

KYW-TV 3 – PHILADELPHIA, PA
QUARTERLY ISSUES PROGRAMS LIST
CBS BROADCASTING, INC.

October 1, 2013 – December 31, 2013

Attached are listings of broadcast segments, which in the station's judgment reflect KYW-TV3's most significant programming treatment of ascertained community issues.

PROGRAM INDEX

KYW-TV Eyewitness News – weekdays, 4:30am – 7:00am; 12noon – 12:30pm; 5:00pm – 6:00pm; 6:00 - 6:30pm; 11:00pm – 11:30pm; weekends, Saturday, 6:00am – 7:00am; 6:30pm – 7:00pm; 11:00pm – 11:30pm; and Sundays, 6:00am – 8:30am; 6:00pm – 6:30pm and 11:00pm – 11:30pm, regularly scheduled news broadcasts focusing on the latest current issues.

Eyewitness Newsmakers – A rotation of KYW-TV News Anchors provide an approximately 10-minute segment, including newsmaker interviews, which air during each Sunday morning newscast. Segments address current events on local and national fronts. The segments air in the 8:00am broadcast.

Talk Philly – weekdays, 12:00pm – 12:30pm; regularly scheduled lifestyle magazine program looking at a variety of topics that make the Philadelphia area so special. Hosted by Pat Ciarrocchi and Ukee Washington.

BUSINESS/ECONOMY/CONSUMER - Topics in this category include reports on layoffs by Lockheed Martin impacting hundreds of employees in our area and Wynn Resort's second thoughts about building a casino in the Fishtown section of Philadelphia.

Eyewitness News: 10/1—(:21) Merck says it will cut about 8,500 jobs around the world by the end of 2015; (:18) A job fair, designed especially for unemployed military veterans, took place in Mount Laurel, New Jersey; (:12) Amazon says it will hire more than 70,000 full-time seasonal employees for the holidays, which is up 40% from last year. 10/2—(:18) Philadelphia Mayor Michael Nutter announced international manufacturer Axalta will bring 100 new jobs to center city when it moves its major operations here; (:18) The area along East Girard Avenue in Fishtown gets a $98,000 grant from PNC bank as part of the model block program to help improve its appearance and make an interactive fence for events; 10/4—A new 100 dollar bill will start being produced tomorrow; the new design will be harder to counterfeit; 10/10—(:14) Travelocity says the cost of a domestic flight has gone up seven percent since last year; 10/14—(:06) Evraz Claymont Steel Mill in Delaware will shut down today and 375 workers will lose their jobs; 10/15—(:20) Macys announced today it will be open on Thanksgiving for the first time; 10/25—(:19) UPS will hire 55,000 workers this holiday season; 11/6—(:17) The 300 remaining Blockbuster stores are expected to close by January; 11/7—(:25) Stocks open high as Twitter gets ready to go public; 11/11—(:23) Wynn Resorts has second thoughts about building a casino in the Fishtown section of Philadelphia; 11/14—(:28) Lockheed Martin is laying off hundreds of employees in our area; 11/19—(:25) Just in time for Thanksgiving, Butterball, the nation's top turkey producer says there is a shortage of fresh birds 16lbs. or larger this holiday season; 11/21—(:27) Beginning next year, Abercrombie and Fitch will offer bigger sizes online for its women's clothing line; 11/26—(:24) The New Jersey Gaming Commission has certified six Atlantic City casinos for internet gambling; 12/6—(:22) Fast food workers from across our area joined a national protest to raise the minimum wage by walking off their jobs; 12/9—(:17) It's now official – American Airlines and US Airways have merged to become the world's largest airline; 12/14—(:21) The Mega Millions jumped to a whopping $550 million dollars, making it the fourth largest jackpot in US history; 12/17—(:29) A new hotel and high-rise condo will be joining the Philadelphia skyline in 2016, developer Carl Dranoff announced he's building the 47-story SLS International at Broad & Spruce Streets making it the tallest residential building in center city once completed; 12/18/13—(:18) The Secret Service probes a major security breach at Target, one of the country's most popular stores; 12/19/13—(:21) Beginning January 1st, no more 40 or 60 watt incandescent light bulbs will be made or imported to the US; however, stores can finish selling what they have in stock; 12/26/13—(:17) UPS and Fed Ex are delivering Christmas presents a day late – or in some cases, even later because the companies say they couldn't keep up with the unexpected volume of packages close to the holiday;

