

KYW-TV 3 – PHILADELPHIA, PA
QUARTERLY ISSUES PROGRAMS LIST
CBS BROADCASTING, INC.

January 1, 2013 – March 31, 2013

Attached are listings of broadcast segments, which in the station's judgment reflect KYW-TV3's most significant programming treatment of ascertained community issues.

PROGRAM INDEX

KYW-TV Eyewitness News – weekdays, 4:30am – 7:00am; 12noon – 12:30pm; 5:00pm – 6:00pm; 6:00 - 6:30pm; 11:00pm – 11:30pm; weekends, Saturday, 6:00am – 7:00am; 6:30pm – 7:00pm; 11:00pm – 11:30pm; and Sundays, 6:00am – 8:30am; 6:00pm – 6:30pm and 11:00pm – 11:30pm, regularly scheduled news broadcasts focusing on the latest current issues.

Eyewitness Newsmakers – A rotation of KYW-TV News Anchors provide an approximately 10-minute segment, including newsmaker interviews, which air during each Sunday morning newscast. Segments address current events on local and national fronts. The segments air in the 8:00am broadcast.

Talk Philly – weekdays, 12:00pm – 12:30pm; regularly scheduled lifestyle magazine program looking at a variety of topics that make the Philadelphia area so special. Hosted by Pat Ciarrocchi and Ukee Washington.

BUSINESS/ECONOMY/CONSUMER - Topics in this category include reports the US Treasury Department will stop sending social security checks through the mail and Atlantic City's Revel casino will file for Chapter 11 bankruptcy protection next month.

Eyewitness News: 1/2—(:22), Car rental company AVIS to buy the popular urban car-sharing service Zipcar for $500 million; (:21), Starbucks is rolling out a one dollar reusable plastic cup at its stores; 1/3—(:17), The IRS is reviewing the impact the last minute fiscal cliff deal will have on this year's filings; 1/4—(:25), PNC Bank is apologizing to customers who may have trouble logging in to online and mobile banking services; 1/9—(:23), Amazon is bringing hundreds of new jobs to our area; (:20), Apple is reportedly trying to take a bite out of its competitors sales by offering a cheaper iPhone; (:16), On March 1st, the US Treasury Department will stop sending social security checks through the mail, recipients will have to switch to electronic payments, either direct deposit or a debit card; 1/10—(:19), Time is running out for homeowners dealing with Hurricane Sandy to ask for a reduction in property taxes; (:22), Claims for unemployment benefits rose during the first week of 2013; 1/18—(:21), American Airlines is giving its planes a makeover; 1/23—(:19), Two men are suing Subway claiming that the foot-long sandwiches are too short; 1/24—(:19), Six Flags Great Adventure in Jackson, NJ has four thousand jobs to fill at the amusement park this summer; 1/29—(:13), Cracker Barrel plans to sell some of its food products at a grocery store near you; (:12), The Blackberry is looking to regain customers with big changes to its design; 2/6—(:28), Letter carriers will have a lighter load on Saturdays, the cash strapped US Postal Service is cutting first class mail deliveries; 2/7—(:19), Insiders say bankrupt American Airlines is close to a deal to merge with US Airways; 2/12—(:22), At one Atlantic City hotel, guests will soon be able to gamble without ever having to leave the room; 2/13—(:24), Tonight were getting a better look at how property tax bills will change when Philadelphia moves to its new property assessment system next year; 2/18—(:16), Readers Digest is filing for bankruptcy; 2/19—(:12), Atlantic City's Revel casino will file for Chapter 11 bankruptcy protection next month; 2/21—(:11), Office Depot is buying Office Max for 1.2 billion dollars in stock; 2/26—(:19), Beer lovers file a lawsuit against Anheuser-Busch claiming the beer giant is watering down popular brands like Budweiser and Michelob; 3/1—(:25), The PA Convention Center is getting ready for a British Invasion, the theme for the 2013 Flower Show; 3/7—(:16), Mortgage delinquencies in Pennsylvania and New Jersey are on the rise; 3/13—(:22), Hostess Brands has announced a buyout from two firms Apollo Global Management and Metropoulos & Company; 3/14—(:26), Cash fare for trips on SEPTA buses, subways, and trolleys will go up from two dollars to two twenty-five on July 1st of this year and then two fifty next year; 3/18—(:05), Astra-Zeneca says it's shedding 1,200 jobs from its headquarters in Wilmington; 3/19—(:09), A house panel is approving a new amended bill that would end the state liquor store system in Pennsylvania; 3/20—(:16), Carnival Cruise Lines is cancelling another ten cruises on the troubled "Triumph," the ship will not be ready until June; 3/21—(:26), A popular pair of yoga pants made by Lu-Lu Lemon is being recalled after the material was determined to be too revealing; 3/22—(:15), Philadelphia is looking to hit the jackpot this weekend with March Madness games set to get underway at the Wells Fargo Center; 3/25—(:06), One Powerball ticket worth $338 million dollars was sold in New Jersey; 3/26—(:21), The public is getting its first chance to voice their opinion on where Philadelphia's second casino should be located; 3/27—(:23), A public hearing was held on amending a zoning ordinance to allow a super Wawa to be built in Montgomery County, PA; 3/28—(:08), A new $100 million dollar contract for Lockheed Martin means job security for scores of workers at the Moorestown based defense contractor.

