

KOPN Community Radio

401 Bernadette, Columbia, MO 65203

SIGNIFICANT TREATMENT OF COMMUNITY ISSUES

This is not an exhaustive list of KOPN community-oriented issue programming.

April 1st, 2023 to June 30th, 2023

Community Issue	Show/ Broadcast	Description	Date/Time	Length
Missouri State Budget	Let's Learn More	Reviewing education and social programs funding in the MO State 23-24 budget	4/5/2023 5:00:00 PM	1
Local and state politics	Evening Edition/w/ guests Lyra Noce & Adrian Plank	Discussion on the latest session of the Missouri State House of Representatives and the upcoming speakers at the Boone County Democrats Barbecue and Stump Speech Picnic.	5/30/2023 6:00:00 PM	1
Understanding the Farm Bill	Farm and Fiddle	This was an interview with a black farmer that has gone to Washington DC twice to talk to lawmakers about the impact of the Farm Bill on underserved communities. One visit was on behalf of NAACP and Farm Action and the other was for Lincoln University, a historic black college.	5/31/2023 6:00:00 PM	1
Women's healthcare resources in Mid-Missouri	Evening Edition	Discussion of abortion rights and remedies in the current Missouri atmosphere. Missouri Family Health Council is expanding, ensuring, and empowering reproductive and sexual healthcare in Missouri. They have launched a new Free EC (Emergency Contraception) program.	6/6/2023 6:00PM	1
Underrepresented /traditional music and musicians	KOPN Soundstage	On the occasion of the 50th anniversary of KOPN's founding, a live concert was broadcast from the reunion including local musicians Chump Change, Dave and Erika Parra, and Lee Ruth, all	6/15/2023 3:00 PM	3

		longtime, local musicians
Discussing new laws and proposals with MO representative David Tyson-Smith	Let's Learn More	Andrew speaks with David Tyson-Smith, member of the Missouri house of representatives of the 46th district about emerging laws surrounding trans rights and the petition process for constitutional amendments	6/19/2023 5:00 PM	1
Discussion with MO representative Kathy Steinhoff	Let's Learn More	Andrew speaks with Kathy Steinhoff, 1st-time member of the Missouri house of representatives covering the 45th district, about her experience and legislative priorities	6/27/2023 5:00 PM	1