CULTURE - Topics in this category include reports on a new attraction coming to Camden's Adventure Aquarium by Spring 2015 and pop up concerts throughout the region courtesy of the Philadelphia Orchestra.

Eyewitness News: 10/1—(:19) Many buildings throughout our region went pink tonight for the Komen Philadelphia Lights for the Cure campaign which serves as a reminder for men and women to schedule a mammogram this October in recognition of breast cancer awareness month; 10/2— (:24) The Philadelphia Orchestra is having pop up concerts throughout the region;

10/9—(:22) Endurance swimmer Diana Nyad is raising money for the victims of Hurricane Sandy by swimming in a 40-yard custom pool in New York City; 10/10—(:22) The Academy of Natural Sciences has a new exhibit titled Dinosaurs Unearthed that features 13 animatronic dinosaurs; 10/11—(:17) The Philly Pops kicked off its 35th season tonight at the Kimmel Center; 10/13—(:05) Italian pride was on display in Philadelphia for the 55th Annual Columbus Day Parade; 10/26—(:29) Hundreds of Irish Americans and their guests gathered at the Philadelphia's Irish Memorial to celebrate its 10th Anniversary; 10/29—(:26) Philadelphia's Avenue of the Arts celebrates a big milestone tonight with a huge gathering at the Masonic Temple to mark its 20th Anniversary; 10/30—(:20) Before tonight's Sixers game, former player Allen Iverson announced his retirement from the NBA; 11/1—(:21) A new attraction, a 300 foot observation tower & ride providing panoramic views of Philadelphia and New Jersey, is coming to Camden's Adventure Aquarium by Spring 2015; 11/10—(:14) Purple clad runners laced up their sneakers for the fight against pancreatic cancer today in Philadelphia; 11/11—(:15) In Camden County, New Jersey the Freeholder's Board held its Annual Veterans Day observance; 11/18—(:17) 30,000 enthusiastic runners competed in the 20th Annual Philadelphia Marathon today in Philadelphia; 11/20—(:18) Thousands gathered in central Pennsylvania to mark the 150th Anniversary of the Gettysburg Address; 11/29—(:18) Another sign of the season, skaters hit the ice today as the Penn's Landing River Rink opened for business with the addition of Winterfest, an area where guests can grab a bite to eat or warm-up around a fire pit; 12/2—(:15) The Gershman Y celebrated its 11th Annual Latkepalooza tonight at Vie in Philadelphia; 12/6—(:21) The Philly Pops kicked off their annual Holiday Pops Christmas Spectacular concert series this evening at the Kimmel Center; 12/21—(:16) People in Manayunk celebrated the 1st Annual Solstice Fire to honor Christmas and the area's Native American roots; 12/29—(:15) Final rehearsals are underway for the Mummies' Annual Strut on Broad Street New Year's Day.

ELDERLY - Topics in this category include reports on an elderly woman speaking out to warn others about a rash of purse snatchings in our area and an attack on an older gentleman in his home in Southwest Philadelphia.

Eyewitness News: 10/2—(:26) Surveillance video shows a suspect beating an elderly man in North Philadelphia to rob him of his lottery tickets and money; 10/11—(:28) A Pennsylvania judge postpones decision about dismissing an assisted suicide charge filed against a nurse in her 93-year-old father's death while on hospice; 11/16—(:21) Authorities in Burlington County are investigating the suspicious death of an elderly woman found dead inside her home in Cinnaminson Monday; 11/13—(:15) A 67-year-old man is living in terror tonight after being attacked in his home in Southwest Philadelphia; 11/26—(:15) Tonight an elderly victim in a rash of purse snatchings is sharing her story to warn all women, especially seniors, to be on alert.

