

KYW-TV 3 – PHILADELPHIA, PA
QUARTERLY ISSUES PROGRAMS LIST
CBS BROADCASTING, INC.

October 1, 2014 – December 31, 2014

Attached are listings of broadcast segments, which in the station's judgment reflect KYW-TV3's most significant programming treatment of ascertained community issues.

PROGRAM INDEX

KYW-TV Eyewitness News – weekdays, 4:30am – 7:00am; 12noon – 12:30pm; 5:00pm – 6:00pm; 6:00 - 6:30pm; 11:00pm – 11:30pm; weekends, Saturday, 6:00am – 7:00am; 6:30pm –7:00pm; 11:00pm – 11:30pm; and Sundays, 6:00am – 8:30am; 6:00pm – 6:30pm and 11:00pm – 11:30pm, regularly scheduled news broadcasts focusing on the latest current issues.

Eyewitness Newsmakers – A rotation of KYW-TV News Anchors provide an approximately 10-minute segment, including newsmaker interviews, which air during each Sunday morning newscast. Segments address current events on local and national fronts. The segments air in the 8:00am broadcast.

Talk Philly – weekdays, 12:00pm – 12:30pm; regularly scheduled lifestyle magazine program looking at a variety of topics that make the Philadelphia area so special. Hosted by Pat Ciarrocchi and Ukee Washington.

BUSINESS/ECONOMY/CONSUMER - Topics in this category include reports on a new contract for SEPTA union transit workers and Atlantic City's economic woes mount with the closure of more casinos.

Eyewitness News – 10/1 –(:21) A Canadian Firm and a Florida Developer are in a bidding war to buy the former Revel Casino in Atlantic City; 10/2 –(:19) Brookfield US Holdings out of Toronto submitted the winning bid of $110 million dollars during a bankruptcy court auction for Revel Casino; 10/3 –(:16) JP Morgan Chase is reeling today from one of the largest data breaches in American history; 10/3 –(:18) Rittenhouse Square is on a new list of some of the priciest places to live in the country; 10/6 –(:23) Donald and Ivanka Trump are still pressing a lawsuit against Trump Entertainment to have their name stripped from the Trump Taj Mahal Casino and the company itself; 10/7 –(:07) A Federal Bankruptcy Judge has approved the sale of Atlantic City's Revel Casino to an Asset Management Firm from Toronto; 10/8 –(:31) Local executive of Remington Financial Group, Matthew McManus, was sentenced to 16 years in prison after running the Philadelphia offices that scammed hundreds of people out of millions of dollars; 10/8 –(:20) Members of the main casino workers' union in Atlantic City will protest efforts to get rid of employee pensions and healthcare at the Taj Mahal; 10/9 –(:23) Red Bull has settled a 13 million dollar false advertising lawsuit and is offering customers the option of choosing either a ten dollar reimbursement or fifteen dollars' worth of Red Bull products; 10/10 –(:21) More than a year after a massive fire destroyed Dietz and Watson's Warehouse in Delanco, the company breaks ground today on a new warehouse in Philadelphia; 10/10 –(:21) Dairy Queen says hackers may have stolen customers' credit and debit card numbers; 10/10 –(:21) Kmart says an undisclosed number of credit card numbers were stolen during a month-long data breach of its payment system; 10/13 –(:16) SEPTA has reached a tentative contract agreement with the engineers that operate its regional rail service which includes a pay raise after five years of negotiations; 10/13 –(:16) Some people are selling their frequent flyer miles or credit card points and making hundreds, even thousands of dollars; 10/15 –(:19) A new controversy in Chester County is heating up after some question whether or not alcohol should be served at the same place where kids are playing sports, like the United Sports Training Center in West Bradford Township; 10/17 –(:25) A bankruptcy court judge voids a big contract with Atlantic City's Trump Taj Mahal which will allow them to stay open; 10/17 –(:21) Representatives from more than 60 companies came together for a career fair in Gloucester County; 10/20 –(:24) Today, Apple launched Apple Pay which allows you to pay with your phone instead of your wallet; 10/22 –(:14) Staples confirms it's investigating a possible credit card data breach at some of its stores; 10/22 –(:23) Trump Entertainment says it will keep the Taj Mahal Casino in Atlantic City open through November; 10/23 –(:20) Century 21 opens tomorrow for C21 Status Members in center city Philadelphia; 10/24 –(:14) Some grocery stores in Philadelphia will start selling beer; 10/24 –(:22) Union members protested the court-ordered termination of their health insurance and pension plans outside the Taj Mahal Casino in Atlantic City; 10/24 –(:19) SEPTA's largest union will hold a strike authorization vote on Sunday; 10/24 –(:22) A federal judge temporarily put a halt today to legalized sports betting in New Jersey; 10/27 –(:22) Leadership from the Philadelphia's Transit Workers Union is holding a news conference to discuss its on-going negotiations with SEPTA; 10/27 –(:34) Philadelphia City Council has decided not to go along with the Mayor's plan to sell PGW; 10/27 –(:17) The Transport Workers Union Local 234 outlines their plans to walk off the job if a deal can't be reached; 10/28 -(23) Philadelphia Mayor Michael Nutter will be on hand for a ribbon-cutting at Century 21 in center city today; 10/31 -(20) Starbucks just announced that it will start delivering food and drinks in some cities next year; 10/31 -(25) SEPTA and its largest union get to the bargaining table at noon with a potential strike looming; 11/3 -(26) Workers from the Trump Taj Mahal Casino want Atlantic City's Mayor to reconsider a decision that could force the casino to close; 11/7 -(19) Home Depot now says hackers not only stole credit card numbers but also the email addresses of about 53 million customers; 11/7 -(17) The parent company of Bottom Dollar Food has sold its 66 locations to Aldi and will shut down at the end of the year; 11/7 -(22) Members of the Transport Workers Union Local 234 overwhelmingly approve a two year contract with SEPTA; 11/7 -(17) After just eight months, United Airlines is ending service from Atlantic City International Airport; 11/14 -(18) Uber is gaining popularity around Pennsylvania but its more affordable version, Uber X, is facing a fierce fight in Philadelphia where it's been called illegal; 11/18 -(19) Officials with the King of Prussia Mall will unveil plans for a major expansion project which will include an additional 155 thousand square feet; 11/18 -(17) Pennsylvania Gaming Regulators award Philadelphia's second casino license in South Philly; 11/19 -(21) Casino Union Workers will march and rally to protest plans to close the Trump Taj Mahal in Atlantic City; 11/19 -(19) Activists have scheduled a rally today to raise the minimum wage to fifteen dollars an hour; 11/19 -(39) A Canadian firm is abandoning its plan to buy the former Revel Casino Hotel in Atlantic City; 11/19 -(15) Some workers are getting ready to walk off the job at Philadelphia International Airport because they are demanding higher wages; 11/21 -(26) A new trend in dining opened in Philadelphia tonight, Fishtown BYOB Girard restaurant has a no tipping policy since the employees are on salary and receive paid benefits; 12/1 -(26) An estimated 127 million shoppers head online to grab Cyber Monday deals; 12/1 -(21) For the first time in nearly 100 years, the Girl Scouts are going digital offering the option to purchase cookies online; 12/8 -(27) The Philadelphia Parking Authority says payment problems at their kiosks have been resolved; 12/12 -(19) The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey bought the former Showboat casino in Atlantic City for $18 million dollars and plans to convert the property into a new campus; 12/19 -(24) The Taj Mahal casino in Atlantic City will remain open, a billionaire investor is providing additional financing while bankruptcy proceedings play out.

