

SCRIPPS BROADCASTING HOLDINGS LLC

WSFL-TV, Miami-Ft. Lauderdale

ISSUES & PROGRAMS LIST – 3rd QUARTER 2020

WSFL's obligation is to ascertain the important issues and needs of the communities within our broadcast coverage area and to provide quarterly reports on the station's responses and coverage of these issues.

The following list was determined after careful evaluation of information and communication with community leaders and local organizations. Below represents topics we have addressed during the previous quarter.

- Charity
- Community
- Economy/Finance
- Education
- Government/Political
- Health
- Social
- Technology

From July 1 through September 30, 2020, WSFL addressed the above community issues and needs through the following on-air programs and public service announcements, supplemental off-air outreach such as the station's on-line website and participation in community service events. The following summarizes a representative sample of programming that provided the most significant treatment of community issues during the past quarter. Programming frequently deals with more than one issue.

- WSFL's Inside South Florida – A comprehensive locally produced 30-minute Public Affairs show with local guest interviews covering important issues in their own communities. Inside South Florida airs on Saturday's 12:00pm, 7:00pm, and Sunday's 3:00pm.
- WSFL's The Rebound South Florida - a weekly 30-minute show aimed at helping viewers navigate through the Covid-19 pandemic. From getting back to work to making ends meet and managing the pressure, The Rebound will help South Floridians relieve some of the pressure as the country focuses on ways to revive. The Rebound South Florida airs on Thursday's 7:30pm and 10:00pm.
- Public Service Announcements

Program-Issues Report
WSFL-TV
3rd Quarter 2020

Descriptions of episodes and events which addressed public affairs issues of interest to the local community.

WSFL “Inside South Florida” – Hosts Melissa Marrero, Kirk Gimenez and Miriam Tapia
Sat 12n-12:30pm, 7-7:30pm and Sun 3-3:30pm

CHARITY:

Inside South Florida (#516) July 11 & 12, Length 2:30 –

No Kid Left Hungry. We interview organizers of a food drive for children at a local mall.

Inside South Florida (#516) July 11 & 12, Length 2:00 –

Meals on Wheels Pets. A non-profit organization helps feed the pets of elderly citizens in need.

Inside South Florida (#518) July 25 & 26, Length 2:30 –

Meals on Wheels. We feature a non-profit that helps to feed kids during the summer of Covid-19.

Inside South Florida (#518) July 25 & 26, Length 2:30 –

We feature the new community kitchen of Feeding South Florida, a non-profit, dedicated to ending hunger.

Inside South Florida (#519) August 1 & 2, Length 2:30 –

The local MLB team, the Marlins, donate meals to hospital workers who are on the frontlines of the Pandemic.

Inside South Florida (#521) August 15 & 16, Length 2:00 –

Meals on Wheels. We interview the officials of a non-profit regarding the extension of their summer kids program providing meals for needy children.

Inside South Florida (#522) August 22 & 23, Length 2:00 –

Make-A-Wish Foundation. A local Make-A-Wish child gets a shopping spree.

Inside South Florida (#522) August 22 & 23, Length 2:00 –

Meals on Wheels. We speak to Meals on Wheels officials regarding their fundraising campaign during Covid-19.

Inside South Florida (#524) September 5 & 6, Length 2:30 –

Cares Act Meals on Wheels. We interview officials at a non-profit as they get news of increased funding to help feed needy people who have been on a waiting list since the start of the Pandemic.

Inside South Florida (#525) September 12 & 13, Length 2:30 –

Zoo Miami, for the first time in its history, opens up for one person --- a Make-A-Wish little girl who's dream was to interact with the animals and the famed zoo PR man, Ron Magill.

Inside South Florida (#525) September 12 & 13, Length 2:00 –

We speak to city officials who helped launch this restaurant, Grove Stove, food delivery program for those in need.

Inside South Florida (#527) September 26 & 27, Length 2:00 –

We hear from a Make-A-Wish girl who got a golf cart to help her and her grandparents get around their community.

Inside South Florida (#527) September 26 & 27, Length 2:30 –

We interview a blind local man who says the Meals on Wheels Grocery Assistants treat him like family as they deliver food to his apartment.

COMMUNITY:

Inside South Florida (#516) July 11 & 12, Length 2:30 –

We interview two Girl Scouts who were honored for their exemplary work in the community helping young voters and the elderly.

Inside South Florida (#518) July 25 & 26, Length 2:30 –

We highlight a new Carpool Cinema in Wynwood offering safe entertainment options during Pandemic.

Inside South Florida (#518) July 25 & 26, Length 2:00 –

A local museum offers take home art kits to children stuck at home during Pandemic.

Inside South Florida (#519) August 1 & 2, Length 2:00 –

We interview a local restaurant that lets you send free fried cheese to family and friends during Covid-19 Isolation.

Inside South Florida (#519) August 1 & 2, Length 2:30 –

A local football team gets their championship rings during a drive-thru ceremony that was delayed due to Covid-19.

Inside South Florida (#520) August 8 & 9, Length 2:00 –

Local dads group holds a diaper donation drive at local mall to help parents struggling to pay for diapers during Covid-19.

Inside South Florida (#520) August 8 & 9, Length 2:00 –

We interview United Way officials as they distribute back to school backpacks and supplies to the children of military vets.

Inside South Florida (#520) August 8 & 9, Length 2:30 –

We interview Meals on Wheels officials to feature their catering menus that deliver weekly healthy meals to seniors and the public in general.

