

WVUA-FM 90.7
Quarterly Issues List
January 1st, 2012 to March 31st 2012

I. ISSUES

WVUA-FM has identified the following issues as important to the Tuscaloosa community for this past quarter.

- A. Alabama Football wins its 14th National Championship
- B. Trayvon Martin Shooting
- C. Joe Paterno Dies
- D. Druid City Arts Festival

II. RESPONSIVE PROGRAMS

The station has broadcast programming dealing with such issues as the above-referenced issues. Programs that regularly deal with such issues are set out below.

- A. Alabama Football wins its 14th National Championship
 - Rock n' Jock, Tuesday January 10th from 6-8pm: Hosts Jordan Eichenblatt and Marc Torrance discuss Alabama's win over top ranked LSU in the Allstate BCS National Championship Game.
 - The Morning Drive, Wednesday, January 11th from 8am-10am: Hosts Chad Haynie, Marc Torrance and Josh Zavadil evaluate the Alabama Football team after their 14th National Title.
- B. Trayvon Martin Shooting
 - Wide World of Hip Hop, Thursday, March 22nd from 10pm-2am: Host Corey "D-Block" Dumas discusses the Florida Trayvon Martin shooting and the "Stand Your Ground" law.
- C. Joe Paterno Dies
 - The Morning Drive, Monday, January 23rd from 8am-10am-Hosts Chad Haynie, Marc Torrance and Josh Zavadil discussed Paterno's Legacy after he died overnight on January 22nd.
- D. Druid City Arts Festival
 - Druid City Rock Show, Tuesday, March 20th from 10pm-12am-Hosts Brittany Hollon and David Mitchell discuss the upcoming Druid City Arts Festival, an annual event from Creative Campus featuring Artists.