CULTURE – Topics in this category include reports on this year's recipient of the Marian Anderson Award and the Philadelphia Orchestra rings in the holiday season with their annual Christmas concert.

Eyewitness News -10/1 -(18) Reading Terminal Market in Philadelphia has just been named one of the ten great public spaces in America by the American Planning Association; 10/3 -(21) Noah the Bald Eagle from the Elmwood Park Zoo in Norristown will be appearing at all the Eagles games at Lincoln Financial Field; 10/3 -(21) Philadelphia Mayor Michael Nutter cut the ribbon on the boardwalk, which is the newest addition to the Schuylkill River Park; 10/7 -(14) South Philadelphia's Bobby Rydell needs help looking for his music after a suitcase with thousands of dollars' worth of his musical arrangements fell out of his wife's car; 10/10 -(19) Nature lovers turned out for a night of food and entertainment at the historic Strawberry Mansion Music Pavilion, and money raised from the event will go to the Fairmount Park Conservancy; 10/10 -(20) Eakins Oval on the Ben Franklin Parkway transformed into a fairground for a three-day fair; 10/10 –(:30) Travel and Leisure Magazine just ranked Philadelphia second for best historical sites thanks to iconic landmarks like Independence Hall and the Liberty Bell; 10/14 –(:18) Boyz to Men performed a concert at their alma mater, CAPA today; 10/15 –(:31) The New Jersey chapter of the American Planning Association recognized Haddonfield as a great place; 10/15 –(:18) Real Estate website Zillow ranks Philadelphia the fourth best city to collect candy on Halloween; 10/22 –(:20) Chester Community Charter School rolls out the red carpet for their first ever Night of the Arts event on the east campus where dozens of students and their families participated in a variety of art and music activities; 10/23 –(:19) CBS News Correspondent Bill Whitaker helped celebrate the 70th Anniversary of the Media Fellowship House; 10/24 –(:24) The remains of famed athlete Jim Thorpe will remain in the Pennsylvania town that now bears his name after a Federal Appeals Court has thrown out a ruling that could have resulted in the moving of his remains to Native American Land in Oklahoma; 10/24 –(:29) The National Park Service says its team of museum experts and archaeologists determined the fire at the Flight 93 Memorial in Shanksville, PA destroyed hundreds of photos and several other items including a boarding pass, an airport parking pass, and passenger ID cards; 10/25 –(:15) LeSean McCoy and Eagles tight end Brent Celek handed out information about early detection in breast cancer from a food truck in Upper Darby today; 10/29 –(:26) Drexel Hospitality students make and jar cranberry sauce to help raise money for Project Home; 11/4 –(:26) The new movie Foxcatcher premiered tonight at Philadelphia's Prince Music Theater; 11/5 –(:21) Philadelphia RowHome Magazine presented its 2014 Blue Sapphire Awards at Vie in Spring Garden; 11/7 –(:19) The Sixers honored members of the military and their families during Stars and Stripes Night at the Wells Fargo Center by donating fifteen hundred tickets to active and retired service members so they could attend the game; 11/11 –(:27) A fundraising effort is underway at the Irish Pub in center city Philadelphia to erect a bronze statue in honor of Band of Brothers Edward 'Babe' Heffron; 11/18 –(:21) New Jersey Rocker Jon Bon Jovi will be honored tonight in Philadelphia for his humanitarian work and receive the prestigious Marian Anderson Award; 11/19 –(:31) Netflix is postponing their launch of Bill Cosby's new stand-up comedy special due to a growing number of allegations that the famed entertainer sexually assaulted women; 11/20 –(:22) Longwood Gardens was awarded the best restrooms in the country by Cintas which provides restroom cleaning and supplies; 11/21 –(:18) Santa threw the switch on the Grand Illumination celebration holiday lights display at Peddler's Village in Buck's County tonight; 11/23 –(:21) The Philadelphia Marathon is underway all across parts of the city this morning; 11/26 –(:18) The Unity Community Center in Camden, NJ hosted a big Thanksgiving dinner at its Harvest Fest tonight for disadvantaged families; 12/1 –(:25) Decades old allegations of sexual assault finally lead Bill Cosby to resign from the Board of Trustees; 12/5 –(:18) The First Family kicked off the holiday season in Washington tonight, special guests included Philadelphia's own Patti Labelle and Little League pitching sensation Mo'ne Davis who read The Night Before Christmas with Michelle Obama; 12/10 –(:16) Philadelphia's famous Love Park is getting a makeover, the city's Parks & Recreation Department held a public meeting tonight about the plans to redesign it; 12/20 –(:20) The Philadelphia Orchestra played many favorite holiday classics tonight during their Christmas concert at the Kimmel Center.

ELDERLY – Topics in this category include reports on a prominent attorney and guardian stealing millions from her elderly clients and a group of serial burglars targeting senior citizens.

Eyewitness News – 10/10 –(:17) A group of serial burglars accused of taking advantage of their victims' trust and then stealing what they can scammed another elderly person in Delaware County; 11/20 –(:18) A prominent attorney and guardian pleads guilty to stealing millions from her elderly clients which forced one senior citizen to live in a nursing home after she had everything taken from her.

ENVIRONMENT – Topics in this category include reports on the discovery of a shipwreck dating back to the 19th Century in Brick Township and Philadelphia's largest buildings are joining the Energy Reduction Race.

Eyewitness News –10/7 –(:18) The lunar eclipse tomorrow morning will be a rare one because you'll be able to see the total eclipse and the sun rising at the same time; 10/11 –(:22) Contaminated water forces officials in Moorestown, New Jersey to shut down two wells that supply half of the township's water; 10/14 –(:19) Philadelphia Mayor Michael Nutter made the announcement that skyscrapers are joining the Energy Reduction Race which is a citywide competition to save energy in Philadelphia's largest buildings; 10/28 –(:17) A NASA rocket exploded in the air after lift-off and a South Jersey science class witnessed it first hand; 10/29 –(:16) Two years after Superstorm Sandy roared ashore, some residents in New Jersey are still recovering and waiting for funding; 11/5 –(:24) In the wake of Superstorm Sandy, work crews may have uncovered a 19th Century shipwreck in Brick Township; 11/5 –(:12) Residents in Margate, New Jersey are involved in a court battle with the state to try and stop dune construction.

GOVERNMENT – Topics in this category include reports on the gubernatorial race in Pennsylvania and Philadelphia City Council strengthens the hate crime law to protect members of the LGBT community.

