That can be hard enough, intense enough that the rest of the time they should get to have some fun and not feel like it's just a horrible place. HE SAYS A FOCUS ON MAKING TEENS FEEL BETTER ABOUT THEMSELVES WILL HELP THEM OVERCOME THEIR OBSTACLES AND LEAD TO MORE LASTING RESULTS. AND HE SAYS LOOK FOR A PROGRAM THAT ALSO HELPS TEACH PARENTS THE SKILLS THEY'LL NEED. 4:08 Let's learn together as a family. Teenagers really recover in the context of their family. The whole family needs to be able to make changes for them to really be able to change. If they stay in the same environment, they're going to stay in the same behaviors. A VARIETY OF OPTIONS ARE AVAILABLE. 5:47 Everything from just seeing a therapist, once or twice a month, individually or as a family, or we have afterschool programs where they can come in after school 3 hours 3 days a week. THERE ARE ALSO DAY TREATMENT PROGRAMS AND 24 HOUR CARE OPTIONS, AS WELL. 6:49 Getting a good assessment is the most important place to start. Let's figure out how severe it is. That's the idea behind The Point ... a city that right now doesn't exist. It will rise up soon halfway between Salt Lake City and Provo. Executive director Alan Matheson:Alan Matheson, Point of the Mountain State Land Authority 7:58 "You can walk from the center to any place on the site within 15 minutes. And you can access the things you need most in your day-to-day life." 1:01 "Essentially a blank slate of state-owned land we're going to turn into the city of the future ..."In this vision, the city of the future looks more like a small suburb. To hear Matheson and others tell it, 15-minute cities think far beyond. The Point is designed for families to need just one car. The development of Culdesac in Tempe, Arizona calls itself the "first car-free neighborhood built from scratch." This whole idea started bubbling two years ago in Paris, where the mayor ran on creating "la villedu quart d'heure" – the 15-minute city. But the larger trend isn't so clear.Jesse Keenan, Tulane University 7:27 "In the past 20-30 years, we've an increase of the number of municipalities grow by approximately 10,000."Jesse Keenan is a professor of real estate at Tulane. He says the idea of a 15-minute city depends on who's pitching it.Jesse Keenan, Tulane University 7:43 "What we see is more home rule or more desire for localized governance." 8:31 "As more cities split off, they control and really stop development because they don't want outsiders coming in."This aligns with a recent report that found more than 80% of America's metro areas have gotten more segregated in the last 30 years. Might 15-minute cities turn our circles into bubbles?Jesse Keenan, Tulane University 9:56 "I think it's very difficult to build this from scratch in a very isolated setting, because we do need a vast network of goods and services to keep cities going."Each of us has our circle – the people we see and places we go every day that form most of our experiences. The Point, Paris, even Culdesac Tempe have grand ideas. Who will embrace their circle?In Draper, Utah, I'm Matt Pearl.

Many of those issues have been addressed and we're excited the fences can come down and we can brainstorm and dream about how that building can become an activated space for the community.AMONG THE EARLY IDEAS..Jill 5:12 there's lots of things, like a festival street on 3rd south that dead ends at the riograndeDee 2:12 our summer market is in pioneer park, our winter market is traditionally in the Rio Grande Building, but because its under renovation, we're at the Gateway, but we hope to be back in that buildingDEE BREWER IS THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF THE DOWNTOWN ALLINACE.De 10:42 we've been producing the Farmer's Market for 30 years. The sales this year are higher than ever before.HE SAYS UTAH FARMERS AND SALT LAKE CONSUMERS ARE READY FOR A PERMANENT MARKETPLACE..ON A BIGGER SCALE.De 3:45 there would be additional infrastructure put in place. I'd refer you to Pike's Market in Seattle or Ferry Station in San Francisco, Grand Central in LAGateway 5:44 reimagining these spaces instead of tearing down these spaces is the way to go and build a solid foundation of our history and our future hereJACKLYN BRIGGS IS THE MARKETING DIRECTOR OF THE NEARBY GATEWAY...WHICH HAS A HISTORIC TRAIN DEPOT OF IT'S OWN..THE UNION PACIFIC..WHICH IS SET