CRIME - Topics in this category include reports on a huge marijuana bust at the Franklin Mills Mall in Northeast Philadelphia and a man held on one million dollars bail after sneaking into the cockpit of a US Airways jet at Philadelphia International Airport.

Eyewitness News: 1/2—(:11), New details on just how many illegal weapons are flooding Philadelphia streets; (:05), A judge sentences a South Jersey man to 50 years in prison for killing a former star softball player; 1/4—(:36), A Trenton man has been charged in an alleged plot to kidnap, torture, cook and eat at least 100 women; 1/4—(:20), Prosecutors charge Berlin township police chief Joseph Jackson with harassing a civilian female employee in the department; 1/5—(:06), A reward is increasing in the case of a woman slashed across the face during a violent robbery in South Philadelphia; 1/5—(:21), A car slams into a Camden County pizza shop and then the driver runs away; 1/7—(:22), Philadelphia police say a witness in a murder case was beaten to death and they are looking for his attackers; 1/8—(:18), Police hope video on YouTube can help them catch who's responsible for a brawl at the Cherry Hill Mall; (:25), Anger and frustration in West Philadelphia and now a ten thousand dollar reward to find the vandals who are slashing dozens of tires there; (:19), A man who climbed the roller coaster damaged during Superstorm Sandy and hung an American flag said he wanted to raise awareness for shore recovery; 1/9—(:09), Police arrest the man they say slashed a south Philadelphia woman's face leaving her with more than 100 stitches; (:27), Police have questioned an NBA player in connection with an alleged rape at an upscale center city Philadelphia hotel; (:18), A scare in West Philadelphia today when a suspicious device was found on a car in Wynnfield Heights; (:21), The son of former Philadelphia Police Commissioner Sylvester Johnson is wanted in connection with a housing scam; 1/10—(:13), The search for a reported gunman forces the lockdown of a school in Montgomery County; (:07), A metal detector nabs a woman trying to bring a loaded gun into South Philadelphia High School; 1/11—(:19), A huge marijuana bust at the Franklin Mills Mall in Northeast Philadelphia; 1/14—(:25), An amber alert for a little girl taken right from the classroom of her West Philadelphia school along with surveillance footage that shows the abduction; 1/15—(:30), A terrifying night for a Buck's County woman who was carjacked and forced to find money to feed her attackers' heroin habit; 1/17—(:13), SEPTA surveillance video shows a woman being beaten and thrown on the subway tracks by a man as she was sitting waiting for her train; 1/18—(:05), A text message threat forces the closure of Mainland Regional High School in Atlantic County; (:13), A manhunt continues for two masked suspects in a deadly home invasion that has rocked a normally quiet Bucks County community; 1/22—(:25), Police in Chester County release surveillance photos as they search for the man who stole cookie money from some Girl Scouts; 1/23—(:14), The search is on for a cold-blooded killer who strangled and set fire to a center city pediatrician in her home; 1/23—(:18), A substitute teacher in the Lehigh Valley is charged with sexually assaulting a 9 year old student; 1/24—(:19), Authorities in Medford have charged a man with illegally making moonshine; 1/26—(:04), A man is under arrest after he threatened to blow up the Liberty Bell; 1/28—(:14), A 39 year old bartender has been missing for 3 days after she was last seen exiting the bar on her way home after her shift in New Hope; 1/30—(:19), Jerry Sandusky will not be getting a new trial as he had hoped; 1/31—(:25), Pennsylvania Governor Tom Corbett faces tough questions after his son-in-law becomes the focus of an investigation involving the FBI; 2/5—(:18), A legal victory for a reputed Philadelphia mob boss – Joseph Ligambi escapes racketeering charges; 2/6—(:16), Authorities in the Lehigh Valley say they have a serial rapist in custody; (:18), A Camden County teacher and soccer coach is indicted on 92 counts, police say he sexually abused 17 boys; (:07), Police shoot a man, wielding a knife in the middle of crowded SEPTA station; 2/8—(:16), Officers raid a Cobbs Creek home as part of their investigation into the Bryant Elementary school abduction of a little girl; 2/11—(:06), A deadly shooting rampage at a courthouse in Wilmington, with three dead and two injured; 2/12—(:27), Tonight a Delaware County woman is charged with killing her husband a former University of Pennsylvania basketball star; 2/14—(:19), A woman is under arrest after a seven year