Eyewitness News –10/1 –(:17) New Jersey Governor Chris Christie is criticizing President Obama for the way he has handled the threat posed by ISIS; 10/1 –(:30) Delsea Regional High School will be given about 20 million dollars to repair roofs and improve heating and air conditioning; 10/1 –(:17) Prices increased by two dollars per cigarette pack at midnight thanks to the city's new tax that will raise money for the Philadelphia School District; 10/1 –(:19) Abington Township and Montgomery County have three new red light cameras; 10/1 –(:24) Philadelphia Mayor Michael Nutter will sign new legislation making Philadelphia the largest city to decriminalize possession of small amounts of marijuana; 10/1 –(:19) Today Atlantic City plans to ask the state for permission to lay off some city workers; 10/1 –(:23) Director of the Secret Service, Julie Pierson, stepped down and was replaced by a Philadelphia native after multiple revelations of White House Security breaches and eroding confidence following her testimony before Congress; 10/2 –(:17) Pennsylvania lawmakers will hold a hearing at the Kimmel Center to talk about adding Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender people to the state's hate crime laws; 10/3 –(:22) Governor Corbett today said that a review found that State Police Commissioner Frank Noonan did not open, originate, forward, or reply to any of the emails regarding the pornographic email scandal gripping the Pennsylvania State Capitol; 10/6 –(:30) There is outrage in the city as the School Reform Commission cancels the Philadelphia Federation of Teacher's contract with the cash-strapped School District; 10/6 –(:18) Legislation to change Pennsylvania's hate crime statute to include sexual orientation has cleared its first hurdle; 10/6 –(:21) Some police chiefs in Delaware County are pushing to be able to use radar to catch speeders; 10/6 –(:24) Today, the Supreme Court refused to hear appeals on same-sex marriage, effectively legalizing it in 11 more states; 10/8 –(:18) In the race for Pennsylvania Governor, Republican Governor Tom Corbett and Democratic challenger Tom Wolf meet for their third and final debate tonight in Pittsburgh; 10/9 –(:22) The Pennsylvania State Senate unanimously passes Hannah’s Law which requires hospitals to offer pre-natal screenings for Krabbe and five other diseases; 10/10 –(:22) The Nobel Peace Prize has just been awarded to Malala Yousafzai who became an international activist after she survived being shot in the head by the Taliban and will be in Philadelphia in a couple weeks to receive the Liberty Medal; 10/15 –(:22) First Lady Michelle Obama heads to Philadelphia to campaign with Democratic gubernatorial candidate Tom Wolf; 10/17 –(:20) The youngest son of Vice President Joe Biden apologizes after he’s kicked out of the Navy for doing drugs; 10/17 –(:20) Former Congresswoman Gabrielle Giffords took part in a round table discussion in Bensalem to talk about protecting women from gun violence; 10/20 –(:26) With mid-term elections about two weeks away, President Obama gets back on the campaign trail; 10/20 –(:28) A Philadelphia judge puts a hold on the School Reform Commission’s decision to cancel the Philadelphia teacher’s contract; 10/20 –(:28) The State Supreme Court suspends Justice Seamus McCaffery for his involvement in the state’s porn email scandal which included sending or receiving emails with sexually explicit content; 10/20 –(:16) Stores just outside of Philadelphia are seeing a boom in business from smokers fleeing the city’s new two dollar a pack cigarette tax; 10/22 –(:24) Today, a Philadelphia City Council Committee advanced a bill that adds hate crimes to the city code; 10/24 –(:22) Vice President Joe Biden is back in Philadelphia to headline a fundraiser for the Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee; 10/27 –(:32) Former Florida Governor Jeb Bush who is rumored to be considering a presidential run, was at the National Constitution Center to preview a new gallery named after his father, former president George W. Bush; 10/27 –(:08) President Obama will campaign for Tom Wolf in Philadelphia on Sunday; 10/27 –(:21) A Pennsylvania Supreme Court Justice caught up in a state government porn e-mail scandal has retired; 10/27 –(:19) New Jersey lawmakers are expected to consider a list of bills today geared at tackling the heroin and prescription drug epidemic occurring across the state; 10/28 –(:24) Tonight the Department of Homeland Security is increasing security at federal buildings across the country including our area; 10/29 –(:20) Wilmington Mayor Dennis Williams will sign an executive order banning lighting up in all city parks, playgrounds, public plazas, and transit areas in Delaware; 10/30 –(:22) A Montgomery county judge sentences Pennsylvania State Senator Leanna Washington to five years of probation for using State Senate staffers and other resources to plan campaign fundraisers; 10/31 –(:17) They provide incredible and sometimes unbelievable aerial shots but there are serious concerns about drones in the city of Philadelphia; 10/31 –(:15) Philadelphia City Council strengthens the city’s hate crime law to protect members of the LGBT community; 11/4 –(:13) For the first time, an incumbent governor in Pennsylvania loses re-election as Tom Corbett falls to Tom Wolf; 11/5 –(:14) Tom Wolf holds his first news conference as Pennsylvania Governor-Elect; 11/10 –(:23) New Jersey Senate President Steve Sweeney lays out a sweeping plan to stabilize Atlantic City which includes allowing casinos to make payments in lieu of taxes for 150 million dollars to stop the hemorrhaging of jobs and money; 11/11 –(:18) With the President in China, Vice President Joe Biden led the Veterans Day Ceremony at Arlington National Cemetery where he laid the wreath at the tomb of the unknown soldier; 11/13 –(:23) Donald Norcross was sworn in by House Speaker John Boehner on Capitol Hill making him New Jersey’s First Congressional District’s new Congressman in more than twenty years; 11/19 –(:20) The race for mayor in Philadelphia heats up today with two more candidates joining the crowded field; 11/19 –(:26) Pennsylvania Attorney General Kathleen Kane says state workers exchanged pornographic emails that included children and violent acts against women; 11/21 –(:19) President Obama is changing how the nation will enforce its immigration laws; 12/1 –(:28) The Supreme Court is considering a First Amendment case centering around a man's Facebook page posts toward his soon to be ex-wife; 12/2 –(:21) A native of Montgomery County is the leading candidate to become the nation's next Secretary of Defense; 12/3 –(:28) Grand jury decisions in Ferguson and New York City are fueling new protests in Philadelphia, demonstrators descended upon the streets of center city blocking traffic during their march to City Hall; 12/9 –(:30) New Jersey legislators have a new plan to save Atlantic City, State Senate President Steve Sweeney has sponsored a bill that would lessen the current new construction requirement in an effort to attract smaller boutique casinos; 12/10 –(:18) Congressional Republicans and Democrats have agreed to a $1.3 trillion dollar spending bill averting a government shutdown; 12/11 –(:27) A Philadelphia lawmaker wants the city's colleges to adopt a yes means yes policy on sexual consent.

