

WYJJ Quarterly Report of Compliancy Issues & Programs List 2021-Q3 (July - September) Hub City Now

DATE: Sunday, July 4, 2021

TIME: 6:15 a.m.

GUEST: Sarah Clayborne (World's Famous Pie Lady)

TOPIC: Re-aired interview for anniversary of the show. Also served as a tribute for the Clayborne, who died recently.

DATE: Sunday, July 11, 2021

TIME: 6:15 a.m.

GUEST: singer Zario

TOPIC: Zario's hit single, 'She Don't Know Love', debuted at #37 on the R&B charts at Mediabase. Listeners have heaped praises and rave reviews and are excited to hear more of what Zario has to offer.

Zario spoke about his hit song 'She Don't Know Love'. He also spoke about how the pandemic helped bring him back to his desire to write and perform music.

Zario also spoke about how much work he puts into his music, from writing the lyrics and arranging the instruments. He gave advice to those who are thinking about or actively pursuing a career in music.

DATE: Sunday, July 18, 2021

TIME: 6:15 a.m.

GUEST: Kayla Owens and Chad Graves, students in the Jackson-Madison County African American Chamber of Commerce's Follow Me Into Business program, and Don A. McCorry with the JMCAAC

TOPIC: Guests spoke about the Jackson Madison County African American Chamber of Commerce's program, why they joined and the experiences they've had.

¶

DATE: Sunday, July 25, 2021

TIME: 6:15 a.m.

GUEST: Coach Rodney Clark

TOPIC: Celebrated Clark's wedding anniversary with a re-airing of his interview and about the Haywood Crusaders.

DATE: Sunday, August 1, 2021

TIME: 6:15 a.m.

GUEST: Rochelle Walensky, CDC director, by way of audio news briefing

TOPIC: Walensky spoke about CDC recommendations and guidance concerning people who had been vaccinated against COVID-19.

DATE: Sunday, August 8, 2021

TIME: 6:15 a.m.

GUEST: City of Brownsville Mayor William “Bill” Rawls, Jr.

TOPIC: Rawls spoke about the many improvements and revitalization projects going on in and around the City of Brownsville.

DATE: Sunday, August 15, 2021

TIME: 6:15 a.m.

GUEST: Anthony Owens, owner of Country Boy Soul Food Kitchen and Catering

TOPIC: Owens spoke about moving from Detroit, Michigan to the West Tennessee area and running the Front Porch in Brownsville, Tenn.

Owens also spoke about his passion and love for cooking.

Owens shared advice for entrepreneurs and why being consistent and reliable are valuable tools to grow your business.

Owens also shared how his business continued to grow during the pandemic and God continued to open doors for him and his family.

DATE: Sunday, August 22, 2021

TIME: 6:15 a.m.

GUEST: Shelli King, TN Department of Treasury

TOPIC: King spoke about unclaimed property in Tennessee and how to claim it through the Treasury. I also featured the Jackson-Madison County Health Department’s media briefing for the week.

DATE: Sunday, August 29, 2021

TIME: 6:15 a.m.

GUEST: writer and composer Mehr Mansuri, co-composer & music historian Eric Dozier, and diversity & inclusion facilitator Dr. Michelle Chamblin

TOPIC: This is part one of a two-part special interview series on the acclaimed musical inspired by the true story of escaped 1850s slave Henry Brown. Brown, an 1850s enslaved Virginia man, shipped himself to freedom in a 2ftx3ft dry goods box. Henry was not only an abolitionist, but a performer, a musician and published author.

Mansuri, Dozier and Chamblin spoke about the award-winning Children's Theatre Company of New York, a non-profit 501c3 organization, and why the CTC New York Ensemble was presenting the musical across the world.

They also spoke about the importance of Henry Brown's story and how it relates to what has been going on in the world today.

DATE: Sunday, September 5, 2021

TIME: 6:15 a.m.

GUEST: principal actors: Paul Gee, Jef Canter and LaDawn Taylor of Henry Box Brown: A Musical Journey

TOPIC: This is part two of a two-part special interview series on the acclaimed musical inspired by the true story of escaped 1850s slave Henry Brown. Brown, an 1850s enslaved Virginia man, shipped himself to freedom in a 2ftx3ft dry goods box. Henry was not only an abolitionist, but a performer, a musician and published author.

Gee, Canter and Taylor spoke about the award-winning Children's Theatre Company of New York, a non-profit 501c3 organization, and why the CTC New York Ensemble was presenting the musical across the world.

They also spoke about the importance of Henry Brown's story and how it relates to what has been going on in the world today.

DATE: Sunday, September 12, 2021

TIME: 6:15 a.m.

GUEST: Re-airing of interview with principal actors: Paul Gee, Jef Canter and LaDawn Taylor of Henry Box Brown: A Musical Journey

TOPIC: (Host was out sick from COVID-19 and unable to record a show)

DATE: Sunday, September 19, 2021

TIME: 6:15 a.m.

GUEST: actor John Pollono

TOPIC: Re-aired past interview to coincide with release of Pollono's new film "Small Engine Repair."

DATE: Sunday, September 26, 2021

TIME: 6:15 a.m.

GUEST: singer Joe Little III, of music group Rude Boys, and Mr. C, creator of the Cha Cha Slide

TOPIC: Little spoke about his career and the 8th annual Old School BBQ Festival at Riverfront Park, Nashville, Tenn.