old boy brought a loaded gun to his North Philadelphia elementary school – she is one of his mother’s friends; 2/20—(:14), Police at Parx Casino arrest a man wanted for a massive chip heist who is accused of stealing $55,000 worth of chips; 2/21—(:19), The search is on for a serial arsonist targeting homes under construction in Wilmington; 2/23—(:21), The search is on for a gunman who shot three people in the parking lot of a firehouse in Trenton; 2/27—(:24), 25 arrests were made in a sweeping child pornography bust in New Jersey known as Operation Ever Vigilant; (:26), Miss Delaware Teen USA gave up her crown after an adult video surfaced; 2/28—(:06), Two men from Cobbs Creek are charged in the shooting death of a community leader, one of the suspects is the victim’s cousin; 3/4—(:32), A suburban Philadelphia sixth-grader is taken off life support after a schoolyard fight left him in a coma; 3/5—(:15), A Cherry Hill East High School Spanish teacher is accused of exposing himself to a child at the Wal-Mart on Route 38 in New Jersey; (:16), A couple takes police on a wild ride through two states, stealing not one but two police cruisers, injuring a Camden police officer, hitting a pedestrian, and slamming into several vehicles while racing through the streets of Philadelphia; 3/6—(:17), The teenager accused of snatching a girl from her West Philadelphia school is expected in court today; (:16), Police say someone set a fire yesterday inside a dorm that is still under construction on Temple University’s campus, this is the sixth fire at Morgan Hall in less than a month; 3/7—(:13), A search is on for the person responsible for the suspicious device and threatening note addressed to the mayor at Lawnside Borough Hall in Camden County; (:24), Police are investigating a home invasion at a group home for the disabled in East Greenwich, New Jersey; 3/8—(:25), Officials say that some of the suspicious devices found in a storage center in Malvern were active pipe bombs; (:27), One current and one former Philadelphia police officer have been arrested and charged in connection with a loan-sharking scheme; 3/11—(:19), A 17-year-old student is in custody after triggering the metal detector inside De LaSalle in Towne School in center city, he had a 22-caliber gun on him and charges will be filed; (:23), Police hope surveillance video will lead them to the duo wanted for robbing three pharmacies in South Philadelphia; (:34), A South Philadelphia man has been indicted in what may be the city’s first mob-linked hit in a decade; 3/12—(:26), A lawyer for Jerry Sandusky filed a new appeal to his child sex abuse conviction; (:17), Prosecutors charge a school principal in Delaware County with possessing child pornography; 3/14—(:18), A Gloucester Township father is now facing charges after he’s accused of kidnapping his own daughter from her daycare; (:21), One person is under arrest after police found pipe bombs and other weapons inside a Kensington home; 3/16—(:27), The SWAT team is on the scene in Bucks County where a gunman has barricaded himself inside a Dick’s Sporting Goods Store in Falls Township; 3/21—(:10), Police release shocking details about the death of a jogger in Montgomery County, they say the teenage driver who hit the woman was texting while driving and had marijuana in his system; 3/22—(:16), A man is held on one million dollars bail after sneaking into the cockpit of a US Airways jet at Philadelphia International Airport; (:25), More than 700 guns are off the streets in Atlantic County where residents had the opportunity to turn in their guns, no questions asked; 3/22—(:06), Philadelphia Police are searching for a suspect who stabbed a veteran to death inside his West Philadelphia home; 3/23—(:21), Authorities are investigating an attempted armed bank robbery in Abington Township; 3/26—(:15), In the middle of a SEPTA subway station a baby is left behind in a stroller as two women walk away from it; 3/27—(:16), Police patrols increase in Lower Merion Township to search for burglars who have hit nearly a dozen homes in Montgomery County; 3/29—(:05), A Newark, Delaware man is charged with stealing thousands of dollars of Phillies tickets; 3/30—(:25), Authorities are investigating fights involving as many as 100 teenagers in Reading; 3/31—(:24), The search is on for an armed bank robber who used a pillowcase as a disguise in Upper Dublin.

CULTURE - Topics in this category include reports on a memorial service that marks the anniversary of the burials of Irish immigrants in Montgomery County and Maestro Peter Nero being honored at City Hall for his musical contributions to the city of Philadelphia.