Inside South Florida (#524) September 5 & 6, Length 2:00 –

We interview a wife and husband team that opened a Food Service concept restaurant, MK Takeaways, offering pre-prepared meals for pickup.

ECONOMY/FINANCE:

Inside South Florida (#515) July 4 & 5, Length 2:30 –

We interview a black-owned company, Thynk Global, offering shared office space during the Pandemic.

Inside South Florida (#515) July 4 & 5, Length 2:00 –

We interview the chef of a Wynwood Restaurant, Dasher & Crank, pivoting during the Coronavirus.

Inside South Florida (#518) July 25 & 26, Length 2:00 –

We focus on a local town, City of Hollywood, that is looking to boost business and population despite Pandemic

Inside South Florida (#520) August 8 & 9, Length 2:30 –

Discount Mugs, a promotional company with national headquarters in Miami sponsors small businesses with grants to help small business owners during the Pandemic.

Inside South Florida (#523) August 29 & 30, Length 2:30 –

We interview officials from the Super Bowl LIV committee regarding their economic impact study following the Super Bowl in Miami.

Inside South Florida (#523) August 29 & 30, Length 2:00 –

We provide the best tips to keep your AC energy costs down during the hot summer months.

Inside South Florida (#524) September 5 & 6, Length 2:00 –

We interview a utility spokesperson from FPL on a new tech tool that tracks your energy use.

Inside South Florida (#526) September 19 & 20, Length 2:00 –

We provide the best tips to lower your energy use while spending more time at home during the Pandemic.

Inside South Florida (#526) September 19 & 20, Length 2:30 –

We speak to an insider regarding Unemployment Insurance Fraud during the Pandemic.

Inside South Florida (#527) September 26 & 27, Length 2:30 –

We speak to officials who organized a Practice Safe Sets program to entice film and TV productions to Miami during the Pandemic.

Inside South Florida (#527) September 26 & 27, Length 2:30 –

We interview officials from the City of Hollywood on their Attainable Housing Initiative to promote the development and expansion of quality housing options in the city.

Inside South Florida (#527) September 26 & 27, Length 2:00 –

We interview the CEO of Braddock USA which sells face masks and uses profits to donate masks to first responders, healthcare workers and the public in general.

EDUCATION:

Inside South Florida (#516) July 11 & 12, Length 2:30 –

We provide painting tips to homeowners looking to remodel during Pandemic.

Inside South Florida (#518) July 25 & 26, Length 2:30 –

We offer do it yourself tips on how to remodel your floors while you're stuck at home during Covid-19.

Inside South Florida (#518) July 25 & 26, Length 2:00 –

A local artist talks to us about his homemade comic book series, Mascara Fighters.

Inside South Florida (#519) August 1 & 2, Length 2:00 –

We provide the best lawncare tips for the summer.

Inside South Florida (#519) August 1 & 2, Length 2:00 –

Yoga Unite, a local yoga instructor shares her vision of uniting people despite the pandemic.

Inside South Florida (#520) August 8 & 9, Length 2:30 –

Children Services Council - We interview a local government agency dedicated to educating and helping children as they face the challenges of Covid-19.

Inside South Florida (#520) August 8 & 9, Length 2:00 –

We provide the best kitchen remodel tips to help you update your kitchen during Covid-19.

Inside South Florida (#521) August 15 & 20, Length 2:00 –

We interview a Terminex spokesperson for tips on how to tackle termite problems.

Inside South Florida (#522) August 22 & 23, Length 2:30 –

We interview Boys and Girls Club officials offering a new virtual learning program designed to help working parents who can't stay home with their children during the Pandemic.

Inside South Florida (#522) August 22 & 23, Length 2:30 –

We interview Miami-Dade College officials on how they're planning to reopen with new CDC guidelines.

Inside South Florida (#523) August 29 & 30, Length 2:30 –

KIPP Supply Drive - A local school holds a back-to-school supply drive.

HEALTH:

Inside South Florida (#516) July 11 & 12, Length 2:30 –

We interview Broward County Officials who launched a campaign focused on encouraging citizens to follow CDC guidelines during Covid-19.

Inside South Florida (#516) July 11 & 12, Length 2:00 –

We interview a local commissioner distributing face masks in Coconut Grove.

Inside South Florida (#516) July 11 & 12, Length 2:00 –

A local woman runs 150 miles to bring attention to mental health.

Inside South Florida (#517) July 18 & 19, Length 2:00 –

Pour Moi - We interview the founder of a cosmetic company offering climate-based creams.

Inside South Florida (#519) August 1 & 2, Length 2:30 –

Wynwood Blood Drive - A trendy part of town hosts a big blood drive as demand grows during Covid-19.

Inside South Florida (#520) August 8 & 9, Length 2:30 –

It's Ok Not to be Ok: We speak with the United Way regarding their mental health message during the Pandemic.

Inside South Florida (#521) August 15 & 20, Length 2:30 –

We interview hospital officials who worked together to form a coalition to bring a new PSA health message during Covid-19.

Inside South Florida (#522) August 22 & 23, Length 2:30 –

We speak to the CEO of YouTheory regarding the best supplements to take to boost your immunity during the Pandemic.

Inside South Florida (#522) August 22 & 23, Length 2:00 –

We feature a company that offers hygiene products for your pets during the Pandemic.