TO BECOME PART OF A NEW HOTELGateway 7:28 the historic portion of the building will be the lobby. Then there are 25 guest suites that are within the historic center and the new build will be the guest towers on the outside.SHE DOUBTS A SIMILAR PROJECT WOULD TAKE SHAPE AT THE RIO GRANDE..AND THINKS THE CITY WOULD BENEFIT MORE FROM OTHER USES.Gateway 4:32 I think a place where people can see art, see performances and really expand on the arts and culture heartbeat that is Salt Lake City===Dee 9:45 that building should be integrated with the surrounding neighborhoodTHE UNIVERSITY OF UTAH..WITH SUPPORT FROM SALT LAKE CITY'S REDEVELOPMENT AGENCY IS MAKING PLANS TO TRANSFORM THE TWO CITY BLOCKS INTO SOMETHING CALLED THE 'INNOVATION DISTRICT'..ESSENTIALLY BLENDING ACADEMIC..LIVING..AND COMMERICAL USES..BETWEEN THE RIO GRANDE TO THE EAST..AND THE INTERMODAL HUB TO THE WEST. Dee 5:58 you would need to have a neighborhood there, and we think a market would be a part of thatJill 6:13 we know in historic preservation circles that the best preservation tool is activation that a historic building is being used for it's highest and best use, and that's what we hope for this building.POSSIBILITIES AND PROPOSALS ARE EARLY STAGES..THERE ARE LIKELY OTHER IDEAS YET TO COME.ULTIMATELY, THE STATE -WHICH OWNS THE RIO GRANDE- WILL HAVE FINAL SAY ON WHAT HAPPENS Handy 7:35 I would think we're talking at least a minimum of a couple years. It's just how long these things take.NO SIG OUT-2022

SHE SPEEDS THROUGH THE DESERTED STREETS...LOOKING FOR THOSE WHO ARE STRANDED AND NEED HELP...SHE'S AGREED TO ADD NATALIIA'S MOTHER TO THE LIST... Clarissa Ward: So, Darya. Are you not afraid to this?"Darya, Volunteer: I'm afraid of course.// I don't have a child yet and I understand that I can help people."THEY REACH THE FIRST STOP... SHELLING CAN BE HEARD IN THE DISTANCE... AND THEY NEED TO MOVE QUICKLY... Clarissa Ward: "You can feel how this place is completely deserted. It's like a ghost town."IS THE OWNER HERE, THEY SHOUT... THE TEAM CONSULTS THEIR LIST TO CHECK THE ADDRESS... BUT NO ONE ANSWERS AND IT'S TIME TO MOVE ON... IN LESS THAN TWO WEEKS, DARYA HAS SEEN THE PLEASANT SUBURB OF KYIV WHERE SHE LIVES TURNED INTO A WAR ZONE... Clarissa Ward: "Does it make you angry?"Darya: "Yes, I am angry. I am angry to all Russian people. Because silence, it's also violence now. // You are with Ukraine or you are with Russia."WE RECOGNIZE THE NEXT STOP... IT'S THE ADDRESS WE'VE BEEN SEARCHING FOR... BUT THE FIRST GLANCE IS TROUBLING... Clarissa Ward: "So, this is the apartment complex where Nataliya has told us her mother lives. I am just a little bit concerned because I can see there's some damage up there- presumably from artillery."TEAM MEMBER ANTON ENTERS ONE OF THE BUILDINGS. WHO IS WAITING FOR EVACUATION, HE SHOUTS... BUT THERE IS NO REPLY... AND NATALIIA'S MOTHER IS NOWHERE TO BE SEEN... THERE IS JUST A HANDFUL OF PEOPLE STILL LIVING HERE... LUDMILLA AND HER HUSBAND TELL US THEY CHOP WOOD IN THE FOREST AND BURN IT TO STAY WARM... "So she's saying that there's no water, there's no gas, there's no electricity. They cook their meals out here on an open fire."YET THEY REFUSE TO LEAVE... "Where would we go? We don't have anywhere to go," SHE SAYS."Whether they kill us here or there doesn't matter. When will these monsters leave?"ACROSS THE ROAD, DARYA URGES ANOTHER COUPLE TO EVACUATE... BUT IT'S ANOTHER NO... THEY'VE MADE IT THIS FAR AND ARE WILLING TO SEE IT THROUGH... THE TEAM HAS FOUND ONE MAN, OLEG, WHO WANTS TO GET OUT... HE BUNDLES INTO THE IMPROVISED RESCUE VEHICLE... AND SETS OFF... BEYOND THE SMASHED WINDSCREEN LIES THE RELATIVE SAFETY OF KYIV'S CENTER... BACK AT THE BRIDGE, HE TELLS US ABOUT HIS ORDEAL... "It was an awful, frightening situation there, HE SAYS."They shelled us 24 hours a day."THE REST OF HIS FAMILY IS IN A CITY NOW HELD BY RUSSIAN FORCES IN THE SOUTH... "I don't where I live any more," HE SAYS, BEFORE BIDDING US GOOD BYE.IT'S TIME TO HEAD BACK... OUR MISSION UNFULFILLED... WE HAVEN'T FOUND NATHALIIA'S MOTHER... BUT AS WE GET CLOSER TO THE CITY CENTRE, OUR CELL PHONE SIGNAL RETURNS... Clarissa Ward: "So we've just had some great news from Nathalia, she tells me that a few hours ago her mother was successfully evacuated from Irpin by one of the volunteers."YET ANOTHER FAMILY SAVED BY ORDINARY CITIZENS DOING EXTRAORDINARY WORK...

