SUBJECT: Mineral County Family Resource Network 5K

Discussion: Today we are joined by Dayla Harvey and Autumn Beavers to learn about CASA's Mineral County Family Resource Network's 5k. This is their second annual Superhero 5k run/ walk, but with a twist. This year, they're introducing a full-on festival. The festival begins Saturday, April 15th starting at 9am with registration starting at 8am at Brooks Park in Keyser. CASA will be having a kids run, relay race, face paintings, bouncy house, and a local superhero in a dunk tank. Everyone and anyone are welcome. CASA currently only has two fundraisers a year and this was one that they lost during the pandemic. This was all made possible by their sponsor, Keyser Rotary Club. To learn more about the event or CASA check out MineralCountyFRN.org for more events and how to get involved.

SUBJECT: Evergreen Heritage Center

Discussion: Today we welcome Janic Keen into the studios to talk all about Evergreen Heritage Centers 2023 season. Their center is a historical site of the old farmhouse being turned into a historic museum. They want all our listeners to know that they can have school field trips, an after-school camp, summer camp, and open house events. Their summer school consists of 4 weeks of fun filled activities that help students learn about agriculture. They will also be hosting a spring festival free of charge for all ages. The event includes cucumber pickling, planting, and painting veggies, as well as a garden sale, live music, and tours. For more info check out their website at www.EvergreenHeritageCenter.org or call 301-687-0664. You can also check out their Facebook, evergreen heritage center.

SUBJECT: Fundraiser for Stone House

Discussion: Frank Roll joins us in the studio today from the Mineral County Historic Foundation. They will be putting on a fundraiser for the Stone House in hopes of one day having it completely restored. This year, they are part of the largest yard sale along the east coast. To the yard sale they will be contributing antiques. Alongside their contributions to the yard sale, there will also be 25 vendors participating. At 8am will start their flea market. From noon until 4 both Saturdays and Sundays will be a tour of the “so far” restored side of the house. During the yard sale they will also have a fully operated concession. For more information you can find them alongside the NW turnpike, they’re right along the highway.

SUBJECT: Energy Express

Discussion: Today Dayla Harvey joins us from the Mineral County Family Resource Network, to talk about their Energy Express. They are looking for volunteers to help with their “Energy Express”, a 6 weeklong reading and nutritional program free for students of Mineral County k-5th. The program starts June 21st and goes on until July 28th. There will be two locations this year, one at Keyser Middle School and the other at Frankfort Intermediate School. They need volunteers this year, anyone who is willing to read to kids, have kids read to them, and just be there to lend a hand. Energy Expresses mission is for kids to not lose the education they learned during the school year. The program teaches reading, writing, and drama. Want to get involved? Show up at either of the sites at 8am weekdays, meet up with a coordinator, and get started.

SUBJECT: Frostburg's Derby Days

Discussion: Sharon Kyle joins us in the studio today as the co-chair from the Frostburg Elks to spread the word about Frostburg's Derby Day's. The event happens July 1st with a parade at 10:30am and the race begins at 11am. A rain date is scheduled for July 4th. The event takes place on Main Street in Frostburg, starting at the library and driving all the way down to the Frostburg pub going 25mph. This year they have 60 drivers, which is 9 more than they had last year. Lashbaugh's oversees the brackets as well as safety regulations. The scenic railroad will treat all the drivers to a free train ride. Come on out and cheer on the riders. Start Independence Day off right.