Eyewitness News: 1/8—(:21), Actor Mark Walberg is in Philly for the big premiere of his new film Broken City; 1/10—(:24), New Jersey Governor Chris Christie is laughing off the controversy over the new cover of Time Magazine; 1/17—(:15), Chip Kelly, known for possessing strong leadership skills and one of the most innovative minds in football, was hired as the new head coach of the Philadelphia Eagles; (:19), A Boy Scout troop from Philadelphia will be taking part in the inauguration of President Obama; 1/23—(:18), A little girl battling a brain tumor had a dream come true in Norristown she recorded her own original song; 1/25—(:06), U.S. Congressman Robert Brady joins with the Manayunk Development Corporation to try and save the 2013 Bike Race; 1/28—(:24), Baby boomers are mourning the loss of Philly TV Pioneer Sally Starr; 1/31—(:23), Maestro Peter Nero was honored at City Hall today for his musical contributions to the city of Philadelphia; 2/4—(:17), South Jersey is Eagles country, but the fans in Audubon Camden County were rooting for the Ravens and their hometown hero – quarterback Joe Flacco; 2/13—(:22), A Valentine's Day sculpture made with New York and New Jersey boardwalk planks damaged by Superstorm Sandy is now on display; 2/14—(:23), It's official, Miss America is coming home, the pageant is returning to Atlantic City in September; 2/21—(:27), Imagine an Olympic village right here in the city of Philadelphia, there is a chance it could become a reality in 2024; 2/28—(:07), Philadelphia is one of the top places to grab a slice of pizza according to new rankings; 3/4—(:20), Philadelphia's Mutter Museum celebrated its 150th Birthday today with a ribbon cutting ceremony; 3/9—(:07), A memorial service marks the anniversary of the burials of Irish immigrants in Montgomery County; 3/12—(:11), Death threats against Philadelphia Eagles quarterback Michael Vick force him to sack his book tour; 3/15—(:19), The house Rocky and Adrian bought in the movie Rocky II is up for sale in South Philly; 3/16—(:14), After 17 years the Eagles have decided not to hold training camp at Lehigh University; 3/17—(:12), Bagpipes played at the 10th Annual Commemoration at the National Memorial Site at Penn's Landing, people were there to reflect and commemorate St. Patrick's Day; 3/18—(:23), The FBI says an unsolved, two-decade old $500 million art heist in Boston may have Philadelphia connections; 3/21—(:19), The LaSalle Explorers are in the second round of the NCAA Tournament, beating the Broncos of Boise State; (:22), Actor Tony Danza returns to Philadelphia today to host the Second Annual Teacher Versus Student Talent Show at Northeast High School; 3/22—(:22), TripAdvisor.com says Citizens Bank Park is the 6th Best Ball Park in the US; 3/23—(:03), Atlantic City's Steel Pier opens for the season on Saturday; 3/25—(:21), The LaSalle Explorer's have made it to the Sweet Sixteen in the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament; 3/31—(:18), One of the largest Easter egg hunts in the region was held at Gorgas Park in Roxborough, where 35,000 candy filled eggs were hidden.

ELDERLY - Topics in this category include reports on a patriot and decorated Vietnam Veteran honored by Collingswood High School and a suspect wanted in a terrifying home invasion that targeted an 81-year-old man in Burlington Township.

Eyewitness News: 1/4—(:21), A patriot and decorated Vietnam Veteran is honored by Collingswood High School; 1/5—(:07), The search is on for an elderly man with dementia who took off in his wife's car at Parx casino in Bensalem, Bucks County; 1/22—(:28), A 90 year old paraplegic is killed in a fire in Philadelphia's Hunting Park neighborhood; 2/22—(:22), A new study finds that social media can give older adults a brain boost; 3/2—(:22), A suspect is wanted in a terrifying home invasion that targeted an 81-year-old man in Burlington Township where the suspect had a revolver and forced his way into the home and tied the man to a chair.

ENVIRONMENT - Topics in this category include reports on how recycled Christmas trees are helping revitalize the Jersey Shore and why PECO turned off the lights on its building for one hour.

Eyewitness News: 1/7—(:16), Three Jersey Shore communities hit hardest by Hurricane Sandy – Seaside Heights, Toms River and Brick Township are letting residents finally head home for good today; 1/7—(:20), Recycled Christmas trees are helping revitalize the Jersey Shore and are being used to rebuild the many sand dunes that were destroyed by Superstorm Sandy in October; 1/25—(:31), Nearly 3 months after Sandy, parts of Island Beach State Park are now open to the public for free; 2/16—(:14), The Army Corps of Engineers has begun working to replenish the beach in Ocean City, New Jersey; 2/19—(:17), New Jersey Governor Chris Christie announced a major reconstruction project in the aftermath of Hurricane Sandy; 3/5—(:22), Sinkholes, dozens of them, are opening up under homes and businesses in Ortley Beach; 3/7—(:29), People living along the Jersey Shore are keeping an eye on rising water this morning after strong storms and heavy winds blew through the area; 3/23—(:12), PECO turned off the lights on its building for one hour to encourage customers to save energy.