This month their allocation has been cut to 45,000 gallons."> THE GOVERNMENT RATIONED GAS. PRICES SKYROCKETED.. CLOSE TO A DOLLAR A GALLON.<"It's hard on my customers and it's hard on my employees. They can only get ten gallons of gasoline at a certain time of day."> IT WAS THE WORST ENERGY CRISIS IN U.S. HISTORY. AND THERE ARE PARALLELS TO TODAY. BACK THEN.. THE CRISIS STARTED WITH A WAR IN THE MIDDLE EAST THAT PROMPTED AN EMBARGO.. DURING A PERIOD OF HIGH INFLATION. [Notes:DAVID VICTOR / UCSD SCHOOL OF GLOBAL POLICY AND STRATEGY] <"I think if there's any buffer between now and in the 1970s, it's not only do the oil markets function better today, but also our economies are much larger."> DAVID VICTOR IS AN ENERGY EXPERT AT U.C. SAN DIEGO. [Notes:DAVID VICTOR / UCSD SCHOOL OF GLOBAL POLICY AND STRATEGY] <"So as a fraction of the pocketbook, we're spending much less on energy than we were during the peak oil price periods of the 1970s."> HE SAYS THE U.S. DOESN'T RELY AS MUCH ON FOREIGN IMPORTS AS MUCH AS IT DID IN THE 1970'S. TODAY.. WE PRODUCES NEARLY 12 MILLION BARRELS A DAY DOMESTICALLY. BACK THEN.. WE ONLY GENERATED ABOUT EIGHT AND A HALF MILLION. AND HE SAYS RUSSIA IS A RELATIVELY MINOR PLAYER IN OUR OIL SUPPLY. LAST YEAR.. THEY ACCOUNTED FOR ABOUT THREE PERCENT. [Notes:DAVID VICTOR / UCSD SCHOOL OF GLOBAL POLICY AND STRATEGY] <"Most likely, we're going to replace it very quickly with Saudi crude. There are some other suppliers, Mexico, actually Venezuela. Some discussions about lowering sanctions on Venezuela, similar discussions in Libya, similar discussions in Iran, other places. There are a lot of places where we can get our oil and replace the Russian oil."> THAT'S WHY HE DOESN'T THINK WE'LL SEE A REPEAT OF THE GAS SHORTAGES OR RATIONING FROM THE 70'S.. ALTHOUGH WE ARE SEEING SIMILAR PRICE FLUCTUATIONS. HE SAYS WHAT MIGHT TRIGGER A 1970'S RE-DO.. IS IF EUROPEAN COUNTRIES FOLLOW AMERICA'S LEAD AND BAN RUSSIAN OIL AND GAS.THAT KIND OF MOVE WOULD DISRUPT ABOUT FIVE MILLION BARRELS OF OIL A DAY.. ROUGHLY THE SAME AMOUNT THAT SPARKED THE CRISES IN THE 1970'S.

[Notes:DAVID VICTOR / UCSD SCHOOL OF GLOBAL POLICY AND STRATEGY] <"So this is why the Europeans in particular are taking a very sophisticated approach to the sanctions here and they're wary about a move that would remove a huge fraction if not all the Russian oil from from the market because of that disruption.">BECAUSE THE 70S TAUGHT US THAT KIND OF AN OIL SHOCK... CAN TAKE A LONG TIME TO RECOVER FROM.

3-27-2022 9P MAKING RURAL ROADS SAFER FOR DRIVERS
[Anchor:ESTWICK] {PKG} BEHIND THE CITY SKYLINE AND PAST THE DROVES OF DOWNTOWN DWELLERS SIT AMERICA'S SECONDARY ROADS ... PATHWAYS THAT ENCOUNTER A LOT LESS TRAFFIC. THESE RURAL ROADS MAINTAIN A COMMONALITY ... THESE ARE SOME OF THE COUNTRY'S MOST DANGEROUS THOROUGHFARES... "Its almost like they're forgotten roads... like we'll get to it [TAKE PKG] when we get to it kinda thing" "South Carolina, unfortunately, leads the nation and highway fatalities, particularly on rural roads." PETE POORE WITH THE SOUTH CAROLINA DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION SAYS THE STATE HAS SWITCHED FOCUS TO TARGET RURAL ROADS... PEW RESEARCH FOUND THAT ALMOST HALF OF THE MORE THAN 36-THOUSAND U-S TRAFFIC FATALITIES HAPPEN ON THESE ROADS ... THIS AS ONLY 20 PERCENT OF AMERICANS LIVE IN RURAL AREAS. IN SOUTH CAROLINA, THE NUMBERS ARE EVEN WORSE... "Roughly 58 percent of our fatalities occur on rural roads." IT'S A STATISTIC MARY DEEE KNOWS ALL TOO WELL... HER HUSBAND LOST CONTROL OF HIS TRUCK ON A TWO WAY -TWO LANE ROAD IN LEXINGTON COUNTY , SOUTH CAROLINA BACK IN DECEMBER -- SHE SAYS TROOPERS TOLD HER IT LOOKS LIKE HE WAS ABLE TO GET THE TRUCK BACK UNDER CONTROL -- BUT THEN HE HIT A COVERED-UP PIPE... "when he hit the culvert with the right tire. It did stop the truck basically on that side, but snapped it to the left. he wasn't wearing a seatbelt." WHETHER OPERATOR ERROR OR ROAD CONDITIONS -- SOUTH CAROLINA HAS BEEN TRYING TO REDUCE THESE ROAD FATALITIES... IT STARTED IN 2017 WITH A SIMPLE QUESTION "where are the worst of the worst roads." WHILE MANY STATES ARE SLASHING GAS TAXES SOUTH CAROLINA STATE LEADERS DEVELOPED SEVERAL PROGRAMS USING FUNDING FROM GAS TAXES TO IMPROVE DRIVING