Radio ad for Mike Kirsch for County Council at Large

This May 7th vote republican candidate, Mike Kirsch, for County Council at Large. With over 33 years of experience in running his construction business, Mike Kirsch has created jobs for many Morgan County residents and supported many local businesses. With years of experience in managing contracts and budgets, combined with the strength of problem solving skills, Mike Kirsch is the candidate that will achieve targeted results!

Mike Kirsch has over 28 years of combined experience serving on the Morgan County plan commission, the Martinsville plan commission, the Martinsville BZA, and was chairman of the BZA for 9 years. His experience of working in planning and zoning has given him an understanding of how growth can put stress on not only county resources, but city, fire, and ambulance services as well.

Mike Kirsch believes in conservative values, smart growth through thoughtful design, and in placing the spotlight on Morgan County. Mike also believes that Morgan county offers many great assets for families, businesses and industries, and that by working together, we can get things right!

Now is the time to Choose! Vote Mike Kirsch. Morgan County Council at Large.