Inside South Florida (#523) August 29 & 30, Length 2:30 –

Hair Loss Awareness - We interview a local Dr. who focuses on increased hair loss due to stress from Covid-19.

Inside South Florida (#523) August 29 & 30, Length 2:30 –

We speak with a Dr. regarding a toning technique that eliminates fat.

Inside South Florida (#525) September 12 & 13, Length 2:30 –

We speak with a local family that developed pillows to help those suffering from Alzheimer's disease.

Inside South Florida (#525) September 12 & 13, Length 2:30 –

Childhood Cancer - We feature the Aflac Children's Cancer center.

Inside South Florida (#526) September 19 & 20, Length 2:30 –

We hear from a Miami man of Haitian decent who nearly died from Covid-19 and survived to tell his cautionary tale.

Inside South Florida (#527) September 26 & 27, Length 2:00 –

We hear from a lifestyle expert on meatless, plant-based protein options for your kitchen.

SOCIAL:

Inside South Florida (#516) July 11 & 12, Length 2:30 –

Kush Coconut Grove - We highlight a local restaurant that remains open offering takeout during Covid-19.

Inside South Florida (#518) July 25 & 26, Length 2:00 –

We interview a local chef who's offering lobster delivery as his company pivoted to survive the Pandemic.

Inside South Florida (#518) July 25 & 26, Length 2:00 –

I Am Man - We feature the artists behind a new mural in Miami focused on bringing to light the struggles of the black worker.

Inside South Florida (#519) August 1 & 2, Length 2:30 –

Grove Street Dining - We feature a local city that closed streets to allow for outdoor dining during the Pandemic.

Inside South Florida (#520) August 8 & 9, Length 2:30 –

Jaya at the Setai - We interview a chef at a local Miami Beach sushi restaurant that reinvented its menu during Covid-19.

Inside South Florida (#521) August 15 & 20, Length 2:30 –

Clear Kayak Miami Eco Adventures - We interview park officials to feature their new clear kayak tours focused on Eco tourism.

Inside South Florida (#521) August 15 & 20, Length 2:30 –

Project Power - We interview Joseph Gordon Levitt, one of the stars of the new Netflix movie.

Inside South Florida (#521) August 15 & 20, Length 2:00 –

Bakan - A local Mexican restaurant launches a new summer menu to enjoy during outdoor eating in Pandemic.

Inside South Florida (#521) August 15 & 20, Length 2:30 –

Boys State - We interview the film maker behind this documentary on a Political Camp for boys.

Inside South Florida (#522) August 22 & 23, Length 2:30 –

We interview a local family that returned to Disney for the first time after Covid-19.

Inside South Florida (#522) August 22 & 23, Length 2:00 –

Burlock - We feature a waterfront eatery with a new summer menu.

Inside South Florida (#523) August 29 & 30, Length 2:30 –

We preview the Video Music Awards that will make history as they air during the Pandemic and also for the first time on the CW.

Inside South Florida (#523) August 29 & 30, Length 2:30 –

We feature the new CDC Safety guidelines at Universal Studios Orlando as the theme park reopens after the shutdown.

Inside South Florida (#523) August 29 & 30, Length 2:30 –

Beehive - We feature a local eatery that offers healthy bowls with global ingredients.

Inside South Florida (#524) September 5 & 6, Length 2:00 –

We interview officials of a local museum that is one of the few sites around the country screening Tenet in its original format.

Inside South Florida (#524) September 5 & 6, Length 2:00 –

We interview the owner of an Everglades park regarding how they're following CDC guidelines during tours.

Inside South Florida (#524) September 5 & 6, Length 2:30 –

We interview a travel expert for insight on how to staycation during the Pandemic.

Inside South Florida (#524) September 5 & 6, Length 2:00 –

We interview a lifestyle expert for the best tips on how to BBQ safely during pandemic.

Inside South Florida (#525) September 12 & 13, Length 2:00 –

Osaka Nikkei - An upper scale restaurant offers dine out for the first time in response to Covid-19 -- a dine out Bento Box.

Inside South Florida (#526) September 19 & 20, Length 2:00 –

Stiltsville Fish Bart - We interview a local chef that will be taking part in a national BBQ food event that is going virtual because of the Pandemic.

Inside South Florida (#526) September 19 & 20, Length 2:00 –

Huracan - We interview the writer, film maker and star of this movie made in his hometown of Miami.

Inside South Florida (#526) September 19 & 20, Length 2:00 –

We speak to a chef who shows us how to level up fall favorite meals by using fresh produce.

Inside South Florida (#527) September 26 & 27, Length 2:30 –

Sala'o - We interview the chef of a famous Miami restaurant that features a new spin on Cuban cuisine.

TECHNOLOGY:

Inside South Florida (#516) July 11 & 12, Length 2:30 –

We interview a local company that is selling a new, state of the art camera that takes your temperature.

Inside South Florida (#523) August 29 & 30, Length 2:30 –

We provide some Tech help for parents getting ready for back to school virtual home schooling during the Pandemic.

Inside South Florida (#526) September 19 & 20, Length 2:30 –

Magic City Music Tour - We speak to the commissioner behind a fun virtual map tour of famous music locals in Miami.

Inside South Florida (#526) September 19 & 20, Length 2:30 –

We interview officials behind the workcation concept that allows people to work remotely from a local hotel, poolside or on a balcony with a view. It's a way to boost tourism during the pandemic.