CONDITIONS. "the program had a target of improving 1,000 miles of roads over a 10 year period, 100 miles per year, further to break it down into 10 mile increments." THIS LONG STRETCH OF BUMPY AND POTHOLE LADEN HIGHWAY OUTSIDE OF COLUMBIA --SOUTH CAROLINA GIVES A CLEAR PICTURE OF SOME OF THE PROBLEM SPOTS... The SC-DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION SAYS THIS ISNT A RUBBER STAMP APPROACH... ENGINEERS LOOK AT EACH 10 MILE SECTION OF ROAD ... AND START ASKING QUESTIONS... "What do we need to do here? Do we need to put up a guardrail? Do we need to clear some trees back? Do we need to put rumble strips on the side, the edges of the road, which will also require resurfacing the road?" THIS IS ONE OF THOSE SOLUTIONS UP CLOSE. THE STATE TRANSPORTATION DEPARTMENT SAYS CREWS LAY ASPHALT ON THE ROAD AND THEN PUNCH OUT THESE RIDGES . SO WHEN YOUR TIRES HIT THEM THEY MAKE A LOUD DISTINCTIVE SOUND. DRIVER ERROR IS OFTEN TO BLAME IN FATAL CRASHES-- FOR EXAMPLE , CELL PHONE USE , DRIVING DROWSY. AND DRUNK DRIVING "You know, drunken driving is a big problem," PROVEN SOLUTIONS INCLUDE ADDING A POLICE PRESENCE , ADJUSTING THE SPEED LIMITS AND ALLOWING POLICE TO PULL OVER DRIVERS WHO AREN'T WEARING SEAT BELTS. DEEE IS TAKING IT DAY BY DAY ... REMEMBERING THE GOOD TIMES AND SOMETIMES ASKING TOUGH QUESTIONS "Why did you leave me like this? You know? I know i am not going get no answer but at least i get it out.,," FOR THIS FAMILY, EVERY TIME THEY GET INTO A VEHICLE ITS A REMINDER OF THE FATHER, FRIEND, AND HUSBAND NOW GONE... THERE IS SOME RELIEF HOWEVER, IN KNOWING THAT THE ROADS AROUND HER MAY BE SAFER SOON... SC-DOT SAYS THEY'RE STILL IMPROVING ROADS . AS FAR AS IF THE PROGRAM IS WORKING -- THEY SAY TIME WILL TELL. TAMMY ESTWICK NEWSY COLUMBIA SOUTH CAROLINA.

[TAKE PKG] {PKG} [Anchor:LIACKO] <*nats*THE NEIGHBORHOOD HERE IS CHANGING..."It's a happy and sad feeling."NEW CONSTRUCTION IS REPLACING OLD HOUSING...BUT CHILDHOOD MEMORIES CAN'T BE BULLDOZED FOR LONG-TIME RESIDENT SELENA RAMIREZ."Growing up here was just so great. I grew up with lots of cultures, lots of different languages spoken...ours was just a very tight knit community."ALTHOUGH THOSE YEARS WERE HAPPY, THEY WEREN'T WITHOUT STRUGGLE.SHE AND HER FAMILY LIVED IN AFFORDABLE HOUSING IN DENVER'S SUN VALLEY NEIGHBORHOOD FOR 10 YEARS."We either had to go to Family Dollar or 7-Eleven, which isn't the healthiest options for food. And then they knocked down the Family Dollar. So then you're relying on 7-Eleven and you don't have transportation. you're surviving on like hot pockets."AS THE AFFORDABLE HOUSING HERE WAS REDEVELOPED, SELENA'S FAMILY WAS FORCED TO MOVE OUT OF THE AREA."It's really hard to live. Even in affordable housing, it's not easy to live."BUT, SHE WANTS TO MOVE BACK HERE AS SOON AS SHE CAN..."This is my community. I've lived here for 10 years. it's my heart."BECAUSE WITH THIS NEW AFFORDABLE HOUSING COMES A NEW TENANT IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD...A GROCERY STORE ON THE FIRST FLOOR."The first real priority was access to healthy and portable food. Other priorities included economic opportunities and employment opportunities."SELENA MANAGES IT."so here we have our produce section."IT PROVIDES JOBS...AND AFFORDABLE, FRESH FOOD."Our prices are important. We want to make sure that people come down and actually afford to, you know, shop here."FOOD THAT CATERES TO THE DIVERSE NEIGHBORHOOD."you don't find that in like Walmart, you would have to go to like an Asian market to find that."THIS SINGLE INFRASTRUCTURE INVESTMENT IS SOLVING SEVERAL PROBLEMS IN THE COMMUNITY."It's thinking about all the different elements of infrastructure. Providing spaces like this that bring food to the community, that provide economic opportunity. These are also critical to really creating an environment that people want to be living in and can sustain."ANNIE HANCOCK AND DAVID NISIVOCCIA SAY NOW IS THE TIME TO BUILD THESE ALL OVER THE COUNTRY."My first hope is that people see this as a bright example of what can be done, how a neighborhood can be transformed.""In the last year, the real estate price went up 20% for an average house, and in this year in 2022, they're projecting the same. Most people can't afford that, right. So the need is great."AS SELENA'S NEIGHBORHOOD TRANSFORMS TO MEET THE NEEDS OF HER COMMUNITY, SHE'S LEARNED THAT: CHANGE CAN BRING EVEN GREATER SUCCESS."Now that it's being developed, people are coming in and they're getting to see the beauty that we grew up with. They're getting to experience what we experienced, and we're getting to share our community with the world."I'M ALEXA LIACKO