GOVERNMENT - Topics in this category include reports on Philadelphia Mayor Michael Nutter heading to Washington to take part in a hearing on gun violence prevention and the Pennsylvania State House passing the Liquor Privatization Bill.

Eyewitness News: 1/1—(:09), In dramatic late night fashion, the Senate passes a bill that retroactively stops the nation from going over the fiscal cliff; (:17), At the stroke of midnight same sex marriage became legal in Maryland, that's the closest state yet to the Philadelphia area to legalize it; 1/2—(:13), Pennsylvania Governor Tom Corbett pushes back against the Penn State punishment; 1/4—(:12), Congress finally passed a bill to pay flood insurance claims resulting from Hurricane Sandy; 1/6—(:06), Former Republican Senator Chuck Hagel is President Obama's first pick to be the next defense secretary; 1/8—(:26), Angry Philadelphia

Firefighters protest Mayor Michael Nutter as the city opens its first new fire station in years; 1/9—(:23), President Obama is expected to nominate his White House Chief of Staff Jack Lew to be the next U.S Treasury Secretary; 1/10—(:24), Gun rights activists make their case today to Vice President Joe Biden at the White House; 1/14—(:30), Delaware Governor Jack Markell is focusing on gun safety; 1/16—(:21), Philadelphia Mayor Michael Nutter heads to Washington today to take part in a hearing on preventing gun violence; 1/17—(:32), President Obama is pushing law makers to change the countries gun laws after the school shooting in Connecticut; 1/19—(:05), The city of Philadelphia is mourning the death of former City Councilwoman Happy Fernandez; 1/21—(:13), Hundreds of thousands of people are in the nations' capital tonight to celebrate the inauguration of President Obama and Vice President Joe Biden; 1/22—(:18), Today marks the 40th anniversary of the landmark supreme court ruling Roe. V. Wade, legalizing abortion in the United States; 1/23—(:17), Pennsylvania Governor Tom Corbett makes a major budget announcement; (:11), A historic announcement from the Pentagon is expected tomorrow which will lift the ban on women in combat; 1/25—(:25), Vice President Biden will lead a round table discussion today on gun control; 1/28—(:21), New Jersey Governor Chris Christie vetoed a bill that would have upped the states' minimum wage by $1.25 per hour; 1/29—(:18), Philadelphia Police Commissioner Charles Ramsey is calling for effective gun legislation; 1/30—(:28), Pennsylvania Governor Tom Corbett unveils his plan to privatize liquor sales; 2/1—(:21), A ticket fixing scandal has nine Philadelphia Court traffic judges in trouble with the law; (:22), Hilary Clinton has resigned her position as Americas 67th secretary of state; 2/5—(:07), New Jersey Senator Robert Menendez speaks out for the first time since being accused of frequenting prostitutes overseas; 2/8—(:21), Pennsylvania is closing a loophole that allowed residents to apply by mail and obtain concealed carry gun permits from the state of Florida; 2/11—(:22), Vice President Biden heads to Girard College in Philadelphia this morning to host a round table discussion on gun control; 2/12—(:24), The United Nations will hold an emergency meeting this morning to respond to North Korea testing a nuclear bomb; 2/14—(:19), Pennsylvania Attorney General Kathleen Kane is rejecting Governor Tom Corbett's contract to hire a British firm to manage the $3.5 billion Pennsylvania Lottery; 2/26—(:14), New Jersey Governor Chris Christie says he will sign a bill legalizing internet gambling in New Jersey; 2/27—(:20), Philadelphia Mayor Michael Nutter testified in favor of a new federal ban on assault weapons in front of the Senate Judiciary Committee; 2/27—(:29), President Obama and Congressional leaders unveiled a 9-foot bronze statue of Rosa Parks in the Capitol's Statuary Hall; 2/28—(:19), Local anti-violence groups are praising Pennsylvania Governor Tom Corbett for proposing more funding for rape crisis centers; (:16), The USO opened its largest Warrior and Family Center this week in Virginia steps away from the Garrison's Hospital and Warrior Transition; 3/1—(:44), President Barack Obama says there was no way he could avoid urging the Supreme Court to overturn California's ban on gay marriage; 3/2—(:07), The first Straw Poll for the 2014 Gubernatorial Race was conducted today at the Pennsylvania Progressive Summit in Harrisburg; 3/5—(:13), Paid sick leave for private sector workers is once again front and center before Philadelphia City Council; 3/7—(:25), The United Nations Security Council voted unanimously to impose tougher sanctions on North Korea after leaders there threatened to launch a pre-emptive nuclear strike against our country; (:22), Mayor Michael Nutter signed an executive order establishing the Office of Immigrant and Multi-Cultural Affairs; 3/11—(:19), Fans have started a Facebook page to preserve Philadelphia Police Headquarters, a 1960's architectural landmark; (:15), Officials today unveiled a 4-stage plan to reduce congestion on Interstate 295, Interstate 76, and Route 42; 3/12—(:20), NJ Governor Chris Chrisite is on the defensive after payout delays for a Superstorm Sandy Relief Fund run by his wife; (:19), Vice President Joe Biden will deliver the Commencement Address at the University of Penn's commencement in May; 3/14—(:16), City Council members passed the controversial paid sick leave bill, which requires local companies to offer one hour of sick leave for every 40 hours worked; (:11), Control tower cuts are landing at three airports in our region including Trenton-Mercer; 3/19—(:09), Today marks the 10th Anniversary of the Iraq War, and a new research poll says 44% of Americans now think that the original decision for the US led invasion was wrong; 3/20—(:18), The Senate passes a budget bill to fund the government through the end of September, which prevents a partial government shutdown but leaves in place the automatic spending cuts known as the Sequester; 3/22—(:28), The Pennsylvania State House passes the Liquor Privatization Bill; 3/25—(:23), The Supreme Court will hear two historic cases this week, one hearing a challenge to California's ban on same-sex marriage, and another taking up the Defense of Marriage Act; 3/26—(:14), High tech speed traps could be on their way to the Delaware Valley; 3/27—(:12), Parking has been free on Wednesday evenings in Center City since the mid 90s, but you won't find any signs advertising it and the meters will take your money if you pay; 3/28—(:27), The Philadelphia School District says it may have to cut more positions to close a projected 304-million dollar budget deficit.

