

Quarterly Public Affairs Report – Cumulus Chattanooga

Third Quarter, 2023

Program: Conversation Piece – a 30-minute Current Events / Public Affairs Program

July 2, 2023 - Local attorney and author, Jerry Summers discusses his newest (and 9th) book with Jennifer Crutchfield.

July 9, 2023 - Repeat broadcast of local attorney Jerry Summers discussing his newest (9th) book with Jennifer Crutchfield.

July 16, 2023 - Hamilton County Mayor Weston Wamp on the Morning Press discussing future plans for the school system, including building issues.

July 23, 2023 - Encore performance of Hamilton County Mayor Weston Wamp's visit with the Morning Press to discuss matters of interest to the public.

July 30, 2023 - Respected veteran Mickey McCamish discusses the withdrawal of Chattanooga from Wreaths Across America and the creation of a local branch.

August 6, 2023 - Retired Judge Russell Bean discusses the new tougher BUI (Boating Under the Influence) laws.

August 13, 2023 - The Chattanooga National Cemetery will no longer be associated with Wreaths Across America, choosing to create its own charitable organization.

August 20, 2023 - Hamilton County Mayor Weston Wamp discusses progress being made on advancements in the Education plan that was his biggest campaign promise.

August 27, 2023 - Repeat broadcast of Weston Wamp updating the public on his plans to boost the county's education system.

September 3, 2023 - Hamilton County Mayor Weston Wamp discusses progress being made on advancements in the Education plan that was his biggest campaign promise.

September 10, 2023 - Historian Stephanie Hare discusses Horace Brazelton, an African-American photographer who, for decades, photographed those in his community.

September 17, 2023 - Economics expert Chris Hopkins discusses the effect of American consumers' $1 Trillion in credit card debt.

September 24, 2023 - Repeat broadcast of economics expert Chris Hopkins discussing the dangers of American consumers struggling with $1 Trillion in credit card debt.