But what if there was a way for those pictures you took to be preserved and last literally forever. From thrilling rides like Space Mountain and Expedition Everest to world-class entertainment, shows, and dining, the Disney Parks and Resorts are some of the best places to spend as a family. If you have ever wanted themes memories in the form of pictures to be preserved and actually be a part of American History, a new government program allows certain Disney Guests to do just that. According to a new program from the Smithsonian's National Museum of American History, the museum is looking for volunteers to offer up family photos of the Disney Parks and Resorts. Our team at the National Museum of American History is working on a future project, and we're looking for images that capture your experiences as guests at Disneyland and Walt Disney World. If you submit a photo and/or story, they might appear in the museum! What we're asking for: Photos of you, your friends, and your families at Disneyland or Walt Disney World and the story of what the photograph and visit mean to you. When was the visit, and with whom? What feelings did it evoke for you? We want to see photographs that show Disney Parks as you experienced them: posing with characters, kids worn out and sleeping, families, couples, individuals, people of all abilities, ethnicities, ages, on rides, eating together, looking at maps—everyday stuff! All decades and time periods, especially as Disney Parks change and evolve over time. We love candid and posed, even fingers on the lens are A-OK. We can crop photos for composition, so don't hold back on blurry or double-exposed photos. he website instructs willing volunteers to send their photos to NMAH-DisneyStories@si.edu with a few sentences about the photo and your Disney Park story along with your name. This is a great opportunity to not only preserve your family photos of the Disney Parks but your pictures could actually end up in the Smithsonian itself!

If you got a rapid test at five days, and it was negative, we weren't convinced that you weren't still transmissible." FAUCI says: " Why not test people at that time? I myself feel that that's a reasonable thing to do." NOW, THE ADMINISTRATION IS FLOATING MORE POSSIBLE POLICY CHANGES IN RESPONSE TO PUBLIC PRESSURE. FAUCI says: "There has been some concern about why we don't ask people at that five-day period to get tested. That is something that is now under consideration. The CDC is very well aware that there has been some pushback about that." AND THEN, THERE'S THE QUESTION OF HOW TO REQUIRE TESTING WHEN TESTS ARE SO HARD TO FIND, AND THE 500 MILLION PROMISED BY THE BIDEN ADMINISTRATION ARE NO CLOSER TO REACHING AMERICANS' DOORSTEPS WITH THE CONTRACT TO BUY THEM STILL IN THE WORKS, AND THE WEBSITE TO ORDER THEM NOT YET SET UP. [TAKE PKG] {PKG} [Anchor:GEORGIU] < [Notes:SOT] "And that's the way it is. Friday, March 6, 1981." [Notes:VO] JOURNALIST WALTER CRONKITE. ONCE NICKNAMED THE "MOST TRUSTED MAN IN AMERICA." FAST FORWARD TO TODAY --MISTRUST IS MORE COMMONLY ASSOCIATED WITH THOSE IN HIS POSITION. ACCORDING TO A RECENT POLL, JUST 24 PERCENT OF AMERICANS TRUST TV ANCHORS. JOURNALISTS AS A WHOLE DON'T RANK MUCH BETTER -- AT 26 PERCENT. SO, WHAT CHANGED? LET'S START BY UNDERSTANDING HOW TRUST WORKS. WE TRUST PEOPLE AND INSTITUTIONS WE'RE CLOSE TOO POLLING SHOWS AMERICANS HAVE MORE TRUST IN THEIR LOCAL GOVERNMENT THAN THEIR STATE GOVERNMENT, AND MORE TRUST IN THEIR STATE GOVERNMENT THAN THOSE AT THE FEDERAL LEVEL. THE MORE LOCAL, THE MORE TRUSTED. HE SAME GOES FOR NEWS. A KNIGHT FOUNDATION AND GALLUP POLL FOUND AMERICANS TRUST LOCAL NEWS MORE THAN NATIONAL NEWS. BUT RECENTLY -- AMERICANS ARE GETTING LESS LOCAL NEWS. ALMOST 18-HUNDRED NEWSPAPERS HAVE CLOSED SINCE 2004. THE RED AND YELLOW AREAS ON THIS MAP ARE COUNTIES WITH NONE, OR JUST ONE NEWSPAPER. AND LESS LOCAL