Inside South Florida (#527) September 26 & 27, Length 2:30 –

Lutron Blinds - We hear from a blinds expert on the new wood smart blinds that feature high-tech and their own App.

WSFL “The Rebound South Florida” – Hosted by Melissa Marrero
Thursday’s 7:30-8pm and 10-10:30pm

CHARITY:

The Rebound South Florida - July 2, Length 2:00 –

Susan Fitzgerald (she receives shopping assistance from Meals on Wheels) & Vickie Ginton (Meals on Wheels). Story shows how Meals on Wheels Grocery Assistance Program works, and we hear from a woman who is grateful to have the program, or she wouldn't have groceries.

The Rebound South Florida - July 9, Length 2:00 –

Diana Bickston (depends on Meals on Wheels Programs) & Bob Mazal (started Meals for Pets program) & Mark Adler (Meals on Wheels Executive). Story describes Meals on Wheels Pet Food Assistance Program - which provides dog food for inbound seniors who can't afford to feed their pets. Story explains how the program works, and a woman who depends on it talks about how grateful she is that she doesn't have to share her food with her dog.

The Rebound South Florida - July 16, Length 2:00 –

Elizabeth Bitros (Meals on Wheels Volunteer) & Jose Diaz (Homebound Senior) & Mark Adler (Exec. Dir of Meals on Wheels). Story looks at Meals on Wheels Volunteers. With the Covid-19 pandemic, there's been an increased need from local seniors, who can't afford to buy food. Story highlights one volunteer - Elizabeth Bitros. She shares why she gives up her time every week to help someone in need.

The Rebound South Florida - July 23, Length 2:00 –

Michelle Powell (Broward County Library) & Mark Adler (Exec, Dir, Meals on Wheels South Florida). With schools and several summer camps closed, families are depending on food distributions to feed their children. To help with the growing need in South Florida, Meals on Wheels expanded their Break-Spot Program.

The Rebound South Florida – August 13, Length 2:00 –

Beryl Glansberg (receives meals) & Barbara Levin (Jewish Federation of Broward County). Meals on Wheels provide a lot of support for local seniors in need. The support typically includes friendly visits by volunteers and nutritious meals, which would not be possible without the help of donations from the community.

The Rebound South Florida - August 20, Length 2:00 –

Mark Adler (Exec. Dir, Meals on Wheels South Florida). The need for home delivered meals for home-bound seniors is increasing. Meals on Wheels is asking for the communities help to raise funds for needed nutritious meals. Story explains what viewers can do to help.

The Rebound South Florida - August 27, Length 2:00 –

Meals on wheels helps thousands of South Floridians -- story talks about what they do, and how viewers can help.

The Rebound South Florida - September 3, Length 2:00 –

Mark Adler (Exec. Dir, Meals on Wheels) & Charlotte Mather Taylor (Area Agency on Aging) & James Turnquest (Meals on Wheels Client). Due to the pandemic, hundreds of South Florida Seniors were put on a waiting list to get food from Meals on Wheels. Through the Cares Act, 300 people were taken off the list, and finally received meals.

The Rebound South Florida - September 3, Length 2:00 –

Azucena (grandmother) & Laverne (Mother) & Zoe Crego (Broward County Schools Dietician) & Selena (Mother). The pandemic changed the way kids in need get food -- story breaks down how one local school district is making sure those kids have meals to eat.

The Rebound South Florida - September 24, Length 2:00 –

Alex Frizzelle (Meals on Wheels Dietician) & Laurie Bonniwell (Meals on Wheels Client). Meals on Wheels provides meals for thousands of home-bound seniors in South Florida. Story details how a dietician works to make sure the meals are healthy & nutritious.

COMMUNITY:

The Rebound South Florida - July 2, Length 2:00 –

Maximo Fajardo (lost mother) & Genna Revitz (Vista Memorial Gardens Funeral Home). Story takes a look at how funeral homes are helping people grieve during pandemic.

The Rebound South Florida - July 2, Length 2:00 –

Vanessa Tello - Each week on the Rebound, we hear from someone, in their own words, telling us what they love about the community they live in. Vanessa Tello lives in Miami Lakes.

The Rebound South Florida - July 9, Length 2:00 –

Each week, we hear from a member of the community, in their own words, telling us what they love about the community they live in. Eileen Ochua lives in Hialeah.

The Rebound South Florida - July 16, Length 2:00 –

Each week, we hear from a member of the community, in their own words, describing why they love the community they live in. Javier Rodriguez lives in Kendall.

The Rebound South Florida - July 23, Length 2:00 –

Jamaal May (Albert Wilson Foundation) & Kirk Brown (CEO, Handy). Two non-profit organizations launched a series to support & help the Black community rebound during this pandemic. The series is called "Unspoken", it sheds a light and brings awareness to the not so obvious inequalities & injustices Black communities face every day.

The Rebound South Florida - July 23, Length 2:00 –

Each week on the Rebound, we ask someone to tell us, in their own words, why they love the community they live in. Fran Ortiz lives in Hollywood.

The Rebound South Florida - July 30, Length 2:00 –

Acacia Clark (Parent) & Chris Feudo (Employment Attorney). Story takes a look at parents' rights, if their kids test positive for Covid-19 & they can't go to work.

The Rebound South Florida - July 30, Length 2:00 –

Each week, we hear from a viewer, in their own words, tell us what they love about the community they live in. Isabella Obadia lives in Fort Lauderdale.

