz's AO1 Foundation is donating $100,000 to help people in need during the COVID-19 crisis; 4/10- A tiger at the Bronx Zoo was recently diagnosed with COVID-19, raising concerns as to whether pets and other animals can transmit the virus; 4/17- Britain's

Royals are in lockdown like millions of other families around the world; 4/21- The Philadelphia Eagles are donating $1 million to the city for COVID-19 relief efforts; 5/3- A family in Sewell, New Jersey is putting on a nightly light show in honor of essential workers; 5/6- A 1,000 pound, 15-foot tall bronze giraffe sculpture moved in to its new home, the Children's Sculpture Zoo in Haddonfield, New Jersey; 5/11- Philly's own Kevin Hart and his wife, Eniko, announced they are going to have a baby girl; 5/14- For the first time in two decades, AAA will not issue a Memorial Day travel forecast; 5/15- The Phillies are teaming up with Philabundance for a virtual food drive; 6/3- New Orleans Saints Quarterback Drew Brees is apologizing over comments he made about players kneeling during the National Anthem; 6/8- Phillip Angus, from Boyertown, just set the record in the Guinness Book Of World Records for the largest mouth gape at a whopping three and three quarters inches; 6/12- Parks On Tap is back in Philadelphia for the summer season; 6/16- The Roots Picnic is going virtual this year, and former first lady, Michelle Obama will be the guest host; 6/17- The World Championship Punkin Chunkin has been called off, but organizers are working on plans to allow teams to continue to compete.

ENVIRONMENT –

4/9- Crews are monitoring a forest fire in South Jersey that has burned more than 250 acres so far; 4/13- In Mississippi, tornadoes claimed 11 lives, and hundreds of homes were damaged or destroyed; 4/14- Violent storms left a trail of damage in several areas, including Cape May County; 4/22- Philadelphia Mayor Jim Kenney is pushing back the effective date for a ban on single-use plastic bags due to the current pandemic; 4/29- Chester County government will continue operating essential services only until at least May 15th; 5/3- For the first time, Asian Giant Hornets, also known as Murder Hornets, have been spotted inside the United States; 5/7- Fire crews are battling a large wildfire along the Florida Panhandle; 5/19- Two men got stuck under a tree after the wind knocked it down in Bristol Borough, and firefighters had to cut the branches to reach the men; 5/25- Scientists have discovered a fiery, doughnut-shaped galaxy; 5/27- With the threat of thunderstorms in Florida, the launch of the Space-X Falcon Nine Rocket has been postponed; 6/8- Tropical storm Cristobel has weakened into a depression after hitting Louisiana and the Gulf Coast; 6/11- Just days after a bear was spotted in Delaware County, another one is on the prowl in Camden County; 6/18- The search for a bear wandering around South Jersey has now shifted to Washington Township; 6/22- Protesters from the group Philly Thrive marched to the site of the former Philadelphia Energy Solutions Refinery because they want the new owner of the refinery to combat what they call toxic polluting and environmental racism.

GOVERNMENT –

4/2- The Philadelphia Streets Department says it's behind on picking up trash and recycling, as sanitation workers have been calling out sick amid the coronavirus outbreak; 4/7- President Trump says he will look at freezing funding to the World Health Organization; 4/14- President Obama released a 12-minute long video, endorsing Joe Biden; 4/15- Massachusetts Senator Elizabeth Warren is the latest former Democratic presidential candidate to endorse Joe Biden; 4/20- CNN is citing an anonymous U.S. official who said Kim Jong Un was in "grave danger" after an unspecified surgery; 5/1- Joe Biden is denying that he sexually assaulted a senate staffer in 1993;

