

"This Week in the Stateline" is our weekly Public Affairs Program that airs every Sunday from 6:00 am to 6:30 am, featuring a local host interviewing local guests about local topics of community interest.

2019 3rd Quarter

7/7/19 1st guests, Sara and Kristin from ByronFest to talk about the event. 2nd guest, Steve Haight from Circle of Change, Veterans Dog Program. They work with veterans with PTSD, traumatic brain injury, and other psychological disorders, through a program of dog handling and training.

7/14/19 1st guest, Karen Tilley talking about Alpine Kiwanis Brat Days. 2nd guest, Liz Kroening with Raising Men Lawn Care Service - they give back to the community through free lawn mowing for veterans, elderly, and disabled.

7/21/19 1st guest, Rick Durso talked about State Street Mile to benefit Rockford Sports Coalition. 2nd guests, group of people visited to talk about 1st annual "Cops, Cars, and Canines Car and Motorcycle Show" fundraising event.

7/28/19 1st guest, Pastor Alvin White with Empowering Word Christian Center and their "1000 Backpack Giveaway," collecting school supplies. 2nd guest, Michelle Tucker with 9th Annual Harlem Alumni Bash and their Toy Drive.

8/4/19 1st guest, Dr. Derek Prado with Boone County CASA, and their "Cars for CASA" car show to benefit abused and neglected children. 2nd guest, again welcoming Liz Kroening with Raising Men Lawn Care and their free community service providing lawn mowing for veterans, elderly, and disabled.

8/11/19 1st guest, Irene the "Polish Princess" talks about Polish Fest. 2nd guest, Kim Bakke with Rock River Valley Food Pantry talks about their "Round Up For Hunger" event.

8/18/19 1st guest, Janelle Suster with Carpenter's Place Outreach Center talks about their Homeless Benefit Luncheon. 2nd guest, again welcoming Pastor Alvin White with Empowering Word Christian Center to talk about school supply donations for their "1000 Backpack Giveaway."

8/25/19 1st guests, John Hood and Cynthia Knudsen with VFW Post 9759, about their Steak Fry fundraiser. 2nd guest, Danica Gray with Alzheimer's Association about the Walk to End Alzheimer's.

9/1/19 1st guest, Jesse Dornier of United Way Rock River Valley discusses the 2019 Labor Day Parade. 2nd guest, Patty Stadelman talks about Greek Fest and Greek Nationality in the Stateline. 3rd guests, Officer Duane Johnson and Kathy Hansen with Friends of Rockford Police K9 talk about the "In Dogs We Trust" fundraiser.

9/8/19 1st guests, Larry Muskat from Rock Valley Mustang Club and Bill Murcureio of BraveHearts talk about the Mustang Club Car Show to raise funds for BraveHearts Therapy for Vets. 2nd guests, Shannon Bell and other riders talk about the 2nd annual "Ease The Mind" Motorcycle Ride with Women in the Wind and Rockford VA Clinic, discussing fundraising to help veterans.

9/15/19 1st guest, Kyle Miller from Literacy Planet, about the word game "Word Mania" that people can download for free. 2nd guest, Sheryl Thogerson from the Literacy Council and their "Laughs for Literacy" fundraiser.

9/22/19 1st guest, Rebecca Quirk from Rockford Sustainability Summit discusses upcoming event in downtown Rockford that focuses on saving the environment. 2nd guest, Pam Osborne from Keep Northern Illinois Beautiful talks about their upcoming Clothing Drive and recycling center volunteer opportunities.

9/29/19 1st guests, Tammy Christiansen and Jacob Westendorf from Heartland Hospice discuss the Oct. 12th "Tribute Ride for Heroes" to benefit VetsRoll. 2nd guests, Kelli Ritschel and Brian Lingus from the Nikolas Ritschel Foundation (a non-profit charity organization that provides wishes for young adults ages 18-24 who are fighting cancer but have aged out of the Make-A-Wish program). They visited to talk about "Nik's Home Run" 7K Run and 1.5 mile walk, coming up on Oct. 12th.