Date: APRIL 1, 21, JUNE 22 &amp; 30, 2009 ABC7 – Eyewitness News –SALES TAX INCREASE Time: 4:30-7:00AM, 11:00AM-12:00PM, 4:00-5:00PM, 6:00-6:30PM, 11:00-11:35PM Length: 22:20 MINUTES Origin: Local Type: News	Lisa Hernandez, Carlos Granda, Nannette Miranda, Leslie Miller and Robert Holguin report on the impact that California’s sales tax increase by 1% will have on local residents. Los Angeles City residents began to pay a 9.25% in taxes, while Pico Rivera pays a total of 10.25% in sales tax. The state legislature expects $12 billion in revenue from the new tax hike and a reduction in the current budget deficit. A half cent increase was later imposed in Los Angeles county to help pay for transportation projects and brought the sales tax to 9.75%. Lawmakers are also considering adding a ten cent tax to every alcoholic drink; the proposal would raise $1.5 billion each year.
Date: APRIL 1, 8, 15, 22, 23, MAY 1, 2, 4, 5,12,13 &amp; JUNE 10, 2009 ABC7 – Eyewitness News – HOME SALES Time: 4:30-7:00AM, 5:00-6:00PM, 11:00-11:35PM, 11:00AM-12:00PM Length: 42:10 MINUTES Origin: Local Type: News	John Gregory, John North, Miriam Hernandez, Amy Powell, Melissa MacBride, Rob McMillan, Leslie Miller, Lisa Hernandez, Leanne Suter, Nannette Miranda and Leo Stallworth report that foreclosure re-sales account for half of current home sales in Southern California. First time home buyers are taking advantage of a California housing program that gives a $10,000 state tax credit for purchasing a brand new home. Home prices in Southern California continue to fall. In areas like the Antelope Valley, Riverside and San Bernardino counties prices have dropped to their lowest level in twenty years. The drop in home prices is attributed to the highest level of home foreclosures seen in years because of the recession.
Date: APRIL 1, 2009 ABC7 – Eyewitness News –OC KIDS CENTER Time: 4:00-5:00PM Length: 2:00 Origin: Local Type: News	Eileen Frere reports the Santa Ana Police Athletics and Activities League and a child center sponsored by its crime prevention program was in jeopardy of being shutdown because of budget cut but will now receive a $400,000 grant and remain open. The center provides the city’s youth with afterschool activities to help deter crime.