ENVIRONMENT - Topics in this category include reports on a new project to reinvigorate the waterfront along the Delaware River and a thousand containers potentially leaking poisonous chemicals in a South Jersey community.

Eyewitness News: 10/1—(:17) Plumbers say many people make a big mistake when disposing of wipes, those handy pre-moistened towels, because they don't dissolve and can wreak havoc on pipes and septic systems; 10/4—(:19) In a South Jersey community more than a thousand containers may be leaking poisonous chemicals; 10/9—(:18) A coastal storm is moving in on the area causing flooding along shore points following a high tide; 10/15—(:27) Nine families are forced from their central Pennsylvania homes when four giant sinkholes turned up; 10/18—(:16) A water main break in Pottstown sent water cascading down the street; 10/26—(:10) To mark the one year anniversary of Hurricane Sandy, seaside communities created service days titled Standing Together; 10/29—(:22) Philadelphia Mayor Michael Nutter and city officials cut the ribbon on a new trail along the Delaware River that's part of a project to reinvigorate the waterfront; 11/11—(:25) A 2,000 pound satellite disintegrated as it re-entered the atmosphere overnight.

GOVERNMENT - Topics in this category include reports on the partial shutdown of the Federal government after Congress failed to pass a bill to keep it running and a surge of people signing up for health insurance coverage under the Affordable Care Act.

