

KOPN Community Radio

401 Bernadette, Columbia, MO 65203

SIGNIFICANT TREATMENT OF COMMUNITY ISSUES

This is not an exhaustive list of KOPN community-oriented issue programming.

January 1st, 2023 to March 31st, 2023

Community Issue	Show/ Broadcast	Description	Date/Time	Length
Introducing a new Columbia city council candidate: Greg Busch	Evening Edition	Meet Greg Busch, 5th Ward candidate for City Council of Columbia, MO.	1/10/2023 6:00 PM	1
Honoring the legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.	Flight Risk	Music by Black musicians in service of peace, social justice, and Black liberation, including tracks by Charles Mingus, Nina Simone, Douglas Ewart, Mike Reed, Nicole Mitchell, Irreversible Entanglements, Pharoah Sanders, Julius Eastman, and Fred Anderson.	1/18/2023 12:00 AM	2
Discussion with April Ferrao, candidate for Columbia Public School Board	Evening Edition	Introduced candidate April Ferrao and learned about her platform and interests for the Columbia School Board.	1/31/2023 6:00 PM	1
Cadmium in Chocolate / COVID prevention	Food Sleuth	Addresses health effects and chemical content in locally available chocolates. Provides discussion on COVID prevention strategies	2/2/2023 5:00 PM	1
Discussion of "Forged in Missouri: Ulysses Grant & the Show-Me State." a Missouri Arts Council touring exhibit	Sunday Morning Coffee House	Interview with Greg Wolk of the Missouri Arts Council	2/12/2023 9:00 AM	3
Missouri Humanities Council touring exhibit	The So-Called Good Life	Touring Exhibit created and funded by Missouri Humanities, which has toured the state since April 27, 2022, the 200th anniversary of Grant's birth. Fifteen thousand people have viewed the exhibit. Some photos are attached just for your information. The exhibit will be displayed at Westminster	2/12/2023 4:00 PM	2

		College in Fulton from March 12 to March 30.
Non-profit pet care	The So-Called Good Life	Armani's Angels; a local non-profit organization that raises funds to assist with the cost of emergency treatment of ill or injured pets	2/17/2023 4:00 PM	2
Local school board candidate interview	Evening Edition/Meet April Ferrau	April Ferrau, candidate for Columbia Public School Board, discusses issues affecting students in Columbia Public schools.	2/28/2023 6:00 PM	1
Local arts in Columbia	The So-Called Good Life	Interview with Sharon Felton of Columbia Art League about local haiku exhibition and competition	3/10/2023 4:30 PM	2
Housing issues and the Columbia Housing Authority	Evening Edition	Randy Cole discusses options available from CHA, community needs for housing, and what lies ahead for the CHA.	3/14/2023 6:00 PM	1
Accessory Dwelling Units in Columbia MO	Evening Edition	Adrienne Stolwyck of Monarch Architecture on Sustainable ADUs: Architect Adrienne Stolwyck discusses housing regulations for ADUs (accessory dwelling units) and sustainable building practices like straw bale construction.	3/21/2023 6:00 PM	1
Homeless Issues in and around Columbia, MO	Evening Edition	COMO Mobile Aid Collective Fills in Gaps on Homelessness: An interview with Catherine Armbrust and Stephanie Joakum from Mobile Aid Collective on their efforts to ease the path to safety and sustenance for the local homeless community	3/28/2023 6:00 PM	1