Airtime: 11 PM

Topics: Best of 2021: Afghanistan withdrawal

Guests: John Rutherford US Congressman

Duration: 16:00

Summary: In this episode, I replayed a few short interviews I had from 2021. Congressman Rutherford talked about his viewpoint of the Afghanistan withdrawal. He had many different concerns about the withdrawal. He also says he is concerned with all of the military equipment that was left behind in Afghanistan.

Jax Journal

Host: Steven Ponson

Airdate: 1/15/2022

Airtime: 11 PM

Topics: Florida State Legislature preview/ Supreme Court vaccine mandate ruling

Guests: John Kennedy, reporter covering Tallahassee for the USA Today Network, Rick Mullaney Jacksonville University Public Policy Institute

Duration: 20:58

Summary: In this episode, Rich Jones talked with a few people who know politics in the state of Florida. John Kennedy says that congressional redistricting will take up a lot of time during the upcoming state legislative session. He says the budget and redistricting will be the two biggest issues during the session. He says Republicans are at an advantage when drawing these maps. He says its likely the newest US Congressional seat in Florida will be carved out somewhere in the Pasco County area. He went over some of the bills that have been proposed in the state legislature. He says he doesn't see any big losses for Governor Ron DeSantis. Rick talked about the Supreme Court blocking the Biden Administration's vaccine or test mandate. He says private businesses and other local governments can still move forward with vaccine mandates if they choose to. I also talked about the upcoming ECHL All Star game in Jacksonville that was scheduled for Monday.

Topics: Duval elections, IRS scams

Guests: Robert Phillips, Chief Elections Officer for Duval County, Special Agent Pat Brandon with the IRS

Duration: 25:53

Summary: In this episode, I talked with Robert Phillips about the upcoming elections this year and next. He says he's hoping to see higher turnout for the upcoming special election in February. He says the county will use something called Express Vote and it's a new ballot marking station that replaces the old voting terminals. It helps voters with disabilities. He says one of the biggest changes for election is now if someone wants to change something they have to be able to confirm their driver's license number. He says older voters might have issues with this change. He says Duval County is gonna have five elections over the next 14 months. I talked with Special Agent Pat Brandon and he talked about common scams people should be on the look out for. He says when finding a tax preparer, avoid ones that sound too good to be true. He says find ones that are open all year round. He says the IRS will not call you demanding payment those are scams. He says never provide your bank account number and other personal financial information.