HEALTH – Topics in this category include reports on the first confirmed case of Ebola entering the United States and new cases of Enterovirus infecting children in our area.

Eyewitness News – 10/1 –(:36) The United States has its first confirmed case of Ebola and the unidentified man is listed in critical condition and in isolation at a hospital in Dallas, Texas; 10/1 –(:16) A pediatric case of Enterovirus 68 has shown up in Camden County; 10/3 –(:26) The Children's Hospital of Philadelphia tells us it has notified the CDC that three patients have acute muscle weakness of the limbs, along with changes in their spine and are being treated for Enterovirus; 10/3 –(:33) The CDC confirmed the first Enterovirus death in New Jersey, a four-year-old boy from Mercer County; 10/4 –(:10) The all clear is given after an Ebola scare at Newark Liberty International Airport; 10/6 –(:15) A child from Liberia is at Bay-Health Kent General Hospital in Dover after he showed possible symptoms of Ebola; 10/7 –(:13) Researchers say ten percent of all food is either mislabeled or misrepresented; 10/7 –(:27) There are five new confirmed cases of Enterovirus D-68 in New Jersey today; 10/7 –(:19) The Philadelphia School District has bought special disinfectant wipes that are capable of killing Enterovirus; 10/7 –(:24) Landmarks throughout the region are displaying pink lights during Breast Cancer Awareness Month to remind women and men to schedule a mammogram; 10/10 –(:18) An airline passenger's comment about Ebola sparks a scare in the air on a US Airways flight from Philadelphia to Punta Cana in the Dominican Republic; 10/14 –(:18) Researchers looked at a focus group of young men with moderate to severe Autism and found when taken in pill form, a chemical in broccoli sprouts improved verbal communication and decreased repetitive behaviors; 10/14 –(:20) The Centers for Disease Control is now using a new, faster lab test for detecting Enterovirus D-68; 10/15 –(:31) The World Health Organization says Ebola must be contained within two months or West Africa could see ten thousand new cases each week; 10/20 –(:20) The Centers for Disease Control announces new guidelines for healthcare workers dealing with Ebola; 10/24 –(:15) Tonight a doctor in New York City tested positive for Ebola; 10/24 –(:20) Camden County had a special Ebola training session where doctors from Cooper University Hospital demonstrated how to put on and safely take off personal protective equipment; 10/24 –(:39) The Governors of New York and New Jersey impose mandatory Quarantines on any travelers who've had contact with Ebola patients; 10/27 –(:24) The CDC and the Pennsylvania