NEWS MEANS A DISCONNECT BETWEEN MEDIA AND CONSUMERS. BUT TOO MUCH NEWS CAN BE A PROBLEM, TOO. WHILE PRINT NEWS HAS DROPPED OFF, OPTIONS FOR NEWS ON TV HAVE EXPLODED. [Notes:SOT] Hannity: "Now, breaking earlier, more really bad news for Americans." Lemon: "But the biggest story the one that everyone's talking about is full of unanswered questions." Maddow: "Here's one where you are not going to believe me." [Notes:VO] THE DAYS OF THE "BIG THREE" IN TV NEWS ARE GONE. THAT MEANS MORE NETWORKS COMPETING FOR EYEBALLS. THAT'S LED TO NETWORKS INCREASINGLY CATERING TO NICHE AUDIENCES -- CREATING A PARTISAN DIVIDE. LOOK AT THIS POLL FROM THE PEW RESEARCH CENTER. NEARLY EIGHT IN TEN DEMOCRATS SAY THEY HAVE A LOT OR SOME TRUST IN NATIONAL MEDIA. JUST 35 PERCENT OF REPUBLICANS AGREE. REPUBLICANS MISTRUST LOCAL NEWS MORE, TOO. BUT EACH IS MORE TRUSTING OF CERTAIN OUTLETS. TAKE THE NEW YORK TIMES, FOR EXAMPLE. 53 PERCENT OF DEMOCRATS TRUST IT, WHILE 6 PERCENT DON'T. 15 PERCENT OF REPUBLICANS TRUST THE TIMES, COMPARED TO 42 PERCENT WHO DON'T. THE NUMBERS FLIP FOR AN OUTLET LIKE FOX. 65 PERCENT OF REPUBLICANS TRUST IT. JUST 19 PERCENT DON'T. 23 PERCENT OF DEMOCRATS TRUST IT. 61 PERCENT DON'T. COUPLE PARTISAN DIVIDES WITH GROWING MISINFORMATION ONLINE AND ON SOCIAL MEDIA, AND IT CREATES AN ENVIRONMENT RIPE FOR MISTRUST. BUT FOR THOSE WHO FOLLOW MEDIA CLOSELY, THEY SAY IT'S A PROBLEM THE INDUSTRY IS WORKING TO FIX. LEE RAINIE (Rainy) -- FROM THE PEW RESEARCH CENTER -- OFFERS AN OPTIMISTIC VIEW. [Notes:SOT] "The charge to people who are in the thick of this new environment is to figure out how to help people find their way to the truth and not make it a hard job. RUSSIA[TAKE PKG] {PKG}<Donie O'Sullivan, Castletownbere, Ireland: "Here in Castletownbere fishing village at the southern tip of Ireland, fishermen have been making international headlines all week for standing up to Russia. They learned that the Russian Navy would be conducting military drills operations in the sea about 150 miles off the coast of Ireland here later this week. The fishermen were concerned about that because they said it would disrupt their livelihoods, it would disrupt the fish stock. And the fishermen told the Russian ambassador here in Ireland that they planned on going about their business, that they planned on continuing fishing even through these drills, The ambassador, the Russian ambassador, suggested that that would be unwise even dangerous for the fishermen to do that but a change in tone tonight from the Russian embassy, here's a statement that they put out saying in response to a request from the irishgovernment as well from the irish south and west fish producers organization that is the fishermen. The Ministry of Defense, Russian Ministry of Defense has made a decision as a gesture of goodwill to relocate the exercise by the Russian Navy planned for this week outside the irish exclusive economic zone with the aim not to hinder fishing activities by the irish vessels in the traditional fishing areas. What that means essentially, is that these Russian boats will be doing these exercises further away from the Irish coast. We were here speaking with fishermen all day and we were here when that news broke late on Saturday evening here in Ireland. And here was the reaction from one of the fishermen."Patrick Murphy, CEO, Irish South & West Fish Producers' Organisation: "Shocked really like I didn't think that little old us in the Irish south and west would have an impact on international diplomacy and and make make an impact like that."Donie O'Sullivan: "And so as you can hear their real win for David in this David versus Goliath story, obviously also the Russian embassy pointing out that the Irish government had approached them about moving. They're both further offshore. Donie O'Sullivan CNN, Castletownbere, Ireland.">

FAST FORWARD TO TODAY --MISTRUST IS MORE COMMONLY ASSOCIATED WITH THOSE IN HIS POSITION. ACCORDING TO A RECENT POLL, JUST 24 PERCENT OF AMERICANS TRUST TV ANCHORS. JOURNALISTS AS A WHOLE DON'T RANK MUCH BETTER -- AT 26 PERCENT. SO, WHAT CHANGED? LET'S START BY UNDERSTANDING HOW TRUST WORKS. WE TRUST PEOPLE AND INSTITUTIONS WE'RE CLOSE TOO POLLING SHOWS AMERICANS HAVE MORE TRUST IN THEIR LOCAL