The Rebound South Florida - August 6, Length 2:00 –

Rev. Abner Noel (True Gospel Holiness Christian Center) & Antoine Adrian (Volunteer) & Karoll-Ann FanFan Georges (Taxfit, LLC). Local church holds a food drive to give back to members of the community in need.

The Rebound South Florida - August 13, Length 2:00 –

John Budensiek (Martin Co. Sheriff's Office). Story looks at what parents should do and whether they should leave their kids home alone. Many parents need to go to work and can't stay home with their kids while they're e-learning.

The Rebound South Florida - August 13, Length 2:00 –

Each week, we highlight a viewer, and let them tell us in their own words what they love about the community they live in. Sandy Dorsenville lives in Little Haiti.

The Rebound South Florida - August 20, Length 2:00 –

Each week, we hear from a resident who, in their own words, describes why they love the community they live in. David Matches lives in Brickell.

The Rebound South Florida - August 27, Length 2:00 –

Each week, we highlight someone from South Florida -- hearing in their own words why they love the community they live in. Chelsie lives in Pompano Beach.

The Rebound South Florida – September 3, Length 2:00 –

Each week, we hear from someone, in their own words, about what they love about the community they live in. Islebi Diaz lives in Coral Gables.

The Rebound South Florida – September 3, Length 2:00 –

Restaurants & Covid-19 - Pete Pergola (East Lake Cafe, Owner) & Geoff Luebekmann (FL Restaurant & Lodging Association). Keeping customers safe, story breaks down the extra steps some restaurants are taking as they serve food during the pandemic.

The Rebound South Florida – September 10, Length 2:00 –

Each week, we hear from a viewer, in their own words, describing what they love about the community they live in. Dan Arkin lives in Ft. Lauderdale.

The Rebound South Florida – September 17, Length 2:00 –

Each week, we hear from the viewer, telling us what they love about the community they live in. Zoe Haugen lives in Westin.

The Rebound South Florida – September 24, Length 2:00 –

Each week, we hear from someone who highlights and tells us what they love about the community they live in. Mia Lopez lives in Kendall.

The Rebound South Florida – September 24, Length 2:00 –

Hispanic Heritage Month - Katherine Leiva (Co-Founder, Fit Lit Camp) & Elvys Melo (former camper). WSFL-TV is celebrating Hispanic Heritage Month by highlighting the contributions Latinos are making in South Florida. This story features Katherine Leiva, a former teacher, whose made an impact on several children's lives.

ECONOMY/FINANCE:

The Rebound South Florida - July 2, Length 2:00 –

Congresswoman Louis Frankel & Dr. David Dean w/ Doctors Urgent Care. Federal lawmakers react to loophole that lets private insurers push back on paying for COVID-19 tests.

The Rebound South Florida - July 2, Length 2:00 –

Gaila Maria Anderson (Anderson Law Group) & Angela Saddler (Intern at Anderson Law Group). Rebound is committed to helping South Floridians get back to work. We featured Anderson Law group. They're hiring. Story talks about positions they're looking to fill and what the company has to offer.

The Rebound South Florida - July 9, Length 2:00 –

Richard Stanely (Florida resident waiting for unemployment) & Ty Benard (Started Facebook group for unemployed). Story discusses frustration from one man who has been waiting for weeks for his unemployment checks. He has now written a letter to the Governor, asking for something to be done.

The Rebound South Florida - July 9, Length 2:00 –

Erdem Mustafa (Mi9 Retail) & Charles Kaplan (Chief Revenue Officer at Mi9 Retail). Local software company is hiring. Story highlights Mi9 Retail in Miami and discusses the positions they're looking to fill.

The Rebound South Florida - July 9, Length 2:00 –

Trae Bodge (Shopping Expert). Story breaks down 5 money saving tips for consumers struggling during pandemic.

The Rebound South Florida - July 16, Length 2:00 –

Andrea Bopp Stark (National Consumer Law Center). Story helps people prepare for the debt they owe, as bills pile up due to Covid-19. Experts give viewers 3 steps they can take right now to make sure they prioritize their debt.

The Rebound South Florida - July 16, Length 2:00 –

Winyne Wilks (G4S Security). Each week, we highlight a company that's hiring to help South Floridians get back to work. G4S Security is hiring over 400 employees in South Florida.

The Rebound South Florida - July 16, Length 2:00 –

Mark Jackson (FBI Special Agent) & Vanessa Dickey (Victim of Identity Theft). With a record number of people out of work, the FBI is saying it's seeing a spike of identity theft at the state's unemployment office, and now they're sending out a new warning.

The Rebound South Florida - July 16, Length 2:00 –

Samella Watson (Founder & CEO, Sebiya) & Michelle White (AXS Law Group). Local law firm is giving back to the community during this tough time by offering free legal help to Black owned hospitality start-ups.

The Rebound South Florida - July 16, Length 2:00 –

Sarah Colhert (locked out of vacation rental). A "Girls trip" wound up being a bust, after a group of Florida women were locked out of their rental. They tried for months to get their money back, and our reporter stepped in to help them.

The Rebound South Florida - July 23, Length 2:00 –

Trey Price (Florida Housing Finance Corporation). Hundreds of thousands of South Floridians are struggling to pay rent. But without jobs, the rent can't get paid. Cares Act Funding for housing has been released. Story explains how it works, and how it will get out to those in need.