HEALTH - Topics in this category include reports on a new study that shows no link between autism and early childhood vaccines and the flu outbreak reaching epidemic proportions.

Eyewitness News: 1/3—(:22), A new study suggests that it is safe for women to get breast lift and augmentation at the same time; 1/7—(:19), New research gives hope to cancer patients with a new type of cell that eats away at cancer cells; 1/8—(:22), A new study links diet drinks to depression; 1/9—(:14), The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention says 41 states are reporting widespread cases of the flu and it's expected to get worse; 1/11—(:07), The flu outbreak reaches epidemic proportions; 1/14—(:07), New research shows that woman can cut short their risk of heart attack just by eating more strawberries and blueberries; 1/18—(:22), The FDA approves a new flu vaccine that does not contain eggs or the influenza virus for people ages 18-49; 1/21—(:17), The FDA has approved Botox to treat overactive bladder; 1/22—(:22), More and more children are being diagnosed with ADHD everyday; 1/24—(:23), A nasty new strain of the Norovirus is spreading across the country; 1/29—(:22), There may be new life for Viagra as a weight loss drug; (:20), Researchers at the Baylor College of Medicine in Texas are working on the first birth control for men; 2/7—(:20), A new study finds that marijuana use may double the risk of stroke in young adults; 2/13—(:24), Women who take too much calcium might be at risk for cardiovascular disease; 2/18—(:27), A new study shows that hip replacements are more likely to fail in women than in men; 2/20—(:24), A new study shows that adults 65 and older who learned to use Facebook performed 25% better on memory exercises than their counterparts; 2/26—(:22), The number of young women diagnosed with advanced breast cancer is on the rise; 2/27—(:18), A new study finds children with food allergies tend to be shorter and weigh less than other kids; 3/1—(:10), Researchers have been taking a closer look at the chemical BPA to investigate links to possible health problems, and found that it may increase the chances of childhood asthma; 3/5—(:21), A new poll by the National Sleep Foundation shows people who exercise a few hours before bed get the best sleep; 3/12—(:10), The FDA is out with a warning regarding azithromycin, known as the Z-pack, which can cause a potentially fatal heart problem; 3/14—(:20), Researchers in Boston found that Vitamin D supplements can lower blood pressure in African Americans; 3/18—(:12), Research suggests that mammograms done on a yearly basis for older women may not be necessary; 3/19—(:22), A new report reveals one in three seniors in the US dies with Alzheimer's disease or another form of dementia; 3/20—(:23), New statistics reveal that one in 50 school children in the US has autism; 3/27—(:24), Scientists have found dozens of new cancer genes that increase a person's risk for breast, ovarian and prostate cancer; 3/30—(:22), A new study shows no link between autism and early childhood vaccines.