GOVERNMENT THAN THEIR STATE GOVERNMENT, AND MORE TRUST IN THEIR STATE GOVERNMENT THAN THOSE AT THE FEDERAL LEVEL. THE MORE LOCAL, THE MORE TRUSTED. HE SAME GOES FOR NEWS. A KNIGHT FOUNDATION AND GALLUP POLL FOUND AMERICANS TRUST LOCAL NEWS MORE THAN NATIONAL NEWS. BUT RECENTLY -- AMERICANS ARE GETTING LESS LOCAL NEWS. ALMOST 18-HUNDRED NEWSPAPERS HAVE CLOSED SINCE 2004. THE RED AND YELLOW AREAS ON THIS MAP ARE COUNTIES WITH NONE, OR JUST ONE NEWSPAPER. AND LESS LOCAL NEWS MEANS A DISCONNECT BETWEEN MEDIA AND CONSUMERS. BUT TOO MUCH NEWS CAN BE A PROBLEM, TOO. WHILE PRINT NEWS HAS DROPPED OFF, OPTIONS FOR NEWS ON TV HAVE EXPLODED. [Notes:SOT] Hannity: "Now, breaking earlier, more really bad news for Americans." Lemon: "But the biggest story the one that everyone's talking about is full of unanswered questions." Maddow: "Here's one where you are not going to believe me." [Notes:VO] THE DAYS OF THE "BIG THREE" IN TV NEWS ARE GONE. THAT MEANS MORE NETWORKS COMPETING FOR EYEBALLS. THAT'S LED TO NETWORKS INCREASINGLY CATERING TO NICHE AUDIENCES -- CREATING A PARTISAN DIVIDE. LOOK AT THIS POLL FROM THE PEW RESEARCH CENTER. NEARLY EIGHT IN TEN DEMOCRATS SAY THEY HAVE A LOT OR SOME TRUST IN NATIONAL MEDIA. JUST 35 PERCENT OF REPUBLICANS AGREE. REPUBLICANS MISTRUST LOCAL NEWS MORE, TOO. BUT EACH IS MORE TRUSTING OF CERTAIN OUTLETS. TAKE THE NEW YORK TIMES, FOR EXAMPLE. 53 PERCENT OF DEMOCRATS TRUST IT, WHILE 6 PERCENT DON'T. 15 PERCENT OF REPUBLICANS TRUST THE TIMES, COMPARED TO 42 PERCENT WHO DON'T. THE NUMBERS FLIP FOR AN OUTLET LIKE FOX. 65 PERCENT OF REPUBLICANS TRUST IT. JUST 19 PERCENT DON'T. 23 PERCENT OF DEMOCRATS TRUST IT. 61 PERCENT DON'T. COUPLE PARTISAN DIVIDES WITH GROWING MISINFORMATION ONLINE AND ON SOCIAL MEDIA, AND IT CREATES AN ENVIRONMENT RIPE FOR MISTRUST. BUT FOR THOSE WHO FOLLOW MEDIA CLOSELY, THEY SAY IT'S A PROBLEM THE INDUSTRY IS WORKING TO FIX. LEE RAINIE (Rainy) -- FROM THE PEW RESEARCH CENTER -- OFFERS AN OPTIMISTIC VIEW. [Notes:SOT] "The charge to people who are in the thick of this new environment is to figure out how to help people find their way to the truth and not make it a hard job. Americans couldn't be clearer about that. They want to know what is going on, and they want help doing it and they are looking to journalists to help solve these problems." >

[ONCAM] [Anchor:JENNY] [JENNY]Super Bowl ... Saturday? That's what one high school student is hoping to achieve with a petition to move the NFL game from its traditional spot on Sunday. [TAKE VO] [VO]HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT FRANK IN FLORIDA has received more than 101,000 signatures since launching a Change.org petition to have the 2022 Super Bowl moved up a day.By moving one of the most-watched televised events of the year to a Saturday, Ruggeri believes NFL fans will benefit from having one more day out of the weekend to recover after the big game.Ruggeri's petition signers also couldn't agree more."It's about freakin time NFL did this, if they cant move to Saturday, at least make kickoff earlier," Scott Bodnar of Virginia wrote on the page."I'm tired of being exhausted after enjoying what are essentially national events," added Grant Freeman of Atlanta.According to CNN, there is a reason why the Super Bowl lands on a Sunday. The Sports Broadcasting Act, passed in 1961, set the NFL's broadcasting days to Sundays to protect college and high school football games, which typically are played on Friday and Saturday.But with the college football season ending weeks before the start of the Super Bowl, the NFL should technically be free to move the game if they choose to do."It will get more money and get more visitors to the game," Ruggeri, 18, argued in his petition, which he started two years ago. "NFL will get more television views because most government jobs have Sunday off. It will let more children enjoy their beloved game on TV or at venue. Most of the football playoff games are on Saturday anyway."RELATED: Red Cross to Giving Away Super Bowl 2022 Tickets in Exchange for Blood DonationsA January 2020 survey by fantasy sports company DraftKings found that nearly half of American sports fans would give up one of their work holidays to have the day after the Super Bowl free, according to the Associated Press.