The Rebound South Florida - July 30, Length 2:00 –

Robin Taylor (Unemployed). As thousands of South Floridians are waiting for unemployment checks, we check in with one woman who hadn't received anything. She finally received her checks.

The Rebound South Florida - July 30, Length 2:00 –

David Landsberg (Goodwill South Florida) & Michael Louis McKenna (Works at Goodwill). Each week, we highlight a company that's hiring - to help South Floridians get back to work. Goodwill Industries of South Florida is hiring over 100 employees.

The Rebound South Florida - August 6, Length 2:00 –

Blair Heitmann (Linkedin). An expert from Linkedin gives advice on what you can do to stand out from other job applicants.

The Rebound South Florida - August 13, Length 2:00 –

Loreen Thomas (CEO/President LAT Service Group) & Abigail Georges (Account Tech). Each week, we highlight a South Florida company that's hiring to help people get back to work. This week we feature - LAT Service Group.

The Rebound South Florida - August 13, Length 2:00 –

Matt Ayotte (Waiting for Unemployment). Floridians are expressing concern over the unemployment website and the challenges they face. Thousands are still waiting for their unemployment checks.

The Rebound South Florida - August 20, Length 2:00 –

Chris Schonfield (City Furniture) & Donna Dobry (recent hire at City Furniture). City Furniture wants to put Floridians back to work. They're looking to hire hundreds of people. Story highlights the company and explains the positions they're looking for.

The Rebound South Florida - August 20, Length 2:00 –

Airbnb Changes - Ivory Council (Airbnb Host) & Kerri Post (Leon County Division of Tourism). The travel & tourism industry is working hard to rebound, especially here in Florida. Story takes a look at the changes Airbnb is making to protect families if they decide to take a vacation.

The Rebound South Florida - August 20, Length 2:00 –

Larry Thelmas (Florida Clear Energy) & Beatrice Louissaint (Florida State Minority Supplier Development Council). Hundreds of thousands of Florida business owners receive federal loans to survive the pandemic. But are all business owners getting the help they need? Story digs into the number of White Business owners who have received help compared to Black business owners.

The Rebound South Florida - August 27, Length 2:00 –

Anthony Perera (Air Pros AC) & Chris Strockis (Recent Hire). Each week, we highlight a company that's hiring. Air Pros Air Conditioning is looking to hire employees and they will provide a sign on bonus.

The Rebound South Florida – September 3, Length 2:00 –

Beatrice Louissaint (FS Minority Supplier Development Council) & Dedrick Asante Muhammand (NCRC Chief of Race). Hundreds of thousands of Florida businesses received federal loans to survive and rebound. But what about minority businesses? Story looks at what advocates are pushing for, especially if more help is needed.

The Rebound South Florida – September 3, Length 2:00 –

Olga Fields (District Leader) & Seth Gittlitz (CEO, Hair Cuttery Family of Brands). The Rebound is committed to helping South Florida residents get back to work. Each week, we feature a company that's hiring. This week -- the Hair Cuttery is hiring hundreds of people.

The Rebound South Florida – September 10, Length 2:00 –

Jennifer Austin (received extra money) & Sen. Jason Pizzo. Some Floridians need to pay the DEO back, because they were initially given too much money in their unemployment checks.

The Rebound South Florida – September 10, Length 2:00 –

Ray Berry (CEO, Health Business Solutions) & Tara Fayad (Executive Assist., Health Business Solutions). Each week, we highlight a local company that's hiring. Story breaks down the positions that Health Business Solutions is looking for.

The Rebound South Florida – September 17, Length 2:00 –

Dane Eagle (DEO Director) & Sen. Jason Pizzo (D - Miami). Florida's troubled unemployment system now has a new leader. This after hundreds of thousands of unemployed Floridians are waiting for their unemployment checks. The new head of the DEO talked about his plans to fix the system.

The Rebound South Florida – September 17, Length 2:00 –

Nina Olsen (Center of Taxpayers Rights). Five months after it started sending out stimulus checks, the IRS is still struggling to get everyone the Cares Act money they're entitled to. Story looks at what people can do if they're still waiting to get their check.

The Rebound South Florida – September 24, Length 2:00 –

Lori Edwards (Polk County Elections Supervisor). With 41 days until the election, most Florida counties still don't have their Federal Care Act dollars to protect poll workers and voters from Covid-19. Story looks at where the funds are.

The Rebound South Florida – September 24, Length 2:00 –

Mercy Cabrera (Co-owner, Las Madrinas Medical Center) & Odalys Arevalo (Co-Owner, Las Madrinas Medical Center) & Osvaldo Alvarez Lopez (Las Madrinas Medical Center). Each week, the Rebound highlights a local company that's hiring. This week - we feature Las Madrinas of Insurance.

EDUCATION:

The Rebound South Florida - July 9, Length 2:00 –

Michelle Dempsey (Parent) & Alberto Carvalho (Miami-Dade School Superintendent) & Robert Runcie (Broward Co. School Superintendent). Story focuses on what back to school will look like for students in both Miami-Dade & Broward Counties. Schools are still finalizing their back to school plans - Parents are expressing their concern about sending their children back to school.

The Rebound South Florida - July 23, Length 2:00 –

Lisa Kern (Pasco County Schools) & Laurie Combe (Nat'l Assoc. of School Nurses) & Katherine Burdge (Hillsborough County Schools). School nurses discuss their concerns over when students return to school, and how they will help keep track of COVID-19 cases.