MINORITY/ETHNIC - Topics in this category include reports on a Black History Month Celebration at St. Christopher's Hospital and the Boy Scouts of America rethinking a controversial policy.

Eyewitness News: 1/21—(:18), The Presidential Inauguration coincided with the Martin Luther King Junior holiday; 1/28—(:06), The Boy Scouts of America is rethinking a controversial policy. It may lift its ban on gays and lesbians; 2/22—(:18), Philadelphia District Attorney Seth Williams helps celebrate Black History Month at St. Christopher's Hospital; 2/27—(:31), Rosa Parks was remembered at the US Capitol, where President Obama and congressional leaders unveiled a statue of Parks in Statuary Hall; 3/4—(:12), A lesson about slavery during Black History Month goes awry in Salem County. At issue are two posters, apparently made by a special needs middle school student. The posters depict wanted posters for a runaway slave.

PUBLIC HEALTH & SAFETY - Topics in this category include reports on the evacuation of a Delaware County school following a gas odor and tips from SEPTA Police Officers who are urging commuters to keep phones and other electronics safe in light of recent thefts.

Eyewitness News: 1/3—(:20), Subaru is recalling more than 600 thousand cars and SUVs; 1/4—(:20), The Camden City Council approves a plan to lay off the cities entire 270 officer police department; 1/8—(:22), The North Penn School district is considering armed guards at its schools; 1/9—(:20), Parents and students met to talk about school violence in Radnor; 1/11—(:29), The Straw Purchase Gun Bill is now law in Pennsylvania and is a tribute to a fallen officer; 1/14—(:16), Federal investigators are heading to the scene of a fatal plane crash in Kent County; 1/16—(:17), A train has struck and killed a pedestrian in North Philadelphia; 1/24—(:16), A passenger pulls a gun on a SEPTA bus driver; 1/30—(:19), A Delaware County school was briefly evacuated today following a gas odor; (:21), Whole Foods is recalling salmon in New Jersey because it may be contaminated with Listeria; 2/4—(:36), A group of Bucks County students are recuperating at home this morning after surviving a frightening bus crash in Boston Saturday night; 2/7—(:19), PECO crews are dealing with a cable, burning underground in the Queen Village neighborhood of South Philadelphia; 2/12—(:16), Police think fog played a role in a crash in Berks County; 2/12—(:13), 10 people are treated after being exposed to chemicals on the Villanova University campus; 2/18—(:08), A school bus with students aboard goes off the road in Mercer County; 2/19—(:20), BMW is recalling more than half a million cars this morning; 2/26—(:16), A bomb threat forces an evacuation of the New Castle County Courthouse; 3/1—(:19), SEPTA Police Officers are handing out flyers with tips to keep phones and other electronics safe due to growing thefts; 3/4—(:18), A fire forced the Oxford Valley Mall to be evacuated this morning; 3/5—(:19); Starting April 25th you'll be allowed to take small pocket knives and other banned sports equipment onto planes, flight attendants call the changes dangerous; 3/6—(:18), One person is dead after being struck by an Amtrak train in Croydon, Bucks County; (:17), Firefighters found a mattress and trash burning in between two buildings, which forced a Philadelphia center city high-rise to evacuate; 3/8—(:20), The bomb squad is called after the discovery of what the FBI is calling suspicious devices and components at the Public Storage Facility on Lancaster Avenue in East Whiteland, Chester County; (:14), Ford is recalling almost 200 thousand minivans this morning; 3/11—(:15), A runway trailer caused trouble as a plane bound for LA pushed from the gate resulting in an accident on the tarmac, involving a plane full of passengers, at the Philadelphia International Airport; 3/12—(:18), About 20 people are back in their homes after a gas leak forces them out of their South Jersey apartment complex in Galloway Township, NJ; 3/14—(:24), Honda is recalling 250,000 cars worldwide because the brakes can suddenly kick in even when the driver isn't braking; 3/19—(:20), A gas leak has forced the evacuation of 14 homes in Quakertown; 3/20—(:16), Police are looking for the vandals who are throwing rocks at cars in Southampton, Bucks County; 3/25—(:05), Crews were called to the Philadelphia Navy yard for a train derailment; 3/28—(:08), A man fell off a SEPTA platform, and a good Samaritan jumped to his rescue and pulled him from the tracks; 3/31—(:04), A small plane crashes on takeoff, killing the pilot in Lancaster County.

