Title: Silent Sacrifice - Stories of Japanese American Incarceration
Length: 2 hours
Airdate: 1/7/23, 1:30am
Format: Documentary
Description: SILENT SACRIFICE - STORIES OF JAPANESE AMERICAN INCARCERATION illuminates a dark chapter in American history. In February 1942, just 10 weeks after the Japanese bombed Pearl Harbor, President Franklin D. Roosevelt signed Executive Order 9066, which authorized the removal of any or all people considered a threat to national security from designated military areas. SILENT SACRIFICE shares the experiences of Japanese Americans who were living in the San Joaquin Valley prior to Executive Order 9066. Interviewees discuss what drew them to the area, the businesses and farms their families established, and both the discrimination many faced in their adopted land as well as the friendships they formed. They then reveal the shock and confusion felt in the immediate aftermath of Pearl Harbor and the tragic and disorienting uprooting of lives as families were forced to abandon their homes and move into temporary assembly centers before being sent to permanent internment camps.

Airdate: 2/25/23, 2pm
Format: Lecture
Description: For more than 25 years, Brenda Watson - the "Diva of Digestion" and a naturally gifted teacher - has dedicated her life to helping people achieve vibrant health. Throughout her career, she has communicated a message of H.O.P.E. (High fiber, Omega 3s, Probiotics, Enzymes), helping tens of thousands of people transform their health and live a vital lifestyle. She has long advocated for simple, accessible changes people can make to improve their metabolic health and decrease their biological age and risk of chronic disease. Her formula for health and enhanced quality of life is now more important than ever, and her message will educate and empower viewers with information to make transformative changes. This program presents the new science supporting The H.O.P.E. Formula through entertaining and engaging storytelling, with visual examples (both on set and graphically) of the key components of the dietary approach. As a hybrid studio-documentary production, Brenda hosts segments on stage in front of a live audience, along with field interviews with other medical experts. Through enlightening research and inspiring success stories, this program offers H.O.P.E to viewers interested in utilizing dietary tools to realize true health and vitality.

Title: POV: I Didn't See You There
Length: 90 minutes
Airdate: 1/9/23, 10pm
Format: Documentary
Description: Spurred by the spectacle of a circus tent outside his Oakland apartment, a disabled filmmaker launches into a meditative journey exploring the history of freakdom, vision, and (in)visibility. Shot from director Reid Davenport's physical perspective - mounted to his wheelchair or handheld - "I Didn't See You There" serves as a clear rebuke to the norm of disabled people being seen and not heard. Also included is the short film "The Beautiful Colors of Jeremy Sicile" about a painter transcending his disability and communicating his dreams to others.

Title: Independent Lens: The Big Payback
Length: 90 minutes
Airdate: 1/21/23, 9pm
Format: Documentary
Description: Evanston, Illinois rookie Alderwoman Robin Rue Simmons led the passage of the first tax-funded reparations bill in U.S. history for Black Americans. What follows is grief and debate as she and her community struggle with the burden of making repair and restitution for its citizens, while a national racial and social crisis engulfs the country. Meanwhile, Texas Congresswoman Sheila Jackson Lee faces a 30-year battle to pass H.R. 40, a national bill to study reparations and make recommendations. Both women are met with racism and resistance, as well as help from allies and abolitionists within. Together, they pressure the government to deliver monetary justice and appropriate remedies for Black Americans harmed by centuries of chattel slavery, state-sponsored terrorism, systemic injustice, and corporate exploitation. Will the debt ever be addressed, or is it too late for a reparations movement to finally get the big payback?

Title: Independent Lens: The Picture Taker
Length: 90 minutes
Airdate: 1/30/23, 10pm
Format: Documentary
Description: The vibrant life of Ernest Withers was anything but black and white. Soldier, police officer, civil rights activist, and paid FBI informant. It's an unlikely resume for an African American photographer in the 1960s, but complex times spawn complicated stories. From his Memphis studio, Withers developed nearly 2 million images that came to illustrate America's civil rights stories. But perhaps the push and pull of history is best illuminated by Withers' lesser-known work, decades of secret FBI service uncovered only after his death. From the flashpoint of an American saga, The Picture Taker brings us a tale from in front of, and behind, the camera.

Title: Courage in Corsets: Winning the Vote in Washington State
Length: 1 hour
Airdate: 3/23/23, 7pm; 3/25/23, 3pm
Format: Documentary
Description: In November 1910, the voters of Washington State - all men at the time - voted overwhelmingly to give women the right to vote. The results of this election resonated across the country, rekindling the fire of earlier suffrage efforts and paving the way for other states to follow. For the next decade, this "awakening" took hold, state by state, until the 19th amendment to the U.S. Constitution was ratified. After a 70-year struggle, American women finally had the right to vote. Courage in Corsets: Winning the Vote in Washington State is the story of the women whose personal courage, political savvy and sheer tenacity won the vote for all women in Washington. It is the story of women of all races, creeds, and economic status who struggled together to improve the quality of life for themselves and their communities; who convinced men of the benefits of women's voting rights; and who brought new life to the national campaign. The story of these courageous women profoundly affects every woman in America today.