Eyewitness News: 10/1—(:40) For the first time in 17 years the Federal government is in a partial shutdown after Congress failed to pass a bill to keep it running; (:21) Regardless of the government shutdown, today marked the first day of open enrollment under the Affordable Care Act; 10/5—(:21) Demonstrators marched to the Immigration and Customs Enforcement Building in Philadelphia this morning as part of the National Day for Dignity and Respect, a coordinated effort in 160 cities to push for a path to citizenship for 11 million undocumented immigrants; 10/7—(:12) Next month's Election is right around the corner, today is your last chance to make sure you're registered to vote in Pennsylvania; 10/8—(:17) The Supreme Court will hear a case today that could change the way individuals can contribute to political campaigns; (:29) As Campaign 2013 heats up in New Jersey, Governor Chris Christie and State Senator Barbara Buono faced-off in their first debate tonight; 10/9—(:18) Newark Mayor Cory Booker and challenger Steve Lonegan faced off in their final debate tonight in the race for United States Senate in New Jersey; 10/11—(:22) Starbucks, the world's biggest coffee chain, wants customers to sign a petition today calling for Congress to end the partial government shutdown; 10/12—(:18) Many of the nation's 46 million Americans who use food stamps were stranded at store checkout's across the country today due to a system glitch that wasn't linked to the government shutdown; 10/14—(:23) Republicans and Democrats continue talks today to end the partial government shutdown; 10/15—(:17) Voters in the Garden State will pick their next Governor three weeks from today and the candidates faced off tonight for their second and final debate; 10/16—(:27) Leaders in Washington come to an agreement just hours before the midnight deadline ending the government shutdown and avoiding default; 10/17—(:21) Pennsylvania Governor Tom Corbett released $45 million dollars to help ease the Philadelphia School District funding crisis; 10/18—(:17) Former US House Speaker Tom Foley has died; 10/19—(:15) Police Chiefs from around the country are gathering in Philadelphia for its annual convention; 10/22—(:27) First Lady Mary Pat Christie, the Governor's wife, discussed her mission to help residents recover in her role as the head of the Hurricane Sandy New Jersey Relief Fund; 10/27—(:25) Lawmakers from both sides of the aisle are pressing the Obama administration to push back deadlines to sign up for health insurance under the new Affordable Care Act; 10/29—(:17) New Jersey Governor Chris Christie marked the anniversary of Hurricane Sandy by visiting volunteers and first responders across the state; 10/30—(:22) City Council and Philadelphia Mayor Michael Nutter come to an agreement on funding for the cash-strapped Philadelphia School District and it includes selling vacant district property; 10/31—(:22) Cory Booker officially takes over as New Jersey's newest Senator, the former Newark Mayor won the special election to finish the last 14-months of Frank Lautenberg's term; 11/1—(:18) More Americans will have to live with fewer food stamps, a temporary increase in payments that was part of the 2009 economic stimulus runs out today; 11/4—(:19) New Jersey residents will vote tomorrow on raising the state's minimum wage and building in automatic cost-of-living increases into the state constitution; 11/5—(:16) In a race that was called less than a minute after polls closed, it's another term for New Jersey Governor Chris Christie; 11/6—(:17) Voters said yes to a minimum wage increase in New Jersey – it will rise by a dollar an hour in January; (:20) Pennsylvania Governor Tom Corbett officially launched his re-election campaign today; 11/7—(:13) Philadelphia Mayor Michael Nutter woke up in Israel this morning to meet with leaders there to try to drum up business in the City of Brotherly Love; 11/11—(:24) President Barack Obama attended a ceremony at Arlington National Cemetery today as the country pays tribute to our war heroes on Veteran's Day; 11/12—(:20) Tonight President Barack Obama's approval rating hits an all-time low in a new Quinnipiac University poll; 11/18—(:20) Vice President Joe Biden, Philadelphia Mayor Michael Nutter and other politicians traveled to the Panama Canal in the hopes of drumming up more business for Philadelphia's port; 11/19—(:20) A major transportation spending plan for Pennsylvania is defeated in Harrisburg, the House voted against a proposal to spend billions on roads, bridges and mass transit systems; 11/23—(:18) Today marks the 50th Anniversary of President John F. Kennedy's assassination; 11/25—(:22) Governor Tom Corbett will sign Pennsylvania's comprehensive transportation bill today which calls for increased gas taxes, meaning higher gas prices to pay for upgrading roads, highways and rail lines. It also allows speed limits to go up to 70 miles an hour on certain highways; 12/3—(:18) President Barack Obama is launching a new campaign to get Americans to sign up for the Affordable Care Act; 12/5—(:18) Nelson Mandela, the first black President of South Africa, is dead tonight at the age of 95; 12/16—(:18) The Senate has confirmed the next Secretary of the Homeland Security Department, former top Pentagon lawyer Jeh Johnson will replace Janet Napolitano, becoming the department's fourth head and the first African American to hold the position; 12/18—(:22) Governor Tom Corbett signs the first in a package of bills strengthening Pennsylvania's child abuse laws in the wake of the Jerry Sandusky scandal; 12/21—(:25) The White House is making a significant change to the Affordable Care Act before Monday's sign up deadline, people who lost their current health insurance plans because of the law will now not have to pay a penalty if they fail to purchase a new policy; 12/23—(:27) The deadline to enroll in a health insurance plan under the Affordable Care Act has been extended slightly until tomorrow instead of today; 12/26—(:13) The Affordable Care Act website is dealing with a surge of people signing up for health insurance coverage, Americans have been rushing to beat a deadline that keeps changing; 12/28—(:13) Long term unemployment is at its highest level since World War II and for millions of Americans who have been looking for work for more than 26 weeks today is the last day they will get a paycheck until they can find a new job.

HEALTH - Topics in this category include reports on a new twist on an old fertility treatment that could dramatically improve a woman's chance of getting pregnant and a recent study which found that those who eat nuts live longer and weigh less.