5/3- A CBS News poll shows Elizabeth Warren as Democrat's top pick for vice president; 5/5- Joe Biden is leading President Trump in Pennsylvania in a new Harper Poll; 5/8- Overall in New Jersey, the spread of COVID-19 is on the decline, along with hospitalizations; 5/14- The School District of Philadelphia is sending more than $350 in food aid for each child enrolled in public school and some charter schools; 5/22- Some counties in Pennsylvania are making progress against the virus and could see all of the restrictions lift in the coming days; 6/1- Presidential hopeful Joe Biden has vowed to address institutional racism in his first 100 days in office, if elected; 6/2- President Trump says the GOP has been forced to move the Republican National Convention out of Charlotte, North Carolina; 6/8- The executive committee of the Police Athletic League unanimously voted to change the name of the Rizzo PAL Center in Port Richmond to the 24th District PAL Center; 6/12- The Republican National Committee has chosen Jacksonville, Florida to hold this year's convention; 6/15- After weeks of protests over police brutality, lawmakers in Harrisburg are considering reform.

HEALTH –

4/1- Berks County will temporarily furlough at least 219 workers starting next week, and county commissioners said that number could rise to as many as 400 as the crisis continues; 4/7- With 898 confirmed cases of COVID-19, Delaware County has the fifth most confirmed cases in the state of Pennsylvania; 4/10- In Montgomery County, a temporary 40-bed facility has been set up for a possible surge of COVID-19 patients; 4/14- The city of Philadelphia is reporting 206 new deaths from COVID-19; 4/17- Officials say COVID-19 has peaked in North Jersey, but not in the central and southern portions of the state; 5/1- British researchers say they're one step closer to getting their coronavirus vaccine on the market; 5/3- Uber will require face coverings when using the platform in certain countries, including the United States; 5/6- The number of confirmed coronavirus cases in the United States is now above 1.2 million; 5/10- Vice President Pence says he will not enter self-quarantine, after his press secretary tested positive for COVID-19; 5/14- CVS is opening nine new self-swab drive-thru test sites in Pennsylvania; 6/2- The Food and Drug Administration plans to allow more companies to make hand sanitizer; 6/5- AstraZeneca says it's getting a head start on a possible vaccine for the coronavirus; 6/8- 12 people in Bucks County who attended Memorial Day parties at the Jersey Shore have tested positive for the coronavirus; 6/11- SEPTA is now offering free COVID-19 testing for its employees; 6/16- Tick season is here, and health officials are warning that some symptoms of lyme disease are similar to those of COVID-19.

PUBLIC SAFETY –

4/2- Philadelphia officials say people who violate the shelter-at-home order could be fined; 4/13- Two children were killed in a house fire in Philadelphia's Strawberry Mansion neighborhood; 4/22- A teenage bicyclist died after he was hit by a vehicle transport truck in Gloucester County; 4/23- The Fire Marshal is investigating the cause of this two-alarm fire that ripped through a hair salon in Camden, New Jersey; 4/28- Rehoboth Beach is temporarily removing benches across the city to slow the spread of COVID-19; 5/1- A fire broke out in a row home in North Philadelphia at 3:00 AM, and the cause of the fire is under investigation; 5/3- A vacant house in North Philadelphia collapsed, and flying debris injured a woman who was walking by; 5/6- A London-based designer has come up with a socially-distant picnic blanket to help people adapt; 5/7-

Members of the Coast Guard rescued two people after a fishing vessel ran aground off of the New Jersey coast; 5/13- The Wawa Welcome America Festival will be completely virtual this year; 5/17- 12 firefighters are recovering after they were hurt in an explosion and fire in Los Angeles; 6/2- About 50 young people peacefully marched down 52nd Street, one of the areas hit hardest by violence over the weekend; 6/5- Starting Monday, SEPTA riders will be required to wear a face covering; 6/8- The majority of City Council members in Minneapolis have promised to dismantle the city's Police Department and replace it with a new system of public safety; 6/12- A section of the Wildwood Boardwalk is finally back open after getting damaged during a storm; 6/15- Demonstrations against police brutality continue nationwide after officers in Atlanta shot and killed a man outside a Wendy's.