RELIGION - Topics in this category include reports on the election of Pope Francis and the Vatican's confirmation of the dates when Philadelphia will host the next World Meeting of Families.

Eyewitness News: 1/1—(:19), Thousands of people gathered in Vatican City yesterday for New Year's mass; 1/28—(:18), Today marks the beginning of Catholic School's Week in Philadelphia; 1/29—(:04), Jury deliberations continue in the church sex abuse trial in Philadelphia; 2/11—(:15), Today, Pope Benedict the 16th announced he is stepping down because of health concerns; 2/12—(:24), The Diocese of Camden is officially under new leadership tonight, Bishop Dennis Sullivan was installed as the eighth bishop of Camden; 2/13—(:24), Pope Benedict the 16th celebrates his final public mass as Pontiff; 2/25—(:27), Catholics around the world are waiting for the church to announce the start of the conclave – the election process to elect the next Pope; (:28), The Vatican has confirmed the dates when Philadelphia will host the next World Meeting of Families set for September 22nd-27th 2015; 2/26—(:22), Catholics around the world are preparing for an event not seen in 600 years, for the first time in modern history a Pope is about to resign; 3/2—(:15), The Roman Catholic Church has entered a rare phrase, waiting to see who will be appointed the 226th Pope; 3/5—(:08), The Sistine Chapel is now closed as the Vatican prepares to elect a new Pope, but not all of the Cardinals who will vote have arrived in Rome yet; 3/8—(:15), Roman Catholic Cardinals have decided the conclave to elect a new Pope will begin on Tuesday; 3/9—(:19), The Diocese of Trenton announce that the St. Mary School in Bordentown will shut its doors at the end of the school year after 150 years; 3/13—(:20), The new leader of the Roman Catholic Church Pope Francis greets his faithful; 3/14—(:20), The election of Pope Francis, the first Jesuit Pope, has created notable excitement at Jesuit institutions; 3/15—(:24), Pope Francis celebrated his first mass as Pontiff today; 3/17—(:05), The Jewish holiday of Passover starts next week; 3/19—(:07), Pope Francis officially started his reign as leader of the Catholic Church today, he was installed in a ceremony in St. Peter's Square; 3/24—(:16), Palm Sunday was celebrated at the African Episcopal Church of Saint Thomas in Overbrook, the observance began with an outdoor blessing and distribution of palms, followed by an outdoor community procession; 3/25—(:07), An estimated 250,000 people packed St. Peter's square to hear Pope Francis celebrate his first Palm Sunday mass as Pontiff; 3/28—(:22), Today is Holy Thursday, when the faithful commemorate the last supper of Jesus Christ; 3/29—(:06), Christians all over the world are marking Good Friday, the day they believe Jesus was crucified and died on the cross; 3/30—(:22), Pope Francis presided over his first Easter Vigil as the Head of the Roman Catholic Church; 3/31—(:18), In Philadelphia, Archbishop Charles Chaput presided over tonight's Easter Vigil Mass.

WOMEN - Topics in this category include reports on the first female Mayor of Moorestown, New Jersey and the Philadelphia Branch of the NAACP celebration of Women's History Month by honoring influential black women in our area.

Eyewitness News: 1/7—(:25), Tonight, Stacy Jordan took the oath of office –becoming the first female Mayor of Moorestown, New Jersey; 2/12—(:26), A local woman will be honored by President Obama Friday with the 2012 Presidential Citizens Medal, the nation's 2nd highest civilian honor, Patience Lehrman is an immigrant from Cameroon who is the national director of Project Shine at Temple University; 3/25—(:07), The Philadelphia Branch of the NAACP celebrates Women's History Month by honoring 104 influential black women from the Philadelphia area.

YOUTH - Topics in this category include reports on a Philadelphia student being named the first youth poet laureate and a new study which shows that most teens don't know about Pennsylvania's tough new driving laws and neither do their parents.

Eyewitness News: 1/7—(:20), School District of Philadelphia Superintendent William Hite presents his action plan to improve city schools; 1/8—(:06), A new study shows that most teens don't know about Pennsylvania's tough new driving laws and neither do their parents; 1/14—(:21), A Philadelphia student is named the first youth poet laureate; 1/26—(:06), Philadelphia middle school students interested in becoming engineers present their ideas for better city living at the Future Cities competition; 3/9—(:07), A group of rescued LaSalle University students are heading home today, they got lost while hiking on the Appalachian Mountains; 3/16—(:19), The Philadelphia based non-profit, Fairy Godmothers, hosted its second of three prom fairs for the season at the Cheltenham Mall; 3/21—(:18), Philadelphia's Please Touch Museum has launched a big campaign to raise funds called Legacy of Play.