Now, the president of Kazakhstan, Mr Tokayev, he had his pick for new Prime Minister approved by Kazakhstan's Parliament on Tuesday. At the same time, the authorities there also announced that the number of people detained in the wake of those protests had once again risen sharply. The authorities now saying that nearly 10,000 people have been detained and that number has been continuously, steeply rising over the past couple of days. The authorities also saying that more than 160 people were killed in those protests and the vast majority of those, more than 100 people in one town and that is the town of Almaty. That of course is also the place where we saw some of the worst violence as those protests were taking place, with rioters in the streets going into government buildings, but at the same time also Kazakhstani security forces on the ground there as well, sweeping those areas and in some places apparently opening fire as well. Meanwhile, the Kazakhstani government is saying that those international forces that they've called in of course led by Russian forces, that their mission has been completed and their withdrawal will start in two days. However, that withdrawal is going to take at least 10 days to complete if things go according to plan.">

And so the question is where will the institution of United States Senate stand?"SCHUMER: The threats of voter suppression are not false. They are dangerous. DEMOCRATIC LEADERS WANT TO CARVE OUT A BIG EXCEPTION TO THE SENATE'S FILBUSTER RULE TO ADDRESS VOTING RIGHTS. REPUBLICANS SAY THEY'RE TRYING TO RIDE ROUSHSHOD OVER A LONG STANDING SENATE PRECEDENT.MCCONNELL: They want to silence millions of Americans and take over the Senate so they can take over elections so they can take over America. BUT IT'S NOT JUST REPUBLICANS WHO MAY OPPOSE THE MOVE. MODERATE DEMOCRATIC SENATORS LIKE ARIZONA'S KYRSTENSINEMA AND JOE MANCHIN OF WEST VIRGINIA HAVE BEEN RELUCTANT... KNOWING ANY CHANGES THEY MAKE COULD COME BACK TO HAUNT THEM WHEN THE TABLES ARE TURNED.YORK: There are promises of total war in the future if this happens.BUT THE PRESIDENT IS UNDER A LOT OF PRESSURE TO DELIVER ON THIS. [Anchor:LUZADER] {LUZADER} [TAKE :TAKE PKG] {TAKE PKG} DEMOCRATS WILL SPEND MUCH OF THE DAY HERE TALKING ABOUT LAST YEAR'S ATTACK -- AND THEY HAVE THEIR SIGHTS SET ON THE FILIBUSTER. ONE YEAR SINCE PROTESTERS TRIED TO DISRUPT THE OFFICIAL CERTIFICATION OF THE 2020 PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION...DEMOCRATS WILL MARK THE DAY, AND TRY TO ADVANCE ONE OF THEIR BIGGEST PRIORITIES. IN PREPARED REMARKS, PRESIDENT BIDEN SAYS: "Are we going to be a nation where we allow partisan election officials to overturn the legally expressed will of the people?" <Jen Psaki / White House Press Secretary: "If necessary, he supports a rule change to uphold the sacred right of Americans to vote."> THAT MEANS TRYING TO CHANGE SENATE FILIBUSTER RULES TO ADVANCE A NEW VOTING LAW IN THE EVENLY DIVIDED SENATE THAT WOULD BRING ELECTIONS UNDER MORE FEDERAL CONTROL. <Sen. Chuck Schumer / (D-NY) Senate Majority Leader: "There is no better way to heal the damage of January 6th than to act so that our constitutional order is preserved for the future. We must do so by any means that we can, even if it means Democrats find alternate paths forward on our own."> IN THE PAST, SENATE MAJORITY LEADER CHUCK SCHUMER HAS OPPOSED CHANGING THE FILIBUSTER, WHICH GRANTS SOMETHING OF A VETO POWER TO THE MINORITY PARTY, AND REPUBLICANS OBJECT TO TYING IT TO THE CAPITOL ATTACK. <Sen. Mitch McConnell / (R-KY) Senate Minority Leader: "it is beyond distasteful for some of our colleagues to ham fisted invoked the January 6th anniversary to advance these aims."> BUT, AS ALWAYS, THIS ALL HINGES ON MODERATE DEMOCRATS, LIKE WEST VIRGINIA'S JOE MANCHIN, WHO HAS RESISTED EFFORTS TO CHANGE SENATE PRECEDENT. <Sen. Joe Manchin / (D) West Virginia: "So I'm talking, I'm not agreeing to any of this to the extent I want to talk and see all the options we have open."> THERE MAY BE AN EMERGING COMPROMISE, THOUGH, WITH SOME REPUBLICANS OPEN TO CHANGING THE PROCESS USED IN CONGRESS TO CERTIFY ELECTIONS.
