

KYW-TV 3 – PHILADELPHIA, PA
QUARTERLY ISSUES PROGRAMS LIST
CBS BROADCASTING, INC.

January 1, 2020– March 31, 2020

Attached are listings of broadcast segments, which in the station’s judgment reflect KYW-TV3’s most significant programming treatment of ascertained community issues.

PROGRAM INDEX

KYW-TV Eyewitness News – weekdays, 4:30am – 7:00am; 12 noon-12:30pm; 4:00pm – 5:00pm; 5:00pm – 6:00pm; 6:00pm - 6:30pm; 11:00pm – 11:35pm; weekends, Saturday, 5:00am – 7:00am; 6:00pm –6:30pm; 11:00pm – 11:35pm; and Sundays, 6:00am – 9am; 6:30pm – 7:00pm and 11:00pm – 11:35pm, regularly scheduled news broadcasts focusing on current issues.

BUSINESS/ECONOMY/CONSUMER –

1/3 - A group of Delta Air Lines employees says uniforms provided by Lands' End made them sick, and now they're taking the company to court; 1/11- Wawa just opened its smallest shop in Philadelphia at 16th and Ranstead Streets; 1/15- In the past, doctors and lawyers were thought to have the best jobs, but a new survey by Glassdoor finds that half of the top 20 jobs in America are related to technology; 1/20- Thousands of strollers sold at Target and Amazon are being recalled; 1/23- Amazon Prime is now offering its grocery delivery service, Amazon Fresh, for free to Prime members in cities worldwide; 2/3- Early numbers from Atlantic City casinos and New Jersey race tracks show people bet more than $54 million on the Super Bowl; 2/9- Infantino is recalling 14,000 of its baby carriers because of safety concerns; 2/16- Philadelphia’s brand new e-sports team, Philadelphia Fusion, hosted its first-ever home match at The Met; 2/24- A new web app, Making Authentic Friendships, is making it easier for people with special needs to make a new connection and find friends in their city; 2/27- Because of coronavirus fears, stocks are having the worst week since the financial crisis in 2008; 3/2- Another protest is planned in South Philadelphia to keep the nation’s first supervised injection site out of the city; 3/5- Dunkin Donuts is running a special promotion, “Free Donut Friday,” exclusively for D.D. Perks members for the month of March; 3/10- The Palm has abruptly closed its Center City location; 3/22- Governor Phil Murphy has ordered everyone in the Garden State to stay home and has closed all non-essential retailers; 3/26- Nationally, the number of Americans filing for unemployment surged to 3.28 million last week.

CULTURE –

1/1- A group of West Virginia cadets, who appeared in a group photo performing an alleged Nazi salute, have been terminated; 1/8- In a stunning move, Britain’s Prince Harry and his wife, Meghan, have decided to take a step back as senior members of the Royal Family; 1/14- Bruce Springsteen’s son, Sam, has been sworn in as a Jersey City firefighter; 1/22- Items from Frank Sinatra's Chairman Suite in Atlantic City are on the auction block; 1/28- Notable Philadelphia landmarks such as the Ben Franklin Bridge, the Wells Fargo Center, and Boathouse Row were illuminated in purple to honor the late Kobe Bryant; 2/2- All 77 commercial spots for Super Bowl LIV sold out in record time, despite massive price tags at nearly $5.6 million dollars for 30 seconds of air time; 2/5- Preparations are already underway for the Penn Relays at Franklin Field; 2/9- Richard Fox, the namesake of Temple University's Fox School of Business has died; 2/15- In Gloucester County, dozens of couples signed up for a Valentine's night group wedding hosted by an Elvis Presley impersonator; 2/22- Hundreds of people took a frigid plunge into the ocean in North Wildwood to honor fallen police heroes; 3/1- The Flower Show is underway at the Pennsylvania Convention Center; 3/5- Taylor Swift is donating $1 million to help with tornado recovery in Tennessee; 3/16- The Academy of Country Music Awards, scheduled for April 5th in Las Vegas, is now postponed; 3/24- Joel Embiid is donating half a million dollars to the COVID-19 relief effort; 3/27- To stay connected to their students, the School of Pennsylvania Ballet is now teaching students virtually.

ENVIRONMENT –

1/3- As deadly wildfires continue to spread, one of the largest evacuations in Australia's history is underway; 1/7- Two dozen people have been arrested in Australia for allegedly setting wildfires; 1/12- A volcano near the capital of the Philippines erupted, forcing residents to evacuate; 1/14- In Puerto Rico, thousands of people remain in shelters after a series of earthquakes; 1/28- A powerful 7.7 magnitude earthquake struck the Caribbean, between Jamaica and Cuba; 2/2- New concerns about asbestos is forcing Philadelphia's Francis Hopkinson School to close; 2/6- Astronaut Christina Koch is back on earth after nearly a year in orbit on the International Space Station; 2/11- Torrential rains are finally putting out Australia's wildfires, after months of deadly devastation; 2/14- Activists and neighbors are claiming victory now that the sale of the Philadelphia Energy Solutions Refinery is complete; 2/16- Hundreds are evacuating as Jackson, Mississippi is bracing for potentially catastrophic flooding; 3/3- Indonesia's most active volcano is erupting, spewing sand and gas into the air; 3/3- The death toll from the tornadoes in Tennessee just climbed to at least 25 people; 3/4- In Radnor, PA, authorities found a dead alligator gar fish and are warning people not to ditch their pets in parks; 3/9- People can see a special Supermoon known as a Worm Moon tonight.

