Program Description: New Senate Republican Leader Robert Ortt joins us to discuss his plans for the new role, and the future of the Republican party. It was only 100 years ago that women won the right to vote in the U.S., with New York at the forefront of that moment. We'll have the first part of a three-part series on women's suffrage. Karen DeWitt from New York State Public Radio breaks down the news of the week.