The Rebound South Florida - July 23, Length 2:00 –

Angelica Hanon (Spanish & Art Teacher) & Bianca Bianchi Saven (OutSchool). Each week, we highlight a company that's hiring. "Outschool" - an online market resource for classes is hiring teachers.

The Rebound South Florida - July 23, Length 2:00 –

Logan Lewkow (Parent) & Shannon Colavekio (Florida Pre-Paid Spokesperson). The Florida Pre-Paid college board is helping families rebound by saving, but time is running out to take advantage of a special program.

The Rebound South Florida - July 30, Length 2:00 –

Sen. Jeff Brandes (R, Pinellas County) & Sen. Oscar Braynon (D, Miami Dade/Broward). With so many parents having questions about the new school year, some Florida politicians go on the record about their own school plans for their children amid the on-going pandemic.

The Rebound South Florida - July 30, Length 2:00 –

Janet Rinaldi (Parent). When teachers and families were thrust into e-learning at the end of last school year, many said it felt like a disaster. Now, they are looking ahead to the new school year, and trying to figure out how this will be different.

The Rebound South Florida - July 30, Length 2:00 –

Dr. Rebecca Plant (Pediatrician). Story looks at how parents can prepare their kids to wear masks all day if they are returning to the classroom.

The Rebound South Florida - August 6, Length 2:00 –

Maggie Hall (Pinellas Co. Health Dept.) & Clint Sperber (St. Lucie Co. Health Dept.) & Dr. Mona Mangat (Committee to Protect Medicare). Contact tracing is critical to stopping the spread of Covid-19. With the new school year right around the corner, what does contact tracing look like on school campuses?

The Rebound South Florida - August 6, Length 2:00 –

T'Challa Hutchison (Student) & Erica Green (Parent) & Sean Prospect (After School All Stars). "After School All-Stars" is a non-profit that provides free after-school programs for kids living in underserved areas. Despite the Coronavirus, they're still doing their part to make sure every kid's interest are supported. Story looks at how the program works, and how parents can get their kids involved.

The Rebound South Florida - August 6, Length 2:00 –

Tina Ratel (Parent) & Cecka Rose Green (Children's Home Society of Florida). When Covid-19 crisis forced students into distant learning, it led to an early start of the traditional "summer slide". But now, a group in Florida is working to close that gap with an on-line reading series.

The Rebound South Florida - August 13, Length 2:00 –

Susie Gilden (Mother) & Robert Runcie (Broward Co. School Superintendent). Broward County School Districts releases their back to school plan - with the start of the school year being virtual. Reaction from parents and a look at what e-learning will look like for students.

The Rebound South Florida - August 20, Length 2:00 –

Lisa Kurn (Pasco Co. School District). As students head back to Florida classrooms in the middle of a pandemic, school districts around the state are already dealing with questions about PPE (personal protective equipment), from needing more money to pay for it all, to the reality that demand could leave some campuses falling short.

The Rebound South Florida - August 27, Length 2:00 –

Supt. Addison Davis (Hillsborough County Schools) & Andrew Spar (Fl. Education Assoc.) & Jeremy Blythe (Pasco County Teacher). As more Florida schools reopen to students across the state, we wanted to know just how many Florida teachers are leaving the profession all together. Story breaks down retention rates.

The Rebound South Florida - September 3, Length 2:00 –

Luz Oquendo (Child has special needs) & Alicia Trembley (children have special needs). Parents of students with disabilities are losing home during the pandemic. Many of them feel like their kids are suffering because they're not getting the attention they need. Story looks at what advocates are pushing for, to make sure these students don't fall by the wayside.

The Rebound South Florida - September 10, Length 2:00 –

Joann Lopez (Parent) & Jeff Coleman (Brainleaf Technologies CEO) & Joey D'Leon (9-year-old). There's new hope for parents with kids who have trouble focusing. Story shows how a video game can get kids to focus.

The Rebound South Florida - September 17, Length 2:00 –

Naadirah Strong (8-year old girl) & Debbi Palmisano (Greater Horizons Academy) & Domonique Gause (Parent). There are so many children who need books right now. Story talks about the importance of literacy, and what viewers can do to give a local child a book.

GOVERNMENT/POLITICAL:

The Rebound South Florida - September 17, Length 2:00 –

Monica Elliott (Pres, League of Women Voters, Broward County) & Monica Skoko Rodriguez (Pres, League of Women Voters, Miami-Dade County). The deadline to register to vote is Oct. 5. WSFL partnered with the League of Women Voters in Broward and Miami-Dade Counties to make sure South Floridians have the information they need to cast their ballot.

The Rebound South Florida - September 24, Length 2:00 –

Lauren Gregorio (High School Junior) & Monica Skoko Rodriguez (Pres, League of Women Voters, Miami-Dade). As the country continues to rebound from the pandemic, many are wondering how Covid-19 will affect Election day. WSFL is partnering with the League of Women Voters to make sure viewers have what they need to cast their ballots. This story takes a look at one young girl's push to get her peers to register.

HEALTH:

The Rebound South Florida - July 9, Length 2:00 –

Rep. Shevrin Jones (D - Florida's 101st District). Florida lawmaker questions the state's contact tracing program after he's contracted by a tracer following his own battle with Covid-19. He's calling the state's program a joke.