Eyewitness News: 10/1—(:22) British researchers say mercury concerns for pregnant women may be overblown; 10/3—(:12) There are about half a million people in Pennsylvania who still can't get health insurance under the affordable care act; 10/4—(:19) According to the American Cancer Society, walking an hour a day may help lower your risk of breast cancer; 10/9—(:12) A new twist on an old fertility treatment could dramatically improve a woman's chance of getting pregnant through IVF; (:28) Researchers say that the best cure for a hangover is Sprite; 10/10—(:12) Research says what babies learn in the water can translate to success in other areas later in their childhood; 10/11—(:11) A new treatment for acid reflux has been discovered; (:30) Researchers found that patients with early stage Alzheimer's disease had more troubles smelling peanut butter held at short distances from their nose; 10/15—(:24) BPA that is found in many plastics and canned food may raise miscarriage risk; 10/17—(:26) Researchers at the American Society for Reproductive Medicine says eating processed meat can lower a man's sperm count, while fish boosts it; 10/18—(:20) The World Health Organization has added air pollution to the list of carcinogens, saying pollution is causing cancer in humans; 10/24—(:06) Some experts say cutting back on butter, cream, and fatty meats may do more harm to your health than good; 11/04—(:23) Some doctors say the colder weather and time changes are a double whammy for people who suffer from headaches and migraines; 11/12—(:21) New research from the University of Montreal suggests exercising while pregnant can help newborns with brain development; 11/20—(:25) A recent study, published in the New England Journal of Medicine, found that those who eat nuts live longer and weigh less; 11/26—(:20) The FDA is considering a label change to the morning after pill to warn that the drug may not be effective for heavier women; 12/2—(:21) A new study shows the impact energy drinks can have on the heart, researchers found heart contractions can increase an hour after one standard drink was consumed; 12/7—(:32) A new report says the use of genetically engineered t-cells to fight leukemia in children and adults is working by reprogramming the patient's immune system; 12/18—(:23) A government appointed panel recommends raising the threshold for treating high blood pressure for those over the age of 60; 12/28—(:15) Today Eagles fans took time out at Lincoln Financial Field to help a very important cause in our region by participating in a blood drive to benefit the American Red Cross.

MINORITY/ETHNIC - Topics in this category include reports on the annual Philadelphia NAACP Freedom Fund Gala and the 10th Anniversary of the Hispanic Choice Awards.

Eyewitness News: 10/1—(:18) The Christie administration is asking the New Jersey Supreme Court to take its appeal of a ruling on same-sex marriage; 10/3—(:20) Philadelphia Mayor Michael Nutter helped raise the rainbow flag outside City Hall today in recognition of LGBT History Month which is October; 10/4—(:24) Governor Tom Corbett apologizes after his comments about same-sex couples stirred up a controversy; 10/5—(:21) Hundreds in our area marched to the immigration and customs enforcement building to urge Congress not to shutdown the immigration reform; (:22) The 10th Anniversary Hispanic Choice Awards was held at the Merriam Theatre celebrating leaders and organizations in Philadelphia's Latino Community; 10/11—(:19) New Jersey's Supreme Court agrees to hear a case on whether same sex marriage should be legal in the state; 10/11—(:19) The Philadelphia branch of the NAACP held its 2013 Freedom Fund Gala at Temple University; 10/13—(:05) The second African-American woman to serve on the Philadelphia City Council, Gussie Clark, is being remembered tonight; 10/18—(:08) New Jersey's Supreme Court denied a delay to the same sex couple marriage law recently enforced; 10/22—(:20) Governor Chris Christie dropped the state's legal challenge to same-sex marriage; 10/26—(:27) The Philadelphia Association of Black Journalists is celebrating its 40th Anniversary tonight honoring some of the region's outstanding journalists; 11/08—(:21) The Senate approves landmark legislation protecting gay, lesbian, bi-sexual, and transgender in the workplace; 11/20—(:26) A Spring City, Chester County pastor suspended for officiating his son's same-sex marriage says he may have to move or leave the United Methodist Church to keep serving; 12/19—(:17) The African American United Fund handed out over three-hundred toys to children in need in North Philadelphia this evening; 12/28—(:13) Audenried High School was the site of Philadelphia's first Kwanzaabration which celebrated the holiday tradition and celebrated family, community and culture.