Department of Health are monitoring more than a hundred people for possible signs of Ebola; 10/28 –(:22) Harvard researchers say there's a big difference in the way women and men react to heart disease; 10/29 –(:25) A new study in the Journal of Physiology says that drinking a glass of wine can equate to an hour of exercise; 11/4 –(:25) A study found that those who perform shift work had lower scores on memory, processing speed, and overall brain power; 11/5 –(:07) Acne leaves about 20 million Americans with lifelong scars but now a new laser treatment that is used for tattoo removal may help; 11/5 –(:20) Some experts say the presence of colorectal cancer in people under age fifty has risen alarmingly in the last decade but more research is needed to understand what could be leading to these cases; 11/5 –(:21) New government data shows fewer women are giving birth by cesarean delivery; 11/7 –(:25) According to a new study by the University of Haifa, taking Omega-3 capsules significantly reduces the craving for nicotine; 11/11 –(:12) Research shows that younger women are suffering from hair loss because of stress; 11/17 –(:23) A new study suggests coffee could be good for the waistline because scientists say there's a chemical compound in the drink that when injected prevented mice from gaining weight and appeared to guard against obesity related diseases; 12/2 –(:31) A health alert in Mercer County after a restaurant worker is diagnosed with Hepatitis-A; 12/3 –(:33) A new option for the 18 million Americans who suffer from sleep apnea, a surgically implanted device is now available that detects breathing patterns and stimulates the upper airway; 12/10 –(:20) New research how our brain reacts to sugar, scientists in California found fructose provokes hunger; 12/12 –(:19) A wide-spread outbreak of the mumps is forcing nearly a dozen NHL players to the sidelines, so far no reports on the Philadelphia Flyers roster; 12/16 –(:16) A review of multiple studies finds yoga may provide the same benefits as aerobic exercise when it comes to lowering the risk of heart disease; 12/19 –(:20) The flu is gaining steam, the CDC says 29 states have widespread activity; 12/23 –(:24) Federal health officials are recommending an end to the nation's 31 year old ban on blood donations from gay and bisexual men; 12/29 –(:22) Cases of the flu are on the rise in Pennsylvania, the State Department of Health said the number of illnesses spiked to more than 2,500 last week; 12/30 –(:19) A confirmed case of whooping cough in Burlington County.

MINORITY – Topics in this category include reports on a series of conversations led by Philadelphia's African American leaders on issues concerning the community and vandals spray paint a racial slur on the property of a Delaware man.

Eyewitness News –10/29 –(:25) A group of Cheyney University students, staff, and alumni file a federal lawsuit alleging the historically black college has been underfunded for decades because of race; 11/1 –(:20) Vandals spray painted a racial slur and a depiction of male genitals on the driveway of a resident in New Castle the night before Halloween which has sparked a hate crime investigation; 11/11 –(:20) On the heels of midterm elections, Philadelphia's African American leaders launch the first of a series of conversations on issues concerning the community.

PUBLIC SAFETY – Topics in this category include reports on increased police presence at Upper Darby High School after anonymous threats were posted on social media and the Philadelphia Fire Department performed a simulated drill to prepare folks in the event of a house fire.