The Rebound South Florida - July 9, Length 2:00 –

Marghi McClearn (Beyond Grace Instructor) & Veronica Catao (Florida Assistant Living Association) & Vicky Rose (Memory Disorder Clinic Coordinator). One Florida woman is on a mission to help seniors across the state by providing virtual dance classes. The idea of getting seniors to keep moving could help them in the fight against dementia.

The Rebound South Florida - July 16, Length 2:00 –

Dr. Jacqueline Evans (Florida International University) & Dwayne Bennett (waited 10 days for test results). Contact tracing efforts in Florida are facing yet another challenge. Coronavirus test results are slow to trickle in leaving potential spreaders out and in public for days, sometimes up to a week or more before they get their results. The problem is especially concerning if the person is asymptomatic.

The Rebound South Florida - July 23, Length 2:00 –

Kaye Hermanson (UC Davis Health) & Bob Ciampi (Social Worker). Covid fatigue is a real thing, and it's affecting millions of people. Story looks at what you can do to help manage the pressure and get through the pandemic.

The Rebound South Florida - July 30, Length 2:00 –

Dr. Georgette de Jesus (Psychiatrist) & Gabriella Carter (Student). The pandemic has brought about a lot of stress and change for families. Story looks at what parents can do to help their kids who are struggling.

The Rebound South Florida - August 6, Length 2:00 –

Janine Domingues (Psychologist) - Story looks at how e-learning can bring about anxiety, and depression for students who can't adjust to not socializing with their friends every day. Story looks at the top warning signs parents should pay attention to.

The Rebound South Florida - August 6, Length 2:00 –

Dr. Cathy Goldstein (Assoc. Professor of Neurology) & Dr. Jessica Nouhavandi (CEO, Honeybee Health). Being stuck at home with unusual schedules may be affecting your sleep. There is something called "Pandemic Induced Insomnia". Sleep experts give advice on how to start getting the rest you need.

The Rebound South Florida - August 13, Length 2:00 –

Penny Phillips (Mom lives in long term care center) & Brian Lee (Families for Better Care). It's been 5 months for Floridians waiting to see their loved ones in person at assisted living facilities & nursing homes. Story looks at where the state stands on re-opening long-term care centers & the guidelines viewers should know about.

The Rebound South Florida - August 20, Length 2:00 –

Marilyn Stephens (Assistant Regional Census Manager) & Sandra Bernard-Bastien (Children's Services Council of Broward County). Rebounding from the pandemic goes beyond what's happening right now. What will happen in the future is just as crucial. With the 2020 census underway, many are concerned the census will be discounted due to Covid-19.

The Rebound South Florida - August 27, Length 2:00 –

Rep. Anna Eskamani (D - Orlando) & Rebekah Jones (Website Developer). As more Florida schools reopen for in-person learning, the Dept. of Health still isn't publishing state-wide data on Covid-19 cases in districts. Story does some digging to find out why.

The Rebound South Florida - August 27, Length 2:00 –

Dr. Oz Interview. Dr. Oz is debuting on WSFL-TV, we talk to him about his upcoming season & his thoughts on the pandemic.

The Rebound South Florida - August 27, Length 2:00 –

Dr. John Scott (Vanderbilt University). Many people are delaying routine medical care during this pandemic. As Americans are avoiding the doctor, they're putting off breast, cervical and colon cancer screenings.

The Rebound South Florida - September 10, Length 2:00 –

Nursing Home Restrictions - Mary Daniel (Governor Task Force Member). Thousands of Florida families are feeling angry and disappointed because they can't get into nursing homes or living facilities to see their loved ones due to Covid-19. Story looks at the process, and when families can reunite with their loved ones.

The Rebound South Florida - September 10, Length 2:00 –

Erin Miller (Parent) & Dr. David Cano (Ophthalmologist). Some families are putting off eye exams over Covid-19 concerns. Doctor explains why it's more important now than ever to get your children's eyes checked.

The Rebound South Florida - September 10, Length 2:00 –

Mental Health - Alexandra Robbins (College Student) & Dr. Patricia Schutt (Psychologist). The Covid-19 pandemic could make college students more at risk for depression and anxiety. One student shares how she's managing the pressure.

The Rebound South Florida – September 17, Length 2:00 –

Managing the Pressure - Christina Curfman (choosing early retirement). The pandemic has cost millions of Americans their jobs, but for older workers, it's forced them to turn to retirement instead of going back to work. One teacher made the difficult decision of leaving her career and all the benefits she's taken decades to earn.

The Rebound South Florida – September 24, Length 2:00 –

School Contact Tracing - Dr. Frederick Southwick (Committee to Protect Medicare). Florida schools may not be counting every Coronavirus case in the school district data. We do a little digging to find out why some positive cases may not be part of the district's total.

TECHNOLOGY:

The Rebound South Florida - July 2, Length 2:00 –

Real Estate Changes - Stella Tornabene (Realtor) & Robin Daniels (Chief Marketing Officer of Matterport). Story shows how the pandemic is affecting the Real Estate industry and how realtors are using technology to sell and buy homes.

The Rebound South Florida - August 13, Length 2:00 –

Virtual Job Interviews - Chad Leibundguth (District Manager). With social distancing, many people are applying for jobs and having to do virtual job interviews. Experts give advice on how to prepare so you stand out and get the job.

The Rebound South Florida - August 27, Length 2:00 –

Virtual Job Interview - Jonathan Nugent (All Star Career Services). Simple tips you can do to make sure your virtual job interview is a success.