PUBLIC HEALTH & SAFETY - Topics in this category include reports on the brief evacuation of Philadelphia's Suburban Station due to a fire on the main concourse and health officials' warning people to stay away from a rabid skunk spotted in New Jersey.

Eyewitness News: 10/1—(:08) The President of the Philadelphia Firefighters and Paramedics Union Local 22 is calling for an inspection of the fire department's entire vehicle fleet; 10/7—(:29) Turkey Hill is recalling some ice cream because it might have metal shavings in it; (:20) Philadelphia's Suburban Station was briefly evacuated today when a fire broke out in a shoe store on the main concourse; 10/8—(:22) A new study just named Delaware one of the most dangerous states in the country due to high rates of property crime and aggravated assault; 10/9—(:21) General Motors is recalling nearly 22,000 full-size pick-up trucks to fix problems with the seats; 10/10—(:21) The Tacony-Palmyra Bridge is back to normal tonight after a mechanical error left it stuck in the open position for nine hours; 10/11—(:19) A leader of the State Senate says it's time to raise the maximum allowable speed from 65-to-70 miles an hour; 10/14—(:08) Parents are voicing concerns after tests reveal a wide-spread mold problem at a Montgomery County School; 10/17—(:24) Toyota is recalling over 800,000 vehicles because airbags could cause the power steering to shut down; 10/22—(:19) In Chester County, there's concern that rescue dogs belonging to a local woman might be a threat to their pets & children; 10/26—(:12) A total of seven children were sickened by carbon monoxide while ice skating in Hamilton Township, Mercer County this morning; 10/29—(:28) Products made by Reser's fine foods are being recalled due to listeria contamination that has now gone nationwide and even spread to Canada; 10/31—(:16) Health officials say they found a rabid skunk in Voorhees, NJ warning people to stay away from wild animals; 11/1—(:22) The FAA has released new guidelines allowing passengers to use electronic devices from gate to gate in all phases of flight; however, talking on cell phones will still be prohibited; 11/6—(:21) Kraft will be removing artificial dyes from kid-friendly macaroni and cheese; 11/11—(:13) A male student at Princeton University has tested positive for symptoms of meningitis causing health officials to declare an outbreak; 11/14—(:25) The US Labor Department is levying some heavy fines against the contractors who were working on the building that collapsed on Market Street in Philadelphia this summer; 11/20—(:20) The Federal Government says it will require seat belts on new coach buses starting three years from now; 11/23—(:19) A jitney crashed into a store at The Walk outlets in Atlantic City injuring several people; 12/12—(:31) IKEA is recalling some children's lamps following the death of a 16-month-old who strangled on a cord; 12/18—(:13) Police are boosting patrols around malls after a holiday shopper is mugged in Montgomery County; 12/21—(:25) Drug maker Merck is voluntarily pulling some vials of the HPV vaccine Gardasil because pieces of glass may have ended up in the containers during manufacturing; 12/28—(:18) An officer was overwhelmed by fumes responding to a gas leak in Darby, Delaware County and area homes were briefly evacuated until the leak was contained.

RELIGION - Topics in this category include reports on Christmas Eve Mass at the Cathedral of Saints Peter and Paul in Philadelphia and the Annual Feast of the Seven Fishes.