Eyewitness News – 10/1 –(:22) Due to the winter quickly approaching and increasing demands for ice melt, a trade group says it can't mine salt as fast as cities and states are ordering it; 10/1 –(:21) A Delaware toddler is fighting for his life after police say he shot himself with a gun found in his home; 10/1 –(:17) A six-year-old was crossing the street in the Nicetown section of Philadelphia and got hit by a car and died; 10/2 –(:22) Investigators in New Jersey are trying to figure out who intentionally set a fire inside the home of Cooper Health's CEO; 10/2 –(:27) An investigation continues this morning in the accidental shooting of a Pennsylvania State Trooper at a Montgomery County training facility; 10/2 –(:20) A hot air balloon fell from the sky today in Bucks County, there were no reported injuries; 10/2 –(:13) Trenton's new mayor is making public safety a top priority which means more officers are hitting the streets in the New Jersey city; 10/3 –(:17) October is Domestic Violence Awareness Month and community leaders were at Philadelphia's Love Park for the 7th Annual I-Pledge campaign; 10/3 –(:22) A Montgomery County correctional officer and six others were fired in connection with a prison escape on Labor Day; 10/3 –(:16) An increased police presence is at Upper Darby High School today after anonymous threats on social media and several fights over the last few weeks caught their attention; 10/6 –(:21) A car collides with a commercial tanker truck in Gloucester County, New Jersey, leaving at least one person dead; 10/8 –(:18) Six children were injured in a crash this morning in the Bustleton section of Northeast Philadelphia after their school bus lost control and crashed into some parked cars; 10/8 –(:27) The Philadelphia Fire Department wants folks to be prepared in the event of a house fire, so a simulated drill was held in Somerton tonight; 10/8 –(:14) One person was transported to the hospital after a fire in Media, Delaware County broke out at a center and home for people with disabilities; 10/8 –(:18) A former Penn Ridge High School student is now facing charges after they are accused of posting a threat to the school on social media; 10/14 –(:27) A 10 year old Pennsylvania boy is charged in the killing of a 90 year old woman; 10/16 –(:32) Claims of excessive force inside Philadelphia's Curran-Fromhold Prison lead to a federal lawsuit; 10/22 –(:28) A new study from AAA finds more than 40 percent of American drivers admit to falling asleep or nodding off at the wheel; 10/22 –(:19) Giant Food Stores is recalling several peppers due to possible salmonella contamination; 10/22 –(:28) Dirt bike and ATV riders zipped past pedestrians around the city performing stunts and weaving through traffic following the funeral of a fellow rider creating hazardous conditions; 10/27 –(:19) Upper Merion Township police have been given increased funding to target speeders and people who pass in the right lane of roadways; 10/27 –(:24) Pennsylvania based Nutek Disposables is recalling the wipes because of a possible bacterial contamination; 10/28 –(:24) Two children are safe tonight in Delaware after an Amber Alert was issued for them earlier in the day; 10/29 –(:15) A crowd turned out at the Da Vinci Science Center in Allentown to learn more about Ebola; 10/29 –(:23) The Philadelphia Police Department says its making an effort to be more transparent about violent crime in the city; 11/3 –(:24) Vineland police officers say a razor blade was found inside a Tootsie Roll collected Halloween night; 11/5 –(:29) A 17-year-old Radnor High School student was arrested and is undergoing a mental evaluation after another classmate saw her notes and found page after page of alleged threats to kill fellow students and a teacher; 11/5 –(:12) According to a recent study, one in six American women and one in nineteen men have experienced stalking at some point in their lives and in the digital age, many stalkers can track their victims almost anywhere they go with terrifying consequences; 11/7 –(:22) A deadly fire at a home for disabled veterans and homeless youth is under investigation in North Philadelphia; 11/10 –(:26) Three people from Camden County are in stable condition after they were apparently overcome by carbon monoxide; 11/10 –(:19) A Camden County police officer's quick-thinking and training helped him deliver a baby in the park behind a church in Camden last month; 11/10 –(:17) Thirteen people were hurt when a car collided with a trolley in Kingsessing; 11/12 –(:16) The holiday shopping season is almost here and some women are preparing by taking a self-defense class where experts are teaching women how to protect themselves whether carrying bags or searching for their car keys; 11/13 –(:17) 81 new prospects were sworn-in to the Philadelphia Police Explorer Cadet Program tonight; 11/14 –(:29) A New Jersey transit bus runs off the side of Interstate 295 in Burlington County; 11/18 –(:22) A Delaware County hotel is all-clear after a carbon monoxide leak overnight; 11/18 –(:18) A major airbag recall could be expanding if the National Highway Traffic and Safety Administration gets its way; 11/18 –(:19) Investigators are looking for the cause of a four alarm fire at the Columbus Farmers Market in New Jersey; 11/19 –(:22) One lane remains closed this morning following a fiery crash involving three tractor trailers on the New Jersey Turnpike in Middlesex County; 11/19 –(:20) The Radnor Township Police Department hosted a seminar today called Safety and Security for Religious Institutions and Schools in Today's World; 11/20 –(:14) A salt truck overturns on the New Jersey Turnpike leaving behind a big mess this morning; 11/21 –(:14) A new warning tonight about faulty tire repairs that could put driver's at risk; 12/1 –(:22) A suspected firebombing forces several people out of their Germantown home, no one was injured; 12/1 –(:16) Philadelphia Police spent hours searching the Manayunk canal for any clues about the disappearance of Shane Montgomery who went missing early Thanksgiving morning; 12/2 –(:35) SPCA officials are accusing a New Jersey woman of abusing her horses; 12/3 –(:16) A man and his stepson were rushed to the hospital when chemicals ignited while they were making home repairs in Mount Ephraim, New Jersey; 12/3 –(:15) Investigators believe three church fires in Delaware are connected and the result of arson; 12/4 –(:27) A company behind millions of defective air bags is refusing demands by the Federal government for a nationwide recall; 12/9 –(:16) Many across the city of Philadelphia are mourning loss of the first female firefighter killed in the line of duty; 12/10 –(:16) A water main break in the Germantown section of the city sent water gushing down the street forcing a nearby daycare center to evacuate; 12/11 –(:22) The Philadelphia Police Department is sharing new information about a body camera pilot program in the 22nd District; 12/23 –(:26) Volunteer firefighters rescued a baby from a burning mini-van on the Garden State Parkway; 12/23 –(:15) A bomb threat forces the evacuation of Atlantic City International Airport on one of the busiest travel days of the year; 12/23 –(:24) A warning tonight from Philadelphia's Department of Licenses and Inspections, they say someone is going door to door pretending to work for them to gain entry into homes; 12/23 –(:22) Keurig is recalling more than 6 million of its mini plus brewers; 12/24 –(:19) Four people are hurt after an SUV slams into the lobby of a nursing home in New Castle County; 12/26 –(:16) A hazmat scare prompted the evacuation of a home in Germantown.

RELIGION – Topics in this category include reports on a live nativity scene at a Catholic School in Mayfair and a Chanukah celebration at 30th Street Station.