GOVERNMENT –

1/1- Recreational marijuana officially became legal today in Illinois, making it the eleventh U.S. state to legalize it; 1/6- Tensions continue to escalate between the U.S. and Iran over the killing of a top Iranian general; 1/13- New Jersey lawmakers passed a ban on flavored vaping products; 1/21- As Puerto Rico recovers from recent earthquakes, Governor Phil Murphy is sending New Jersey State Troopers to help with the recovery efforts; 1/30- Philadelphia will now be known as the City of Sisterly Love, at least until the end of 2020; 2/3- Vice President Mike Pence will be in Philadelphia to recognize School Choice Week; 2/9- Pennsylvania Governor Tom Wolf has proposed a debt relief plan for students as part of his 2020 budget address; 2/11- President Trump wants to put astronauts back on the moon by 2024, and his administration is seeking billions of dollars to get it done; 2/18- Former Illinois Governor Rod Blagojevich is out of prison tonight, after President Trump commuted his 14-year sentence; 2/26- President Trump is on his way home after wrapping up his official state visit to India; 3/1- Tom Steyer has backed out of the presidential race; 3/5- The New Jersey Senate has passed a bill to ban single-use plastics; 3/11- Presidential hopeful Bernie Sanders is opening a campaign office in Philadelphia; 3/12- SEPTA unveiled a new fare structure, which includes the end of the dollar transfer charge for key card users; 3/25- Senate and White House negotiators have reached a deal on a COVID-19 rescue package.

HEALTH –

1/1- A mother in Iowa is warning people about a face mask after she says her step-daughter was burned by the popular, beauty product; 1/6- Federal health officials are warning that the influenza virus is active in most of the country, and at least 2,900 people have died; 1/14- The main strain of flu that's circulating doesn't exactly match what's in this year's flu shot; 1/20- A dangerous virus, coronavirus, is spreading rapidly in China and U.S. officials are worried it will come here; 1/24- There are now two confirmed cases of coronavirus in the Chicago area; 2/2- The coronavirus continues to spread in places all over the world; 2/6- Health officials say there are now more than 28,000 confirmed cases of coronavirus, and the death toll has surpassed 500 worldwide; 2/12- Mercy Hospital in West Philadelphia is planning to close its inpatient facility; 2/20- A middle school student in Hamilton Township, New Jersey has been diagnosed with mumps; 2/26- The number of confirmed coronavirus cases in the United States has now risen to 60; 3/1- The coronavirus outbreak in Italy is forcing Temple University to close its campus in Rome; 3/4- State health officials in Delaware are investigating a mumps outbreak; 3/10- Officials announced the first New Jersey death related to the coronavirus outbreak; 3/16- Italy remains on lockdown to prevent the spread of COVID-19, and a local couple from Montgomery County is stuck there; 3/22- When it comes to critical care supplies, health care workers are reporting severe shortages.

PUBLIC SAFETY –

1/1- Investigators in Florida are trying to figure out how a road sign ended up flying through the rear window of a Corvette; 1/6- A 12-year-old girl is in the hospital after she was hit by another vehicle while crossing the street to get on her school bus; 1/11- Delaware County still has not identified the source of strange odors that come and go seemingly at random; 1/17- An avalanche at a ski resort near Lake Tahoe has killed one person and seriously injured another; 1/22- A local father says Gritty, the beloved mascot of the Philadelphia Flyers, assaulted his son during a meet and greet; 2/2- A woman has been rushed to the hospital after police say she was stabbed multiple times in Bethlehem; 2/6- Officials say two rail workers were killed and at least 27 others injured when a high-speed train went off the rails in Italy; 2/15- The cause of a fire that killed 15 children at an orphanage in Haiti is still not clear; 2/18- Following a crash that injured a 12-year-old girl, Bensalem Police are cracking down on drivers who pass stopped school buses; 2/23- A Pennsylvania dog mom is happy to have her poodle back, after it was snatched by a hawk and carried off; 3/1- An anonymous tip has led to a new search for Dulce Alavez in Ohio; 3/6- Investigators are searching for the cause of this building fire in Chinatown; 3/18- For the time being, non-violent criminals who are arrested in Philadelphia will not be immediately processed; 3/24- Gun sales are soaring across the Delaware Valley during the pandemic; 3/30- The growing coronavirus numbers have prompted President Trump to extend federal social distancing guidelines through the end of April.