Eyewitness News: 10/4—(:22) Pope Francis spent the day in Assisi hosting lunches and holding a mass for people in Saint Francis Square; 10/18—(:14) The rape and assault case against Reverend Brennan was dropped after his accuser was found dead; 10/23—(:14) Thieves break into a Delaware County Church and were caught on tape; 11/10—(:07) Fire badly damages a West Philadelphia Church; 11/27—(:14) Philadelphia Mayor Michael Nutter kicked off Hanukah at 30th Street Station – a special Menorah lighting ceremony took place on the main concourse; 11/30—(:20) The annual Hanukkah March of Lights took place tonight in Philadelphia beginning at Eakins Oval on the Benjamin Franklin Parkway and ending at the large Menorah on Independence Mall; 12/9—(:23) Camden’s Monastery of the Dominican Nuns of the Perpetual Rosary closed its doors after mass this morning; 12/16—(:24) The 5th Annual Feast of the Seven Fishes, which benefits the Catholic Charities Appeal and the Archbishop’s Christmas Benefit for Children, was held tonight at Vie; 12/17—(:23) Pope Francis has removed Cardinal Justin Rigali, former Archbishop of Philadelphia, from one of the Vatican’s most powerful committees; 12/24—(:21) A Christmas Eve Mass is underway at the Cathedral Basilica of Saints Peter and Paul in Philadelphia as Christians come together to celebrate the birth of Jesus; 12/29—(:16) Members of SNAP, the Survivors Network of Those Abused by Priests, were outside the Cathedral Basilica of Saints Peter and Paul in Philadelphia handing out flyers and urging parishioners to speak up about alleged criminal behavior within the church.

WOMEN - Topics in this category include reports on former Secretary of State Hilary Clinton’s new initiative No Ceilings and research suggesting that middle aged women who are sleep deprived have older looking skin.

Eyewitness News: 10/18—(:24) According to new research, middle aged women who don’t get enough sleep have older looking skin; 11/01—(:19) Former Secretary of State, Hillary Clinton addressed a crowd of 7,000 women today in Philadelphia about her new initiative No Ceilings; (:15) America’s first female Secretary of State Madeleine Albright delivered the keynote address at the Pennsylvania Conference for Women.

YOUTH - Topics in this category include reports on a brawl at Overbrook High School and the celebration of Red Ribbon Week by students in Bensalem Township.

Eyewitness News: 10/1—(:25) A local softball coach was arrested on sexual assault charges for carrying on a sexual relationship with 16-year old girl; 10/3—(:24) Governor Tom Corbett helps Drexel University unveil their new LeBow College of Business; 10/8—(:06) A Pre-K drug discovery has parents of children at a Philadelphia School concerned; 10/9—(:17) Another school official is accused of being involved in the Coatesville School District texting scandal; (:20) Students of St. Helena Incarnation School in Olney joined in on International Walk to school day by walking with their parents and volunteers; 10/11—(:21) Solomon Charter School in Philadelphia suddenly closes its doors due to safety concerns and financial instability; 10/16—(:24) The State Senate is expected to vote on a bill that could provide 28 million dollars to the Philadelphia School District, another 50 million dollars is still needed; 10/18—(:24) Facebook has changed its privacy settings to allow teenagers, ages 13-17 to share their posts with anyone who is on Facebook; 10/23—(:29) Two New Jersey State Troopers save 13 year old boy by performing the Heimlich and dislodging food from his throat; 10/25—(:16) Students of Bensalem Township team up to celebrate Red Ribbon Week, spelling out be safe in the parking lot; (:05) Three senior football players at Pottstown High School are suspended for bringing a B-B gun to school; 10/28—(:17) 100 cancer patients from the Children's Hospital of Philadelphia attended the Phillie Phanatic Halloween Bash at the Embassy Suites Hotel; 10/30—(:20) Philadelphia kicks off a citywide school attendance campaign titled Attendance Awareness which stresses the role that school attendance plays in academic success; 11/19—(:18) A brawl erupted at Overbrook High School and ten students were taken into custody; 12/6—(:13) Due to budget concerns Temple University is cutting seven of its twenty-four intercollegiate sports programs; 12/12—(:29) Police are concerned about identity theft after a security breach in the Radnor Township School District after a student accessed a file containing the personal information of two-thousand employees.