Eyewitness News -10/15 –(:18) St. John's Methodist Church in Ivyland is now offering drive through prayer every Wednesday afternoon; 10/24 –(:20) A Chester County priest is under arrest on child pornography charges; 10/27 –(:21) A Methodist Pastor disciplined after officiating at his gay son's wedding will be allowed to remain an ordained minister; 11/17 –(:17) Pope Francis confirms he's coming to Philadelphia for the World Meeting of Families in September; 11/25 –(:18) Philadelphia Archbishop Charles Chaput speaks out about Pope Francis' upcoming visit to the City of Brotherly Love; 12/8 –(:27) Hundreds of Bucks County Muslims join in a lawsuit claiming officials in Bensalem won't allow them to build a mosque; 12/12 –(:24) Students and parishioners in Mayfair at the Blessed Trinity Regional Catholic School put on a live nativity scene in this biblical depiction, complete with a baby Jesus and real camel, donkey, sheep, goats and even a yak; 12/17 –(:17) The first candle of Chanukah was lit at a celebration hosted by Chabad House of Penn at 30th Street Station; 12/27 –(:18) The West Philadelphia Achievement Charter Elementary School hosted their 1st Annual Kwanzaa Festival with live performances, a traditional African marketplace and a candle lighting ceremony.

WOMEN – Topics in this category include reports on a potentially life-saving security charm for females and thieves snatching purses in parking lots from unassuming ladies.

Eyewitness News -11/11 –(:27) Women are turning to a new potentially life-saving piece of jewelry called the Stiletto which is a security charm that can be worn on a bracelet or necklace and if there is an emergency, it can be clicked to contact 911; 11/21 –(:12) A new crime of opportunity this holiday season includes thieves snatching purses in parking lots from unassuming women reminding females to be on high alert and aware of surroundings at all times; 11/26 –(:18) A cheerleader for the Philadelphia Eagles talks about how she was the victim of vicious bullying that nearly destroyed her and how she overcame her pain; 12/4 –(:31) The Supreme Court is now weighing whether employers should accommodate pregnant women who are no longer able to do some of the tasks they were hired to do.

YOUTH – Topics in this category include reports on a hazing event at Central Bucks West and Little League phenom Mo'ne Davis plans to release a memoir.

Eyewitness News –10/3 –(:23) New Jersey will start using a new test as an option for high school students to graduate starting in 2016; 10/4 –(:22) The Salvation Army has a new community center in Camden that provides a variety of programs for the community; 10/8 –(:20) Tonight, the Best Friends Bash at Children's Hospital of Philadelphia is part of a pet therapy program and aims to help children see how dogs are affected by similar problems and how they've adapted; 10/15 –(:30) A little girl who police believed was inside a stolen SUV in Trenton is found safe; 10/15 –(:19) The first ever Ronald McDonald House opened in Philadelphia on this date back in 1974, supporting families of seriously ill children by creating a community of comfort and hope; 10/22 –(:16) ACT scores of nearly 200 students who took the tests in Upper Darby have vanished; 10/24 –(:21) The Superintendent of Central Bucks schools says some players at Central Bucks West were subjected to humiliating hazing; 10/27 –(:19) Parents and students are stunned when Walter D. Palmer Charter School in Frankford abruptly closes just two months into the school year; 10/28 –(:23) The Neshaminy School Board wants to move fifth graders into middle schools next year from the elementary level which will allow them to add language programs back to middle schools as well as hire more counselors; 10/29 –(:26) In Gloucester County, family and friends are honoring murdered teenager Autumn Pasquale on what would have been her 15th birthday; 10/29 –(:18) A Halloween event for kids in Camden at Yorkship Square organized by the Camden County Police Department included a costume contest, face painting, and games; 10/30 –(:24) The Citizens Crime Commission presented the Taney Dragons with this year's Thomas Jefferson Award in Northeast Philadelphia; 10/31 -(31) District officials say sexually explicit photos and text messages were sent between students while they were inside Neshaminy High School in Langhorne; 11/1 -(26) Five members of the football team at California University of Pennsylvania are under arrest after being accused of attacking a man from Chester County; 11/4 -(22) A South Jersey daycare owner saves the life of a young girl who stopped breathing; 11/7 -(09) A three year old boy was beaten to death by his mother and her boyfriend in Chester County; 11/7 -(24) Police say they cited ten students for underage drinking at Radnor High School after staffers observed them in possession of alcohol before a pep rally for the football team's game against Lower Merion on Saturday; 11/11 -(25) The Coatesville Area School District has completed its internal investigation sparked by news that a kindergartner had survived abuse that allegedly killed his little brother; 11/17 -(26) Taney Dragons phenom Mo'ne Davis plans to release a memoir; 11/19 -(17) This morning Warrington Police need help finding 13-year-old Stephen Seder, a missing autistic teenager; 11/26 -(25) Police Commissioner Charles Ramsey and District Attorney Seth Williams read to a classroom of students for Book Day at Jenks Elementary School in South Philadelphia; 12/1 -(22) Camden County police are searching for a missing 10-year-old boy from the Parkside neighborhood; 12/8 -(18) The Delaware Valley's baseball star Mo'ne Davis was presented with the award for Sports Kid of the Year from Sports Illustrated today at Lincoln Financial Field.